Celebrating the arts, Lynn style!

April 25 & 26, 2019

Keith C. and Elaine Johnson Wold Performing Arts Center
It is with great joy that I welcome you to Celebration of the Arts 2019! In our eighth year, we have exciting additions to our event. This is the first year we are presenting the show for two nights! On Thursday, we are open to the public and will be having our first ever Alumni Event and Drama Admission Event at Celebration of the Arts. On Friday, we continue our traditions and are thrilled to present Celebration Unplugged, Celebration Gallery, Celebration Circle, and our final performance of Celebration 2019. This academic year, we welcomed the inaugural class to the B.F.A. in Drama here at Lynn University. It has been a very successful year, and you will have the pleasure of seeing half of them on stage while the other half is running crew backstage.

Every year, I look forward to the fall to see who we have returning to audition as well as seeing our new Celebration members. The show you are about to see began its process over the summer as lists were created for possible song ideas. Auditions were held in September, and callbacks followed in October. By November, the songs were selected and the performers were cast in numbers all in time to create their spring schedules. Since the start of the spring term, we have been rehearsing daily and we cannot wait for you to see what we have prepared for you.

What I love about Celebration of the Arts is that everyone—from the performers in Celebration Unplugged, to the artists in the Celebration Lobby, to the musicians, dancers, and singers on stage—is a Lynn University student, faculty, staff, or alumnus. Celebration of the Arts creates an opportunity for us all to come together to share and appreciate our talents with each other and with you tonight.

Thank you to all who have contributed to Celebration of the Arts this year. Every year we grow, and every year we get bigger and better! I would like to give a very special thank you to Dr. Gregg Cox and Dr. Katrina Carter-Tellison for their continuous support of the event. This show would not be possible without my creative team: Adam Simpson and Timea Varga, who have both worked on all eight Celebration of the Arts productions. Back for the second year, I would like to thank The Wick Theatre and family who generously helped to costume our show again. Lastly, I would like to thank this amazing cast. We have had so much fun all semester working non-stop to present you this high-energy performance. To my seniors who are graduating this year: You all embody Celebration. We will miss you next year! Remember you are always welcome back! Please enjoy the show and we hope to see you again next year.

Kind regards,

Carrie Simpson
Creative Director, Celebration of the Arts

*The show will run 1 hour and 30 minutes with no intermission.
