Friends of the
CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Sixth Annual Scholarship Fund Concert

*Royal Palm
Yacht & Country Club*

6:15 p.m.

Wednesday, Feb. 1, 2012

This evening is produced by Lynn University's Friends of the Conservatory of Music.

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer organization formed to promote high quality performance education for exceptionally talented young musicians. For some students, meeting the costs associated with a first-rate music performance education can be highly challenging. This dedicated group provides financial support for many annual and endowed scholarships.

Since its establishment in 2003, the Friends has raised significant funds through annual gifts and special events. Tonight's outreach concert is chief among them. Please join us in furthering excellence at the conservatory and allowing the students to follow their dream of making music their life's work. Becoming a Friend has many benefits such as three free concerts per year.

Jon Robertson, dean

Maestro Jon Robertson, dean of the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, enjoys a distinguished career as a pianist, conductor and academician. A graduate of The Juilliard School of Music, he studied piano performance under Beveridge Webster, choral conducting with Abraham

Kaplan at Juilliard, orchestral conducting with Richard Pittman of the New England Conservatory of Music, and Herbert Blomstedt, former director of the Gewandhaus Orchestra (Germany). His conducting career spans the globe from symphony orchestras in Norway, China, Egypt, South Africa and Austria to the Redlands Symphony Orchestra in California, where he has been principal conductor since 1982. Robertson continues to guest-conduct and perform in concert as a member of the Cole-Robertson Trio.

Unauthorized recordings or photography is strictly prohibited.

About the performers

ANDREW ANGELIN, double bass

Born in New York City and raised in New Jersey, Andrew Angelin has enjoyed an exciting career as both contemporary and classical bassist. His performance credits range from the Vans Warped Tour to Carnegie Hall and his recording credits include Sony Music Studios, Magic Shop Studios and Portrait Studios. In 2008 Andrew earned his Bachelor of Music degree at Rutgers University-Mason Gross School of the Arts, studying under Tim Cobb, principal double bassist, Metropolitan Opera. Currently Andrew is pursuing his Master of Music degree at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, continuing with Tim Cobb.

DELCHO TENEV, violin

Delcho began his music education in the Dobrin Petkov School in his home town of Plovdiv, Bulgaria. He later attended the Idyllwild Arts Academy and Indiana University. He has participated in several prestigious music festivals such as the Round Top International Music Festival in Texas, Spoleto Festival in South Carolina and Castleton Music Festival in Virginia. Delcho has appeared in numerous master classes and has collaborated with important music persons, most recently with the world renowned violinist Elmar Oliveira. Currently, Delcho is pursuing his master's degree at Lynn University in the class of Carol Cole.

ANASTASIYA TIMOFEEVA, piano

Anastasiya started her musical studies at the age of 4. She was accepted into Voronezh State Music College, a music institute for gifted youth in Voronezh, Russia. During her studies there, Anastasiya took part in various concerts and international competitions. She was the winner of many awards: the Finalist Diploma of the fifth LISMA International Music Competition in New York in 2008, the Certificate of Achievement in Ars Flores Young Artists Concerto Competition in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., in 2010. This year she won the Lynn University Concerto Competition. She is currently pursuing her master's degree with Roberta Rust.

DARREN MATIAS, piano

A native of Tarlac, Philippines, Darren received his Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Santo Tomas Conservatory of Music. A sought-after soloist, he has performed with orchestras such as the Philippine Philharmonic, the Summit Music Festival and the UST Symphony Orchestras. Darren was the recipient of many awards such as the prestigious Benavides Outstanding Achievement Award and the Presidential Medal on Culture and Arts. He won first prize at the Wideman Piano Competition, National Music Competition and others. He is currently a graduate student at Lynn University under the acclaimed pianist Roberta Rust.

MARINA LENAU, violin

Marina completed secondary education in the Lysenko Music School for Gifted Youth in Kiev, Ukraine. She is the winner of The International Competition, XXI Century Art, in Kiev; The International Competition in St. Petersburg and the International Chamber Music Competition in Moscow. She has performed many recitals in Russian, Ukrainian, European, and American cities as a soloist. Marina has had solo appearances with the Kiev National Symphony Orchestra. She is currently completing her Bachelor of Music degree at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music with the world renowned Elmar Oliveira.

MATTHEW DAVIES, viola

Hailing from British Columbia, Canada, violist Matthew has been described as “thoughtful, deeply honest, and a superb musician with intensity.” He received his B.A. from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. He has a master’s degree from the New England Conservatory of Music. There his string quartet was the NEC honors quartet for 2008-09. Matthew led the viola sections of the NEC Philharmonic and the Boston Philharmonic. He also performed and brought classical music to schools in the Boston area. Matthew is pursuing a performance degree at Lynn University under the guidance of Ralph Fielding.

DANIEL LEON, French horn

Daniel was born in Costa Rica in 1984. He began his studies of horn performance at the age of 13. Daniel joined the National Concert Band, where he worked as principal horn for four years. He has also worked at the National Institute of Music as the assistant professor, as horn player of the Costa Rican Brass Quintet and the Costa Rican Symphony Orchestra. Daniel graduated from Loyola University magna cum laude Bachelor of Arts degree in music as well as French horn performance. He has performed in music halls in Europe and South America. He is completing his master's degree in music performance at Lynn University under the tutelage of Gregory Miller.

RAUL RODRIGUEZ, French horn

Raul is a native of Honduras and started his musical studies at age 6. As a student, he won several competitions including the National Chamber Music Competition in 1997. Raul has an extensive orchestral experience touring the world, playing and teaching horn in the Americas, Europe, Australia and Asia. He has worked as a horn coach at the Youth for Youth Music Festival sponsored by UNICEF in Thailand. Raul was also a guest at the Mozart's International Festival and plays with "Broadway Across America" shows as well as the Miami Symphony and the Miami City Ballet. He is a full-time student at Lynn University studying with Gregory Miller.

JENNA McCREERY, cello
