

THE SANCTUARY SERIES

Welcome to the Snyder Sanctuary. We are delighted to have you here for our newly established Sanctuary Series -- an evening of Chamber Music and Poetry, in collaboration with our Conservatory of Music, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn College of International Communication.

The Snyder Sanctuary is designed as a place for the celebration and expression of the human spirit, in all its rich diversity, where the arts, religious voice, and exploration of the mind can come together to discover the tapestry of our humanity as one global family. As with the walls of this space leaning-in on each other, so it is that we find strength in our encounter with one another; we become and embody the unity that is ours at Lynn, for the well-being of the world.

Tonight, as you hear the beauty of the music and the poetry, may your hearts be enriched to go forth and bear glad tidings, that the human spirit is alive and eager to be celebrated.

Again, a warm welcome to all.

Dr. Mark David Luttio, Ph.D.
Council Administrator
The Snyder Sanctuary

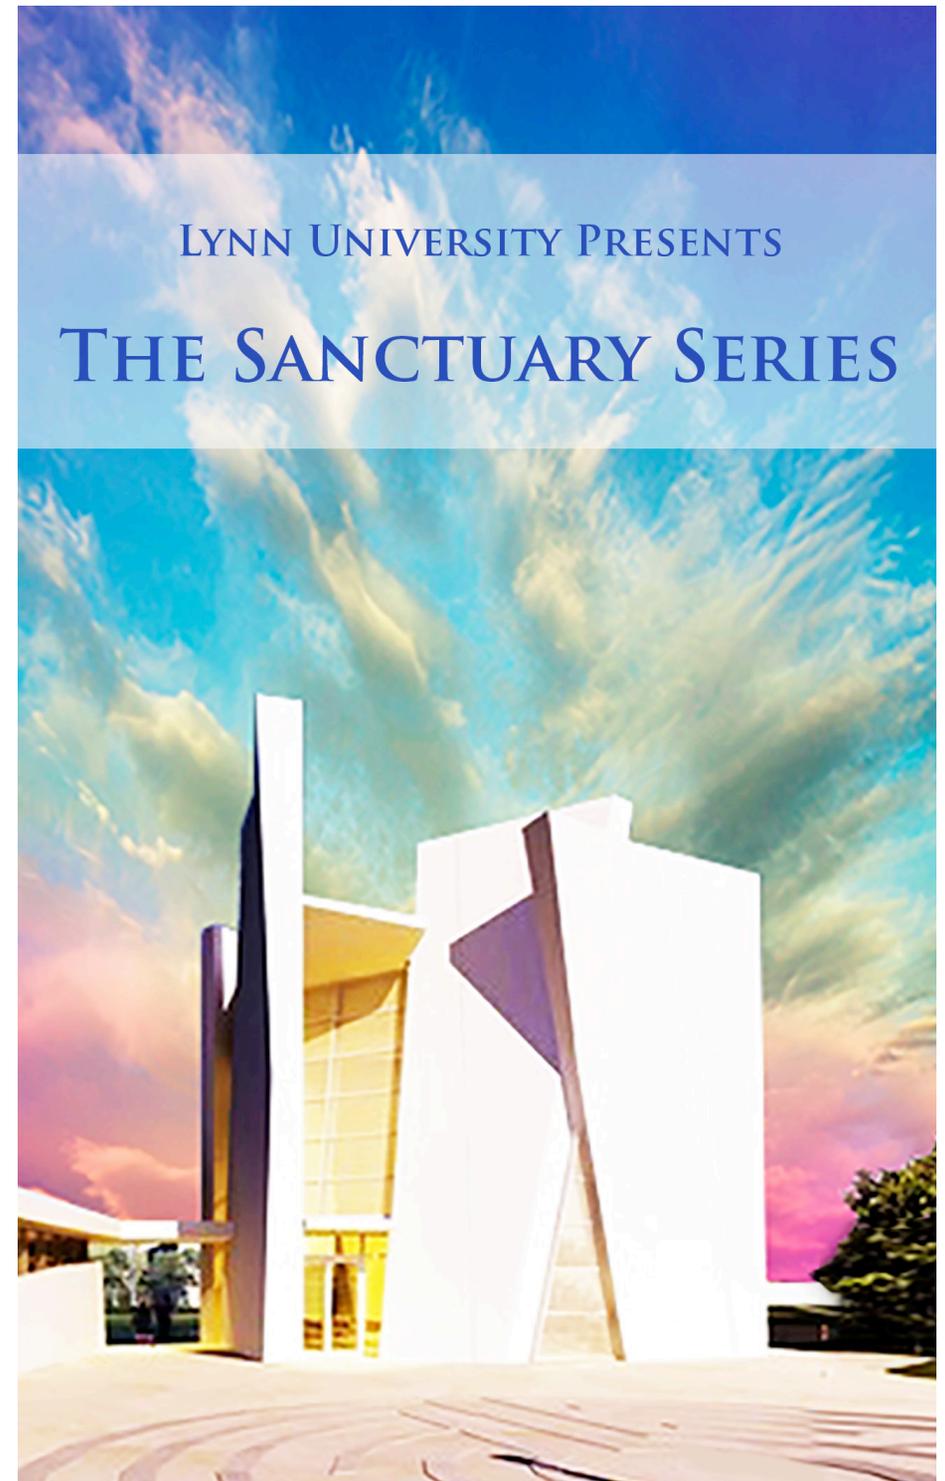

Special Thanks

We have some very special people to thank. Let me first thank you. Your attendance is important to this series, your patronage keeps the music alive. We have 5 more programs coming up over the next 6 months and you can get tickets to the upcoming dates through the box office by calling 561-237-9000. Our Box office staff is integral to the success of our program and they will assist you in any way they can. We also stream this series live on the Web and we thank Andy Vermes and the Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn College of International Communication for making that possible. You can view the series on line at any time at
