CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH BENEFITS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

On Sunday, January 31, Marymount sponsored the third annual Champagne Brunch at the Great Hall of the Boca Raton Hotel and Club. The event, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. William Worsham, was a social and financial success with close to five hundred people in attendance. Entertainment was provided by the colorful Flamenco dancers and musicians from Miami's Flamenco Club. The proceeds from the Brunch supplement the financial aid program at the College, which this year is assisting fifty-six students with their college expenses.

MEMBERS OF "LAUGH-IN" CAST

On March 28, the Drama Department, under the direction of Miss Mickey McNelis, will tape a half-hour T.V. program for Channel 7's "Church and the World Today" series. The show will be aired in the south Florida area shortly after Easter. The program will feature dramatic readings, songs, and a dance sequence choreographed by Mrs. Dawn Wright.

ACCREDITATION TEAM TO VISIT

A team of educators will visit Marymount April 25-28 to evaluate the college for the purpose of re-affirming accreditation by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. Marymount earned early recognition from the Association and full accreditation in 1967. According to the rules of the association, this accreditation must be renewed in 1971. The team will be headed by Dr. James T. Rogers of Brenau College in Georgia. The institutional self-study in preparation for the evaluation has been conducted under the direction of Professor Stafford Mooney of the History Department.

ART EXHIBITS FEATURED

The beauty of Lewis Library has been enhanced by displays of faculty and study art work, and by a series of exhibits on loan from Ringling Museum of Art in Sarasota. The current exhibit features the serigraphs of Corita Kent.

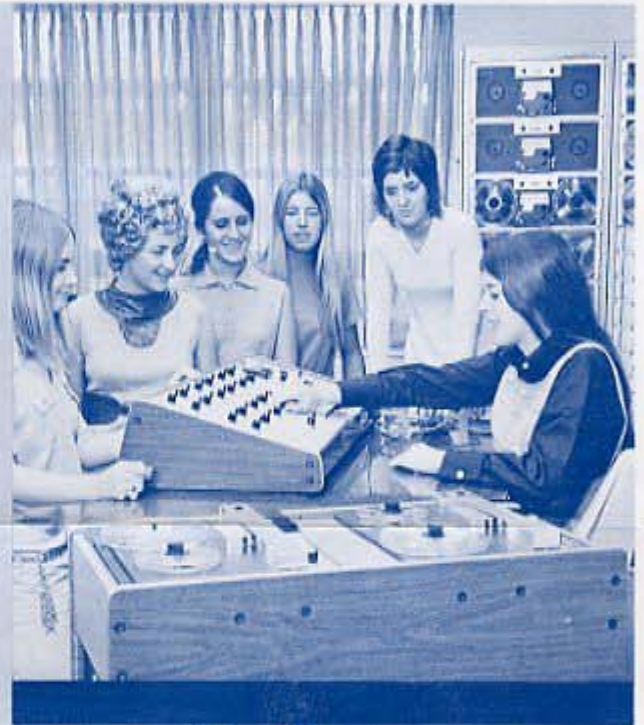

Other cultural highlights of the past few months have been performances by visiting artists from the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore; a demonstration-lecture on "Organ Music of the Baroque" by Robert Bagdon of the college music department; and a concert by sophomore Janna Howard, who was a winner in the "Miss Jeanie" competition sponsored by the Stephen Foster Society. The Film Forum continues to be popular with students and the local community. The next offerings will be "David and Lisa", and "Persona".

CAMPUS HOSTS MID-WINTER CONFERENCE

During the Christmas recess, Marymount played host to three conferences sponsored by professional organizations. Twenty-three national staff executives from the six districts of the Girl Scouts of America participated in a week-long conference devoted to the needs of the urban metropolitan Girl Scouts. The conference was under the direction of Miss Margaret Wintz, Assistant National Executive Director.

A five-day meeting of the Newman Clubs brought about 150 campus chaplains from across the country to Marymount. Conference leaders included Dr. Daniel Maguire, a theologian from Catholic University, Dr. Jeffrey Hadden from Tulane, Rev. Paul Shanley from Boston, and Fathers Rollin Lambert and Rawlin Enette, the nation's only black Catholic chaplains.

The last workshop was a three-day seminar on "Innovative Admissions Procedures for the Private Colleges" sponsored by Private College Consultants under the direction of Mr. Francis J. Brennan. The seminar was attended by college admissions officers from seven states.

PARENTS' WEEKEND

"Love is a Very Special Way of Feeling" proclaimed the hearts and flowers and banners decorating the campus for Parents' Weekend on February 12-14. And there was a very special program planned by the students for their parents. "Potpourri", a talent show, was presented on Friday evening; Saturday morning began with a Welcome by the President, followed by informal meetings with members of the faculty and a picnic lunch. A formal reception and dinner dance ended the day. Sunday morning's Mass and brunch was followed by a Fashion Show with student models, and a meeting of the fathers with Father Fagan. In the afternoon, Marymount's synchronized swim team presented a Water Ballet on the Valentine theme. The weekend concluded with Open House in the residence halls.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP FUND PROGRESS

Contributions to the newly established Alumni Scholarship Fund are now beginning to reach the college and we are pleased to report that donations have been received from each of the six graduating classes. To date, the class of '70 has contributed the greatest amount with the class of '67 a very close second. If you haven't sent your donation, please do so today and help your class reach its goal of 100% participation. The size of the gift is not what matters; it is the support of each alumna that we count on. We are also delighted that parents have been contributing to the scholarship fund in their daughters' names and we hope many more will do so. In addition to assisting a needy student at Marymount, it is an opportunity to "name a scholarship (or part of one) for someone you love."
