

Welcome to the 2012-2013 season. As dean of the Conservatory of Music, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity.

— Jon Robertson, Dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music raise significant funds for the conservatory through annual giving and special events. This dedicated group provides financial resources for annual and endowed scholarships and other conservatory needs.

By becoming a Friend, you provide financial support through endowed scholarships for talented and deserving students; or, you can designate your donation for the Conservatory of Music to use where the need is greatest. Because of your gifts, students at Lynn will have opportunities to become noted performers, composers and educators.

Beyond enjoying outstanding music, the Friends of the Conservatory also have the pleasure of associating with others who share their enthusiasm for the conservatory and its mission. The Friends gather through the year for meetings and an annual tea. Musical programs are provided by the faculty and students for these special events.

THE LEADERSHIP SOCIETY OF LYNN UNIVERSITY

With an annual gift of $2,500 or more during the fiscal year July 1 to June 30, you will be recognized in The Leadership Society of Lynn University. This premier annual giving society honors donors who recognize the significant impact leadership gifts have in sustaining the excellence of conservatory programs.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate, bequests and/or planned gifts.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, please call the development office at 561-237-7745.

MOSTLY MUSIC: DEBUSSY

Thursday, Jan. 24 at 7:30 p.m.

A crucial figure in the transition to the modern era in Western music, Claude Debussy remains one of the most famous and influential of all composers. He was the most prominent figure in developing “impressionistic” music, although he intensely disliked the term when applied to his own music, which often reflected the activities and turbulence in his life in French literary circles. The concert includes Debussy’s Petite Suite with Phillip Evans and Roberta Rust, piano. Conceived and hosted by Marshall Turkin and staged by Jan McArt, Mostly Music features Lynn Conservatory’s faculty and students.

Uzbekistani collaborative pianist, Olga Kim, arrived in the United States three months ago to begin work on Professional Performance Certificate with Lisa Leonard at Lynn University Conservatory of Music. At home with baroque, classical and romantic repertoire she is newly interested in contemporary and modern music. While completing her Bachelor Diploma at the State Conservatory of Uzbekistan she presented many solo and chamber recitals at the Uspensky school for gifted children in addition to appearances at the most important cultural cities in her homeland. Sought after as a collaborative pianist Olga was hired as a staff collaborative pianist at both the State Conservatory and Uspensky school in the year of her graduation. Additionally, Ms. Kim served on the piano faculty of one of the State music schools for two years. Former teachers include: renowned Marat Gumarov, Elena Akhadjanova.

Uzbekistani violinist Anna Tsukervanik began her studies at the age of four as a student of the Specialist Music School for gifted children. At age eight, Anna gave her first solo concert in the “Turkistan” concert hall with the Uzbekistan State Chamber Orchestra. Miss Tsukervanik has taken part in master classes by the professor of Moscow State Conservatory & Gnessin Music School Mikhail Gotzdiner. She was awarded the Eleemosynary Fund scholarship of “New Names” and the Uzbekistan State Award “Tasanno”. At 14, Anna won First Prize in the 2005 International Violin Competition named after A. Glazunov, held in Paris. In 2006, she received Grand-Prix in the International Violin Competition in Alma-Ata, Kazakhstan. Anna has been a member of the Gunma Youth Symphony Orchestra Festival, held in Tokyo, and the Symphony Orchestra of Hamburg. From 2007-2011, Miss Tsukervanik studied with Nathan Mendelsohn and Bakhrom Kurbanov at the State Conservatoire of the Republic of Uzbekistan and performed with the National Symphony Orchestra of Uzbekistan. Anna is currently a student of Elmar Oliveira at Lynn Conservatory.

She has performed in master classes with Pebecca Penneys, Jonathan Plowright and Phillip Evans. In 2010, she participated in the Chautauqua Summer Music Festival. Ms. Chiu received her Bachelor's of music degree at Soochow University in Taipei under Professor John D. Vaughan. She received her Professional Performance Certificate at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music under Dr. Roberta Rust. Ms. Chiu is currently pursuing a Master's of music degree at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in the studio of Lisa Leonard.

Heqing Huang was winner of the 2011 Lynn Concerto Competition and the Ars Flores Concerto Competition. As a result, he appeared as soloist with the Lynn Philharmonia in the World Performing Arts Center and with the Ars Flores Symphony Orchestra in the Miniaci Performing Arts Center. This past summer he attended the Montecito Festival in California. He hails from southwest China and began to learn music at age four. He studied piano performance in the attached middle school of the Sichuan Conservatory of Music with the excellent pianist Ai Zeng. Mr. Huang was awarded a Special Prize in a National Youth Piano Competition in China in 2009 and was a finalist in the 4th Wiesbaden international piano competition in Germany. Mr. Huang has held several recitals successfully in the Sichuan Conservatory of Music and Sichuan Normal University and North Sichuan Medical College. He currently studies with Roberta Rust at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida.

Chinese pianist, Dan Yi, began piano studies at the age of four with renowned pianist Zheng Daxin. In third grade, she received the highest level of piano --"ten best"; and in fourth grade she received the "Instrumental Top Ten" of Chengdu, and the first prize in the instrumental match of the middle-school students. In 2000, she was accepted by the middle-school of Sichuan Academy of Music. In 2006, she was accepted by Sichuan Academy of Music and graduated in 2010. During that time, she won the third prize of the Seventh National Electric Piano Competition and the second prize in the national piano competition Xinghai Cup. She also accompanied many students and faculty in performance. In 2005, she was accompanist for the Haixing choir at the Xiamen National Performances and collaborated with many choral groups while also performing music of world-famous composers. In 2008 at Sichuan Academy, she held the job position of vocal piano accompanist and was invited to perform with the Golden Rose Chorus in Shanghai. Dan Yi now studies with Dr. Yang Shen at Lynn University.
