Mostly Music is a unique concert series that better acquaints audiences not only with the music, but also with the lives and artistic development of the Western world’s great composers. Felix Mendelssohn was born just 18 years after Mozart’s death and like Mozart, he would have a very short life, dying at 38. In addition to his brilliant musical creativity he was a wonderful correspondent, writing about his visits with such people as Queen Victoria and Goethe. These great works will be performed by the conservatory faculty.

Time: Sat: 7:30 p.m. & Sun: 4 p.m.  Location: Amarnick-Goldstein Concert Hall  Tickets: $25
