

Welcome to the 2013-2014 season. As dean of the Conservatory of Music, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity.

— Jon Robertson, Dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music raise significant funds for the conservatory through annual giving and special events. This dedicated group provides financial resources for annual and endowed scholarships and other conservatory needs.

By becoming a Friend, you provide financial support through endowed scholarships for talented and deserving students; or, you can designate your donation for the Conservatory of Music to use where the need is greatest. Because of your gifts, students at Lynn will have opportunities to become noted performers, composers and educators.

By enjoying outstanding music, the Friends of the Conservatory also have the pleasure of associating with others who share their enthusiasm for the conservatory and its mission. The Friends gather through the year for meetings and an annual tea. Musical programs are provided by the faculty and students for these special events.

THE LEADERSHIP SOCIETY OF LYNN UNIVERSITY

With an annual gift of $2,500 or more during the fiscal year, July 1 to June 30, you will be recognized in The Leadership Society of Lynn University. This premier annual giving society honors donors who recognize the significant impact leadership gifts have in sustaining the excellence of conservatory programs.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciate stock, real estate, bequests and/or planned gifts.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, please call the development office at 561-237-7745.

A native of Davidson, North Carolina, oboist Kelsey Maiorano first indulged in the arts in the forms of ballet, singing, acting and piano. Her fascination with the orchestra lead her to the oboe, and Kelsey became principal oboe in her first orchestra at thirteen, a local university orchestra. The next year, Kelsey was accepted into the conservatory of music at the University of North Carolina School of the Arts (UNCSA) where she was actively involved in its prestigious chamber music program, as well as the symphony orchestra, wind ensemble, and the AJ Fletcher Opera Institute. A defining moment in her UNCSA experience was a performance of Rimsky-Korsakov's Sheherazade, where her solo was lauded as "a highlight of the second movement" by CVNC, an online arts journal based in North Carolina. After receiving her UNCSA high school diploma "with special concentration in oboe", Kelsey relocated to Boca Raton, Florida to study with Joseph Robinson at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music. Kelsey has collaborated with musicians throughout the Americas, performing in a chamber setting at the Domaine Forget international music festival in Québec, Canada as well as teaching and giving master classes in Manizales, Colombia. In 2010 she recorded Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker under the baton of the American Ballet Theater's principal conductor, Charles Barker;
