Fabián Álvarez, born in 1980 in Havana, Cuba, began his musical studies at the age of 9 at the “Guillermo Tomas” Conservatory of Music in Guanabacoa, Cuba as a student of Germán Fraga, Ana Elizabeth Arias and Halina Kusiak. He continued superior studies at the “Amadeo Roldan” Conservatory of Music as a pupil of Michelle Rodriguez, Vivian Jiménez and Daniel Peñalver. During this period, Fabian participated in the National Amadeo Roldan (1991) Competition in Habana, Cuba and was awarded First Prize. Mr. Alvarez also participated in numerous recitals as soloist, in chamber groups and as a member of the Youth Symphony of Habana. In 1998, he graduated from the “Amadeo Roldan” Conservatory of Music with honors and received full scholarship to study at the National Conservatory of Music in Mexico as a pupil of Salvador Torre. He obtained his Bachelor’s Degree in Flute Performance at the “New World School of the Arts” in association with the University of Florida (U.F.) as a pupil of Liliam Santiago and participated in master classes with William Bennett and Keith Underwood. Awards include First Prize (2004) at the New World School of the Arts Concerto Competition and First Prize winner (2005) of the Florida Flute Fair Competition in Daytona Beach, FL, USA. Currently, Mr. Alvarez is a candidate for the master’s degree at Lynn University, studying with Renee Siebert.

Kelley Barnett is a senior in the Bachelor of Music program at Lynn University. She recently transferred from Montana State University where she participated in the Montana State Symphony Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Woodwind Quintet, Flute Choir, and The One O’clock Jazz Band. She has performed in Hawaii with the One O’clock Jazz Band in 2010 and toured Southeast Asia with the Montana State Symphony Orchestra as assistant principle flute in the 2009 Goodwill Tour. In the summer of 2009, Ms. Barnett performed with the National Collegiate Flute Choir in New York City. She placed first in the 2008 24th Montana State Concerto Competition and performed as a soloist on two occasions with the MSU Symphony. She served as substitute flutist with the Bozeman Symphony Orchestra and Billings Youth Orchestra. At Lynn, Kelley enjoys participating in woodwind quintet and the Lynn Philharmonia as well as studying with renowned flutist Renee Seibert.

Luba Benediktovitch, native of Belarus, started to play flute at seven. She took her first flute lesson in Moscow with Eugene Tredler. At the age of 12, she decided to pursue a professional music education and continued her studies at Music lyceum Minsk and conservatories of Munich, Leipzig and Amsterdam. Ms. Benediktovitch participated in numerous master classes and summer school with Willam Bennett in the UK and with Aurele Nicolet at Künstlerhaus Boswil, Switzerland. She made her orchestra debut performing Bach Suite No. 2 at the Music Festival in France in 1998. In the same year, she won her first prize at the International Competition in Cisinau. As a soloist, she played with Haydn Orchestra Bolzano, Banff Festival Orchestra, Minsk Chamber Orchestra and Bacau Philharmonie. Ms. Benediktovitch is presently enrolled in the PPC program at Lynn University studying

OBOE

Currently a student at Lynn University Conservatory of Music, Sara Lynch performs with the Lynn Philharmonia and her woodwind quintet. She is an advocate of new music and has premiered works written for her by composers at her former school, the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. In 2008, she performed in the Opera Theater and Music Festival of Lucca, Italy as co-principal oboe and English horn. Ms. Lynch is originally from Winston-Salem, North Carolina and attended all four years of high school at the University of North Carolina School of the Arts where she studied with John Ellis, one of Hollywood's most esteemed oboists. At Lynn, she is studying with Joseph Robinson, the former principal oboist of the New York Philharmonic. In her spare time, Ms. Lynch enjoys teaching oboe lessons and volunteering as a tutor for the Adult Literacy Program at the Boca Raton Public Library.

Nicholas Thompson was born in Saint Louis, Missouri and comes from a very musical family. His mother was his high school music teacher and three of his four siblings majored in orchestral performance; his wife is a clarinetist. After studying with various members of the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Thompson was awarded full scholarships to three universities in South Florida, and has consequently been very fortunate to study in succession with great professors. For his bachelor's degree, he studied at the University of Miami with Robert Weiner. Subsequently, he studied with Jared Hauser at both Florida International University and Lynn University. Mr. Thompson finished his Professional Performance Certificate at Lynn under the direction of Joseph Robinson, where he is currently a master's degree candidate. He has performed regularly with several student and professional orchestras all over South Florida including the New World Symphony Orchestra. He currently performs with the Lynn Philharmonia and with the Miami Symphony Orchestra, among others. Mr. Thompson also teaches lessons and has basic skills related to fixing and maintaining musical instruments and equipment. For more information, please visit www.nickthompson.weebly.com

John Weisberg has played the oboe for over a decade, starting at the age of ten. His teachers have included Jon Dee, Robert Weiner, and Arthur Weisberg. For the past two years, Mr. Weisberg has studied under Joseph Robinson at the Lynn Conservatory and performed with the Florida Grand Opera as second oboe and English horn as well as being a freelancer. John is in his third year of his undergraduate career. Along with the oboe, Mr. Weisberg can play the piano, classical guitar, and to a lesser degree for want of practice, the Sitar and Tabla. He strongly enjoys World music as they call it these days. Recently, Mr. Weisberg has taken to woodworking as a means to pass the time, with interesting results. In addition to his musical lean, he has been a racing pigeon breeder for the past six years, winning seven regional conferences and one international. Currently, he is only the second person in history to win more than five regional meets.
