INTERMISSION

In Europe, Nikola Nikolovski has attended trumpet seminars with Guy Touvron (France), Blagoj Angelovski (Macedonia)--both students of Maurice Andre, also with Henry Andre (France), and Bo Nilsson (Sweden). Nikola has won fourteen first awards, one second and one third from international competitions in Italy, Bulgaria, Serbia and Macedonia. In 2001 and 2002 he played in the Young Musicians International Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Igor Correti with performances in Austria, Slovenia and Croatia. He has had many solo performances in Europe. Some of his most important ones were with the Bulgarian Philharmonic in 2001 and with the Ars Flores Symphony Orchestra in 2004. In 2004 he won the Ars Flores Symphony Orchestra concerto competition, and with that honor he played a solo performance with them. In January 2005 he performed at the well-known showcase of the nation's finest young classical musicians "From The Top." He was principal trumpet in the Florida Youth Orchestra from 2002 to 2005. Currently, Nikola is a graduate student at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music studying on a full scholarship with Marc Reese.

Peter Pirotte, a native of Raleigh, North Carolina, is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He is now pursuing a Professional Performer's Certificate from Lynn University where he studies with Marc Reese. He has performed at principal trumpet with the Philharmonia of Kansas City, the Chautauqua Festival Orchestra, and the Lynn Philharmonia Orchestra. His former teachers include Keith Benjamin, William Campbell, and Timothy Stewart. Peter aspires to perform with a professional symphony orchestra and enjoys cooking, North Carolina basketball, and Michigan football in his free time. He is a member of the national music fraternity Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

Kaitlin Richardson was born in Michigan, the second child of a musical family. She began playing the violin at age four. Kaitlin's first teacher was Anne Dodge, one of the first American students of Sinichi Suzuki. Kaitlin continued her violin studies with Lenore Sjoberg, Margaret Tundo, and Kimberly Kennedy, all members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Kaitlin was a member of the Metropolitan Youth Symphony and the Oakland Youth Orchestra, where she won the 2005 Concerto Competition. She also served as concertmistress of the Detroit Symphony Civic Orchestra and the Detroit Symphony Civic Orchestra String Quartet. After graduating, she spent two summers at the Bowdoin International Music Festival under the instruction of Sergiu Schwartz with whom she studied at Lynn University and Columbus State University. Kaitlin is currently pursuing a Master's degree at Lynn University with Professor Carol Cole.
