Message from President Ross

You feel it the moment you set foot on campus—that Lynn University is different, that it isn't quite like any other academic institution. We at Lynn believe this is due to the attention, the focus, we place on our number one priority—our students—by ensuring an environment in which they prosper and achieve excellence. We focus on their needs and wants, and on their dreams and aspirations to aid them in becoming leaders.

The mission of Lynn University is, as it always has been, to provide education, support and an environment that enable individual students to realize their true potential and to prepare for success in the world. Throughout its history, the university's pursuit of this mission has been guided by five core principles. It is these five principles that shape what Lynn University is and what the future holds for every student seeking a graduate or undergraduate degree.

Commitment to success. We believe that individual potential is the starting point for education, and that discovering and developing that potential in each student is the pathway to success.

Academic quality. We offer high-quality academic programs that recognize the diversity of academic needs and the importance of innovative teaching, and that emphasize leadership as the gateway to personal and professional accomplishment.

Personal attention. We recognize each student as an individual, not only in the classroom but in all aspects of university life.

Integrated learning. We integrate academic learning into a collaborative learning environment that emphasizes active participation in campus life and in the cultural and business communities beyond the campus.

Global community. We view the world as a global community, and we embrace and explore its diversity as a fundamental component of Lynn education.

While other universities may say it, I truly believe that there is not another academic institution that has such forward-thinking, revolutionary ideas; nurturing qualities for each individual student; and high-quality academic components as Lynn University. With all of these elements as tools to aid you in your academic journey, I encourage you to set your goals high as you enter the next phase of your lifelong educational journey.

Sincerely,

Donald E. Ross
President

Chapter I.

Overview and Introduction to Lynn University

General Information

Lynn University is a private, nonprofit independent university chartered by the state of Florida and accredited as a Level V institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Founded in 1962 as Marymount College, a two-year junior college for women, the college became coed in 1971 and in 1974 changed its name to the College of Boca Raton. In 1982, the college expanded its offerings to include bachelor's degrees; in 1985, the first master's degree was in place. Based upon the institution's goal of expanding its focus nationally and internationally, the board decided to attain university status. In September 1991, the College of Boca Raton was renamed Lynn University. The first Ph.D. program was offered in 1998.

Lynn University is located in Boca Raton on South Florida's Gold Coast. Geographically, the city and its environs are an epicenter for international trade, linking corporations that serve the world marketplace. The university's location in this hub provides a dynamic medium for educational exchange and learning. Boca Raton, a city of almost 150,000, is halfway between Palm Beach and Fort Lauderdale, only three miles from the Atlantic Ocean. Easily accessible from major roadways, Boca Raton is within easy travel distance of three major airports.

Mission

The mission of Lynn University today is the same mission that has defined the institution through its first 40 years and that will continue to define it in the future.

Our mission is to provide the education, support, and environment that enable individual students to realize their true potential and to prepare for success in the world.

Core Principles

Five core principles guide Lynn University in pursuit of this mission.

- Commitment to Success. We believe that individual potential is the starting point for education, and that discovering and developing that potential in each student is the pathway to success.
- Academic Quality. We offer high-quality academic programs that recognize the diversity of academic needs and the importance of innovative teaching, and that emphasize leadership as the gateway to personal and professional accomplishment.
- Personal Attention. We recognize each student as an individual, not only in the classroom but in all aspects of university life.
- Integrated Learning. We integrate academic learning into a collaborative learning environment that emphasizes active participation in campus life and in the cultural and business communities beyond the campus.
- Global Community. We view the world as a global community, and we embrace and explore its diversity as a fundamental component of a Lynn education.

Vision

Lynn University's commitment to its mission and core principles have led it to a level of achievement few could have envisioned when it was founded more than 40 years ago. Continued dedication to that mission and those principles provides a new vision for Lynn University in the future.

- Learning Without Labels. The opportunity for a Lynn education will be founded on individual potential, unrestricted by stereotypes or the limitations such factors have placed on past performance.
- Learning Across Borders. Recognizing the reality of a global community, Lynn will incorporate a global component in every academic major, and every student will have an international learning/living experience.
- Success One Student at a Time. Lynn will offer a completely personalized education, beginning with the admissions process, carried through the academic experience, and extending to career counseling and assistance.

(Approved by the Board of Trustees May 9, 2003)

Commitment of the University to Diversity

Lynn University is committed to providing equal access to education and employment opportunities to all, regardless of race, color, gender, religion, national and ethnic origin, or age. The university is committed to compliance with federal and state laws, regulations, and policies governing equal access and equal opportunity.

Chapter II.

Campus Life

Every phase of Lynn University life provides a learning situation wherein the student is guided toward wise decision-making. While the university primarily emphasizes formal learning through instruction and study, it clearly recognizes a student's personal and social needs. To serve these needs, the university offers an Office of Student Services.

The Lynn University student has ready access to educational and career guidance. Student organizations covering a wide range of interests offer the opportunity to develop many talents and skills. By participating in these activities, the student is exposed to situations that challenge initiative and leadership. The Office of Student Services includes the senior vice president for administration and student services; dean of students; dean of administration; director of student services; intercollegiate athletics; campus recreation and intramurals; Counseling Center; Center for Career Development; Office of Residence Life; Health Center; housekeeping, buildings and grounds; mailroom; food service and student activities. The Office of the Dean of Students provides assistance in securing advice on university-related concerns. The dean is also responsible for maintaining an open line of communication between staff, students and parents.

Student Activities

The Office of Student Activities is committed to providing a variety of activities that complement the university's academic program. Students choose activities that will contribute to their personal development and enjoyment: student government, service clubs, athletics and participation in any of numerous special interest organizations. In addition, the university offers a formal leadership program for all students. Social activities include game shows, dances, comedians, live music, international festivals, films, pool parties, sports days, intramural sports, award dinners and novelty entertainment. Individual interests ranging from the fine arts to professional football to gourmet dining can be found in South Florida.

Athletics

Lynn University holds membership in the National Collegiate Association (NCAA) Division II and the Sunshine State Athletic Conference.

Intercollegiate athletic programs are open to all students in accordance with NCAA, Sunshine State Conference and institutional eligibility standards. Currently active intercollegiate teams include men's soccer, basketball, baseball, golf and tennis, and women's golf, soccer, basketball, tennis, volleyball and softball. In addition to intercollegiate sports, students are encouraged to participate in a wide range of intramural programs, including basketball, flag football, soccer and others.

The Higher Education Amendments of 1992 necessitated the development of the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act of 1994. This disclosure of data on participation rates and financing of men's and women's sports in intercollegiate athletic programs at Lynn University is available in the Office of Student Financial Services.

The Student Right-to-Know Act of 1990 requires disclosure of graduation or completion rates and transfer-out rates for: (1) the general population of full-time degree program undergraduate students and (2) students who receive athletically-related student aid, broken down by race and gender within sports. This information is available in the Student Administrative Services office.

Residence Life

Residence Halls

Lynn University's five residence halls (Lynn, Trinity, de Hoernle, Freiburger and the E. M. Lynn Residence Center), provide living accommodations for more than half of the university's students. All room accessories (rugs, bedspreads, lamps, etc.) are provided by the student. Private telephone service, computer Internet access and cable television connections are provided. The Office of Residence Life assigns new students rooms and roommates. Returning students must choose their rooms and roommates before leaving campus for the summer. Through the cooperative efforts of all, a living environment rich with the joys of friendship and sharing adds a new dimension to the learning experience. The residence halls are staffed by full-time professionals and para-professionals. A full-time residence hall director is responsible for the overall function and operation of each residence hall. A resident assistant is a para-professional staff member and student, whose primary responsibility is to build a community atmosphere among students in each hall. They also have the authority to refer to the Office of Student Services any student who is found in violation of campus policies.

Room and Board Schedules

Day Division full-time undergraduate resident students are served 19 meals each week except during winter and spring breaks. All residence halls and dining facilities are closed during winter break, and students are expected to vacate their rooms.

Students may request permission from the Office of Residence Life for spring break intersession housing and meals that cost an additional housing fee. Students with less than 60 academic credits and students who are under 21 years of age are required to reside on campus. Exceptions include students who live with their parents within commuting distance and those who are married or have children. Students with more than 60 credits may live off campus.

Student Health

Counseling

Counseling at Lynn University aims to further the total development of each student. This accent on the individual implies a very definite interest in all phases of the life of the student whose academic, personal and social welfare are of primary concern. Counseling is provided on an individual basis, and records are maintained in strict confidence by the director of counseling. In addition, alcohol and substance abuse literature and referral services are continually available through the Counseling Center.

Health Center

A qualified registered nurse is available during scheduled hours for medical consulting and counseling. The Health Center is located in the northeast corner of the E. M. Lynn Residence Center. During scheduled hours, the Health Center staff is on duty to provide limited medical services and distribute medication, if necessary. If a serious health problem arises, the nurse may refer a student to the services of qualified medical personnel outside of the university community.

Every student attending the university is required to submit a complete immunization record before being allowed to enroll. The university assumes no financial responsibility for medical services performed other than the university nurse's official services, nor does it pay any hospitalization costs, including deductibles.

Students who refuse treatment or hospital admission do so at their own risk. If a student is ill, it is the student's responsibility to report the illness to the Health Center, residence hall staff and/or Student Services.

If a student requires medication on a regular basis, he or she is advised to bring a sufficient quantity to last throughout the semester.

First aid supplies are available in the Health Center; however, it is recommended that each student keep a supply of basic first aid essentials, adhesive bandages, antibiotic ointment, etc., in case these items are needed outside of Health Center hours. We also suggest that students keep a supply of cold preparations, cough syrup, decongestant, etc., for personal use. Crutches and other aids may be obtained in the Health Center for the personal use of a student with the understanding that the aids will be returned or the student will be charged for the replacement cost. Parents or guardians will be contacted by the university in cases involving students who are transported to the hospital by emergency services or hospitalized.

Insurance

All undergraduate students enrolled in fall or spring semesters are covered by a supplemental accident insurance policy covering medical expenses up to $4,000 per incident. This supplemental policy covers medical expenses incurred only as a result of accidental injury while the student is participating in university-sponsored activities. Students are required to file a written accident report with the University Health Center within 48 hours of the event and to file a report for insurance claim processing. Claims must then be submitted to the student's private insurance carrier. After the student's private insurance claim is processed, costs not covered by a private policy will be covered by the university's supplemental policy up to the policy limits for reasonable and customary medical charges established by the insurance company.

Athletes participating in intercollegiate sports are covered by a special policy that pays for accidental injury while participating in university intercollegiate sports. Athletes are expected to pay the deductible amount in this policy.

All students are required to carry medical insurance or be covered by their parents' policy. Students are required to provide proof of insurance before enrolling at the university or sign up for the university plan. Information about student medical insurance is available from the Health Center.

Medical/Mental Health Emergency Policy

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all Lynn University students with incipient emotional, mental health or physical needs receive timely assessment and access to services. In the event that a student suffers a mental health/psychological emergency, this policy defines the course of action for the student. A serious medical or psychological problem may include, but not be exclusive to, a suicidal threat with or without a plan, a homicidal threat with or without a plan, substance abuse, eating disorders, or any medical or psychological issue that poses a serious threat to the well-being of a student.

When a student experiences serious medical or psychological problems while enrolled at Lynn University, he or she may request to take a voluntary medical leave of absence. The medical/psychological leave of absence must be presented to, and approved by the dean of students or his or her designee. When approved, the student will leave campus and be granted a grade of W (withdraw) in all enrolled courses, even if the deadline for withdrawal without academic penalty has passed. If the student desires to return to campus after resolution, the student must adhere to the Medical/Mental Health Readmission Requirements outlined below.

Similarly, the university reserves the right to require a student to take a medical/psychological leave of absence if, in the judgement of the dean of students or his or her designee, the student: a) poses a threat to the lives or safety of himself or herself or other members of the Lynn University campus; or b) has a medical or psychological problem which cannot be properly treated in the university setting; or c) has evidenced a medical condition or behavior that seriously interferes with the educational pursuits of other members of the Lynn University community. The student MUST gain prior permission from the dean of students or his or her designee in order for the student to return to campus as outlined under Medical/Mental Health Readmission Requirements below. In making a decision to require a student to take a medical/psychological leave of absence, the university acts out of concern for the student and his or her rights, a concern for the other students, and a concern for the university as a whole.

Medical/Mental Health Readmission Requirements

Inherent in the policies outlined here regarding the care and concern of students with medical and/or psychological issues is the encouragement of receiving proper treatment and professional services. For students who are voluntarily or involuntarily required to withdraw from Lynn University for medical and/or psychological reasons, the university's predominant concern is that the students receive the appropriate professional treatment. Lynn University wishes to provide sufficient time away from academic concerns to adequately address the issues that necessitated a leave, six months to a year or longer. Failure to seek ongoing appropriate treatment will seriously infringe upon the readiness to resume student status, and the university will withhold readmission until appropriate treatment has been received and documented.

A student on medical-psychological leave must provide documentation from the attending medical/psychological professional to the Dean of Students or his or her designee one month prior to the anticipated return date. The documentation MUST include: reasons for treatment, frequency and duration of treatment, full assessment of medical and/or psychological status including history and diagnostic impression, and recommendations/treatment plan for continued recovery. The university also requires that the attending professional assess whether the student is intellectually, physically and psychologically able to handle academic demands and a return to the university community. If the preceding information is not included, the university reserves the right to delay readmission until proper treatment/documentation has been received.

This information will then be reviewed by the appropriate Lynn University health care professionals and by the dean of students or his or her designee. If the student is permitted to return, the university may at that time set forth special conditions or requirements, such as meetings with the dean of students or other university medical/professional personnel to monitor the student's progress. In addition, the student may be required to establish an ongoing professional relationship with Counseling Center or Health Center staff. The decision to readmit a student from a medical leave of absence may be reversed if the student fails to be a responsible member of the Lynn University campus.

Substance Abuse

Lynn University maintains a drug-free environment and a strict policy relating to the possession or use of any drug as defined by local, state and/or federal law, including marijuana. Any student found in possession of or involved with any type of drug will be suspended immediately. A university representative will communicate with the parents if the student's residential or academic status has been terminated.

Students of legal age are permitted to have alcohol in the privacy of their rooms. Students who choose to drink alcoholic beverages must do so in a responsible manner. Students are not permitted to have alcoholic beverages in public areas (i.e. hallways, lounges, pool, etc.) Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action.

Substance Abuse Prevention Program

The university recognizes the problems that exist in today's society with regard to alcohol and substance abuse. As such, the university has a responsibility to its students, faculty and staff to offer an ongoing informational program on these problems. Each semester, seminars dealing with substance abuse are offered through the auspices of the Office of Student Services.

These seminars deal with the role of alcohol and other potentially abusive substances in contemporary American society, including a historical overview of psychoactive drug use and abuse, the classification of drugs currently in use, legal issues related to substance abuse, and resources available for the prevention and treatment of abuse problems.

In addition, alcohol and substance abuse literature, counseling and referral services are available through the Counseling Center. Lynn University is in compliance with the Drug-Free Workplace Act.

Student-Athlete Substance Abuse Prevention Policy

Lynn University seeks to promote the development of each student-athlete's intellectual, emotional and social capabilities. The university has established a drug education and testing program in compliance with National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recommendations. This program includes random drug testing by the university and the NCAA.

All student-athletes representing Lynn University are required to sign a form of consent regarding this policy. The university's goal is to better educate its student-athletes on the hazards of substance abuse and the value of prevention programs.

General Student Life Regulations and Policies

The university regards its students as responsible young adults and allows them considerable personal freedom. Specific rules and regulations are found in the Student Handbook, which is available in the dean of student's office and on the university Web site (www.lynn.edu).

Policies are created to help promote a community atmosphere that is conducive to the pursuit of an academic program. The university's rules and regulations are firm, and violation of these rules may result in expulsion. The university reserves the right to impose probation on any student whose conduct is unsatisfactory. The university further reserves the right, subject to university procedures, to require a student to withdraw at any time. A student who is premised upon false statements or documents is null and void upon fraud discovery, and previously earned credit is voided.

Upon dismissal or suspension from the university, the student's tuition and fees will not be refunded. Further, in the event that there has been only a partial payment of fees and tuition, the university will consider the balance due. There will be no refund of tuition, fees, charges or any other payments made to the university in the event that the operation of the university is suspended at any time as a result of any act of God, strike, riot, disruption or for any other reason beyond the control of the university. Admission of a Lynn University student for any academic year does not imply that such student will be reenrolled in any succeeding academic year.

All students are subject to the regulations and guidelines in this catalog and in the Student Handbook.

Automobiles

Automobiles are allowed on campus but must be registered with the Security Department. Speeding and driving and/or parking on the grass and similar violations will result in fines and/or loss of the privilege of having a car on campus.

Check Cashing Services

The university bookstore handles student check cashing for a $1 per check fee. Hours are 11 a.m. -2 p.m. The maximum amount permitted is $50 per check per day per student. A fee of $20 is charged per check returned for any reason. The privilege of having checks cashed will be revoked after one check is returned. Students must present their ID card when cashing checks. Third party checks will not be honored.

Dismissal

The university reserves the right to dismiss any student who fails to meet the required standard of scholarship and to dismiss or suspend any student for violation of university rules or for any other reasonable cause. In view of the foregoing and since the university must make its financial commitments for the entire academic year, no reduction or refund of fees will be made in instances of student dismissal or suspension.

Laundry

Coin-operated laundry machines are available on campus, and Campus-Suds, a college laundry service, offers pick-up and drop-off service. Plans are available to students at varying costs. Students provide their own towels and linens and may purchase them through the university's Residence Hall Linens program, which can be accessed on our Web page.

Orientation

Prior to the beginning of the fall semester, new students are required to participate in a campus-wide orientation program. This program is designed to aid students in their transition to campus life and provide the option in participating in many social activities.

Property Damage Responsibility

Lynn University does not assume responsibility for loss or damage to students' personal property and effects. Insurance protection for personal effects should be obtained from an independent source in conjunction with parents' insurance or students' insurance. Resident students are responsible for their residence hall rooms. Damage to residence halls rooms and public areas and campus are assessed based on individual, joint or group responsibility. The university attempts to identify individuals responsible for damage or vandalism. When such identification is impossible in a residence hall, all students who reside in the particular area must bear an equal portion of the cost and responsibility.

Public Access to the University Campus

Individuals wishing to enter the campus of this private institution for the purpose of meeting with students or staff must be admitted through the receptionist and receive a visitor's pass. This includes the news media and anyone who may have business with students or staff members. The names of guests should be submitted to the receptionist along with the expected time of arrival and where the student or staff member can be located when the individual arrives. This policy is intended to safeguard the privacy of the university community, and to help ensure a safe and secure campus environment.

After 1 a.m. Monday through Friday and 3 a.m. Saturday and Sunday, only resident students will be allowed to enter or remain on campus. Resident students and staff members are required to show proper identification at the campus entrance.

Chapter III.

Lynn University Campus

Lynn University's picturesque 123-acre campus is landscaped with a variety of tropical and semi-tropical plants and trees. Seven lakes reflect the natural beauty of the setting and enhance the harmonious design of the architecture. All buildings have been constructed since 1962 and are completely air-conditioned.

Campus Resources

The Schmidt College Center, named for Charles E. and Dorothy F. Schmidt, defines the entrance to the university. It includes the executive offices, Admissions, Development and Alumni Relations, and Marketing and Communication.

The Ronald and Kathleen Assaf Academic Center, located at the north end of the campus, provides classrooms, science labs and art studios. The two-story structure provides an academic atmosphere with all rooms opening onto a scenic courtyard.

The Lynn Student Center includes Christine's, dining hall, chapel, auditorium, Faculty Club, Knights Court, outdoor terrace for dining, Student Activities offices and student meeting room.

The Landgren Chapel is dedicated to the memory of Harold and Agnes Landgren. Liturgy is celebrated here regularly, and the Chaplain's Office is adjacent. The Chaplain's Office assists students of all faiths.

The Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn Library, built in 1996, houses a collection of 235,648 items, including books, periodicals, audiovisual materials and music. The library's research databases contain more than 10,450 periodicals in print and electronic formats. The library uses the Mandarin Information System to organize and create descriptive data for its collections. Mandarin provides access to these resources from anywhere in the world via the Internet. The library includes 65 computer workstations for students' use. Through membership in SEFLIN, the Southeast Florida Library Information Network, Lynn Library provides students with direct access and borrowing privileges in regional academic libraries with holdings in excess of 12 million items. The Coleman Electronic Classroom, located at the northwest section of the Lynn Library, contains 30 computer workstations and is available for student use between scheduled classes. The library also houses Academic Affairs, the Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn College of International Communication and the President's Office. For more details about the Lynn Library, please see page 50.

Louis and Anne Green Center for the Expressive Arts is located west of the Schmidt College Center. This facility includes the Perper Teleconferencing Center, Student Administrative Services, In-house Counsel, Human Resources, Information Technology, Purchasing and Accounts Payable, and the Office of the Vice President for Finance.

Ritter Hall, located west of the de Hoernle International Center, is a classroom complex housing faculty offices for the College of Business and Management as well as classrooms specifically dedicated to each major program within this division.

The Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn Residence Center is a coed building with an optional 24-hour quiet floor. Rooms are spacious with walk-in closets and private bathrooms. A full-time residence hall director and resident assistants coordinate community development opportunities for the residents. Basic cable television service and computer drops are in each student room. This building consists of all triple occupancy rooms. The building includes Lynn Fitness Center, Intramural Office and television lounge.

The E. M. Lynn Residence Center is a five-story, coed building, which opened for the fall term 2002. It is equipped with television lounges and computer labs. Rooms are spacious with walk-in closets and private bathrooms. This building consists of triple occupancy accommodations. A full-time residence director and resident assistant coordinate community development opportunities for the residents. It is also the location of the offices of Residence Life and Student Services. The building also houses the offices of the dean of students, the Health Center, director of security and the Counseling Center.

Trinity Residence Hall is a three-story, coed residence hall. It is equipped with a television lounge and community-style bathrooms. Basic cable television service and computer drops are in each student room. A full-time residence director and resident assistant coordinate community development opportunities for the residents. This residence hall is also home to the Student Administration executive offices as well as the Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships.

The Count and Countess de Hoernle Residence Hall is a coed building divided into four wings. This residence hall consists of predominately first-year students. It is equipped with community-style bathrooms. A full-time residence hall director and resident assistant coordinate community development opportunities for the residents. Basic cable television service and computer drops are in each student room. It is also the location of the Conservatory of Music.

The Betsey H. Freiburger Residence Hall is a coed building divided into four wings. This residence hall consists of predominately first-year students. It is equipped with community-style bathrooms. Basic cable television service and computer drops are in each student room. A full-time residence director and resident assistant coordinate community development opportunities for the residents. Faculty offices of the College of Arts and Sciences are located on the first floor.

The McCusker Sports Complex includes two outdoor pools for year-round use; tennis courts; basketball courts; soccer, softball and baseball fields; and space for volleyball and similar sports. Golf, polo, horseback riding and bowling are available nearby.

The Count and Countess de Hoernle Sports and Cultural Center is a 33,000-square-foot multipurpose facility. The building houses a gymnasium, locker rooms, meeting rooms, a conference room and athletic department offices.

The Count and Countess de Hoernle International Center, a 35,000-square-foot state-of-the-art building, combines classrooms, administrative and activities facilities for the rapidly growing international student population, a large multipurpose meeting room, reception area, The Amarnick-Goldstein Concert Hall and the Cohen International House. The center also includes the Donald E. and Helen L. Ross College of Education and Human Services, and the Institute for Achievement and Learning.

St. Joseph Hall includes the mailroom and the Lynn University Bookstore, which sells textbooks, supplies, clothing, snacks and gifts. The bookstore also provides check-cashing services.

The Burton D. Morgan School of Aeronautics, a 2,700-square-foot facility located at the Boca Raton Airport, houses a state-of-the-art Frasca flight training device and is home to the university's fleet of Cessna 172 aircraft.

The Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships (HCCDI), located in Trinity Hall, provides comprehensive career services to all enrolled students and alumni of Lynn University free of charge. The HCCDI's aim is to: 1) assist students and alumni in making sound career plans based on their beliefs and values, skills and aptitudes, interests, personality traits, and knowledge of the world of work, 2) facilitate career opportunities, 3) provide students and alumni access to state-of-the-art technologies, and 4) promote continuous professional and personal growth opportunities for students and alumni. The HCCDI partners with Lynn University faculty and staff to create career programs that meet the needs of our diverse student population. Students and alumni are encouraged to make a private consultation appointment to discuss their educational and career planning by calling the HCCDI directly at 561-237-7286.

Chapter IV.

Admissions

General Information

Lynn University welcomes and evaluates applications on a rolling basis. The following is an overview of general admission policies. Further questions concerning enrollment procedures should be directed to the Office of Admissions at 800-888-LYNN or admission@lynn.edu.

In addition to the requirements for admission to Lynn University, applicants to the Conservatory of Music need an audition and must submit an additional Conservatory of Music application. Please refer to the conservatory's profile for audition and application requirements.

Visitors Are Welcome

All prospective students and their parents, guardians, families and friends are encouraged to visit Lynn University. The recommended time for high school students to see the university is during the spring of their junior year or during the fall of their senior year. Although campus interviews are not required, they are strongly encouraged. It is recommended that visits be scheduled while the university is in session and students are on campus. If time or other obligations do not comply with the academic calendar, visitors are still welcome throughout the year. Students are requested to write, e-mail or call the Office of Admissions at least one week in advance of their visits. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and by appointment on Saturday.

I. Day Division - First Year Students

Applicants will be considered for general acceptance if they meet the following requirements:

- Earned a high school diploma or GED
- Minimum GPA of 2.5
- Minimum SAT 850 or ACT 18
- Official high school transcript
- At least one letter of recommendation from a guidance counselor or teacher
- A personal statement or essay

Students who are applying to The Comprehensive Support Program (formerly TAP) are required to submit current (within three years) psycho-educational testing (WISC/WAIS) to the Office of Admissions. When all required documents are evaluated, the Office of Admissions will notify the candidate.

Application Procedures

Lynn University encourages high school students to apply during the fall of their senior year.

1. Complete Lynn University's application form and mail it to the Office of Admissions with the $35 nonrefundable application fee or apply online at www.lynn.edu.
2. All candidates for admission must submit official transcripts indicating all secondary school course work and graduation dates.
3. SAT I (Scholastic Assessment Test) or ACT (American College Test) scores are required and may be included on the official transcript or sent separately. Lynn University's school code for the SAT is 5437; the school code for the ACT is 0706.
4. A letter of recommendation from the candidate's guidance counselor or a teacher also is required. The letter of recommendation is most useful for the university to recognize the effects of determination and motivation on a student's academic performance.

5. Applicants also are required to submit a personal statement or essay.
6. Applicants and their families are strongly encouraged to visit Lynn University; please call, write, fax or e-mail to arrange an interview and a campus tour.
7. When school records, test scores, letters of recommendation and personal statement or essay are received, the university will notify applicants of their admission status.
8. Upon acceptance, the applicant is required to submit a deposit to reserve a place in the class. This deposit is credited to the student's account and is nonrefundable after May 1 for new freshman applicants for the fall semester.
9. Final acceptance is contingent upon successful graduation from high school and is confirmed through receipt of the applicant's final transcript.

Day Division - Transfer Students

Applicants will be considered for general acceptance if they meet the following requirements:

- Transfer students must have at least a 2.0 cumulative GPA from the last college attended and 12 or more transferable credits.
- A demonstrated readiness to pursue studies.
- Official college transcripts
- Completed Dean's Recommendation Form

Application Procedures

Transfer students are welcome at Lynn University, and every effort is made to make the transfer of credits and completion of the degree requirements as easy as possible.

1. Complete the application form and mail it to the Office of Admissions with the $35 nonrefundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts from the candidate's current college and from all previous colleges/universities attended must be sent directly to the Office of Admissions. The Dean of Students Recommendation Form must be submitted. SAT or ACT scores are not necessary if 12 or more transferable college credits have been successfully completed with a C average or better. Applicants also are required to submit a personal statement or essay.
3. Applicants and their families are strongly encouraged to visit Lynn University; please call, write, fax or e-mail to arrange an interview and campus tour.
4. When the college transcripts, the Dean of Students Recommendation Form and personal statement or essay are received, Lynn University will notify the student of his or her admission status.
5. Upon acceptance, the applicant is required to submit a deposit to reserve a place in the class. This deposit is credited to the student's account, and is nonrefundable after May 1.
6. In general, transfer credits will be granted for all work completed in comparable courses with a grade of C or better at other accredited colleges, insofar as these courses fit the curriculum requirements for a student's intended major. Credit will not be given for developmental courses that are intended to prepare a student for college level work.
7. Upon acceptance to Lynn University, students will receive a preliminary evaluation of transfer/credits. Students will meet with their advisor during the first week of classes; the advisor will finalize the transfer of credits toward the students' chosen major. At this time, any changes or revisions to transfer credits will be made, and the final evaluation will be sent to the registrar's office to finalize the process. Last-minute applicants will be handled on an individual basis as part of the admissions process.

International Students

International students are important and vital members of the Lynn community who comprise a significant portion of the student body and represent more than 85 countries.

International applicants are classified into the following two categories:

- a. A citizen of a country other than the United States who holds a passport from that country.
- b. Any U.S. or non-U.S. citizen whose permanent home address is outside of the United States.

International Application Requirements

An international application for admission is considered complete and ready for review when the following documents and records have been received:

1. A completed application form signed, dated and accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of $35. This fee must be drawn from a U.S. bank account, be an international money order or be paid by credit card.
2. Educational documents, including official transcripts and mark sheets from each secondary school, college, or university attended, and official report of scores from all national school leaving examinations, if applicable. All educational documents must be accompanied by original English translations, and documents submitted must carry the seal or stamp of the issuing educational institution. Uncertified photocopies are not acceptable. NOTE: Transfer applicants with more than one year of university level study are not required to submit secondary school records but upon acceptance, must submit official English translated course descriptions for course evaluation.
3. A letter of recommendation from a counselor, class tutor, career advisor, or head of school for freshman applicants or a letter of recommendation from a professor at the university most recently attended.
4. A personal statement or essay.
5. Official test results of the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language), or IELTS if English is not the applicant's first language. Applicants with TOEFL scores of 470-499 (paper based) or 150-170 (computer-based) will be placed in the English for Academic Purposes Program. Applicants with TOEFL scores of 500+ (paper-based) or 173 (computer-based) will be considered for regular admission. For a registration form, contact:

---	---

The Lynn University code for SAT and TOEFL is 5437.

The Lynn University code for ACT is 0706.

The SAT I and ACT are not required of transfer applicants who have completed 12 or more university credits with a grade of C or better.

7. Completed Certification of Finances form properly endorsed by the appropriate bank with the official bank seal or stamp.
8. Copy of the biographical page of a prospective student's passport. Please note: Passport must be valid for a six-month period prior to enrollment date.

Note: This requirement does not apply to U.S. Permanent Residents who are required to submit a notarized copy of their Permanent Resident Card (green card).

9. Transfer Eligibility Form for International Students. All international students who are currently studying in the United States on an F-1 student visa and who are transferring from other U.S. high schools, colleges and/or universities are required to submit this form.

The SEVIS I-20 Form

1. Upon admission to Lynn University, applicants are sent a letter of acceptance and are requested to submit an admission deposit to reserve their place.
2. When the student's certification of finances is submitted to the Office of Admissions, the SEVIS Immigration I-20 form (Certificate of Eligibility) is issued.
3. To obtain the F-1 student visa necessary for study in the United States, the SEVIS I-20 form, a valid passport, and a certification of finances must be presented at the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate in the student's country of citizenship or permanent residence.
4. To understand the F-1 visa process, visit www.lynn.edu/CIPS. Students admitted to the United States on an F-1 student visa must attend the university on a full-time basis and may not engage in unauthorized employment without permission from the U.S. immigration authorities.
5. Immigration questions may be e-mailed to ISS@lynn.edu

Evaluation of the Applicant

When the application forms and other required records of the applicant are complete, the application will be submitted to the Admission Committee for evaluation. Final acceptance of each applicant will be determined by the director of admissions. The acceptance of admission by the transfer student is also an agreement of the evaluation of credits accepted by Lynn University.

Application Procedures

It is the student's responsibility to request official transcripts from every school attended. Transcripts should be sent to the student's academic advisor. Transcripts that are not received directly from the sending institutions are unofficial and will not be officially evaluated. When all transcripts are received, the official transfer evaluator will review the student's file. An evaluation will be completed, and a copy will be forwarded to the student. Credits will be accepted in transfer from other institutions under the following conditions:

1. Transfer credits will be granted for all work completed in comparable courses with a grade of C or better at other accredited colleges, insofar as these courses fit the curriculum requirements for a student's intended major.
2. Credit will not be given for vocational courses or for courses listed below the acceptable college level degree.
3. Credits evaluated as Experiential Credit are not transferable from another institution into Lynn University degree programs.
4. Lynn University reserves the right to accept or reject courses completed at any other institution of higher education; however, as a rule, credits from regionally accredited institutions are transferable.

Readmission

Students who voluntarily or involuntarily withdraw from Lynn University for one or more full semesters lose degree-seeking status. Students wishing to return to the university must submit an application for readmission to update information. Students who have attended another institution during any absence from Lynn University must have all academic credentials sent to the Office of Admissions. In addition, they must have completed the Dean of Students Recommendation Form from the last college/university attended or a letter from an employer verifying employment during any absence is requested, along with a personal statement explaining why the individual wishes to return to Lynn University.

Students who have been dismissed for academic deficiencies or suspended for disciplinary reasons for one or more semesters must submit an application for readmission of dismissed or suspended student and include a letter of appeal with their application for readmission. The application for readmission must be approved by the dean of students and by the director of academic advising. Students who are readmitted to the university return at the same academic standing status they had prior to leaving the university.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

Every effort will be made to reasonably accommodate students requesting services to meet their special needs. Students must make their disclosures at the time of application to the university. Documentation will be required. During the first week of classes students should disclose to their instructors that they are requesting services to meet their special needs. The ADA coordinator for Lynn is the dean of the Institute for Achievement and Learning.

Additional Admission Procedures and Contact Information

The Office of Admissions confirms the receipt of admission deposits in writing. Medical forms from the University Health Services Department are sent to Day Division students, as well as information about health insurance. Lynn University strongly advises that all students have adequate U.S. medical insurance during the duration of their enrollment. International students are required to maintain accident/sickness insurance coverage. Prior to the applicant's term of enrollment, the university mails information about living accommodations, student services and campus activities. If questions arise prior to their arrival on campus, students are encouraged to contact the appropriate offices at any time.

Placement and Testing

Advanced Placement

Lynn University invites applications from students who have taken College Board Advanced Placement examinations or who have participated in a secondary school advanced placement program. Students with a score of 3 or higher on a CEEB placement exam will be awarded credit. Actual course application will be assigned by the appropriate college dean. Other AP programs will be assigned on an individual basis.

CLEP

University credit also may be earned by taking the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) tests. Students may earn up to 30 credits from the general examination and meet all the requirements of the freshman year. Information may be obtained by writing to CLEP, Box 6600, Princeton, NJ 08541-6600.

English and Math Placement

To ensure proper preparation for college level English and math, freshmen Day Division students are administered English and math placement tests during their first semester. Results will determine whether students are placed in 099 level English and/or math or at the beginning college level English and math. For further information regarding placement in 099 level courses, contact the coordinator for the First Year Experience at 561-237-7315.

Music Placement Exams

Placement exams are given in music theory, solfège, ear training, music history and secondary piano (or keyboard skills for pianists) to determine placement of students in appropriate classes and to award credit for those courses in which students meet the minimum requirements. Placement testing in music history pertains only to transfer students. Students earn degree credit for successfully passing placement exams. Placement exams are held during fall orientation and at the beginning of the spring semester, if needed. Placement exams may be taken only once by a given student.

International Baccalaureate

Lynn University reviews, evaluates and accepts International Baccalaureate (IB) higher level credentials for possible transfer credit on an individual basis in the context of a student's proposed area of study. The credit amount and placement level are subject to approval by the appropriate college. Course credit is generally granted for each higher level examination passed with a score of 5, 6 or 7 in courses comparable to Lynn University courses and appropriate to the degree program. A score of 4 may qualify a student for advanced placement without credit, subject to departmental review. Credit is awarded only for courses at the higher level; no credit is awarded for IB Subsidiary examinations, regardless of the scores earned. Lynn University recognizes the academic excellence of students participating in the IB program. Students who receive a full IB diploma with a score of 30 or higher may receive 30 credit hours and sophomore standing.

Specialized Programs

Early Admission

Students who wish to enter Lynn University directly after the 11th grade may apply for early admission, if their guidance counselor recommends such action. They should arrange with their high school to receive a high school diploma when they complete one semester (or one year) of university work. Students wishing to pursue this option should apply early in the 11th grade.

Dual Enrollment

Lynn University's Dual Enrollment Program offers high school juniors and seniors an opportunity to take undergraduate Day Division courses for college credit. Admission requirements include: high school junior or senior status, a GPA of 3.0 or higher, recommendation by the high school principal or his/her designee, and submission of a Dual Enrollment Program application. Students may earn up to seven credit hours per semester and must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.0 to continue in the program. Students will have access to Lynn University resources, including the Lynn Library and all student facilities and services. Students' grades will be posted to their Lynn University transcripts and be available for transfer to other colleges and universities. Tuition for the 2005-2006 academic year is $350 per three credit hour course. Applications for Dual Enrollment should be submitted to the Office of Admissions.

Freshman Honors

The Freshman Honors Experience provides highly motivated first-year students an opportunity to take courses in which they can experience the challenge and exhilaration of the regular Honors Program while fulfilling core requirements. These students also will be able to attend the Honors Program Enrichment Series and to interact with upper-division Honors Program students.

Honors Program

Students who are highly motivated and seek an enriching academic experience may apply for the Honors Program. Accepted candidates experience an innovative curriculum encompassing the full breadth of the liberal arts and sciences. The curriculum permits in-depth exploration as well as broad intellectual synthesis. Rigorous honors courses are coupled with integrative, interdisciplinary seminars and individualized projects.

The Comprehensive Support Program of the Institute for Achievement and Learning

This program offers students with learning challenges an extraordinary opportunity to excel at the college level. It provides a select number of motivated students with the additional support they need to achieve and maintain academic success and earn a university degree.

The program provides these students with academic mentoring; a separate testing room and extended time for examinations; verbal exams; specialized core courses with a low pupil-to-teacher ratio (called Z courses); and individualized tutorials in most courses.

All students accepted into the Comprehensive Support Program are required to take EDU 100 Language and Learning Development, a three-credit college level course. This course is diagnostic in nature and focuses on the theories of behavioral psychologists and the relationship between intelligence and learning. It is designed to help students understand and identify their own individual learning styles, their cognitive strengths and weaknesses, and the sensory modalities that will help them succeed.

Additionally, freshmen in the Comprehensive Support Program are required to attend one-on-one tutoring sessions twice a week to further their academic success. All tutors hold professional, master's or doctoral degrees. The Tutoring Center keeps parents informed of students' tutorial use by sending updates home twice a semester.

The Alpha Center

In keeping with the mission of Lynn University to encourage and offer opportunities for lifelong learning, the Alpha Center was created.

The mission of the Alpha Center is to develop a personalized profile of each student in preparation for enrollment to Lynn University through the evaluation of abilities and interpretation of each student's potential for success. The Alpha Center's vision is to help students develop an understanding and knowledge about themselves to empower them to become lifelong learners. The Alpha Center is the first step toward this lifelong learning goal. The center will help students explore, discover and learn about themselves in order to excel in the culture of the Lynn University campus.

Evaluations and inventories are designed to measure learning styles, cognitive potential, multiple intelligence clusters, and personal interests, and are administered by the Alpha Center staff.

After this process, the Alpha Center will provide each student with a profile that reflects individual interests and values and suggests learning environments, campus activities and study methods that may be most effective.

The long-range goal of the Alpha Center is to significantly enhance the likelihood of each student succeeding in the pursuit of a university level education, thereby providing a more solid foundation for lifelong learning, professional success and personal growth. The Alpha Center is housed within the Institute for Achievement and Learning.

Probationary Support Program

This program, also housed in the Institute for Achievement and Learning, is designed to offer a smooth transition to the university environment. The Admission Committee will consider students who score below an 850 on the SAT, or below an 18 on the ACT, and/or have a high school GPA below a 2.5. These students may be admitted to the Probationary Support Program. Incoming probationary students meet biweekly with their assigned advisors/mentors and attend First Year Experience classes to review their academic progress and plan individual study strategies. These students also are encouraged to participate in group activities offered through the institute.

II. Lynn PM Evening Undergraduate

General Information

The colleges at Lynn University are responsible for coordinating and scheduling programs for adults who seek higher education for training or degree completion. They operate an accelerated schedule of six eight-week terms throughout the year, taught in the evenings, weekends and online.

The following degrees are offered in the evening program: Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, and Bachelor of Science in Education. The colleges offers a bachelor's degree with an experiential learning component for those who have five years' work experience, and an associate degree with one year's work experience. These degrees are designed to allow working adults the opportunity to use their professional work experience to earn college credits. It is possible to earn up to 30 credits for this experience.

In view of the university's mission of serving adult learners with significant professional experience, the academic recognition of prior learning is a fundamental component in the educational plan of many of its students seeking the bachelor's degree. The concept is based on accepted principles of adult learning, which emphasize a participatory, self-directed orientation to learning. It is designed to assist professional adult learners attain their academic and career goals by validating the professional competencies they have acquired outside the classroom. An academic advisor is assigned to each student to provide necessary services and ensure program progression and success.

To accommodate working professionals, classes are offered Monday through Thursday from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. and on Saturdays, half and full days.

Credit hours are earned through traditional classroom or distance learning instruction and transfer credits. At the bachelor's level, certain military service course credits (DANTES), CLEP (College Level Examination Program), ACE (American Council on Education), FDLE (Florida Department of Law Enforcement), Series 7 License, and other professional certifications may qualify for academic credit.

First Year Student - Evening/Weekend Classes

Application Procedures

Students may apply for admission to the programs through the Admissions office at any time throughout the year.

- Students must have earned a high school diploma or G.E.D.
- Students must submit an application with a nonrefundable $50 fee.
- Students must meet with an academic advisor to plan out a program progression.
- Official transcripts from previous institutions attended must be submitted to the Office of Admissions.
- Students, prior to registration, must submit an Immunization Form signed by a licensed health care provider, to comply with Florida Administrative Code 6C-6.001(4). This code requires that all students born after 1956 submit documented proof of immunity/vaccination to measles (rubeola) and rubella (German measles).
- Degrees offered through the College of Education and Human Services may have additional admission requirements.
- Graduates of foreign schools must submit an International Transcript Evaluation, a course equivalency report and a TOEFL score with a minimum of 500.

Transfer Students

Applicants will be considered for general acceptance if they meet the following requirements:

- Transfer students must have at least a 2.0 cumulative GPA from the last college attended and 12 or more transferable credits.
- A demonstrated readiness to pursue studies.

Reservation Agreements

Students enrolling at Lynn University do so with the understanding that they are in agreement with, and subject to, the following reservations by the university:

- Lynn University reserves the right of final decision in accepting candidates for admission. The student is subject to dismissal for submitting false or misleading information.
- The university reserves the right of final decision regarding course requirements for any degree program offered by the university and the content of individual courses.
- Enrolled students will abide by all Lynn University regulations and comply with all local, state and federal laws. The university reserves the right to suspend or dismiss students for violations of regulations. In such instances, tuition and fees paid to the university will not be refunded.
- Attendance at Lynn is a privilege granted solely by the university. The university reserves the right to withdraw, dismiss or suspend at any time a student whose conduct is deemed inconsistent with the standards, policies, rules and regulations of the university.

Notice: The university makes every effort to assure completeness and accuracy in the catalog. However, due to the inevitable changing nature of listings and policies from year to year, possible errors, misprints or omissions may occur, for which the university shall not be held liable.

The provisions of this catalog are not to be regarded as an irrevocable contract between the student and the university. The university reserves the right to change any provision or requirement, including fees, contained in this catalog at any time with or without notice.

Credits and degrees earned from colleges within the State of Florida that are licensed by the State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities do not automatically qualify the individual for a Florida Teaching Certificate or to participate in professional examinations in Florida. The established procedure requires the Florida Department of Education to review and recognize the credentials of the individual and the accreditation of the college granting the degrees, prior to approving teacher certification; and for the appropriate state professional board under the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation to make similar evaluations prior to scheduling examinations. Any student interested in obtaining a Florida Teaching Certificate should contact the Office of Teacher Certification, Department of Education, Tallahassee, FL 32301. Any student interested in practicing a regulated profession in Florida should contact the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, 2009 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, FL 32301.

Additional information regarding the university may be obtained by contacting the State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities, Department of Education, Tallahassee, FL 32399; 850-488-8695.

Chapter V.

Financial Information

All student charges must be paid in full before the student is allowed to register or attend classes. ALL STATEMENTS OF ACCOUNT ARE DUE AND PAYABLE IN FULL ON OR BEFORE THE DATE SHOWN ON THE STATEMENT. Since the university incurs many expenses of a continuing nature, such as salaries and maintenance, it is essential that the annual income from tuition and fees be assured in order to plan and maintain these services over the entire academic year. For this reason, it is understood that students are enrolled for the entire academic year or such portion as remains after the date of entrance. Furthermore, the university will not grant a degree or issue transcripts until all financial obligations have been satisfied. The university reserves the right to change, with or without notice, any of the fees printed in this catalog, and increases should be expected in subsequent years.

Early Payment Discount Plan

An early payment discount of $50-$650 is available. Tuition prepayment discounts are allowed for Single tuition payment for the ENTIRE 2005-2006 academic year if paid by:

April 1, 2005	$650
May 1, 2005	$550
June 1, 2005	$450
July 1, 2005	$350
Aug. 1, 2005	$250

Single tuition payment for the Fall 2005 semester only if paid by:

April 1, 2005	$375
May 1, 2005	$275
June 1, 2005	$225
July 1, 2005	$175

Single tuition payment for the Spring 2006 semester only if paid by:

Oct. 1, 2005	$100
Nov. 1, 2005	$50

Note: Tuition discounts earned will be credited to the student's account in the succeeding month.

Room and board should be paid as early as possible to ensure a room assignment. All private rooms and double rooms with bathrooms must be paid in full for the full year as soon as possible to guarantee the room. Rooms are assigned on a first-come basis. A waiting list will be generated for these special rooms. All tuition, room and board charges, and fees for the Fall 2005 semester, as well as all other fees, are due no later than Aug. 1, 2005, and for the Spring 2006 semester by Dec. 1, 2005.

Financial aid from third parties will not arrive before the expiration of prepayment deadlines. Therefore, individuals who would like to receive the tuition discount must pay the full tuition within the specified time frame and wait for a refund that will be generated by the receipt of financial aid. Institutional aid awarded by Lynn University will not be considered prepayment of tuition when computing the tuition discount. Individuals who would like to receive the tuition discount must pay the full tuition within the time frame specified and wait for a refund of the overpayment that will be generated when tuition charges are posted and the financial aid award is credited to the student's account at the start of each semester.

Lynn University Payment Arrangements

Evening Program Discount Plans

Family Discount—Applies to immediate family members who are enrolled in credit-bearing classes during the same term. Two family members—10 percent discount for each. Three family members—15 percent discount for each. The discount is applied against the balance of payable tuition.

Referral Bonus—Applies to the Evening Division only. Once a referred student applies for admission and pays for the term, the individual who referred the new student is eligible for a book voucher not to exceed $100 for the term once the referred student's first-term tuition is paid.

Early Payment Discount—Applies to evening students who have paid in full 30 days before the term commences. Registered for one class—$50 discount. Registered for two classes—$100 discount.

Lynn University Payment Plan (undergraduate evening program only)—One-third tuition at the beginning of the term, one-third tuition in the middle of the term and one-third tuition at the end of the term. Processing fee is $50 and is due at the beginning of each term in which the payment plan is utilized. The student will provide post-dated checks at the beginning of the term for all tuition due for the term.

Corporate Reimbursement—All students on the corporate reimbursement program will be required to pay 50 percent of the tuition at the beginning of the term. The remainder will be due three weeks after the end of the term. The student will provide a post-dated check at the beginning of the term for the balance due. The student must provide proof that he or she is eligible for corporate reimbursement from his or her employer before he or she can be enrolled in this program.

Submitting Payments

Payments are accepted in cash, check, money order, credit card or electronic wire transfers in U.S. dollars only. Credit cards that are accepted: VISA, MASTERCARD, AMERICAN EXPRESS and DISCOVER. Please include the student's Lynn University identification number with all payments. Payments may be submitted by mail to:

To help ensure that the appropriate student's account is credited on a timely basis, include the student's name and Lynn University student identification number on wiring instructions; fax confirmation to the Office of Student Administrative Services at 561-237-7189.

Student Course Load (Full-time vs. Part-time)

Day Division full-time undergraduate program students enroll each semester in a minimum of three courses for nine credit hours to a maximum of five courses for 16 credit hours. Approval from the student's academic advisor and academic dean is required for a student to enroll in more than 16 credit hours per semester. There is a charge for the additional credit hours (overload) at a tuition rate of $725 per credit hour.

Students requesting a special exception to enroll in the Day Division for less than nine credit hours must receive written authorization from the manager of academic records. The full-time tuition rate is $12,350 per semester.

Drop/Add Process

Students are permitted to drop/add prior to the beginning of the term without any penalty toward the regular daytime tuition charge. Once the term has begun, fees will be assessed as follows:

Day Students: Sept. 16, 2005
Jan. 24, 2005
May 16, 2005

By the above dates, students will be billed for the credits as of this date for the remainder of the semester. Any courses added subsequently will be assessed at the full rate. Drops will not be permitted after these dates for that term, but the student may wish to withdraw from the course. In those instances, there will not be any credit assessed on fees.

Evening Undergraduate Students: On the first day of term, the tuition is fully charged for all courses enrolled. If the course is subsequently dropped during the drop/add period, the student will be entitled to a 75 percent credit on tuition on the dropped course. After the drop/add period, all tuition remains as assessed. There will not be any credit assessed on fees for course withdrawals.

Technology Fee (Mandatory)

Resident Student: $250 per semester

Day Student (Commuter): $75 per semester

This fee is for e-mail address and Internet access. The telephone service is through STC Services in Allentown, Pa. E-mail addresses may be obtained from the Information Technology Department located in the Green Center.

Student Services Fee (Mandatory)

Resident or Commuter Student: $500 per semester

This fee is assessed to all students. It covers the use of the library, fitness center and pool. It also pays for intramurals, student activities and student government, and provides funds for the Student Finance Committee.

Summer Session 2006

The tuition rate is $725 per credit hour. Students may take up to six credit hours. The Summer Internship rate is also $725 per credit hour.

Room and Board Fee

The room and board fee covers the room, residence, electricity, water, maintenance of furniture and 19 meals throughout the week. The student will be able to have three meals a day during each of the designated times throughout the week and twice on each weekend day. All resident students are charged a meal plan whether or not they choose to eat. Commuter students wishing to purchase a meal plan may do so at the cashier's office. The 10-meal plan costs $54 for every 10 meals.

Residence Hall Fees

If a student requests a lock to be changed, vacates a residence hall without turning in his or her key or duplicates his or her room key off campus, a lock change fee from $50 to $100 will be placed on the student's account.

A student locked out of his or her room more than three times per semester will incur a lock-out fee of $10 on his or her account.

If a student is unable to leave a residence hall for Spring Break, a Spring Break charge of $200 to $250 will be placed on his or her account. Students must receive advance approval from the Residence Life office for Spring Break residencies.

Any change of any room at any time without written approval from the Office of Residence Life will be subject to a fee of $50.

Students will be charged replacement costs for missing or damaged room items.

Students will be charged for damages in common areas that occur during the period they are assigned to rooms. If damage occurs and the individual(s) responsible will not identify himself or herself or cannot be determined, all residents of the affected living unit will share equally in the repair cost.

International Students

International students are required to obtain injury/sickness insurance, which is provided by Cultural Insurance Services International. The estimated cost is $984 per year.

Comprehensive Support Program

This program requires the following special accommodations fees for each program component in addition to Day Division Full-Time Undergraduate Program tuition and fees. Entering freshman students in the Comprehensive Support Program are required to be enrolled for the full year in Component A, which includes their first and second semesters.

	Year	Semester
Component A	$11,300	$5,650
Component B	$8,100	$4,050
Component C	$930

(Undergraduate/Evening/Weekend, 8 weeks)

Non-freshman students required to be in the program for the full year have until the end of the add/drop period to request to be reviewed to be withdrawn from the program in order to receive a full Comprehensive Support Program refund. After the drop/add period ends, there will not be any refund. Students enrolled in six credits or less will be charged one-half the Component A or B semester rate, depending on their status.

Miscellaneous Fees

Course Audit Fee

The audit fee per course is $650.

Late Registration Fee

Late registration will not be permitted after the second week of the day undergraduate term or after the first week of the evening term. A fee will be assessed for late arrival of the designated check-in date for the term.

Laboratory Fees

Laboratory fees are charged for the use of computer labs and certain other lab courses and texts as listed in course descriptions and semester/term class schedules. Required field trips also are included. Fees per lab range from $30 to $750.

Credit by Examination Fee

Credit earned through CLEP scores, work experience, studies in military service, etc. is $75 per credit hour.

Transcript Fee

There is no charge for an official transcript. These are covered by the Alumni Fund. Lynn University encourages all students to donate to the fund so that this service can be offered to future students. All student accounts must be current before a transcript can be issued.

Portfolio Administration Fee

The charge for each portfolio credit is $75.

Graduation Fee

A graduation fee of $130 applies to ALL graduates and represents each graduate's share of expenditures related to the individual graduate and the graduating class. The fee is payable whether or not the graduate participates in commencement. Included are costs pertaining to record verification, diploma, commencement ceremony and activities. Students are responsible for filing for graduation by the appropriate date. The deadline is Oct. 7, 2005, for December, May, June and August graduates.

Lost Identification Card

An ID (Knight Card) is required for all students. It must be presented at any office for assistance, at the library, for classroom and dining hall entry, and to security for after-hours campus entry. It is critical that students carry their IDs at all times. A lost or damaged card can be replaced with a $15 fee for the first time and $25 for each card thereafter. Students must go to the Cashier to make their payment. If the lost card is found, please return it to the Office of Student Administrative Services, as it will no longer be valid on campus.

Knight Card

This card is designed to provide the following services:

- Meal plans
- Prepaid debit card sales at the bookstore and deli
- Self inquiry/identification
- Library card
- After-hours access to campus

ID cards are only for your use. A student should NOT loan or give his or her card to anyone else at any time. To protect cardholders, university and dining staff will examine ID cards when presented to confirm that the card is being used by the person to whom it was issued.

Debit Card

- The debit portion of the ID card will not be activated until the cashier receives payment (cash, check, credit card payment or payroll deduction).
- Cardholders closing accounts incur a $10 service fee each and are not able to reactivate the debit portion of the ID card until the following school year.
- Refunds on closed accounts will be made at the full value of the unused balance, less the $10 service fee.
- Refunds do not apply when balances are less than $1.
- Refunds are mailed to the student's last known address.

For questions regarding the campus ID card, e-mail campuscardadministrator@lynn.edu or visit www.lynn.edu/campuscard.

Late Payment Fee

Failure to meet any financial obligation to the university could subject a student to a $25 per month late payment fee as well as eviction from university housing; suspensions from classes or future services; referral of the student's delinquent account to a collection agency; additional late payment charges; grade release fees; attorney fees; and other costs and charges necessary to collect an overdue amount.

Late Payment Fee for Preregistered Students

All Day Division students who are preregistered for courses must pay their student accounts by Aug. 1, 2005, for the Fall 2005 semester and by Dec. 1, 2005, for the Spring 2006 semester. If payment is not received by the due date, there will be a late payment fee of $500 assessed to the account.

Finance Charges

A finance charge will be computed at the rate of 10 percent per annum on the unpaid balance of each student's account at the end of the preceding month, less any credits applied and payments received during that preceding month.

Financial Policy

If a student's account shows a past due balance of any nature, the university will not issue a transcript, diploma, certificate or recommendation to that student and will not allow the student to enroll for subsequent terms until the student's account is paid in full or until satisfactory arrangements are made with the Office of Student Administrative Services to resolve the indebtedness. Indebtedness is defined as any money or property owed to the university for any reason (i.e. lab fees, library fines, parking fines, unreturned health supplies or athletic equipment, etc.). Students are responsible for checking with the Office of Student Administrative Services on questions of indebtedness.

The university may utilize the services of a collection agency to collect any amount past due and the student will be charged an additional amount equal to the cost of collection fees including fees and expenses incurred by Lynn University.

Books

Textbooks may be purchased in the university bookstore with cash, check, credit card or Knight Card. A large selection of school and personal supplies is also available.

Art and Design Supplies

Art and design supplies cost an average of $200 per semester.

Flight Training Expenses

Students who elect the Flight Option will receive their ground school instruction on campus as part of the regular curriculum (i.e., Primary, Instrument, and Commercial Flight Theory). Flight training is conducted at the nearby Boca Raton Airport under Part 141 of the FARs. New students who elect the Flight Option in September will begin flight training approximately two to three weeks into the fall semester. Expenses are paid directly to Lynn University.

Flight training expenses can differ considerably from student to student because of varying proficiency levels. Therefore, estimated flight training costs are based upon what is considered a reasonable average of instructional hours for the majority of flight students. These costs reflect current flight instruction fees and aircraft rental rates, and are subject to change without notice.

Flying Rates are based on $115/hour for the aircraft, $45/hour for the instructor and $45/hour in the flight training device.

Pre/Post Flight Briefing	13	$45	$585
Supplies			$425

Total for Commercial Certificate:

$17,585

Total for all ratings:

$35,625

A $250 Federal Aviation Administration Designated Flight Examiner Fee will be added to the flight time charge for each flight examination. This fee will cover the FAA Designated Flight Examiner's services for all ground evaluation and certificate paperwork.

Please visit www.lynn.edu or call for the current fees.

Flight Training Deposit

Students electing to obtain their flight certificates through the Burton D. Morgan School of Aeronautics must place a $2,000 deposit on their account specifically for flight training prior to beginning flight training in each certificate. Students may use this deposit to cover flight training costs. The student does not need to keep the full deposit amount on account. Any portion of the flight training deposit not used for flight training is fully refundable.

The curriculum lists the flight theory and related flight training course work in the first two years.

Students are not bound by this schedule and may complete their ratings at any time prior to graduation. However, students should schedule their flight training courses to coincide with the related ground school courses and should note that not all ground school and flight training courses are available every semester.

A new Flight Option student who already has a pilot's certificate and rating(s) can apply for and receive credit for equivalent courses in the curriculum. However, prior to the award of any credit, the chief flight instructor will administer the standard Part 141 diagnostic evaluation to determine whether any review (ground school or flight) is necessary. The flight school director has final authority over all flight-related credit awards. Students enrolling in Lynn University and pursuing pilot certificates and ratings outside the university's flight program will not receive credit for any equivalent flight courses in the curriculum.

Students are required to obtain personal liability coverage to protect them from liability costs that may occur as a result of operating an aircraft. No student will be allowed to fly until proof of liability coverage is placed in the student's record at Lynn University.

Frasca Flight Training Device (FTD Simulator)

Students in the Flight Option who are enrolled in any of the three flight training courses may utilize the FTD as required by the instructor. A lab fee will apply in accordance with the following scale:

Course Lab Fees

AVM 120 Primary Flight Theory and Training, Solo	$100
AVM 121 Primary Flight Theory and Training, PPL	$100
AVM 220 Instrument Flight Theory and Training, PPL	$100
AVM 221 Instrument Flight Theory and Training, Advanced	$100

Payment of the appropriate lab fee will entitle the flight student to use the Frasca FTD during private pilot training at no additional charge. During instrument training, the student may use the Frasca FTD as required by the syllabus at a discounted rate.

Payment of the appropriate lab fee will entitle the flight student to use the Frasca FTD as required or recommended by the instructor, at no additional charge, either for FTD use or instructor time. When using an instructor not employed by Lynn University, however, a $30 per hour fee will apply.

Any Lynn University student who is not enrolled in one of the above listed courses may use the FTD at the rate of $25 per hour to increase flight proficiency. There will be no instructor charge for using Lynn University instructors; using outside instructors carries a $30 per hour fee.

Day Division Refund Policy

In cases of withdrawal from the university, a student must file a Request for Withdrawal form that establishes the date to which the university refund schedule applies. It is also the student's responsibility to make a written refund request to the Office of Student Administrative Services before refunds will be made.

REFUNDS ARE CALCULATED ON THE BASIS OF TOTAL SEMESTER CHARGES PAYABLE AFTER DEDUCTIONS FOR NONREFUNDABLE DEPOSITS AND OTHER NONREFUNDABLE FEES SUCH AS LAB FEES, SERVICE AND TECHNOLOGY FEES.

When a withdrawing student has been awarded financial aid and the student withdraws prior to completing 60 percent of the term and if Title IV financial aid has been used to pay for all or any portion of the charges, financial aid program funds will be reimbursed to the appropriate agency in accordance with a formula required by federal regulations. Unearned Title IV funds will be returned to the Title IV Programs based on the number of days not attended. The order of refunds will be: Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal PLUS Loan, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG and other Title IV aid programs.

If a student withdraws anytime during a semester, all Lynn University grants and scholarship funds will be prorated to the university accounts. This policy may result in a financial obligation that is payable to the university at the time of a student's withdrawal.

Calculation of Refundable Amounts for Day Program

The table below is based on accounts paid in FULL.

	Fall 2005	Spring 2006

Room Charges

Prior to 9/06/05 for FALL 2005	100 %
Prior to 1/17/06 for SPRING 2006	100 %
After the above dates	NO REFUND

Refund

There are no refunds for withdrawals after 10/03/05 for Fall 2005 and 2/13/06 for Spring 2006. The refund amount will be reduced by any financial aid that is cancelled due to the withdrawal. Refund checks will be mailed to the billing address on file within four to six weeks of the withdrawal date. Any remaining balance due after the refund adjustment is the obligation of the parent/student.

Undergraduate Evening Refund Policy

Students receive 100 percent of the tuition paid if they drop courses prior to the date publicized as the first day of the term. For courses dropped during the first week of the term (add/drop) period, students receive 75 percent of the tuition. There is no refund after the first week of the term.

Undergraduate Evening Withdrawal

Withdrawals from Evening Division classes must be accomplished through the college advisor and are only permitted through the seventh (7th) week of a term. It is the student's responsibility to properly file a Request for Withdrawal form with the Office of Student Administrative Services. THERE IS NO REFUND AFTER THE FIRST WEEK OF THE TERM.

When a withdrawing student has been awarded financial aid and the student withdraws prior to completing 60 percent of the term, and if Title IV financial aid has been used to pay all or any portion of the charges, the financial aid program funds will be reimbursed to the appropriate agency in accordance with a formula required by federal regulations. Unearned Title IV funds will be returned to the Title IV programs based on the number of days not attended. The order of refunds will be: Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal PLUS Loan, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG and other Title IV aid programs.

If a student withdraws at any time during a semester, all Lynn University grants and scholarship funds will be prorated to the university accounts. This policy may result in a financial obligation that is payable to the university at the time of a student's withdrawal.

Evening Division Enrollment Requirements for Financial Aid

For undergraduate degrees, a minimum of six credit hours in a given term is required for the loan programs. A student must stay enrolled in at least three credits each consecutive term thereafter to maintain in-school status for the loan programs. For graduate programs, a minimum of three credit hours is required in a given term; however, the graduate student must register for two consecutive terms. Maintaining in-school status refers to not going into repayment. It does not indicate that a student can be enrolled in three-credit courses and be eligible for a loan. For the Florida Programs (Florida Resident Access Grant), credit hour requirements are as follows:

Spring I	(January - March)	eight weeks	6 credits
Spring II	(March - April)	eight weeks	6 credits
Fall I	(September - October)	eight weeks	6 credits
Fall II	(October - September)	eight weeks	6 credits

Scholarships also are available for evening students. Applications are available in the Office of Admissions.

Financial Aid

Lynn University participates in most Title IV financial aid programs. The purpose of these programs is to supplement the resources of applicants and their families. Financial aid awards are made on the basis of need, and applicants must file a financial statement reflecting the family's resources. Since financial aid is limited, applicants are encouraged to apply as early as possible (preferably by March 1 for entrance the following academic year). Tentative awards are made when the student has filed all required forms and the analysis of need has been received from the Federal Processing Center. Aid is generally awarded in a combination of loans, employment and/or grants. Students also are encouraged to apply for state grants or loans open to them and to investigate educational loans from local banks.

Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress for Financial Aid - Day and Evening Divisions

Financial aid is awarded contingent upon the recipient maintaining satisfactory academic standing and progress toward a degree. Students on financial aid will have their cumulative grade point averages evaluated at the end of the spring semester for Day Division students and in June for Evening Division students each academic year. At that point, students must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. If a student falls below a 2.0, he or she will be placed on financial aid probation for the following academic year. Students will be allowed Title IV financial assistance during the probationary period. A student is removed from probationary status when his or her cumulative grade point average is 2.0 or better. If a student has completed a second academic year of attendance at Lynn University, he or she must have a 2.0 cumulative grade point average at the end of the spring semester for Day Division students and in June for Evening Division students to retain Title IV funding for the following academic year. There is no probationary semester.

Students receiving Title IV funding must complete their degrees within a specific time frame as follows:

Bachelor Degree

- Full-time: 12 semesters (6 years)
- Part-time: 24 semesters (12 years)

Each Title IV recipient must meet a specific measurement of academic progress within the specified time frame as follows:

Bachelor Degree

- Full-time: 20 credits (annually)
- Part-time: 10 credits (annually)

Course withdrawal(s) or incomplete(s) are evaluated as non-completed courses and are not counted toward the time frame requirement.

Repeat courses are evaluated as any other normal course. A student may appeal these standards if there has been undue hardship (i.e., medical, death, divorce). Appeals must be directed to the Office of Student Administrative Services for review by the Financial Aid Committee. Students will be notified by the Office of Student Administrative Services within thirty (30) days of the Financial Aid Committee's decision.

In addition, specific financial aid programs require the following academic achievements for renewals:

Presidential Scholarship and National Merit Finalist Scholarship

3.5 cumulative grade point average at the end of the spring semester

Florida Resident Academic Incentive Scholarship, Dean's Scholarship, Academic Scholarship, Transfer Scholarship

3.0 cumulative grade point average at the end of the spring semester

Lynn University Grant

2.75 cumulative grade point average at the end of the spring semester

Athletic Scholarship

2.0 cumulative grade point average each semester

Music Scholarship

2.75 cumulative grade point average, a B or better in Applied Music Instrument lessons, and fulfill requirements set forth in the Conservatory Student Handbook

Florida Programs

A renewal student must have a 2.0 cumulative grade point average and have completed 24 credit hours during two semesters (fall and spring). A student is eligible for one probationary year if he or she falls below a 2.0 cumulative grade point average after the end of the spring semester.

The Standards of Academic Progress apply to the following programs:

- Federal Pell Grant
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG)
- Federal Perkins Loan
- Federal Stafford Loans (Subsidized and Unsubsidized)
- Federal Parental Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)
- Federal Work Study Program

If a student is unable to meet the above requirements, he or she must contact the Office of Student Administrative Services to investigate if other arrangements are possible.

Applying for Financial Aid

1. All applicants for admission are requested to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This also can be done online at www.fafsa.ed.gov.
2. The FAFSA must be returned to the appropriate processing agency. The agency will process this form and send the university a report on what the family can be expected to contribute to the educational costs.
3. Students should make sure that their transcripts and recommendations are on file at the university because financial aid decisions are not made until students have been accepted to the university.
4. When students have been accepted and the financial analysis has been received from the processing agency, the university determines the financial aid award and notifies the students. If a student wishes to accept the award, he or she must submit a nonrefundable deposit to the admissions office within 15 days. This deposit is credited to the student's account.
5. Before federal financial aid funds can be credited to a student's account, information submitted on the FAFSA is sometimes verified. The university is responsible for coordinating this federal verification process. In order to clarify the family's financial situation, the Office of Student Administrative Services may request a copy of the parents' and student's tax returns and other information. All financial aid is awarded on the condition that the above information is provided when requested.

Upon receipt of the information, it is reviewed and compared with the information noted on the need analysis. If this new information changes data previously submitted, a revised financial aid award may be sent. Timely response to requests will avoid delays in an accurate assessment of need.

Types of Financial Aid

Applicants do not apply for the various types of awards individually. The university determines the types and amounts of awards based on the amount of aid available in the various programs and the family's expected contribution.

Federal Programs

Federal Pell Grant and Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG)

The Pell Grant is a federal aid program for those with substantial need. The grant may be worth up to $4,050 a year, depending on the family's resources and the federal funds actually available. The FAFSA, which the university requires for its aid program, also is used to determine eligibility for the FSEOG Grant. Therefore, students do not have to file separate applications for this award. The Federal Supplemental Grant provides additional assistance to those with severe need who cannot meet college costs with the other forms of aid. The average award is $1,200 per year. Priority awarding is given to undergraduate Day Division students.

Federal Perkins Loan

The Federal Perkins Loan program provides low-interest loans to students who demonstrate financial need. Repayment of the loan begins nine months after the student ceases to be at least a half-time student. The university allocates these loans to those who are most eligible. An average award is $1,200 per year.

Federal Stafford Loans

The Federal Stafford Loan is available to students who demonstrate financial need. The maximum allowed for the first year of undergraduate study is $2,625; for the second year of undergraduate study it is $3,500; and after two years, it is $5,500 per year. A fifth-year student will have the loan prorated according to federal regulations. Eligibility is based on other sources of financial aid received and a parental contribution factor. The university may help by providing information regarding participating lenders. Priority awarding is given to undergraduate Day Division students.

Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan

This loan is not based on financial need; however, the limit is the same as the Federal Stafford Loan. The Stafford and Unsubsidized Stafford loans combined cannot exceed these limits. For independent students, the limits are as follows: a first-year student limit is $6,625, a second-year student limit is $7,500, and a third- or fourth-year student limit is $10,500. Fifth-year students will have their loan prorated according to federal regulations.

The unsubsidized loan has a variable interest rate but is not to exceed 8.25 percent. The variable rate changes every July 1. The interest may be added to the principal at the end of studies. Repayment of the principal begins six months after the student ceases to be at least a half-time student. Applications may be obtained at participating lending institutions or at the Office of Student Administrative Services.

Parental Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

This loan is not based on financial need but must be within the cost of attendance determined by the university. The maximum interest rate is not to exceed 9 percent. It is a variable rate that changes every July 1. The amount a parent may borrow is the difference between the cost of attendance less any financial aid. Repayment usually begins within 60 days of the second disbursement. Loans are disbursed in two payments and made copayable to the parent and the university. The parent may not have any adverse credit to qualify for the loan. Applications may be obtained at participating lending institutions or at the Office of Student Administrative Services. Parents must be eligible citizens to apply. If a parent is denied, a student will be eligible to apply for an additional Unsubsidized Stafford Loan for a maximum of $4,000 as a first- or second-year student or up to $5,000 as a third- or fourth-year student. A parent may seek preapproval via the Web site at www.lynn.edu/loanPLUS.

Federal College Work Study

Under this program, a student is assigned a job on campus depending on financial need and the availability of funds. Students usually work eight to 12 hours per week. Pay rates start at $6.15 per hour. Priority awarding is given to undergraduate Day Division students.

Florida Programs

Florida Resident Access Grant

Dependent students whose parents are residents of Florida or independent students who are residents of Florida for at least 12 months for other than educational purposes may be eligible to receive up to $2,850 per year from the State of Florida.

Florida Student Assistance Grant

The Florida Student Assistance Grant is based on financial need and the same residential and academic requirements as the Florida Resident Access Grant with grants up to $1,480 per year. The student must file the FAFSA prior to May 15 to be considered for aid for the next academic year.

State Grants and Loans

Most states have grant and loan programs that may be used for state residents to attend out-of-state colleges. Students should investigate these programs through their high school guidance office or contact the Department of Education in their state capital.

Monthly Payment Program

Parents who prefer to pay educational costs out of their monthly income may do so through the program of an educational loan company, such as Key Corp Banks, 1-800-KEY-LEND.

Institutional Programs

Available for undergraduate Day Division programs only.

Florida Resident Academic Incentive Scholarship Program

These scholarships are awarded to Florida high school graduates. The award is $8,400. Students must meet two of the following three requirements:

1. 3.0 GPA
2. 1000 SAT
3. Standings in the top 30 percent of their graduating class. A 3.0 cumulative grade point average is required for renewal each year.

National Merit Finalist Scholarship

These scholarships are awarded to high school seniors who are National Merit Award finalists. The award amount is $24,700 (tuition). The grant is renewable if the student maintains a 3.5 cumulative grade point average at the end of the spring semester each year.

Presidential Scholarships

These scholarships are awarded to high school seniors. The award amount is $24,700 (first year's tuition). Students must meet two of the following three requirements: (1) 1200 SAT, (2) 3.75 GPA, and (3) a ranking in the top 10 percent of their senior class. The scholarship is renewable if the student maintains a 3.5 cumulative grade point average at the end of the spring semester each year. Seventy percent will be allocated to tuition costs, and 30 percent will be allocated to dormitory costs.

Lynn University Grant

These grants are awarded to upperclassmen who are worthy of scholarship consideration and in need of financial assistance. The average award is $1,000 per year. The grant is renewable if the student maintains a 2.75 cumulative grade point average each year.

Athletic Scholarships

These scholarships are available in men's soccer, baseball, tennis, basketball and golf, and in women's soccer, tennis, basketball, volleyball, golf and softball. Awards range from $100 to $33,800 per year. A 2.0 grade point average is required to maintain an athletic scholarship.

Dean's Scholarship

These scholarships are awarded to high school seniors. The award amount is $10,000. Students must meet two of the following three requirements: (1) 3.25 GPA, (2) 1100 SAT, and (3) a ranking in the top 20 percent of their high school class. The scholarship is renewable if the student maintains a 3.25 cumulative grade point average. Seventy percent will be allocated to tuition costs, and 30 percent will be allocated to dormitory costs. All freshmen who receive a Dean's Scholarship will have the opportunity to participate in the Freshman Honors Experience.

Academic Scholarship

These scholarships are awarded to high school seniors. The award amount is between $6,000 and $8,000. Students must meet two of the following three requirements: (1) 2.8 GPA, (2) 950 SAT, and (3) a ranking in the top 30 percent of their high school class. The scholarship is renewable if the student maintains a 3.0 cumulative grade point average. Seventy percent will be allocated to tuition costs, and 30 percent will be allocated to dormitory costs.

Honors

Students in the Honors Program may be eligible to receive a $500 stipend at the completion of each semester.

Music Scholarship

These scholarships are awarded to students primarily on the basis of musical ability and artistic talent as demonstrated in their audition. Students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, FAFSA, (or International Student Financial Review Form for international applicants) in order to be considered. Applicants are encouraged to apply by the priority deadline of February 15 for entrance the following academic year. The scholarship is renewable if the student maintains a 2.75 minimum cumulative grade point average each semester; earns a B or better in their applied major instrument lessons; and attends classes, lessons, rehearsals, master classes, performance forum, outreach performances, juries, mock auditions and other conservatory performances and activities as required. An evaluation of each student will take place at the end of each academic year by the dean of the Conservatory of Music with the recommendation of the major instrument instructor.

Lynn University Institutional Loan

This loan program is awarded on the basis of financial need as determined by the Office of Student Administrative Services. The funds for this program are limited. The loan represents money borrowed by the student and must be repaid with interest after leaving school. The current rate is 5 percent. The student must sign a promissory note for this loan that must be returned to the Office of Student Administrative Services prior to registration. Perkins recipients are ineligible for this loan.

Transfer Scholarship

These scholarships are awarded to transfer students with a grade point average of 2.8 or higher who have successfully completed a minimum of 15 college credits. The scholarship is renewable if the student maintains a 3.0 cumulative grade point average. The award may range from $3,000 to $8,000.

University Financial Aid

These grants are awarded to students who demonstrate financial need on the Free Application for Student Federal Assistance application. Awards range from $1,000 to $8,000.

Private Scholarships

Scholarships are available from private organizations or individuals for students with academic promise. The selection of recipients and the award amounts are determined by the university or the donor, or both.

Veterans Benefits (Available for All Credit Programs)

Lynn University is approved to administer veterans benefits. Students who fail to achieve the desired level of academic performance will be terminated for Veterans Administration purposes. Questions regarding veterans' educational benefits may be directed to the Office of Student Administrative Services or the Regional Veterans Administration Office at 1-888-442-4551.

Credit for Previous Training

Students who are eligible to receive educational benefits from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs with previous post-secondary training/experience must request that official transcript(s) be sent to Lynn University. All transcripts must be received by the end of the first term or the student's educational benefits will be terminated until all transcript(s) are received. Should credits be accepted, the student's training time and total tuition costs will be reduced proportionately. The VA and the student will receive a written notice of allowed credits. This reduction refers to total costs involved in obtaining the degree. Costs are reduced when credits from another institution are applied toward a Lynn University degree. This does not imply a credit reduction allowance for veterans or eligible dependents.

Tax Law (U.S. Citizens and International Students)

Under current Internal Revenue Service regulations, scholarships or grants that exceed tuition, fees, books and supplies must be reported on the student's tax return as taxable income. Any international student from a non-treaty country receiving a scholarship will have withholding tax assessed and will be responsible for complying with Internal Revenue Service regulations and deadlines.

International Student Loans

Private loan programs are available for international students. The amount that can be borrowed is up to the cost of attendance at our university. Students will need to obtain an American resident as a cosigner. Students may contact the Office of Student Administrative Services for applications.

International Students Scholarship Policy

International students who receive scholarships for their education at a U.S. university may be liable for paying taxes to the U.S. government if they meet these criteria:

- If the student is from a treaty country, they will usually be exempt for a period not exceeding five years.
- The amount of the award that is not exempt has a withholding of 14 percent.

Currently, the countries that do have a reciprocal scholarship tax treaty with the United States are: Belgium, China, Commonwealth of Independent States, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Egypt, Estonia, France, Germany, Iceland, Indonesia, Israel, Japan, Kazakstan, Korea, Latvia, Lithuania, Morocco, Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain, Thailand, Trinidad and Tobago, Tunisia, Ukraine, Venezuela. Students from any other country will have 14 percent taxes withheld and billed to their school account. If the student is from a non-treaty country, any scholarships in excess of amounts used for tuition, fees, books and supplies will be taxed at the 14 percent rate. Every international student must apply for a Social Security number. The Lynn University Center for International Programs and Services can help the students apply for this number. Applications are available at the Center for International Programs and Services. A student must complete a W-4 form, sign an IRS statement in the Office of Student Administrative Services and pay the required tax to the Office of Student Administrative Services. Students must pay the taxes to Lynn University within 30 days or they will be penalized by the IRS and have to pay additional interest charges. All international students will be required to file a 1040NR with the IRS by April 15, 2006. These tax forms are available in the Center for International Programs and Services or the Payroll office. Any student who does not comply with the filing of the tax returns will not have his/her scholarships renewed. The student may contact an international student advisor for more information.

Remedial Courses

Students who must take remedial classes may have their financial aid reduced if credit course load toward their degree is less than 12 hours for the semester.

Renewal of Financial Aid

To have financial aid renewed, a new FAFSA must be submitted each year, preferably by March 1. Students must be in good standing at the university, both academically and socially.

Chapter VI.

General Academic Policies and Regulations

Attendance Regulations

Regular and punctual attendance is essential to successful academic achievement. Each student is responsible for all work from the first day of class and must make satisfactory arrangements with the instructor regarding absences. The instructor's absence policy is explained on the course syllabus at the first class meeting. Exceeding the allowable number of class absences may subject the student to a failing grade.

Effective Sept. 1, 2004, Lynn University implemented an Administrative Withdrawal Policy. This policy was implemented in order to be in compliance with the return to Title IV federal regulations. All students will be affected by this policy. An administrative withdrawal will be defined as a student who has stopped attending all classes for three consecutive weeks. If a student is administratively withdrawn, he/she will be issued a grade of WF in all of his/her classes and these grades will calculate as an F in his/her GPA.

Directory Information

Directory information, including the following data, may be released without the student's written authorization:

- Student's full name
- College or school of enrollment
- Class
- Full/part-time status
- Date of graduation
- Merit scholarships
- Major
- E-mail address
- Degrees and/or honors awarded

In order to withhold the release of the above information, the student must present a letter to the Office of Student Administrative Services within two weeks of the registration period. This information will be withheld until it is released by the student.

Observance of Religious Holidays

Lynn University respects the rights of all individuals to observe customarily recognized religious holidays throughout the academic year. If a student intends to be absent from university activities or classes as a result of any such observance, other than those noted on the academic calendar, the student should notify the dean of students and the current professors in writing prior to the specific holiday.

Student Responsibility

Each student is responsible for a knowledge of and adherence to the regulations covering registration, withdrawal, degree plan, curriculum and graduation requirements.

Lynn University does not grant certification or licensure for the practice of any profession. Regulations governing certification and/or licensure are under the sole control of the appropriate boards in each state authorized to oversee these processes.

It is the student's responsibility to:

- Contact the appropriate professional boards in the state(s) in which they intend to practice.
- Determine all requirements related to certification and/or licensure.
- Determine whether or not the degree program in which they are enrolled at Lynn University meets all program requirements for certification and/or licensure for the state(s) in which they intend to practice.

Academic Advisement and Registration

Academic Accommodations

Lynn University strives to meet the needs of students with disabilities in compliance with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). An ADA Policy Board has been established to:

- Help determine academic accommodations for students with disabilities.
- Develop programs for increasing faculty understanding of disabilities.
- Assist in resolving disagreements that might arise concerning accommodations.

The ADA Policy Board consists of the following members: the vice president for academic affairs; the senior vice president for administration and student services; the dean of administration; the academic dean; and the dean of the Institute for Achievement and Learning, who is the ADA Compliance Officer. This board is guided by legal counsel familiar with the ADA. The ADA compliance officer is responsible for resolving "modification" of accommodation matters on an informal basis. However, if such effort is unsuccessful, an instructor or student services employee may be referred to the board to review the matter and advise the academic dean of the final decision. Accommodations must be addressed on an individual basis. NOTE: Issues regarding employment are handled through the Office of Human Resources.

Academic Advising

Day Division academic counseling for the students at Lynn University begins even before prospective students enroll. High school grades, class rank, scores on entrance examination board tests, and other information included in the application for admission are reviewed for placement purposes in freshmen courses in English and mathematics. Students with deficient backgrounds in mathematics or English may be placed in fundamentals courses not listed in the core curriculum. In some instances, a review of students' records may result in their being advised to consider more appropriate programs of study.

Each first-year student of the Day Division is assigned to a section of FYE 101 First Year Experience. The instructor serves as the mentor/advisor for that group of students during their first year. Following the completion of the first year, students who have selected a major will work in conjunction with an advisor from that academic program area.

Any student under probationary status will be referred to the Institute for Achievement and Learning as well as to his/her academic advisor.

Evening Division students are advised by a designated counselor in the college of their major. After an initial interview and registration, students may register by telephone or online for the following term. After a registration form has been completed and signed by the student's advisor, no changes may be made to course selections without the approval and signature of the advisor.

English and Math Requirements

Degree-seeking students who have not met English 101 or 102 requirements will be evaluated to assure that they have the minimum prerequisite skills. If the evaluation indicates that the student would benefit from further instruction, he or she will be required to successfully complete ENG 099 before enrolling in ENG 101. In addition, degree-seeking students will need to fulfill the college algebra requirement and will be tested to evaluate prerequisite elementary algebra skills. If it is determined that additional skills are needed, the student will be required to successfully complete MAT 099.

Admission to Classes

Registered students are permitted to enter class only after obtaining financial clearance from the Office of Student Administrative Services and completing the formal registration process. Currently enrolled students whose accounts are in arrears may be withdrawn from classes. If a student is withdrawn, this may result in an additional financial obligation to the university.

Audit

Students who wish to audit a class must receive permission from their faculty advisor and the instructor of the course and, if in excess of a 15 credit-hour load, permission from the appropriate college dean. A student who officially audits a course, although not required to take examinations, is expected to attend class regularly and to participate in a manner that is agreeable to the instructor. An AU will be recorded on the permanent record of courses officially audited. A full-time student will not be charged for auditing a course. Students not enrolled on a full-time basis will be charged an audit fee (see the Tuition and Fees section for current fee).

Cancellation of Courses

The university reserves the right to cancel any course for which an insufficient number of students has enrolled or for other reasons deemed necessary. No charge is made to a student for a registration change necessitated by such course cancellation.

Change of Registration

Changes in registration are permitted only with the consent of the student's faculty advisor/mentor. Course additions or section changes must be made during the official add/drop period as noted on the academic calendar. A student who drops a course during this period will not receive a grade and the course will not appear on the permanent university record. To drop, add, or change a course section, the student must obtain the appropriate form from the Office of Student Administrative Services or advisor. The form must be signed by the faculty advisor/mentor. To change a load to less than three courses requires the approval of the registrar.

Classification of Students

Matriculated students are those who have met all admission requirements and have declared their intention to obtain a degree.

In some instances, students may be undecided concerning their degree program. In order for both the student and the faculty advisor to plan appropriate course distribution for each degree area, it is recommended that students declare their degree program upon completion of 30 credit hours for bachelor's degree programs at the time of registration. Transfer students who have already completed at least 30 credit hours should declare a major in a degree program at the time of registration.

Matriculated students are classified according to the following number of semester hours of credit completed toward their degree:

Classification	Credit Hours
Freshman	0 to 30
Sophomore	31 to 60
Junior	61 to 90
Senior	At least 91

Non-matriculated students are full- or part-time students who have not declared their intention or are not eligible to obtain a degree. Non-matriculated students includes those who enroll in courses for self-enrichment and are not following any specific degree program requirements.

Students seeking to matriculate into a degree program must declare their intent with the Office of Admissions after completing the number of credits specified in the matriculated category. Failure to do so could result in the loss of all credits taken beyond the applicable credit limits specified.

Course Load

Day Division: The normal semester academic load for full-time students is nine to 16 credit hours per semester with a three to five course load. Students at their discretion and after consultation with their academic advisor may register for up to 18 credit hours per semester. The student will be billed additionally for credit hours in excess of 16 in each semester at the prevailing tuition rate per credit hour.

In order to register for 19, or more credit hours, students must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better and permission from the vice president of academic affairs and the academic dean. If permission is granted, the student will be billed for the additional credit hours in excess of 16 in each semester at the prevailing tuition rate per credit hour.

Prior to the beginning of a term, students may not reduce their semester course load to less than three courses without written permission from the registrar. During the term, a student must have the approval of the academic dean.

A student enrolled in summer session(s) may not exceed a total of six credit hours for the entire summer term. A summer internship with a maximum of six credit hours may be taken after the summer session.

The standard course load for the Evening Division is six credits. A course load exceeding six credits requires the advisor's approval.

Evening Division: The normal term is eight weeks long. Three credit classes meet for 32 hours; four credit lecture classes meet for 40 hours. These hours are supplemented with additional contact hours on Saturdays or online.

Course Withdrawal

After the add/drop period, students may withdraw from a course by completing the withdrawal form from the Office of Student Administrative Services. The completed form should be submitted to the Office of Student Administrative Services within the designated time frame. Students who withdraw from a course will receive a W on their permanent university records. Refer to the academic calendar for the deadline to withdraw from a course. Any withdrawal processed after the deadline will receive a grade of WF.

Computation of Grade Point Average

At the end of each semester, a scholarship index (GPA-Grade Point Average) is computed for each student.

A= 4.00 points for each credit	C= 2.00 points for each credit
A-= 3.67 points for each credit	C-= 1.67 points for each credit
B+= 3.33 points for each credit	D+= 1.33 points for each credit
B= 3.00 points for each credit	D= 1.00 point for each credit
B-= 2.67 points for each credit	F= 0.00 points
C+= 2.33 points for each credit	WF= 0.00 points

Thus, a grade of A in a three-credit course would be assigned 12 points.

The GPA is determined by dividing the total number of earned quality points by the number of attempted credits. Grades of AU, I, NR, P, and W are excluded from the calculations. Other symbols in use (not included in computation of average):

W	Officially withdrawn from the course
WF	Withdraw Failing or Administrative Withdrawal
AU	Audit
I	Incomplete
P	Pass (used only for selected practicum, internship and 099 courses)
NR	Grade not reported

A grade of P designates passing and is issued in selected courses to students whose work record and other course requirements reflect non-failing quality. The credit hours are recorded but not used in the calculation of the grade point average.

A temporary grade of NR is recorded if an instructor fails to list the grade prior to the time that grades are due. The actual course grade is recorded as soon as possible, pending receipt of grades. If a grade is not received within the designated time frame, the NR grade will be changed to an F.

A student who has not met the course requirements by the end of the semester and/or term may receive an I. The grade of I reflects neither passing nor failing work, and it will not be included in the calculation of the grade point average. The student is responsible for completing the course requirements during the first three weeks of the following semester and/or term. Spring semester students have three weeks into the following fall semester to complete their course work. Failure to complete the course requirements within this time results in the student receiving an F for the course.

Grade Review Process

A request for a final course grade to be reviewed may be submitted during the first three weeks of the following term only on the basis of error or prejudice. The process is as follows: (1) The student requesting a final course grade review must meet with the instructor who determined the grade, and must present evidence of prejudice or error. The instructor may change the grade, if deemed appropriate, or reaffirm the original grade. (2) If the student wishes to pursue an additional review, a written request with all supporting evidence may be submitted to the instructor's immediate supervisor (normally the college dean). The supervisor will review the evidence and may support the instructor's decision or return the evidence to the instructor for a change of the grade. If an agreement cannot be reached, the supervisor and the instructor may consult with the academic dean before rendering a decision. (3) If the student's request is denied, the student may submit the written request and supporting evidence through the academic dean to the Academic Appeals Committee for review. The committee will convene within two weeks of receipt of the request and render a decision. The decision will be documented and returned to the student within one week of the completion of deliberations. The decision of the Academic Appeals Committee will be final.

For a disputed test or paper grade, the student must first meet with his or her instructor. Then the student may meet with the instructor's immediate supervisor (normally the college dean) by submitting a written statement. This process must take place within seven days from the date of the student's notification of the grade.

Independent Study and Directed Study

Independent Study involves scholastic or research endeavors apart from regular courses offered at Lynn University. Students should pursue Independent Study with direction from their supervising professor with the approval of the appropriate college dean and the academic dean.

Directed Study (regular courses taken by special arrangement) involves the student and instructor in virtually a one-on-one relationship (i.e., frequent conferences regarding the study are needed in order to complete a regularly offered course). Appropriate request forms for Independent and Directed Study are available in the Student Administrative Services Office. Signatures denoting approval by the instructor, appropriate college dean and academic dean must be obtained before a student can register for either course of study.

The time limit for completing an Independent or Directed Study is one semester or term. If additional time is required for completion, the student must formally request an extension from the faculty member involved. Extensions must be approved in writing and filed with the Office of Student Administrative Services. Independent studies may be proposed for one or more credit hours, although they generally will be valued at three credit hours.

Letters for Verification of Enrollment

Letters for verification of enrollment at the university must be requested and signed by students or their parents if they are listed on the Buckley Form. Forms are available in the Office of Student Administrative Services and take approximately three working days to process.

Permission to Study at Other Institutions

Students who desire to attend another collegiate institution while enrolled at Lynn University and want to ensure that those credits will apply to their Lynn University degree program must complete the form and obtain the appropriate signatures. Only credit hours transfer, not grades. The last 30 credits must be taken at Lynn University.

Repeat Courses

When a student repeats a course because of failure, both the original and the subsequent grades are recorded on the official university transcript; however, only the passing grade is included in the grade point average calculation. The student's GPA will be affected only if the course is repeated at Lynn University.

Required Courses Must Be Repeated If Failed

If a student repeats a course with a D grade and fails the repeat course, the D grade will be included in the cumulative grade point average. The F grade will appear on the transcript but will not be included in the cumulative grade point average.

Student Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (commonly called the Buckley Amendment) is designed to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review their records, and to provide a means of correcting inaccurate and misleading data. Lynn University makes every effort to comply with this legislation. Certain information is considered public and is released at the university's discretion. Unless a student files written notification to withhold disclosure, the university will release announcements of graduation, honors, and awards, and will verify dates of attendance and conferring of degrees. Names, addresses, and other directory information will be released for use within the university community. Only transcripts of academic records and statements of academic status pertaining to Lynn University course work are released to third parties, and then only with the written authorization of the student.

A student has the right to challenge any content of the student's education record that is considered to be inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student's privacy or other rights. Such challenge may be directed to the Office of Student Administrative Services.

A student's permanent record includes the transcript, application for admittance, and semester grades. These are maintained in the Office of Student Administrative Services. All documentation used in the admission and placement processes, while considered non-permanent, is also maintained in the Office of Student Administrative Services during the student's period of enrollment.

Transcripts

Transcripts must be requested in writing by the student or alumnus. There is a $5 fee per copy for Official Transcripts, which bear the signature of the registrar and the Official University Seal. The $5 fee for each transcript is graciously paid for by the Alumni Association. Transcripts are typically processed within five working days after receipt of the request. During busy times in the office, requests may take up to two weeks to be processed. Lengthier processing periods typically occur at the beginning and end of a semester. Request forms are available in the Student Administrative Services Office or on the Web. The following information is required:

- Name while attending the university
- Current name, if different
- Lynn University ID number or Social Security number
- Approximate dates of attendance
- Degrees received, if applicable
- Address where the transcript(s) must be sent
- Current address and phone number
- Student or alumnus signature

Transfer Credits

Lynn University will accept credits in transfer from other institutions under the following conditions:

1. Transfer credit will be awarded only for courses in which the final grade was C or better with the understanding that if a particular course does not meet specific curriculum or elective requirements in the planned program of study, the student may need to take more than the minimum number of courses stipulated in the chosen program of study in order to graduate.

2. For course titles not specifically listed in the catalog and curriculum, the appropriate college dean must determine equivalence before transfer credit will be awarded.
3. Credits from schools not accredited by one of the regional associations will be evaluated only after a student has submitted a school catalog and a course syllabus for each course to be evaluated. In certain instances competency testing may be required.
4. Students should keep in mind that only course credits transfer, not course grades. Grades of courses taken elsewhere are not considered in determining the student's grade point average at Lynn University.

Withdrawal from the University

Students who withdraw from Lynn University are required to obtain proper clearance. The appropriate representative(s) of the following offices must sign clearance forms, available in the Dean of Students office in the E. M. Lynn Residence Hall:

- Vice President for Academic Affairs
- Coordinator for the First Year Experience
- Director of Counseling
- Dean of Students
- Director of Residence Life
- Librarian
- Student Administrative Services Office

A student who officially withdraws from the university prior to the deadline for withdrawal without academic penalty will receive a grade of W on his or her transcript for each of the courses enrolled. A student who officially withdraws from the University after the deadline will receive a grade of WF on his or her transcript for each of the courses enrolled. Extenuating circumstances (medical/family emergencies) will be reviewed by the academic dean. If those documented circumstances warrant, the grades will be changed to Ws for that term. A student who has withdrawn from the university and wishes to return as an enrolled student must undergo the process for readmission with the appropriate Office of Admissions.

Academic Standards

Scholastic Average and Student Standing

The Office of Student Administrative Services maintains a cumulative record of the quality point standing of each student. Students are required to meet the minimum standards each semester.

Minimum Academic Requirements

The minimum standard for a first-semester freshman's satisfactory progress is a GPA of 1.70. A freshman student who does not achieve a 1.70 GPA in his or her first semester is placed on academic probation. After the first semester, the minimum standard for all students' satisfactory progress is a cumulative GPA of 2.0. A freshman student on academic probation who does not attain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 after the end of first year continues on academic probation.

Any other student who does not maintain a cumulative 2.0 GPA is placed on academic probation. A student who has been placed on academic probation for two consecutive semesters must attain an aggregate GPA of 2.0 by the end of the second probationary semester, or the university will terminate his or her enrollment.

Minimum Academic Requirements for Conservatory of Music Students

A minimum semester GPA (grade point average) of 2.75 is necessary in order for a student to remain "in good standing." Caveat: a student who earns below a B for two consecutive semesters in Applied Music-Major Instrument may be subject to dismissal pending review by the dean of the Conservatory of Music and the major teacher.

Academic Probation and Dismissal

A student on academic probation is required to interact with the dean of students and the assistant director of the Institute for Achievement and Learning by participating in Institute for Achievement and Learning programs.

A student on academic probation is prohibited from participating in intercollegiate competitions and from seeking or holding a student government or class office but may participate in extracurricular activities as long as this participation does not impair his or her studies.

If a student does not achieve an aggregate GPA of 2.0 by the end of his or her second probationary semester, the registrar will provide that individual with a written notification of academic dismissal, and Veterans Administration payments, if applicable, will be terminated. The student has a right to appeal a decision of academic dismissal and must do so by writing to the vice president for academic affairs.

The vice president for academic affairs and the Appeals Committee decide whether or not the appeal will be heard. If the decision is to hear the appeal, the committee reviews the circumstances and facts of the appeal and makes a recommendation to the vice president for academic affairs, who notifies the student in writing of the result of the appeal. Extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the student or significant academic progress are the only reasons for considering an appeal. If a student's appeal is granted, the student must meet with the assistant director of the Institute for Achievement and Learning, and meet standards and conditions set forth by the the Institute for Achievement and Learning. Failure to reach the minimum requirement for satisfactory progress (AGPA 2.0) by the end of the subsequent semester would result in the student being notified of academic dismissal.

Students who are dismissed for academic reasons and elect not to return conditionally may apply for readmission through the Office of Admissions after completing the equivalent of one full semester at another accredited institution and attaining a minimum 2.0 AGPA. Students in this category should contact the Office of Admissions for further information about reapplication. Such applications will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee, but the university cannot guarantee acceptance.

Day Division Midterm Reports

At the midterm point each semester, all undergraduate students will be issued a midterm grade viewable on the Web at www.lynn.edu/advising. All first-year students will be mailed an interim grade report to their home and local addresses.

Academic Dishonesty

To protect the integrity of the grading system and to affirm the importance of honesty and accountability in the academic community, the university imposes strict penalties for academic dishonesty.

Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to:

- Cheating: intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise.
- Fabrication: intentional and unauthorized invention or falsification of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
- Facilitating academic dishonesty: intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.
- Plagiarism: intentionally or unintentionally representing the words or ideas of another as one's own in any academic exercise.
- Infringing on the academic rights of others, such as defacement or theft of library material.

Academic Dishonesty Penalties

A student found responsible for any act of academic dishonesty may be subject to the following maximum penalties:

- First offense: a grade of F may be given for the course in which the irregularity occurred.
- Second offense: dismissal from the university. Information about a second offense may become a part of the student's permanent academic record.

Falsification of Academic Records

A student who has falsified academic records will be subject to dismissal from the university.

Appeal of a Decision Relating to the Application of Degree Requirements for Admission to, Progression through, or Dismissal from a Degree Program

The academic requirements and regulations set forth in this catalog are the minimal requirements established by the university. Students are also obligated to meet all additional requirements established for degree programs (see the Degree Requirements section in this catalog). These may include specific admission requirements, standards for satisfactory progress (progression requirements), and graduation requirements. It is the student's responsibility to know the academic standards of his or her degree program.

Prior to initiating a review and appeal process, students are encouraged to discuss the decision or academic requirement with the degree program coordinator. This may be by appointment or by telephone conversation.

Any Lynn University student requesting relief from any degree requirements as it relates to that student, or claiming to be aggrieved by any decision relating to his or her own admission to, progression through, or dismissal from a degree program, shall have the right to request review of such decision in accordance with the following procedures:

1. All appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the appropriate program coordinator. The student shall deliver a written request for review of the decision with the program coordinator of the appropriate degree program within 30 days after the date the decision became effective. The written request for review shall include: (i) a written justification as to why the student believes the decision is erroneous or he or she should be granted relief from a degree requirement, (ii) the relief requested by the student, (iii) and all other relevant information. Any student who fails to request review of the decision within 30 days after the date the decision became effective, shall be deemed to have waived the right to request review of the decision.
- 1.1 Upon receipt of a written request for review and justification, the program coordinator shall place the request in the student's counseling records in the respective degree program and shall forward a copy to the dean of the appropriate college
- 1.2 In considering the student's request, the program coordinator shall consult with the dean of the respective college, may consult with faculty members of the respective degree program and may consider any other evidence the program coordinator determines to be relevant. Also, at his or her sole discretion, the program coordinator may hold a meeting with the student, or with appropriate faculty members, or both, in person or by telephone conference, to obtain any other information or evidence the program coordinator determines to be necessary.
- 1.3 If the program coordinator determines that sufficient grounds exist such that relief would be appropriate, the program coordinator may grant the relief requested, or may grant any other relief the program coordinator finds to be appropriate under the circumstances. Sufficient grounds for relief include any extraordinary or extenuating circumstances, but shall not include a student's lack of knowledge of the academic program standards.
- 1.4 The program coordinator shall send a written decision on the request to the student, including the reasons supporting the decision, within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) of the date the student filed the written request with the program coordinator.
2. Any student who is not satisfied with the decision of the program coordinator on his or her request for review may deliver a written appeal with the dean of the appropriate college. Such appeal shall be delivered within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) of receipt of the written decision of the program coordinator. The written appeal shall include a copy of the student's written request for review to the program coordinator and accompanying documentation, as well as a copy of the written decision of the program coordinator.
- 2.1 The dean shall consider all of the information and evidence considered by the program coordinator. In addition, the dean may consult independently with the program coordinator and other faculty members of the college and may consider any other evidence the dean determines to be relevant to the appeal. Also, at his or her sole discretion, the dean may hold a meeting with the student, with the program coordinator, with appropriate faculty members, or any or all of them, in person or by telephone conference, to obtain any other information or evidence the dean determines to be necessary to the proper disposition of the appeal.

- 2.2 The dean may uphold or modify, in whole or in part, the decision of the program coordinator.
- 2.3 The dean shall send a written decision on the appeal to the student within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) of the date the student filed the written appeal with the dean.
3. Any student who is not satisfied with the decision of the dean on his or her appeal may deliver a written appeal to the academic dean. Such appeal shall be delivered within five days of receipt of the written decision of the dean. The written appeal shall include:
 - (i) a copy of the student's request for review to the program coordinator and accompanying documentation,
 - (ii) a copy of the written decision of the program coordinator,
 - (iii) a copy of the written appeal to the dean and accompanying documentation, and (iv) a copy of the written decision of the dean.
- 3.1 The academic dean shall consider all of the information and evidence considered by the program coordinator and the dean. In addition, the academic dean shall consult with the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and may consult independently with the program coordinator, the dean of the college, and other faculty members of the college. The academic dean may consider any other evidence the academic dean determines to be relevant to the appeal. Also, at his or her sole discretion, the academic dean may hold a meeting with the student, with the program coordinator, the dean of the college, with appropriate faculty members, or any or all of them, in person or by telephone conference, to obtain any other information or evidence the academic dean determines to be necessary to the disposition of the appeal.
- 3.2 The academic dean may uphold or modify, in whole or in part, the decision of the dean.
- 3.3 The academic dean shall send a written decision on the appeal to the student within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) of the date the student filed the written appeal with the academic dean. The decision of the academic dean is final.
4. In cases where the degree program coordinator and the dean are the same person, step 2 is skipped and the appeal shall proceed from the program coordinator directly to the academic dean.
5. No aspect of the above proceedings may be audio or video recorded without the expressed, written permission of each person involved.

Note: Dismissal from a degree program constitutes dismissal from the university. (See Dismissal Policy of the University in this catalog).

Academic Recognition

The administration and the faculty recognize superior academic achievement at Lynn University through the following known designations.

Academic Honors and Honor Society

The name of each eligible student who has completed at least 12 credits with no incompletes, WF's or grades below C and who has achieved a grade point average of 3.5 or higher at the end of the term is placed on the Academic Honors List. In order for a student to be considered for Academic Honors:

- The aggregate grade point average, at the completion of the fall term(s) must be a 3.5 or higher.
- Day time undergraduate students must complete a minimum of 12 credits per semester for the spring and fall of 2005.
- Evening undergraduate students must complete a minimum of 24 credits per year from January to December of 2005. New evening undergraduate students must have a minimum of 12 credits in the fall semesters to be eligible.

The Academic Honors list is publicized within the university and distributed to news agencies in the local and regional area. Honor students receive a certificate of recognition at the Honors Convocation held each spring semester. Students who have achieved honor status for two consecutive years and whose aggregate grade point average is at least 3.5 are eligible for membership in the Honor Society.

President's Honor Society

A student who has achieved Honor Society distinction and whose aggregate grade point average is at least 3.75 is eligible for the President's Honor Society. Continuing membership in these honor organizations is dependent on a student's aggregate grade point average.

Graduation

Student Right-to-Know graduation rates are available in the Institutional Research Office.

Requirements for Degrees*

Overall Requirements for the Baccalaureate Degree

A candidate for a baccalaureate degree must:

- Complete a minimum of 120 semester hours. MAT 099 and ENG 099 credits do not count toward these 120 hours.
- Attain a minimum cumulative grade average of C (2.0 AGPA) for all courses taken.
- Earn at least a minimum of the last 30 credits at Lynn University through course enrollment.
- Satisfy all Lynn University undergraduate curriculum requirements for the baccalaureate degree including core curriculum requirements.
- Complete a minimum of 45 credits that are upper division (300+Level).
- Satisfy the requirements for a major that includes at least 30 credits. In consultation with the degree program coordinator or other designated advisor, the student shall enroll in courses for the major according to a suggested curriculum plan.
- Complete graduation audit by the Office of Student Administrative Services two semesters (or four terms) prior to graduation.

* Requirements for graduate degrees are found in the graduate section of this catalog.

Completion of Undergraduate Requirements

Students may choose to graduate under the catalog in effect at the time of their first enrollment or any subsequent Catalog provided that the student graduates within eight years from the date of the first enrollment. If students do not graduate within this eight-year period, they may be subject to fulfilling any new program requirements in effect.

Departmental/Program Requirements

The requirements and regulations set forth above are the minimal requirements established by the university. Students are also obligated to meet all additional requirements established by the appropriate degree program.

Residence and Degree Requirements

In addition to specific courses and scholastic requirements, each bachelor's degree candidate must spend the last year two semesters or the equivalent earning not less than 30 credit hours in academic residence at the university. These academic residence credit hours must be uninterrupted by any work at another institution and are required in order to be eligible for a degree from Lynn University.

Graduation Audit

Students must satisfactorily complete all program requirements for graduation and have a graduation audit completed by the advisor two semesters prior to graduation. A student is not considered a candidate for a degree if his or her aggregate GPA is below 2.0.

Commencement Honors

At commencement, baccalaureate degree students attaining the standards designated below will graduate with honors:

Cum Laude	3.50 to 3.64
Magna Cum Laude	3.65 to 3.79
Summa Cum Laude	3.80 to 4.00

Commencement honors are awarded on the basis of at least 60 credit hours in academic residence at Lynn University. Students who have fewer than 60 credit hours may apply for commencement honors by documenting that the overall GPA earned at previous institutions and at Lynn University meets designated standards, and the AGPA earned at previous institutions meets the minimum standards for honors. If the student has fewer than 60 credit hours at Lynn University and does not apply for commencement honors, the student will not be considered eligible for honors.

Commencement Awards

The Bradley Middlebrook II Student Service Award is presented to the student who has exhibited outstanding service to fellow students, Lynn University and the community at large.

The College of Education Outstanding Graduate Student Award is given to the person who displays outstanding potential for scholarship and leadership in the field of education.

The Count and Countess de Hoernle Humanitarian Award is given at graduation to the student who has exhibited outstanding loyalty to the university.

The Dean's Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Education Award is given to the person who displays outstanding potential for scholarship and leadership.

The Gordon and Mary Henke Excellence in Communications Award recognizes the student who has excelled in the communications program and has the potential for an outstanding career in the field of communications.

The James J. Oussani Award is presented to the student deemed most innovative and motivated in completing a degree program.

The M. Elizabeth Maddy Cumpton Endowed Memorial Award is presented to the outstanding conservatory student of strings.

The Medina McMenimen Bickel Fashion Marketing Award is presented to the graduating senior who exhibits outstanding leadership and the potential for a successful career in fashion marketing.

The President's Award is presented to the student exhibiting extraordinary service and commitment to the university.

The Professional and Continuing Education Award is presented to the candidate who has maintained the highest grade point average in the undergraduate continuing education program and has demonstrated community service and dedication to lifelong learning.

The Scholastic Award is presented to the undergraduate degree candidates and master's degree candidate who has attained the highest cumulative grade point average for their entire degree course work. Students having transfer hours from other institutions are ineligible for this award. Students also will be evaluated on other factors that may include community involvement at Lynn University and within the local community.

The Trustees' Medal is presented to the student who has exhibited outstanding scholarship, leadership, loyalty and service to the university.

Academic Support Services and Special Programs

Institute for Achievement and Learning

The mission of the Institute for Achievement and Learning is to provide an innovative strategic menu of services that creatively links all aspects of Lynn University student life and academic achievement. To ensure positive opportunities to embrace, engage and empower students, the institute offers diagnostic information, personal profiles and assessments, and a menu of comprehensive, creative and diverse support services that are available for students. The institute also provides professional development and training, with opportunities for educational research that extend from faculty workshops to seminars designed to include the greater community. The institute has been created as the vehicle to promote the idea of label-free learning, encouraging academic excellence both in and out of the classroom and celebrating the uniqueness of every mind and potential of every student. The institute is the coordinating body for existing and new campus support services and the primary source for student support outside of direct classroom instruction. All students have access to the institute, which includes the following resources and programs:

- The Alpha Center: the institute's diagnostic branch and the beginning of the Lynn University educational journey. The Alpha Center offers profiles to identify and support students' strengths and affinities.
- The Comprehensive Support Program: designed to offer academic support services, specialized classes and a large staff of advisors, teachers and professional tutors for students with learning differences.
- The Probationary Support Program: designed for incoming freshmen who need special advising, mentoring, academic support and a creative environment in which to study as they transition on to the college campus.
- The Academic Status Support Program: created to offer academic and social support, advising and mentoring for students who are working to increase their GPAs.
- The Metamorphosis Program: designed to offer weekly individual coaching sessions, tutoring and experiential activities for students with issues surrounding attention, distractibility and organization.
- First Year Experience (FYE): a two-semester academic program for all new students that helps them make connections with other students, faculty/staff members and Lynn resources.
- The Discovery Learning Center: open to all students at Lynn University and offers writing support, creative writing programs, math, fee-based tutorials and workshops.
- The Lynn University Tutoring Program: makes content-area tutoring and group strategy sessions by subject area available to all Lynn University students (now housed in the Discovery Learning Center).
- ADA Office: available to students who need special accommodations for learning and testing.

The Alpha Center

The mission of the Alpha Center, which is housed within the Institute for Achievement and Learning, is to develop a personalized profile of each student by evaluating abilities and interpreting each student's potential for success. The Alpha Center's vision is to help students develop an understanding and knowledge about themselves to empower them to become lifelong learners. The Alpha Center is the first step toward this lifelong learning goal. The center helps students explore, discover and learn about themselves so that they may excel in the culture of the Lynn University campus.

The process begins in the admission stage. Each student is interviewed and completes a series of evaluations and personality inventories during the FYE experience. These evaluations and inventories are designed to measure learning styles, cognitive potential, multiple intelligence clusters and personal interests. After this initial process, the Alpha Center provides each student with a profile that reflects individual interests and values, and suggests learning environments, campus activities and study methods that may be most effective.

Comprehensive Support Program

This program offers students with learning style differences an extraordinary opportunity to excel at the college level. It provides a select number of motivated students with the additional support they need to achieve and maintain academic success and earn a university degree.

The program provides these students with academic mentoring; a separate testing room and extended time for examinations; verbal exams; specialized core courses with a low pupil-to-teacher ratio called Z courses; and one-on-one tutorials in most subject areas. Z courses are taught by professors who have training in learning style differences, as well as expertise in the content area. They use the same syllabi and teach the same content as other sections of the same courses offered to all students at Lynn University.

All students accepted into the Comprehensive Support Program are required to take EDU 100 Language and Learning Development, a three-credit college level course. This course is diagnostic in nature and focuses on the theories of behavioral psychologists and the relationship between intelligence and learning. It is designed to help students understand and identify their own individual learning styles, their cognitive strengths and weaknesses, and the sensory modalities that will help them succeed as students and beyond.

First-year students in the Comprehensive Support Program attend two one-on-one tutoring sessions per week to further their academic success. The Comprehensive Support Program Tutoring Center is located in the Count and Countess de Hoernle International Center. Students may schedule as many half-hour tutoring sessions as they like. Tutoring sessions are scheduled with the Tutoring Center coordinator. Tutoring Center hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday. All tutors hold professional, master's or doctoral degrees. The Tutoring Center keeps parents informed of students' tutorial usage by sending home two updates per semester.

The Testing Center is located on the third floor of the Count and Countess de Hoernle International Center. Testing Center hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Probationary Support Program

This program is designed to offer a smooth transition to the university environment. The Admission Committee will consider students who score below an 850 on the SAT, or below an 18 on the ACT, and/or have a high school GPA below a 2.5. These students may be admitted to the Probationary Support Program. These students meet with their assigned advisors to review their academic progress and plan individual study strategies. They also are encouraged to participate in group study sessions, tutoring, advising workshops and Institute for Achievement and Learning activities.

The Academic Status Support Program

The mission of the Academic Status Support Program is to provide students with probationary status: advising, strategies for learning/test taking, and mentorship. Students are encouraged to complete the Alpha Center profile to help them develop an understanding and knowledge about themselves.

METAMORPHOSIS Coaching Program

The Metamorphosis Coaching Program is designed for students with issues surrounding attention, organization and distractibility. The program allows students to explore the creation of personal learning-living environments through various intelligences. An individual learning coach is assigned to each student through the First Year Experience Program. Students meet weekly with their coach/mentor to discuss such topics as personalized learning strategies, learning behaviors, time management and organizational skills. Students also attend weekly one-on-one tutoring sessions in any content area with professionals holding a minimum of a master's degree.

Students accepted into this program also participate in weekly experiential learning activities in South Florida habitats such as Gumbo Limbo, various beaches and the butterfly garden located on campus. During these activities, students are encouraged to explore themselves in relation to living things in nature and identify issues that could impact their "survival" of their first semester of college. Students reflect on themselves and their learning habitats through journaling, group discussions and other interactive assignments. Additional experiences, such as group activities and guest lecturers focusing on Howard Gardner's multiple intelligences, expand the learning process.

First Year Experience (FYE)

This two-semester academic program for all new students helps them make connections with other students, faculty/staff members and Lynn resources. It offers guidance and practical experience in how to get the most out of their college careers. Each FYE class is led by a mentor and structured around a theme or affinity.

The Discovery Learning Center

Lynn University Writing Lab is located on the second floor of the de Hornle International Building. The Lynn University Writing Lab's primary mission is one-to-one instruction in writing for all students. The meetings between the center staff and students are face-to-face and work to enable students to learn productive habits in pre-writing activities, drafting, revising and editing. The center uses both directive and nondirective instructional techniques as the student composes work and seeks consultation. The center supports writing across the curriculum, serving both day and evening students from all courses and at all stages in their college program.

Along with the writing process, modeled, shared, interactive, guided and independent writing will be investigated and then implemented. Writing strategies and skills will be identified concentrating on spelling, handwriting, and dictionary usage. Holistic, primary trait, analytic and error analysis will be explained and then compared/contrasted for proper product measures. A component of the center will be a speaker's series and activities to help all students discover the "writer within" themselves.

Lynn University Tutoring Laboratory

The Lynn University Tutoring Laboratory offers individual and group tutoring to all Lynn University students. Daytime undergraduate students are allowed one session of tutoring at no charge. Evening and graduate students are allowed one hour of tutoring at no charge. After these limits are reached, students are charged $50 per session, which will be billed directly to their Lynn University account. Students can attend on a walk-in basis or make an appointment by signing up with the Lynn University coordinator of tutoring. In the event that a student cannot attend a scheduled appointment, he or she must notify the Lynn Tutoring Lab staff within 24 hours, or be charged the normal fee.

These sessions are held at regularly scheduled times posted in the lab. Hours are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday.

American Disabilities Act (ADA) Accommodations

The ADA coordinator reviews each student's documentation to determine if he or she is eligible to receive ADA services and reasonable accommodations provided at the college level. Accommodations provided by the Testing Center may include, but are not limited to: extended time testing in a stress- and distraction-free environment; reader; scribe; computer access for recording answers to test questions; and alternative test formats. * It is important to note that no tests are altered in either format or content by the Testing Center staff and that readers are only permitted to read the questions exactly as they are written. Testing Center staff members proctor all exams.

Each professor provides individual written instructions to the Testing Center on how to administer each test. While taking the tests, students must follow established rules and procedures outlined by the Testing Center. They are as follows:

- Students must disclose to their professor evidence of their eligibility for testing accommodations by submitting to the professor an accommodation sheet signed by the ADA Coordinator.
- For each test, students must notify their professor prior to test day that they will take their test in the Testing Center.
- For each test, students must notify and set an appointment with the Testing Center prior to test day.
- The test must be taken during the student's regularly scheduled class time for the test being administered, unless stated otherwise by the professor.
- Students must arrive on time for their test appointment.
- Students must sign in at the Testing Center before they may begin the test.
- No books or notes are allowed at the student's desk unless stated otherwise in the professor's instructions to the Testing Center.
- If a student is caught cheating, his or her test will end immediately, and the Testing Center will notify the professor.
- Upon completion of a test, students are required to sign out of the Testing Center. Each test is then sealed in an envelope for security and returned to the appropriate professor as per his or her written instructions.

Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships

The Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships is centralized, serving all students and alumni of Lynn University. The center is located on the first floor of Trinity Hall. Its overall purpose is to provide students and alumni access to state-of-the-art technologies to ensure a competitive edge in job markets; to help students and alumni make the most of their educational experience by helping them develop, evaluate, initiate and implement their career plans; to offer programs and services for students and alumni to gain greater understanding of their beliefs and values, skills and aptitudes, interest personality characteristics, and knowledge of the work world; and to promote a greater awareness within the university community of the needs for, and nature of career development and life planning as a lifelong, self-directed process.

The director of the Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships assists students with their career selection and works with students in career and job placement. It is recommended that students who are "undeclared" majors contact the Hannifan Center for Career Development to begin examining career alternatives, thus enabling them to make appropriate course selections.

The Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships provides a variety of services to assist the student in evaluating, choosing and planning a career. Professional staff and career counselors are available to help students and alumni set their career goals, investigate employment opportunities in the field they wish to enter, and interview with companies for which they would like to work.

The Hannifan Center for Career Development and Internships is also a valuable career information and resource center. A library in the center provides information about a broad cross-section of employers, careers, internship opportunities, salary surveys, corporate training programs and career and online job opportunities.

Center for International Programs and Services

The Center for International Programs and Services promotes and coordinates international programs and services at Lynn University. It is located on the second floor of the de Hoernle International Building. The center's purpose is to provide external programs and international resources for Lynn University undergraduates and faculty seeking educational/cultural exchange and to advise students about study abroad programs. In addition, the center assists international students with immigration procedures, provides intensive English studies classes, and offers a supportive environment for non-native English speakers.

The center comprises several programs and services, including Intensive English Program (IEP), English for Academic Purposes, the Study Abroad office and the International Student Services office (ISS). Detailed information regarding all of the center's programs and services can be obtained by contacting the office directly.

Intensive English Program

Lynn University's Intensive English Studies Program (IEP) was established in 1986 to provide a variety of opportunities to students interested in improving their English skills. After a self-evaluation process in 2002, a number of new additions were made to our program, which will meet better our students' needs. The IEP program now offers four tracks, General English, English for Academic Purposes, Business English and American Culture, as well as short-term Business English courses for professionals.

Six Levels of Instruction:

- Level 1 – Beginner
- Level 2 – Low Intermediate
- Level 3 – Intermediate
- Level 4 – High Intermediate
- Level 5 – Low Advanced
- Level 6 – Advanced

Duration of Sessions:

- Four weeks
- Eight weeks
- 15/14 weeks

Tracks

Students in Levels 1 through 3 will be enrolled in General English. Students at the high intermediate to advanced levels will be able to choose from one of the three remaining tracks, Academic, Business or Culture. The tracks are as follows:

- Track 1 – General English
- Track 2 – English for Academic Purposes
- Track 3 – Business English Program
- Track 4 – American Culture

Electives

Depending on their level, students may currently choose from TOEFL preparation, American Idioms, American Culture, Literature and Conversation, Journalism, Public Forum, Current Events, and Drama and Poetry.

IEP Program Features and Highlights

- Six levels of English language proficiency
- Highly qualified instructors and staff

- Small classes and individualized attention
- Student orientation and college advisement
- Multimedia lab
- Certificate of program completion
- Open enrollment

Students receive 24 hours of instruction per week including listening and speaking, reading and vocabulary, grammar, composition and electives. At the end of each term, students may take the TOEFL exam.

Special Summer IEP Program

Two four-week, short-term programs are offered in the summer and are designed to provide a quality English language learning experience combined with afternoon social, cultural and recreational activities. This program is designed for students who prefer an academic and recreational program. Afternoon and weekend activities include sightseeing throughout South Florida.

English for Academic Purposes

Courses in this track are designed to improve the academic language skills required for undergraduate and graduate course work. This track also serves students who wish to enter Lynn University as undergraduates or graduates, but have not yet met the TOEFL requirement. Students who have achieved a score of 470 to 499 (for undergraduates) or 500 to 549 (for graduates) will be eligible to take credit-bearing courses while they work toward completing eligibility requirements for full admission to the university.

TOEFL Preparation

The Intensive English Program offers a TOEFL preparation course. This 70-hour course provides students with instruction in skills and strategies for taking the TOEFL test examination.

International Student Services

The International Student Services (ISS) office is an important source of information and provides assistance to international students while they are in the United States.

ISS is an integral part of the Center for International Programs and Services. The purpose of ISS is to develop and deliver international student support services and programs outside the classroom and to contribute to student leadership. ISS is also a source of comprehensive and up-to-date immigration and tax information.

Study Abroad Program

The purpose of the Study Abroad Program is to augment the Lynn University curriculum through an international educational experience. Studying abroad offers students the opportunity to extend their cultural, linguistic and geographic horizons while earning Lynn University credit. Credit may be earned toward a Lynn University degree through study abroad programs approved by the student's advisor and the Center for International Programs and Services. All programs are open to Lynn University students. All students are eligible to attend after completing their first semester of their freshman year. Study abroad opportunities are available in several locations.

American College Dublin, Ireland

American College Dublin lends another dimension to the international perspective offered to Lynn University students. Located on prestigious Merrion Square in the heart of Dublin, the school is headquartered in the childhood home of Oscar Wilde.

American College Dublin offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in several disciplines and concentrations. The college is designated by the Higher Education Training and Awards Council (HETAC), the state body responsible for third level educational and training institutions in Ireland. The following degrees are fully accredited by HETAC:

- Bachelor of Arts in Behavioral Science
- Concentration in Psychology
- Bachelor of Arts in International Business
- Concentrations in International Management and International Marketing

In addition to the degrees listed above, the college offers a Diploma in Hospitality Management that is accredited by the Educational Institute of the American Hotel and Motel Association.

Students not majoring in one of these fields are still able to take a wide range of liberal studies courses during their study abroad semester to help fulfill their Lynn requirements. Terms of study include a fall and spring semester, and four-week summer and six-week summer programs. Semester programs are designed to carry 12 to 15 credit hours, while summer programs carry six to nine credit hours. An option is provided to take all credits on campus or to select one or two three-credit courses that will utilize the travel experience and subsequent comparisons found in Ireland and other European locations.

Faculty-Led Academic Study Tours

The faculty of Lynn University provide opportunities to incorporate an international education experience into each degree program. Colleges of the university host short-term study abroad opportunities where a faculty member conducts a tour for students to experience and learn while gaining academic credit. Each tour consists of course content pertinent to the specific region of the world. Prior academic preparation is required. Tours range from three to nine credits and encompass two to six weeks. Each major requires three credits of study abroad.

Counseling Center

The Counseling Center, located in de Hoernle Hall, offers a variety of services, including individual and group counseling for academic, personal and social problems, such as substance abuse, eating disorders, relationships, self-esteem and stress management. Interest, aptitude and psychological tests are available by appointment. Referrals to community resources are available by request. All information is strictly confidential. Individual counseling is available to Lynn University students without cost. Evening appointments may be scheduled.

Honors Programs

University Honors Program

The goal of the Honors Program is to create a dynamic academic environment that may serve to awaken intellectual curiosity, promote free and active inquiry, and stimulate creative discovery. The innovative curriculum encompasses the full breadth of the liberal arts and sciences while promoting both an in-depth exploration and a wide intellectual synthesis of the ideas and concepts that have created the dilemmas and choices of our past, present and future.

This particular emphasis is seen as the groundwork for developing the intellectual skills necessary to confront the global transformation currently taking place. By design, the Honors Program provides a process through which selected student-scholars engage in and experience the entire learning cycle of concrete experience, reflective observation, abstract conceptualization and active experimentation which then can be applied to any area of interest.

The outcome of the process is the development of a broadened liberal arts and sciences perspective along with a greater appreciation and grasp of the complex variables, phenomena and issues that continuously dominate the dynamics of global change. It is intended that all qualified students, regardless of major or area of concentration, have the opportunity to participate in the Honors Program and thereby gain these enormous advantages.

Eligibility for the Honors Program

All freshmen on a Dean's Academic Scholarship automatically participate in the Freshman Honors Experience. The university also invites other freshmen, who meet at least two of the following criteria:

- A cumulative high school GPA of 3.25 or higher
- A minimum SAT Score of 1100 (or ACT equivalent)
- And/or graduated in the top 20 percentile of their class

Transfer Students

Transfer students who wish to enter the Honors Program must have a minimum GPA of 3.5. They may apply to the Honors Program by mail. They will be notified of their application's status prior to fall registration. In addition, all transfer students are required to interview with the honors committee, and will be considered for eligibility on a case-by-case basis.

Currently Enrolled Lynn Students

Currently enrolled Lynn students who perform particularly well during their first semester and have a minimum GPA of 3.5 on all college work completed will be invited to join the Honors Program. Each student also must provide recommendations from two Lynn University faculty members in support of his or her candidacy. Applicants must also provide a written statement in which they describe their interest in the program.

Non-Honors Program Students

Undergraduate degree students may participate in the Honors Program. Non-Honors Program students may take honors courses, so long as they have a minimum GPA of 3.5 and if there are openings in the course they wish to take. The student must receive permission from both the instructor in charge of the course and a designated Honors Committee member and take up to nine credits (three courses).

Honors Curriculum

Honors students pursue a rigorous and exciting course of study. Honors classes focus upon specific themes that are investigated from different perspectives. Guided by distinguished faculty members, students are encouraged to design their own programs of study. Honors students receive an individualized education and are expected to demonstrate leadership abilities.

Honors Courses by Contract

A student may elect to fulfill up to four of the required Honors Program credits by contract. An honors course by contract is one that is offered in the regular curriculum, in which an enrolled Lynn honors student enters into a formal agreement with the instructor to complete requirements well beyond those expected from other students. The student and the instructor jointly formulate a written contract specifying exactly what the student will do to receive honors credit in a course. Contracts must be approved by the Honors Program director or the Honors Council, and endorsed in writing by the above parties.

Application Procedure

Students apply for admission to the Honors Program during the spring semester. The deadline for application is April 15. Transfer students have an extended application period with a deadline of June 15. An application consists of the following:

- A completed application form, available from the office of the secretary of the College of Arts and Sciences.
- Two letters from faculty, supporting the applicant's admission to the Honors Program.
- A written statement of the applicant's interest in the Honors Program and his or her self-assessed creativity and imagination.
- An interview with the Honors Committee.

Freshman Honors Experience

The Freshman Honors Experience provides highly motivated first-year students an opportunity to fulfill core requirements with courses in which they can experience the challenge and exhilaration of the regular Honors Program. These students also are able to attend the Honors Program Enrichment Series and to interact with upper-division Honors Program students. During their first semester at Lynn University, participants in the Freshman Honors Experience enroll in:

- ENG 101H Honors English Composition
- FYE 101H The Freshman Honors Experience

During the second semester of their freshman year, Freshman Honors Experience students enroll in:

- ENG 102H Honors English Composition II/Studies in Literature

The Freshman Honors Experience prepares qualified students for entrance into the university Honors Program at the beginning of the sophomore year.

Graduation for Honors Program Students

Graduates of the Lynn University Honors Program having earned a GPA of 3.5 for the required 52 to 53 Honors Credits and in addition to having attained an AGPA of at least 3.5 shall receive an Artium Baccalaureus Honoris, Scientiae Baccalaureus Honoris or Honoris Generalis depending upon their major.

Information Technology

The Information Technology (IT) Department aims to fulfill the university's mission "to create and constantly improve educational experiences in a living-learning environment with state-of-the-art information and communication technologies that provide access to worldwide networks." IT coordinates faculty development sessions in order to facilitate the technological sophistication of the university community by ensuring that electronic education and information technology education are integrated into the teaching and learning experience at Lynn University. This team approach to technological excellence equips students and faculty for the emerging application of technology in the classroom and affords an opportunity to develop distance learning modalities parallel to traditional instruction. IT provides resources for satisfying the computing needs of students and faculty. In so doing, our professionals assist with the use of hardware and software available to faculty, students and staff, while improving administrative effectiveness and efficiency through the innovative use of sophisticated approaches to institutional management.

Computer Laboratories

Computer laboratories are available in the Ritter Business Complex, de Hoernle International Center, library and the Assaf Academic Center. Hospitality-oriented software is available in Assaf. The library also has a bibliographic research system designed for literature searches. Computer stations are available with the latest versions of Windows and Microsoft Office

Suite. Internet is available on campus. If not scheduled for a class, computer laboratories are available in the Ritter Business Complex, the de Hoernle International Center and the Coleman Electronic Classroom (library). An additional 26+ computers are available within the Lynn Library during regular library hours for access to research databases, the Internet and selected Windows applications. Four library carrels with network drops are provided in the library's periodical area (main floor) for Internet access using the university's high-speed Ethernet connection.

Institute for Distance Learning

The Institute for Distance Learning (IDL) facilitates the delivery of Distance and Distributed Learning at Lynn University. IDL provides regularly scheduled training workshops in course design, course content, and Blackboard software. Course delivery is primarily Internet-based, asynchronous, interactive and collaborative. In addition, IDL provides student tutorials and instruction for first-time participants in Internet-based learning and 24/7 support. In conjunction with the respective colleges, IDL supports the deployment of targeted programs selected for delivery online. IDL works closely with faculty in their course development to ensure high-quality programs that meet the needs of learners seeking alternate course delivery.

Internship Program

The Internship Office supports Lynn University's overall educational purpose to produce graduates who possess the knowledge, confidence, competencies, and ethical consciousness to assume positions of responsibility and leadership as productive, global citizens prepared for lifelong learning. The Internship Office helps students achieve these goals by enabling them to gain real world work experience whereby they take on temporary roles as workers in an organization and reflect on these experiences in an academic setting.

Student reflections are made in written and online assignments. Written employer evaluations enable students to identify their professional competencies and personal characteristics, and measure their development in these areas throughout the internship experience.

Depending on the academic concentration, internship assistance is available through department faculty or the Internship Office. Internship requirements vary by college or major within the university. In general, however, students who wish to register for an internship must:

- Be a full-time undergraduate student at Lynn University
- Have successfully completed at least 30 credit hours at Lynn University
- Have a minimum AGPA of 2.0
- Receive the approval of their faculty advisor
- Meet with the director of internships before the internship begins and receive an approval form for registration
- Attend regular class meetings and participate in online class activities

International students who have been studying in the United States for at least nine months on an F-1 visa may develop international internships through the Study Abroad Office in the Center for International Programs and Services.

Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn Library

The Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn Library supports the university's academic programs by providing learning resources and services that meet the information needs of students and faculty.

The library fulfills an essential role in the university by collecting and organizing a knowledge-base of materials that is continually evaluated and augmented to ensure its relevance to the curriculum.

The library promotes the use of these materials by:

- making them easily accessible,
- providing effective instruction and orientation, and
- delivering efficient and courteous service.

The library houses approximately 235,648 items on the Boca Raton campus. This collection includes books, periodicals, audiovisual materials and music. Our award-winning building was completed in 1996 and was designed to fully accommodate advances in information technology.

The library includes a rapidly developing collection of research databases that contain journal articles, documents, images, reference materials and more. The databases in this collection are carefully evaluated and chosen for content that supports the curriculum. This collection contains more than 10,450 periodicals in print and electronic formats. The library has a comprehensive program of information literacy instruction to assist students in becoming proficient in using library resources.

The library uses the Mandarin Information System to efficiently organize and create descriptive data that promote the use of the library's collections. Mandarin provides access to the library's resources from anywhere in the world via the Internet.

The library provides 65 computer workstations for student use. There are 35 workstations on the first floor with full Internet access and standard software. The Coleman Electronic Classroom, which is located near the library entrance, contains 30 workstations and is available for student use between scheduled classes.

As a member of the Southeast Florida Library Information Network (SEFLIN), Lynn Library provides students with direct access and borrowing privileges in academic libraries in the region through the SEFLIN card program. SEFLIN membership supports Lynn's instructional program by providing direct access to regional libraries with holdings in excess of 12 million items.

Chapter VIII.

Educational Programs

A major consists of a minimum of 30 credits within a well-defined discipline or group of disciplines. The major allows students to develop a significant degree of expertise in an area of study. The exact courses, credit requirements, prerequisites and electives for each major will vary. An outline of these requirements is included in the departmental program areas in the university catalog. In some majors, the opportunity for a concentration in the discipline is accommodated via a specialization. (see below).

Definition of a Dual Major

In addition to satisfying all admission, progression and graduation requirements of the program offering the first major in a baccalaureate degree program, students may enroll in a second major. To do so, the student must:

- Earn a minimum of 30 credit hours at Lynn University beyond those required for the first baccalaureate degree or a minimum of at least 150 credit hours
- Satisfy the admission, progression and graduation requirements of the program or college offering the second major

Students may be enrolled in two major programs simultaneously. Each graduating undergraduate student receives only one academic transcript. For double majors, the academic transcript lists both majors.

Definition of Related Requirements

With the core requirements, related courses support the major. Related courses are in a discipline or group of disciplines other than the field of study or may be a specialized area within the discipline. The number of related courses varies with each major but should not outweigh the number of courses in the major.

Definition of a Minor

A minor consists of a minimum of 15 credit hours outside of the major. The minor enables a student to develop a secondary degree of expertise in an area of study in addition to his or her major academic program of study. While a minor program is intended to enable students to develop some degree of expertise in one area of study, it may be interdisciplinary. The completion of a minor is optional. The minor may be chosen to support the major, to offer greater job opportunities to the student on graduation, or to provide recognition of study in a second academic area.

To receive a minor, a student must also complete the requirements of a major of a baccalaureate degree concurrently from the university. Course work must include a minimum of nine upper divisional level (300+) credits and be specified by the appropriate college or department in which the minor courses will be acquired. The student's transcript shall indicate the minor.

Definition of a Specialization

Some majors may include an area of specialization. A specialization consists of a sequence of a minimum of 15 credit hours of course work within the major. Course work must include a minimum of nine upper divisional level (300+) credits and be specified by the appropriate college or department in which the specialization will be taken. Where appropriate, the transcript shall indicate the major and the specialization (ie. Major: Business Administration and Specialization in International Business).

Degrees

The following degrees are offered by Lynn University upon completion of degree requirements:

Bachelor's Degrees

- Bachelor of Arts (BA)
- Bachelor of Science (BS)
- Bachelor of Music (BM)
- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA)
- Bachelor of Science in Design (BSD)
- Bachelor of Science in Education (BSE)
- Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Administration (BSHA)

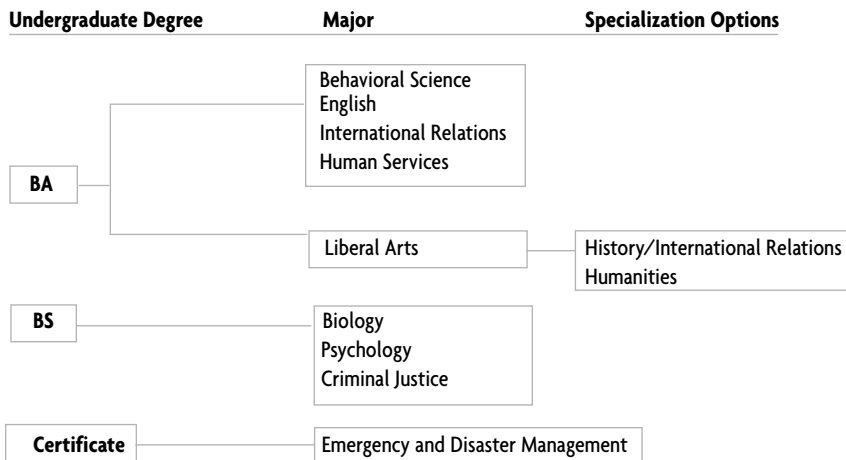

Graduate Degrees

- Master of Business Administration (MBA)
- Master of Education (M.Ed.)
- Master of Science (MS)
- Master of Music (MM)
- Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Undergraduate Curriculum

General Education and Study in the Major

Perspectives and Academic Skills

The university believes that a liberal arts education is an essential foundation for, and complement to, its many career-oriented programs. General education and study in the major contribute to achieving the university's overall educational purpose: To produce graduates who possess knowledge, confidence, competencies and ethical consciousness to assume positions of responsibility and leadership as productive, global citizens prepared for lifelong learning.

General education knowledge and academic skills are developed within a diverse learning community of students and faculty in order to foster diversity of thought and provide the opportunity to integrate varied perspectives, experiences and breadth of learning. The major provides in-depth learning within a discipline or group of disciplines and further develops perspectives and academic skills. General education and education in the major contribute to students attaining the following baccalaureate degree competencies:

Perspectives

- Acquisition of an outlook that shows reflective respect for individual differences, diversity of opinion and thought, multicultural and global awareness, and breadth and depth of learning.
- Cultivate the development of values and ethical consciousness for responsible participation in a complex, changing society.
- Awareness of and appreciation for people, cultures, and contemporary issues to prepare for participation in global transformations.
- Breadth of learning in a variety of disciplines that informs judgments and encourages inquiry.
- Depth and application of learning in a discipline or group of disciplines (mastery of specialized knowledge) to effectively serve and lead in a chosen profession.
- Preparation for positions of responsibility and leadership as productive global citizens who value lifelong learning.

Academic Skills

- Communication: Reading, writing, speaking and interpersonal / relationship skills.
- Mathematical Computation: Computing, interpreting and drawing conclusions from quantitative data.
- Computer Technology: Using computing hardware and software applications as tools in personal and professional environments.
- Information Literacy: Identifying, locating, evaluating and using relevant information.
- Intellectual Strategies: Problem-solving, critical and creative thinking, and inquiry.

*Failure to attend Academic Adventure in January will result in an additional fee to complete this requirement.

 Students may enroll in only one performance course (HUM 104 or COM 103) to satisfy the two-course requirement.

 Please check with your advisor to determine which math class is required by your department.

First Year Requirements

For students who have matriculated as new freshmen, the following courses must be completed within the first 30 credit hours earned:

First Year Experience (for day students) or core elective (for evening students) and either:

ENG 101* English Comp. I (3 credits)
and ENG 102* English Comp. II (3 credits)

* ENG 101 and ENG 102 must be passed with a C- or better, and must be taken sequentially.

Beginning with the first semester of the freshman year, a student must enroll in one of the above English sequences, repeatedly and in consecutive semesters, until the aforementioned requirement is fulfilled.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The College of Arts and Sciences provides a meaningful interpretive context for all programs within the university in the best tradition of liberal education. Through the programmatic initiatives and curricula described in this section, the college seeks to support the university's international and multicultural perspectives, thereby preparing students for responsible living in the 21st century. In addition to supporting the general education curriculum in English, Communication Arts, History, Behavioral Science, Natural Science, Mathematics, Humanities, Fine Arts and Language, the following degree programs are offered:

Bachelor of Arts with a major in Behavioral Science, Bachelor of Arts with a major in Liberal Arts; Bachelor of Arts with a major in English; Bachelor of Science with a major in Psychology; Bachelor of Arts with a major in International Relations (specializations in Asian Affairs, European Affairs, and Latin American Affairs, or minors in International Communications and International Business); Bachelor of Science with a major in Biology.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

MAJOR: BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science is an interdisciplinary degree that introduces students to the study of human behavior through a progression of general sociology and psychology courses. The Behavioral Science program is designed to expose students to various aspects of human social experience and behavior and the conditions and purpose of ethics and ethical decision-making.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

MAJOR: INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The International Relations degree introduces students to the peoples, places and events that shape the political, historical, cultural, social and economic dynamics of the world. Students will be prepared for the multifaceted world in which they will become local, national and global citizens and leaders. This is accomplished through a multi- and interdisciplinary approach relying on courses in political science, history, modern languages and economics/business. An emphasis on student-centered learning and flexibility of the curriculum - through a set of upper level major electives - provide an individualized orientation for studying International Relations.

Lynn University offers a BA degree in International Relations that is designed to maximize graduates' opportunities for advanced study or employment. The department also offers a minor in International Relations that complements any one of several majors. Both curricula may include courses completed as part of a study abroad program, either through Lynn University or other international education institutions.

MAJOR: LIBERAL ARTS

The Liberal Arts major is designed to provide students with a broad background in a variety of disciplines that includes literature; the arts; history; philosophy; contemporary social issues and concerns; and historical, social, and political epochs. The major in Liberal Arts facilitates competency in critical thinking skills, analytical skills, communication skills of speaking, writing and aesthetic appreciation. Further, the Liberal Arts major fosters an appreciation for lifelong learning and prepares students to use criteria and rules from the specializations in communication arts, history and humanities to judge the quality and impact of information. The Liberal Arts major is appropriate for those students who intend to pursue a law degree, graduate studies or careers in a broad range of areas, including information-based agencies and human and cultural communication.

LIBERAL ARTS MINORS

HISTORY/INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS MINOR

Designed to complement any degree program, the History/International Relations minor enhances the marketability of a student's major. With this minor, students will have the opportunity to pursue study in areas affecting the American and international communities. Available courses deal with a variety of issues, including social, economic and geo-political concerns. These study areas expand students' knowledge of the world and enrich their tools of critical thinking and analysis. To earn the History/International Relations minor, students must take 15 hours as follows:

HISTORY/INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS	15 CREDITS
___ HIS/IRPS 200+(NOT INCLUDING IRPS 250)	3
___ HIS/IRPS 300+	12

HUMANITIES MINOR

Designed to complement any degree program, the Humanities minor enhances the marketability of a student's major. A minor in Humanities is an excellent choice for those who major in more specialized subjects. A broad combination of courses in art, music, philosophy and world religions provides students with a perspective for understanding the diversity in the complex world in which they live. It also prepares them for any profession where sensitivity to other cultures and values are a major concern. Those who are planning a career in the arts may wish to take all 15 hours required for a major in Art History. A suggested program for a broader Humanities minor includes:

HUMANITIES	15 CREDITS
___ HUM 221 INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY	3
___ HUM 230 WORLD RELIGIONS	3
___ HUM 315 MODERN ART HISTORY: POST-IMPRESSIONISM TO 1945	3

___ HUM 411 ART HISTORY: 1945 TO THE PRESENT	3

PHILOSOPHY MINOR

Designed to complement any degree program, the Philosophy minor enhances the marketability of a student's major. Grounded in fundamental analytical, critical, and interpretive abilities essential to countless professions, from corporate management and computer systems analysis to investment banking and public policy research, as well as graduate study, a minor in philosophy is clear evidence of a disciplined and rigorous mind. Yet students also choose to minor in philosophy for personal enrichment. The study of philosophy fosters intellectual abilities important for life as a whole, including a capacity for self-expression and examination, for debate and the exchange of ideas, and for approaching problems for which there are no easy answers.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

MAJOR: ENGLISH

Designed to provide students with a strong background in analyzing literature and to facilitate competency in communication, literary studies engage students in examining structural elements in literary genres and literary movements in the English language. The program also provides an opportunity for focused study on particular authors, gender-related issues and cultural perspectives of literature. Students develop sound critical thinking skills, analytical skills and research skills to enable them to best communicate their thoughts in the classroom and beyond. Exciting career paths can begin with English studies, and this program will prepare students for any career path or continuing education plans.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE MAJOR: CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Criminal Justice degree is an interdisciplinary degree that introduces students to the study of agencies, personnel, philosophies, procedures and methods that comprise the criminal justice system in the United States. The Criminal Justice program is designed to expose students to various aspects of existing law enforcement systems, judicial systems and correctional systems within an ethical and constitutional context. Students acquire depth and breadth of learning following the guidelines and goals of the Criminal Justice major.

The Criminal Justice program is designed to provide a curriculum that focuses on interpreting norms, mores, laws and rules that govern behavior in a civil society and that helps students develop a general understanding of a systems process within criminal justice. The program introduces students to diverse crime and causation theories, emphasizes critically examining and evaluating the ethical implications of various societal issues, and enhances effective written and oral communication skills as well as mathematical computations, information literacy, intellectual strategies and computer use.

The Criminal Justice program is consistent with the vision and mission of Lynn University in that its academic programs reflect the importance of global transformation, multicultural awareness and international exchange and include the breadth and depth that are a basis for competencies in all programs.

Through the Criminal Justice program, students become able to describe the agencies and processes involved in criminal justice administration; explain the Bill of Rights and the impact on criminal justice system defendants; describe the nature, extent, etiology and control of law-breaking behavior, and compare and contrast the law enforcement systems of countries throughout the world.

Criminal Justice students learn to describe the structure and process of the American judicial system from a local, state and federal perspective; explain how gender affects women as offenders, victims and professionals in the criminal justice system; and analyze diverse ethical issues encountered in the criminal justice profession. These issues include discretion, affirmative action, use of deadly force, misconduct, civil disobedience, undercover operations and privacy. The program also helps students develop independent research study in the criminal justice field.

Graduates of the Criminal Justice program are able to apply ethical values in a diverse, complex and interconnected society and leave Lynn University with the knowledge, confidence, competencies and ethical consciousness to assume positions of responsibility and leadership.

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

CERTIFICATE IN EMERGENCY AND DISASTER MANAGEMENT

The Undergraduate Certificate in Emergency and Disaster Management consists of five upper division online courses in emergency and disaster management, totaling 15 credits. An internship course, providing a practical component with a suitable organization, is also offered as an option. Applicable to both the public and private sectors, the five courses that comprise the undergraduate certificate program provide a foundation for the rapidly growing field of emergency management. Various emergency management theories, concepts and contemporary practices will be examined, thereby providing an understanding of crises within an intergovernmental framework. Students who complete the undergraduate certificate course work may also be eligible to receive a minor in Emergency and Disaster Management.

EDM CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

EDM 300-I	Theory and Principles of Hazards, Disasters, and U.S. Emergency Management
EDM 310-I	Principles and Practice of Hazard Identification and Mitigation
EDM 320-I	A Social Vulnerability Approach to Emergency Management
EDM 410-I	Terrorism and Homeland Security
EDM 420-I	Disaster Response Operations and Management
EDM 470-Q	Internship in Emergency and Disaster Management

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT

The College of Business and Management's mission is to provide an environment of collaborative learning among students, faculty and staff, and the greater community for the purpose of creating personal and professional success for all stakeholders.

The College of Business and Management and its associated Burton D. Morgan School of Aeronautics focus on offering quality career specializations at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The college supports the mission of the university through its long-range goal to be recognized for career preparation excellence by the diverse stakeholders, communities and clients we serve in terms of:

- providing quality instruction;
- maintaining continuous improvements in programs and curricula;
- providing timely career-based skills and knowledge for undergraduate and graduate students so that they will be viewed as desirable prospects for career growth opportunities by their current and/or future employers;
- supporting continuing education outreach programs (credit and non-credit) for the business community within the university's service area;
- providing students from around the world with a global awareness of domestic and international business.

The college's programs are not standardized, prescriptive formulas—they are customized career plans. The college offers a range of experiences that is both wide and substantive. Students of the College of Business and Management have the flexibility to design a course of study that matches their interests and career objectives.

The College of Business and Management is also responsible for the Corporate and Organizational Management specialization for the Ph.D. in Global Leadership. See the graduate section of the catalog for a detailed description of the MBA and Ph.D.

The Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) requires the completion of 120 credit hours. Forty of the 120 credit hours are to meet the general education requirements completed by all undergraduate students of the university. Fifty of the 120 credit hours are the requirements for the major in Business Administration. With the remaining 30 credit hours, the student has six options: 1) complete a specialization in business and a minor in another academic discipline; 2) complete two specializations in business; 3) complete two minors in other academic disciplines; 4) complete a specialization in business and complete credits in course work that is customized to personal preference; 5) complete a minor in another academic discipline and complete credits in course work that is customized to personal preference; and 6) complete all of the 30 credit hours in course work that is customized to personal preference.

The College of Business and Management offers specializations for the undergraduate degree in the following areas:

- Fashion Management
- General Management
- International Business
- Marketing
- Aviation Management

The College of Business and Management offers a Master of Business Administration (MBA) program with specializations in:

- Aviation Management
- Financial Valuation and Investment Management
- Hospitality Management
- International Business
- Marketing
- Mass Communication and Media Management
- Sports and Athletics Administration

The College of Business and Management is also responsible for the Corporate and Organizational Management specialization for the Ph.D. in Global Leadership.

Students may be able to earn a BSBA and MBA in four years from the time they enter the university. Students can determine a schedule of summer classes, along with those of the regular academic year, that can lead to earning the two degrees in four years. Students who are interested in this four-year program of study should contact an academic advisor from the College of Business and Management.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR: BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Each Business Administration major completes all degree requirements including core curriculum requirements, requirements for the Business Administration major, and requirements for a specialization in business and/or a minor in another academic discipline and/or course work customized to personal preference. Business Administration major requirements aim to provide breadth of knowledge in the discipline of business and its context, as well as learning activities that promote the integration of business knowledge. The specializations provide in-depth study in an area of business. A minor in another academic discipline and the course work customized to personal preference provide students with the opportunity to explore areas of learning outside of the business discipline for the purpose of complementing the knowledge acquired in the Business Administration major requirements. All candidates for the BSBA should work closely with their academic advisors to assure that their programs of study have met the established guidelines for the degrees.

DONALD E. AND HELEN L. ROSS
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES

The Ross College of Education and Human Services (CEHS) offers degree programs at the bachelor's, master's and doctoral levels as well as certificate programs. Curricula are offered in the day and evening through a variety of venues. Members of the college share a common commitment to academic excellence. Faculty facilitate learning, practice and engage in scholarly activity, and provide university and community service (to organizations, professions, communities and evolving societies).

Learner-centered educational experiences promote depth and breadth of knowledge within a discipline or group of disciplines; development of academic skills; cultivation of values and ethical consciousness; awareness of diverse cultures, international perspectives, and contemporary and future issues; and opportunities for study abroad. Educational experiences enable development and expansion of critical thinking skills to facilitate application of theory to practice and acquire a technologically oriented frame of reference to identify, access and use knowledge and databases efficiently and appropriately. A synergistic learning environment challenges students to develop and maximize their administrative talents and leadership abilities. Students cultivate a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics of global change to be able to distinguish its causes, effects, magnitude and cultural significance. The college's programs blend academic and career preparation to equip graduates to manage change and meet the dynamic needs of the emerging global society of the 21st century.

The college's educational purpose is for graduates to: (1) leave with the knowledge, confidence and competencies necessary for education, health and human service careers; (2) practice in an ethical, competent, equality-focused, cost-effective way; (3) be prepared for positions of responsibility and leadership as productive global citizens; and (4) leave the university committed to continue personal and professional growth through lifelong learning.

Committed to individualized student attention and mentoring, the college's faculty foster and help learners realize the development of their innate leadership talents and intellectual abilities. Each student acquires the associated skills to communicate, inspire and educate those for whom they have professional responsibility. Clearly these skills are couched within a moral and ethical context that governs their choices and decisions as professionals, individuals and members of the greater community.

Since its inception in 1962, the Donald E. and Helen L. Ross College of Education and Human Services has fulfilled the mission of Lynn University by providing its students with knowledge, competencies and skills needed for educational leadership in the 21st century. Our synergistic learning environment stimulates and challenges students to:

- Understand and analyze the dynamic nature of our contemporary transformation into a global society.
- Experience creativity that fosters academic achievement and social awareness.
- Create new alternatives to address diversity and the importance of a global perspectives.
- Integrate theory and practice through experiential learning.

More specifically, education students are expected to develop competencies in critical thinking and analysis related to educational theory and practice. This enables them to understand and utilize a variety of knowledge bases developed to deal with contemporary and future issues, problems and dilemmas.

The Ross College of Education and Human Services offers the following undergraduate degree and certificate programs:

- Bachelor of Arts in Human Services Major
- Bachelor of Science in Education Major: Elementary Education Grades K-6
- Bachelor of Science in Education Major: Grades K-6 Specialization: Pre-K/Primary (age 3 - grade 3)

(See the Graduate Degree section of this catalog for a listing of the graduate degrees offered by the Ross College of Education and Human Services.)

Admission and Graduation Requirements

Admission to Lynn University does not admit the student to the Ross College of Education and Human Services. For students interested in Teacher Education, the Ross College of Education and Human Services has Florida State Program approval for degree programs that lead to teacher certification. All education students are required to take the CLAST or General Knowledge Test by the beginning of the second semester of the freshman year. In accordance with Florida School Law 240.529 Public Accountability and State Approval of Teacher Education Programs, all Ross College of Education and Human Services students must meet one of the following pre-requirements for admission to the Ross College of Education and Human Services Undergraduate Teacher Education program [240.529(b)]:

1. Receive a passing score at the 40th percentile or above, as established by state board rule on a nationally standardized college entrance examination (SAT test scores of 960, or Composite ACT of 20)
2. A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale for the General Education component of undergraduate studies

In addition, the students must demonstrate that they have:

1. Completed at least 45 credit hours
 2. Passed the CLAST, or General Knowledge Test
 3. Submitted a completed application form before deadline date
 4. Obtained a minimum of 2.5 in all teacher education courses with no grade lower than a C
- OR

If a student has demonstrated difficulty in achieving the requisite levels on the SAT and/or ACT in at least two attempts, the student may substitute a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 overall and at least 3.5 in education courses taken at Lynn University.

Through a portfolio assessment that demonstrates effective teaching principles, the Ross College of Education and Human Services faculty will review the candidate's file and decide the status of admission to the Teacher Education Program.

Graduation Requirements for All Teacher Education Programs

Students in all education programs must pass both parts of the Florida Professional Teacher Education Examination and The General Knowledge Test.

The State of Florida may require additional courses in the field for certification, prior to issuing the five-year certificate. Program requirements may change in order to comply with any changes made by the State of Florida Department of Education. Grandfather provisions do not apply when such program changes are made.

Note: Credits and degrees earned from colleges within the State of Florida that are licensed by the State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities do not automatically qualify an individual for a Florida Teaching Certificate or to participate in professional examinations in Florida. The established procedure requires the Florida Department of Education to review and recognize the credentials of the individual and the accreditation of the college granting the degrees prior to approving teacher certification and for the appropriate state professional board under the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation to make similar evaluations prior to scheduling examinations.

Any student interested in obtaining a Florida Teaching Certificate should contact the Office of Teacher Certification, Department of Education, Tallahassee, FL 32301. Any student interested in practicing a regulated profession in Florida should contact the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, 2009 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, FL 32301.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN EDUCATION

MAJOR: ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

SPECIALIZATION: GRADES K-6

The Elementary Education major is designed to prepare students to teach in grades kindergarten through six. Elementary Education students have experiences that combine learning theory with practical applications, promote the integration of technology and ESOL performance standards, and encompass a variety of field activities. Students enrolled in the Elementary Education program will be encouraged to recognize and appreciate the diversity of today's children and to be able to meet their varied educational needs in our multicultural society. The courses in this state-approved program are designed to meet the requirements for certification in Florida. This program is offered in both the day and evening programs.

BACHELOR OF ARTSMAJOR: HUMAN SERVICES (This degree is now housed in the College of Arts and Sciences)

Human service professionals can work in a variety of roles in a range of private, non-profit, for-profit and governmental service agencies. Common employment opportunities include case management, crisis intervention, assessment, and advocacy in community organizations serving clients who are coping with poverty, child maltreatment, family problems, substance abuse, mental illness, aging and disabilities. The purpose of the Human Services degree programs is to prepare students for entry-level positions in the human or social service field. The Human Services program offers career enhancement and practical hands-on learning through a connection between our community and its agencies. Students will choose one of two tracks:

 Direct Service (DS):

Provides skills needed to work directly with individuals, families and groups who are at risk for social problems or in need of social services. For instance, direct service workers are often employed as case managers, group home staff, mental health technicians, adult living facility staff, probation officers or child protection workers.

*Leadership (L):

Provides skills needed to work in organizations that serve communities in a variety of capacities in an effort to improve the lives of citizens. For instance, leadership involves mentoring, role-modeling for at-risk youth, fund-raising, community development, community organization, management, administration, inter-agency coordination and public awareness/education.

COLLEGE OF HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

The College of Hospitality Management, founded in 1991, offers baccalaureate and graduate degree programs. Programs are offered in the day, evening and graduate divisions through a variety of venues. We share a common commitment to academic excellence. The college facilitates learning, practice and engagement in scholarship, and provides university and community service (to organizations, professions, communities and evolving societies). Blending academic and career preparation, the college equips graduates to manage change and exercise leadership and service to meet the dynamic needs of the 21st century global society.

Graduates leave the program with the knowledge, confidence and competencies to provide quality hospitality tourism and recreation management services. Prepared to meet the needs of the community-at-large, graduates practice hospitality, tourism and recreation management services in an ethical, competent, equality-focused and cost-effective manner, and are committed to continue personal and professional growth through lifelong learning.

EUGENE M. AND CHRISTINE E. LYNN COLLEGE OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATION

The Lynn College of International Communication (CIC) provides students with the knowledge, skills and experience necessary to build successful communications careers in the global media marketplace. The college is committed to blending a strong liberal arts concentration with hands-on experience in radio, television, film, theatre, print, graphic design, photography and the new media in order to best prepare students for leadership roles.

Communication theory courses, both domestic and international in scope, enable students to develop and enhance critical thinking skills and gain a comprehensive command of written and oral expression. The college also provides students with invaluable training in the latest communications technology, with an emphasis on journalism, radio, television/video production, and graphic design. The unique combination of theory, practice and internships gives students a solid foundation for success in the competitive fields of international communications.

Facilities

A state-of-the-art digital facility houses broadcast and cinema production and postproduction centers that enable students to develop pre-professional skills and an advanced understanding of studio, field, and news production and non-linear editing. The faculty provides educational experiences in producing, directing, writing, camera work, lighting, set design, editing, media performance, journalism, public relations, advertising, photography, computer animation and graphic design. Instructional facilities for the new media promote the early adoption of developing technologies into the mass media mix, including Web design and maintenance, audio/video streaming on the Internet, interactive business presentations and interactive mass media.

Undergraduate Program

The Lynn College of International Communication offers courses leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Communication, a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication, and a Bachelor of Science in Design. Academic programs are designed for students who seek career-building or graduate school preparation. The Communication major offers a foundation in the process of communication, including the study of interpersonal, intercultural and international communication systems. The Journalism and Mass Communication major emphasizes the flow of information through the mass media with a goal of achieving professional competency in media production, including broadcast and print journalism, radio and television programming, management, advertising, public relations, and film development. The Graphic and Visual Communication major focuses on the various media and techniques for commercial art production and animation, the necessary interpretive skills, rules and principles of graphic design and visual communication, as well as the history and development of the field. Each program also provides academic preparation toward graduate study in communication, mass communication, visual communication and related disciplines. Additionally, the college facilitates the placement of students in both domestic and international internship positions. With a faculty composed of teacher-scholars and academically trained media practitioners, the college prepares students for successful careers in a rapidly changing global community. Students majoring in the programs complete the following requirements:

- A university core curriculum of 40 credits
- A major curriculum of 30 credits
- A minimum of 24 credits of college electives in one of nine specializations:

Advertising and Public Relations, Broadcasting, Drama, Film Studies, International Communication, Journalism, Graphic Design, Illustration/Computer Animation, and Photography

- An additional 26 elective credits that may include courses toward a minor, general electives from other university programs, a second specialization, or additional courses in the Lynn College of International Communication

Policy Regarding Internship

Up to six credits of internship are available to students who have completed 90 credit hours and a minimum GPA of 2.5. Students who do not meet the GPA requirement may take additional upper level courses in the major. A maximum of six credits of internship may apply toward graduation.

Policy Regarding Transfer of Credits

A grade of C or higher is required for course work transferred from other schools. Credits earned toward an associate degree or at a two-year college transfer as freshman and sophomore (100 and 200) level courses. Students transferring an associate degree in communication, journalism, graphic design or a related field must complete 45 credit hours of upper level (300 and 400) course work.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The mission of the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University is to provide high-quality professional performance education for gifted young musicians and set a superior standard for music performance education worldwide. Primary among the goals of the conservatory is the nurture and education of the student body with a thorough attention to musicianship, artistry and skills needed to be competitive in the field of music performance. The aim is to train instrumental music students of high achievement through intensive programs of study in order to prepare them for performance careers. The conservatory faculty forms a community of exceptionally accomplished and dedicated individuals striving toward similar goals. The artist-faculty maintain active performance careers and bring their experience and expertise to the aspiring student body.

The conservatory offers baccalaureate and post-baccalaureate level programs of study to music students who have previously had extensive preparation in musical performance. The program focuses on rigorous, professional performance instruction and offers a full and progressive curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Music - Performance Degree, or Professional Performance Certificate. Students are selected for enrollment from across the United States and globally through a stringent audition process. Artistic talent and ability are the primary criteria for admission. In addition to the Bachelor of Music degree, the conservatory offers a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in music. This latter degree is designed for the undergraduate music student who is interested in a liberal arts education with a broad range of topics. The Bachelor of Arts degree also offers the music student the opportunity to have a minor in a different discipline. Following are the requirements for obtaining degrees from the conservatory:

BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA) MAJOR: MUSIC

This four-year program of study includes music and academic courses firmly rooted in the liberal arts. The program is designed for undergraduate students who are interested in a broad program of general education rather than intense specialization. Because of the program's flexibility, music majors also are able to minor in a different discipline.

Students completing this program will be able to:

- Think, speak and write clearly and effectively
- Understand mathematical, physical and biological concepts
- Address culture and history from a variety of angles
- Understand and experience arts other than music
- Develop and defend musical judgments
- Understand the compositional process and the different musical styles and how these shape and are shaped by cultural sources
- Work conceptually and in practice with the elements of music - rhythm, melody, harmony and structure
- Perform in a variety of musical styles

SECTION II

GRADUATE CATALOG

Chapter I.

Graduate Admissions

Admissions Philosophy

Lynn University seeks to admit students who can benefit from and are qualified for admission to the institution's graduate programs. The graduate programs are organized within several colleges or are interdisciplinary. Each college is headed by a dean, and each program has a program director and/or program coordinator. Thus, the various institutional units cooperatively seek students whose maturity, academic ability, motivation and discipline qualify them for admission into the graduate programs of Lynn University.

The graduate programs of Lynn University focus on career and professional development, application of knowledge bases, clarification and development of professional and personal values, and the enhancement of intellectual and professional skills. As such, the graduate programs reflect increasing levels of complexity; require students to analyze, examine, question, synthesize and conduct research; think creatively and problem solve; evidence appropriate communication and information technology skills; and engage in active, collaborative and individual learning activities.

Conditions of Acceptance of Admission and Enrollment

Students accepted for graduate study are expected to attend, participate in and be prepared for the graduate classes for which they are enrolled. The specific policies governing each course are set forth in the syllabus distributed by the instructor, and they will govern the conduct of the course as long as they do not conflict with institutional policy. Graduate students are expected to evidence maturity, responsibility and discipline, and, as such, must assume responsibility for communicating individual problems or issues to the instructor and pursue them to resolution, as well as be responsible for complying with the policies and procedures of the program and the institution.

Application Information

- Send application-related documents to the Office of Admissions.
- Immediately notify the Office of Admissions of name, address or phone number changes.
- All documents submitted become the property of the university and cannot be copied or returned.
- To check on the status of an application, please call 561-237-7900.
- Meet requirements specified for international applications, master's degree applications, and Ph.D. program applications.

Note: Applications are not given full consideration until all materials are received.

Readmission

Students who voluntarily or involuntarily withdraw from Lynn University for two or more terms lose degree-seeking status unless they had an approved leave of absence. Students wishing to return to the university must submit an application for readmission to update information. Students who have attended another institution during their absence from Lynn University must have all academic credentials sent to the Office of Admissions. In addition, a letter of recommendation from the dean of students from the last college or university attended or a letter from your employer verifying your employment is requested, along with a personal statement explaining why you wish to return to Lynn University.

Students who have been dismissed for academic deficiencies or suspended for disciplinary reasons for one or more terms must submit an application for readmission of dismissed or suspended student and include a letter of appeal with their application for readmission. The application for readmission must be approved by the academic dean and the dean of the college offering the program. Students who are readmitted to the university return at the same academic standing they had prior to leaving the university.

A student applying for readmission due to an extended leave of absence, or applying for readmission after dismissal, may be held to any new requirements in effect and/or may be required to validate prior learning.

American Disabilities Act (ADA)

Every effort is made to reasonably accommodate students requesting services to meet their special needs. Students must make their disclosures at the time of application to the university. Documentation will be required. Students also should disclose to their instructors during the first week of classes if they are requesting services to meet their special needs. The ADA coordinator for Lynn University is the dean of the Institute for Achievement and Learning.

International Graduate Application Requirements

In addition to specific requirements for master's and Ph.D. programs, an application for admission is complete and ready for review when the following documents and records have been received:

- A completed application for admission signed, dated and accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of $50 ($25 for Lynn alumni) drawn on a U.S. bank account or an international money order.
- Educational documents, including official transcripts from each college and university attended. Graduates or attendees of foreign schools are required to submit an International Transcript Evaluation and course equivalency report. In some cases, certified English translations of official transcripts may be acceptable. Documents must carry the seal or stamp of the issuing educational institution. Uncertified photocopies are not acceptable.
- Two letters of recommendation.
- If English is not the applicant's first language, the results of the official Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) are required. The minimum acceptable score is 550 or 213 computer-exam. The TOEFL score may be waived if master's and Ph.D. applicants graduated from a U.S. college or university within the past 24 months, or if the applicant is a Lynn University alumnus/a.

For a registration form, write to: TOEFL/TSE Services, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, or call 609-771-7100 or visit www.toefl.org.

- Submission of the appropriate entrance examination score: 1000 on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), 450 on the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) or 40 on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT), for the applicant's selected program of study.
- A copy of the applicant's resume with a typewritten statement of professional goals attached. A professional overview is an additional requirement for the Ph.D. program.

- A completed Foreign Student Financial Statement, along with a Certificate of Finance letter from a financial institution on official letterhead, indicating enough funds to pay for study in the United States. Note: This requirement does not apply to U.S. resident aliens, who are required to submit a notarized copy of their Green Card.

ALL APPLICATION MATERIALS SHOULD BE SENT TO THE FOLLOWING ADDRESS:

Office of Admissions
Lynn University
3601 North Military Trail
Boca Raton, FL 33431-5598 USA
Telephone: 561-237-7900
Toll-free in the US: 800-888-LYNN (5966)

Financial Aid

- International students are NOT eligible for U.S. federal or state aid.
- The Student Administrative Services Office must receive applications for graduate assistantships no later than the second Friday in June for the subsequent fall term. Applications are available from the Office of Admissions or from the Student Administrative Services Office.
- Applicants who are citizens of a country other than the United States, but who are U.S. resident aliens (Green Card holders) may apply for all U.S. subsidized aid programs. A financial aid brochure is available from the Office of Admissions or from the Student Administrative Services Office.

The SEVIS I-20 Form

Upon acceptance by the university, applicants are sent a letter of acceptance with a request for payment of a required enrollment deposit of $200. The deposit is required and assures a place is reserved in the entering class. The deposit is submitted to the Office of Admissions. A SEVIS I-20 Form (Certificate of Eligibility) is then issued to the student. This form, a valid passport and financial certification must be presented at the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate in the student's country of residence to obtain the required F-1 student visa for study in the United States.

The Office of Admissions confirms the receipt of admission deposits in writing. At that time, the University Health Services Department sends medical forms, as well as information on health insurance. The university requires international students to have adequate medical insurance throughout their enrollment.

Prior to an applicant's term of enrollment, information about living accommodations, student services or campus activities is available and may be requested from the Office of Student Services.

Students are encouraged to contact the Office of Admissions should questions arise prior to their arrival on campus.

Note: International students are not eligible for enrollment as non-degree seeking students.

Criteria for Admission to a Master's Degree or Graduate Certificate Program

Admission to a master's degree or graduate certificate program is based on the proof of a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited or internationally listed college or university and the level of performance in all previous college work (as evidenced by transcripts). Submission of the appropriate entrance examination score (1000 on the GRE, 450 on the GMAT or 40 on the MAT) is required of all applicants. Applicants to the M.Ed. in Exceptional Student Education with ESOL Endorsement must have a GRE score of 1000 or pass all sections of the General Knowledge Test. Two recommendation letters, a resume and statement of professional goals also are required for file completion. Programs to which students apply may have additional requirements.

An admission decision cannot be reached until the admission file is complete. Official test scores must be received directly from the testing center.

Specific undergraduate prerequisites are required for the MBA, MS and M.Ed. Programs. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that ALL required application materials are forwarded to the Office of Admissions.

Application Requirements for a Master's Degree Program, Graduate Certificate, or Non-Degree Seeking Applicant

Master's Degree Program and Graduate Certificate Programs

A complete file includes the following documents: application form, nonrefundable $50 application fee ($25 for Lynn alumni), all transcripts, resume and personal statement, two letters of recommendation and the appropriate entrance examination scores, if applicable.

Transcripts

- All undergraduate and graduate transcripts of all academic course work attempted must be submitted.
- All transcripts must be official and final and become the property of Lynn University.
- Transcripts must be in an official envelope sealed by the issuing institution.
- Transcripts must be from a regionally accredited institution or internationally listed college or university.
- Undergraduate and graduate study must document the degree completion dates.

Resume/Personal Statement

- The applicant's resume and statement of professional goals must be typed and attached to the application.
- The applicant's name, desired program and the appropriate page number must be printed on the upper right hand corner of each page of the resume and statement of goals.
- The applicant's signature should be affixed at the end.

Letters of Recommendation

- Letters of recommendation must be on the forms provided. If additional information is included, it must be on the respondent's professional letterhead.
- Recommendation letters must be sent directly to the Office of Admissions and are not accepted from the applicant.

Master's Entrance Testing Information

Master's degree programs require a score of 1000 on the Graduate Record Examination* (GRE), 450 on the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) or 40 on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). The Miller Analogies Test is scheduled regularly at Lynn University. Contact the Office of Admissions for the testing schedule at 561-237-7900.

The MBA requires the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT). For information regarding the GRE, call 800-GRE-CALL. For information regarding the GMAT, call 800-GMAT-NOW. The testing number for Lynn University is 5437.

Non-Degree Seeking Applicants

The Special Student form and proof of degree from a regionally accredited institution or internationally listed college or university are required for application. If additional documents are required, applicants will be notified accordingly.

Any questions regarding the application process or your status should be directed to:

Application Evaluation Process for Master's Degree, Graduate Certificate and Non-Degree Seeking Applicants

Master's Degree Program and Graduate Certificate Programs

The college program coordinators, deans and/or designee review each applicant on a case-by-case basis when the applicant's file is complete. Based on a review of the materials, additional information may be requested or an interview required. Applicants who do not meet the minimal requirements for admission may be considered for probationary admission. Admission on probation is completely at the discretion of the college offering the program. Master's degree or certificate applicants admitted on probation must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 to eliminate the probationary status (by the completion of 6 credits) or the student is subject to dismissal.

Non-Degree Seeking Applicants

Students may enroll in graduate level coursework without pursuing a degree. A graduate application indicating non-degree seeking status and proof of an undergraduate degree from a regionally accredited institution or internationally listed college or university is required. If additional documents are necessary, applicants will be notified accordingly.

Non-degree seeking status is limited to six credits, with the exception of those seeking ESOL endorsement. Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for financial aid. Once a file has been revised, the applicant will be notified of the admission decision later.

Master's Program Admissions Classifications

Regular or Full Admission: Applicants have submitted all application materials, met or exceeded the required standards and have been accepted by and admitted to a master's degree or a graduate certificate program of study at Lynn University.

Conditional Acceptance: Applicants who have not submitted all admission information may be conditionally accepted. This acceptance is limited to enrolling for six credits as a Special Student. The applicant must achieve a GPA of 3.0 in his or her course(s) to be considered for full or regular admission. No credits are applied toward the degree until the MAT, GRE or GMAT results have been submitted, if this was a condition of admission. At this time the program coordinator, dean and/or designee reviews the results, as well as any of the six transcribed credits taken at Lynn. A determination is made as to: (a) whether the applicant has met all the admission requirements and (b) the applicability of the courses (if any were taken at Lynn University) to the degree program. A letter with the final acceptance decision is sent to the applicant with a copy placed in the applicant's file. Any other grounds for a conditional acceptance are time-limited, with the conditions clearly defined in the acceptance letter.

Dean's Admission: Applicants who have not satisfied all admission criteria, but are considered to possess potential for successful master's degree or a graduate certificate program study may be probationally accepted. This acceptance is limited to six credits. The applicant must achieve a GPA of 3.0 in his or her course(s) to be considered for full or regular admission. Master's degree or certificate applicants admitted on probation must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 (by the completion of six credits) to eliminate the probationary status, or the student is subject to dismissal.

Criteria for Admission to the Ph.D. Program

Admission to a doctoral program is based on the proof of a master's degree from a regionally accredited or internationally listed college or university and the level of performance in all previous college work (as evidenced by all transcripts). Submission of the appropriate entrance examination score (1000 on the GRE, 450 on the GMAT or 40 on the MAT) is required. Official test scores must be received directly from the testing center.

Two recommendation letters, a resume, professional overview and statement of professional goals also are required for file completion. There may be additional requirements as specified by the program to which students are applying. An admission decision cannot be reached until the admission file is complete.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that ALL required application materials are forwarded to the Office of Admissions.

Specific prerequisites or competencies are necessary for success in the Ph.D. Program. These include statistics, communication (writing and speaking) and computer application competencies. (Review Additional Degree Program Competency Requirements in the program description of the Ph.D. in Global Leadership.)

Application Requirements for the Ph.D. Program

A complete file includes the following documents: application form, nonrefundable $50 application fee ($25 for Lynn alumni), all transcripts, a resume and personal statement, two letters of recommendation and the appropriate entrance examination scores, if applicable.

Transcripts

- All undergraduate and graduate transcripts of all academic course work attempted must be submitted.
- All transcripts must be official and final and become the property of Lynn University.
- Transcripts must be in an official envelope sealed by the issuing institution.
- Transcripts must be from a regionally accredited institution or internationally listed college or university.
- Undergraduate and graduate study must document the degree completion dates.

Resume/Personal Statement

- A resume, statement of professional goals and minimum three-page professional overview are required. The overview reflects the applicant's philosophy and commitment to organizational innovation through a description and analysis of related professional experience. These must be typed and attached to the application.
- The applicant's name, desired program and specialization, and page number should appear on the upper right hand corner of each page of the resume, statement of goals and professional overview.
- The applicant's signature should be affixed at the end.

Letters of Recommendation

- Two letters of recommendation specifically addressing the applicant's professional practice and/or ability to do advanced independent study and research. Letters of recommendation must be on the forms provided. If additional information is included, it must be on the respondent's professional letterhead.
- Recommendation letters must be sent directly to the Office of Admissions and are not accepted from the applicant.

Ph.D. Entrance Testing Information

The Graduate Record Examination* (GRE), Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) or Miller Analogies Test (MAT) is required. The Miller Analogies Test is scheduled regularly at Lynn University. Contact the Office of Admissions for the testing schedule at 561-237-7900. For information regarding the GRE, call 800-GRE-CALL. For information regarding the GMAT, call 800-GMAT-NOW. The testing number for Lynn University is 5437.

Application Evaluation Process for the Ph.D. Program

Applications and associated documentation are reviewed to evaluate the applicant's GPA and entrance examination scores. Consideration also may be given to those who do not have the required GPA or entrance examination scores, but do show promise and ability to do doctoral level work as demonstrated through their supporting application materials. In addition to these minimum qualifications, applicants for the Ph.D. program must have the following:

- A minimum of five years' professional experience as a practitioner, administrator, educator or researcher, whether academic or nonacademic. (This requirement may be waived in certain circumstances.)
- A completed master's degree in an appropriate area of specialization or field of intended study. (This requirement may be waived in certain circumstances.)

The college program coordinators, deans and/or designee review each applicant on a case-by-case basis when the applicant's file is complete. Based on a review of the materials, additional information may be requested or an interview required. Applicants who do not meet the minimal requirements for admission may be considered for probationary admission. Admission on probation is completely at the discretion of the college offering the program. Doctoral degree applicants admitted on probation must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.25 (by the completion of six credits) to eliminate the probationary status, or the student is subject to dismissal.

Doctoral Program Admissions Classifications

Regular or Full Admission: Applicants have submitted all application materials, met or exceeded the required standards and have been accepted by and admitted to the doctoral program of study at Lynn University.

Conditional Acceptance: Applicants who have not submitted all admission information may be conditionally accepted. This acceptance is limited to enrolling for six credits as a Special Student. The applicant must achieve a GPA of 3.25 in his or her course(s) to be considered for full or regular admission (upon the completion of six credits). No credits are applied toward the degree until the MAT, GRE or GMAT results have been submitted, if this was a condition of admission. At this time, the program coordinator, dean and/or designee review the results, as well as any of the six transcribed credits taken at Lynn University. A determination is made as to: (a) whether the applicant has met all the admission requirements and (b) the applicability of the courses (if any were taken at Lynn University) to the degree program. A letter with the final acceptance decision is sent to the applicant and a copy placed in the applicant's file. Any other grounds for a conditional acceptance are time-limited, with the conditions clearly defined in the acceptance letter.

Dean's Admission: Applicants who have not satisfied all admission criteria, but are considered to possess potential for successful doctoral program study may be probationally accepted. This acceptance is limited to six credits. The applicant must achieve a GPA of 3.25 in his or her course(s) to be considered for full or regular admission. Doctoral program applicants admitted on probation must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.25 (by the completion of six credits) to eliminate the probationary status, or the student is subject to dismissal.

Chapter II.

Financial Aid Information

Tuition and Payment Policies

Graduate Tuition and Fees

Fees are determined on an annual basis. The university reserves the right to change, with or without notice, any of the fees printed in this catalog. Increases should be expected in subsequent years. All application fees, tuition deposits and residence hall deposits are nonrefundable.

All student charges must be paid in full before a student is allowed to register or attend classes. All statements of account are due and payable in full on or before the date shown on the statement. Statements are sent to the address on record for each student.

Limited student housing space is available for graduate students. For information on costs of room and board, contact the Student Administrative Services Office.

Request for Course Withdrawal from Graduate Programs

Course withdrawals from graduate programs must be processed through the academic advisor. The student is responsible for properly filing a Course Withdrawal form with the Office of Student Administrative Services. Withdrawals are permitted through the end of the seventh week of a term. There is no refund after the first week of the term.

Withdrawal from the University

Withdrawal from the university is a formal procedure that requires submission of a Request for Withdrawal form available in the Office of the Dean of Students. Students not enrolled for two consecutive terms will be withdrawn from the university and must apply for readmission.

Leave of Absence

The student may request a Leave of Absence from study in a graduate degree program. A letter requesting the leave, with the reasons for the leave, should be given to the program coordinator for approval. Each student may request up to one year of leave. Any financial aid student receiving leave of absence status will be reported as not enrolled at Lynn University.

Financial Aid Withdrawal

When a withdrawing student has been awarded financial aid and has withdrawn prior to the completion of 60 percent of the term, and if Title IV financial aid has been used to pay all or any portion of the charges, the financial aid program funds will be reimbursed to the appropriate agency in accordance with a formula required by federal regulations. Unearned Title IV funds will be returned to the Title IV programs based on the number of calendar days not attended. The order of refunds is: Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan and Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan. All students who withdraw must report to the Office of Student Administrative Services for an exit interview.

Refund Policy for Withdrawals

When withdrawal is made prior to the start of the term, the refund is 100 percent. When withdrawal is made through the first week of the term, the refund is 75 percent. No refunds are granted after the first full week of classes. Refer to the Graduate Academic Calendar for exact dates.

Refund Calculation

Refunds are calculated on the basis of the total term charges payable after deductions for nonrefundable deposits and fees. This policy may result in a financial obligation to the university that is payable at the time of a student's withdrawal.

2005-2006 Fee Schedule

Graduate Studies	$500 per credit hour
Ph.D. Tuition	$700 per credit hour
International Student Insurance	$984 per year (mandatory)
Late Fee	$40 per term

(Students must preregister prior to the first day of classes to not be assessed a late fee.)

Other fees are specified in the fees section in the undergraduate portion of the catalog.

Submitting Payments

Payments are accepted in cash, check, money order, credit card or electronic wire transfers in U.S. dollars only. Credit cards that are accepted include VISA, MasterCard, American Express and Discover. Please include the student's Lynn University identification number with all payments.

Payments may be submitted by mail to:

Cashier

Lynn University

To help ensure that the appropriate student's account is credited timely, please include the student's name and Lynn University student identification number on wiring instructions. Confirmation of payments should be faxed to the Office of Student Administrative Services at 561-237-7189. Evening payment options and the university's corporate reimbursement policy are listed in the undergraduate portion of the catalog.

Financial Aid

For all financial aid programs, the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form must be completed and mailed to the Federal Processing Center. In approximately three weeks, a report will be mailed to the student and to Lynn University. The university will then determine the student's eligibility for the loan programs. The student will receive an award letter. All verification items (financial and eligibility status) must be completed before loan applications are submitted to the bank. International students are not eligible for federal financial aid. Publications regarding grants and scholarships are available in the Office of Student Administrative Services. Graduates should review the financial aid section of this catalog for specific financial aid loans, policies and university regulations. Certificate programs do not qualify for federal funding. Information on additional scholarships and fellowships are available at the Office of Student Administrative Services.

Graduate Assistantships

A limited number of graduate assistantships are available each year. Applications for a graduate assistantship must be submitted before June 15 for the next academic year, which begins in September. To be eligible, applicants must have completed the application process with all appropriate documentation; be fully admitted to the university for enrollment in one of the graduate programs; demonstrate financial need; maintain a 3.0 grade point average or higher; and meet specific qualifications. Students with a probationary admission are not eligible to apply.

Assistantships cover the cost of full-time tuition (six credits for each term). Applications can be obtained in the Office of Student Administrative Services. Applicants should consult the Office of Student Administrative Services for policies governing graduate student assistantships. Graduate assistantships require a 3.0 grade point average be achieved at the end of each graduate term.

Scholarships

Conservatory of Music

Scholarships are awarded to students primarily on the basis of musical ability and artistic talent as demonstrated in their auditions. To be considered, students must fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form (or International Student Financial Review form for international applicants) in order to be considered. Applicants are encouraged to apply by the priority deadline of February 15 for entrance the following academic year. The scholarship is renewable if the student maintains the minimum cumulative grade point average each semester; earns a B or better in their Applied Major Instrument lessons; and attends classes, lessons, rehearsals, master classes, performance forum, outreach performances, juries, mock auditions and other conservatory performances and activities as required. An evaluation of each student will take place at the end of each academic year by the dean of the Conservatory of Music with the recommendation of the major instrument instructor.

Education Scholarships

Master's or doctoral students who are active, full-time employees of an educational institution may qualify for an Educational Scholarship tuition reduction of $135 and $145 respectively per credit hour. For qualified M.Ed. students, the tuition is $365 per credit hour; for qualified doctoral students, the tuition is $525 per credit hour. In addition, doctoral students who are employed full-time as corporate training and development specialists also may be eligible. For scholarship approval, students must submit a current employment verification letter each year to the Office of Student Administrative Services.

Criminal Justice Administration Scholarships

Graduate students in the MS in Administration with Specialization in Criminal Justice Program may qualify for a scholarship reduction of $125 per credit hour from the usual tuition of $500 per credit hour. Courses with NIA are not eligible. The scholarship rate of $375 per credit hour is available if the applicant in this program meets one of the following criteria: is sworn as a law enforcement officer for a municipal, state or federal agency or is employed in the administration of police or security work at the municipal, state or federal level or through a private agency engaged in the protection of life or property. For scholarship approval, the student must submit a current employment verification letter to the Office of Student Administrative Services each year.

EPA Scholarships

Graduate Students in the MS in Administration with Specialization in Emergency Planning and Administration Program may qualify for a scholarship reduction of $125 per credit hour from the usual tuition of $500 per credit hour. The scholarship rate of $375 per credit hour is available if the student in this program is employed in an organization in which the job responsibility involves emergency and disaster training and planning. For scholarship approval, the student must submit a current employment verification letter to the Office of Student Administrative Services each year.

Veterans' Benefits

Lynn University is approved for veterans training. Students are required to achieve a specified level of academic performance. Failure to do so will result in termination of benefits.

Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress for Financial Aid

Financial aid is awarded contingent upon the recipient maintaining satisfactory academic standing and progress toward a degree. Every student on financial aid will have his or her cumulative grade point average evaluated at the end of the Spring II term each academic year. At that point, a GPA below 3.0 places a master's student on academic and financial aid probation (below 3.25 for doctoral students). These GPAs are also the GPAs that must be maintained in order to matriculate and graduate from Lynn University.

A student receiving Title IV funding must complete his or her degree within a specific time frame as follows:

Ph.D. full-time: 15 terms (five years)

Master's full-time: 18 terms (three years); part-time: 36 terms (six years)

Each Title IV recipient must meet a specific measurement of academic progress within the specified time frame as follows:

Ph.D. full-time: 12 credits (annually)

Master's full-time: 24 credits (annually); part-time: 5 credits (annually)

Part-time: Less than 24 credits (annually)

Course withdrawal(s) or incomplete(s) are evaluated as a non-completed course and will not be counted toward the time frame requirement. A repeated course will be counted as a regular course.

In instances of undue hardship (i.e. medical, death, divorce), a student may appeal these standards to the Financial Aid Committee. Students must direct appeals to the Office of Student Administrative Services for review. The Office of Student Administrative Services will notify the student within 30 days of the Financial Aid Committee's decision.

The Standards of Academic Progress applies to Federal Stafford Loans (Subsidized and Unsubsidized).

International Tax Law

Under current Internal Revenue Service regulations, any scholarships or grants that exceed tuition, fees, books and supplies must be reported as taxable income on the student's tax return. For a student who resides in a country that does not have a tax treaty with the United States, the university must withhold 14 percent of the award in excess of the amounts used for tuition, fees, books and supplies. The university remits this 14 percent to the IRS as federal income tax withheld. Each year, international students will be required to file a 1040NR with the Federal Internal Revenue Service by April 15. Failure to file this form will jeopardize future scholarship awards to a student. If a student fails to pay the university within 30 days of the tax bill, they will incur interest penalty charges from the IRS.

Academic and Records Information

The Mission of the Graduate Programs of Lynn University

Lynn University provides an intellectually stimulating environment where students gain knowledge and competencies necessary to become global leaders and lifelong learners. Lynn attracts students from a variety of backgrounds who aim to become leaders in their fields. Lynn University seeks to enhance the career advancement of working professionals.

The overall mission of Lynn University is to provide its graduates with the knowledge, competencies and skills needed for leadership in the 21st century. In order to achieve these purposes, the curricula of the university's graduate degree and certificate programs are reviewed on a regular basis to assure the academic quality and relevance of course offerings. The university is committed to individualized student attention and mentoring. Faculty members foster and help learners realize the development of their innate leadership talents and intellectual abilities. A synergistic learning environment stimulates and challenges students to:

- Discover and maximize administrative talents and leadership abilities.
- Develop and expand critical thinking skills to facilitate application of theory to practice.
- Acquire a technologically-oriented frame of reference to identify, access and use knowledge and databases efficiently and appropriately.
- Cultivate a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics of global change in order to distinguish its causes, effects, magnitude and cultural significance.

In this integrative learning process, students gain an understanding of the dynamic nature of contemporary transformation into a global society, demonstrate effective leadership in addressing the ensuing opportunities and dilemmas, and make choices that foster innovative alternatives to address changing human needs. More specifically, graduate students are expected to develop advanced competencies in critical thinking and analysis that enable them to use and contribute to a variety of knowledge bases developed to deal with contemporary and future challenges.

Degrees, Programs and Certificates

Degrees

The Graduate Programs at Lynn University offer five types of degrees: the Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Education (M.Ed.), Master of Science (MS), Master of Music (MM) and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), as well as two Certificate Programs.

The 36-credit MBA is available with specializations in Aviation Management, Mass Communication and Media Management, Health Care Administration, Hospitality Management, International Business, Managerial Electronic Business, Marketing and Sports and Athletics Administration. Students may also choose to participate in optional internships.

The two M.Ed. programs include a 42-credit practitioner-oriented degree in Exceptional Student Education with a Teaching Endorsement in ESOL and a 36-credit Educational Leadership degree with two specializations: School Administration and Higher Education Administration. This degree focuses on leadership-related theory, knowledge and clinical experiences in the field, as well as practical application of theory and knowledge.

The 36-credit MS in Administration is available with specializations in Criminal Justice Administration, Criminal Justice Administration/Technical Intelligence Operations and Emergency Planning and Administration.

The 36-credit MS in Mass Communication is offered with either the creative project or thesis option.

The 36-credit MM in performance is offered with two variations designed for "pianists" or "strings, winds, brass, and percussion."

The 60-credit Ph.D. in Global Leadership is offered with two specializations: Corporate and Organizational Management, and Educational Leadership.

In addition to the degree programs, an 18-credit hour certificate is offered in Emergency Planning and Administration. A post-baccalaureate diploma course of study, known as the Professional Performance Certificate, is available through the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University. This two-year program's primary focus is advanced music performance education.

Introduction to the Lynn Graduate Educational Model

Lynn University has developed a conceptual model for differentiating the goals, expectations and outcomes for baccalaureate, master's and doctoral level learning. This model represents the way in which Lynn University faculty members set standards and expectations for learners' performances, construct course syllabi, choose the learning experiences for students, design projects to maximize learning and set criteria for evaluating student performance and mastery of the requirements. Similarly, learners can use these dimensions to evaluate their knowledge and skill levels, as well as their learning experience and progress.

The model employs seven dimensions that define the learning experience and its expected outcomes:

Course Requirements: Those expectations for the level of mastery to be achieved through completion of the course.

Teaching Methodology: Those roles and relationships that shape the learning domain along with the nature of the exchange and flow of ideas, thought, information, knowledge and data during a course.

Learner Goal: The primary and overriding goal of the learning process.

Course Text(s) or Literature in the Field: The level and modalities used to access ideas, concepts, theories, information and knowledge exchange.

Technology Infusion: The expectations for use of technology in courses and independent scholarly work.

Expected Course Outcomes: The specific knowledge and skills to be developed during the course.

Evaluative Measures: Those ways and means in which knowledge and skills acquisition are cultivated.

Undergirding each level is the minimum knowledge to be achieved for the specified degree program. This model provides a basis for assuring that students and faculty understand and share the expectations for the appropriate level of education and its outcomes.

Table 1. Lynn University's Conceptual Distinction Between and Among Undergraduate, Master's and Doctoral Level Expectations.

Dimensions	Undergraduate Level	Master's Level	Doctoral Level
Course Requirements	Grasp of discipline knowledge, its purposes and basic competencies	Mastery of knowledge, evaluation of its application and results	Scholarship/research contributing to the knowledge base
Teaching Methodology	Teacher as expert: lecture, discussion, frequent testing and feedback, learner-centered, group learning	Shared mastery: seminars, active learning, mentoring, individualized	Shared expertise: mentoring, learner-centered, conceptual block-busting, practica, nurturing, scholarly and intellectual development
Learner Goal	To access and use field resources/knowledge to understand and analyze a problem or issue	To use knowledge and research in practice to solve problems or pose alternatives	To develop conceptual models for effective practice and research that informs the knowledge base
Course Text(s) or Literature in the Field	Introductory-intermediate texts, anthologies, videotapes, Internet, Web page construction	Advanced texts, professional journals, bibliographies, videotapes, Internet	Internet, experts in the field, professional and electronic journals, writing annotated bibliographies
Infusing Technology	To access and use computer as a course resource for learning, designing and using Web pages	Internet as data source for information to address professional and practice trends/issues	Internet as source for collegial discourse, statistics, databases, information gathering and dissemination
Course Outcomes	Ability to summarize, describe/integrate core curriculum knowledge and skills with major, develop critical thinking skills	Ability to analyze research, examine questions and synthesize course knowledge, use critical thinking effectively	Ability to conceptualize and critique theory and practice, critical thinkers, knowledge builders, innovators
Evaluative Measures	Substantive knowledge development: objective tests, presentations, research papers and the major thesis	Applied theory to practice: oral and written, individual and group presentations, graduate projects	Applied research to practice: individual projects, practica, comprehensive examination, dissertation proposal and the dissertation
Knowledge Level to be Achieved	Introductory/Intermediate	Advanced	Expert

Graduate Policies Relating to Academic Integrity

Student Responsibility

Lynn University encourages its students to take the primary responsibility for their own academic activities and to accept the resulting consequences. No student should behave in a manner that can harm the educational environment or diminish the learning experience of any other member of the academic community. Each student is responsible for a knowledge of and adherence to regulations regarding registration, withdrawal, degree plan, deadlines, graduation requirements and payments of tuition and fees.

Grade Review Process

A request for a final course grade to be reviewed may be submitted during the first three weeks of the following term only on the basis of error or prejudice. The process is as follows: (1) The student requesting a final course grade review must meet with the instructor who determined the grade and present evidence of prejudice or error. The instructor may change the grade, if deemed appropriate, or reaffirm the original grade. (2) If the student wishes to pursue an additional review, he or she may submit a written request with all supporting evidence to the instructor's immediate supervisor (typically the college dean). The supervisor will review the evidence and may support the instructor's decision or return the evidence to the instructor for a change of the grade. If agreement cannot be reached, the supervisor and the instructor may consult with the academic dean before rendering a decision. (3) If the academic dean denies the student's request, the student may submit the written request and supporting evidence through the academic dean to the Academic Appeals Committee for review. The committee will convene within two weeks of receipt of the request and render a decision. The decision will be documented and returned to the student within one week of completed deliberations. The decision of the Academic Appeals Committee is final.

For a disputed test or paper grade, the student must first meet with his or her instructor. The student may then meet with the instructor's immediate supervisor (typically the college dean) by submitting a written statement. This process must take place within seven days from the date of the student's notification of the grade.

Appeal of a Decision Relating to the Application of Degree Requirements for Admission to, Progression through, or Dismissal from a Degree Program

The academic requirements and regulations set forth in this catalog are the minimal requirements established by the university. Students also are obligated to meet all additional requirements established for degree programs (degree requirements). These may include specific admission requirements, standards for satisfactory progress (progression requirements), and graduation requirements. It is the students' responsibility to be knowledgeable about the academic standards in their degree programs.

Prior to initiating the following review and appeal process, students are encouraged to discuss the decision or academic requirement with the degree program coordinator. The discussion may be held by appointment or by telephone conversation.

Any student enrolled in Lynn University requesting relief from degree requirements as they relate to that student, or claiming to be aggrieved by any decision relating to his or her own admission to, progression through, or dismissal from a degree program, has the right to request a review of such decision in accordance with the following procedures:

1. All appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the appropriate program coordinator. The student shall deliver a written request for review of the decision to the program coordinator of the appropriate degree program within 30 days after the date the decision became effective. The written request for review shall include: (i) a written justification as to why the student believes the decision is erroneous or he or she should be granted relief from a degree requirement; (ii) the relief requested by the student; (iii) all other relevant information. Any student who fails to request review of the decision within 30 days after the date the decision became effective shall be deemed to have waived the right to request a review of the decision.

- 1.1 Upon receipt of a written request for review and justification, the program coordinator shall place the request in the student's counseling records in the respective degree program and shall forward a copy to the dean of the appropriate college.
- 1.2 In considering the student's request, the program coordinator shall consult with the dean of the appropriate college, may consult with faculty members of the respective degree program and may consider any other evidence the program coordinator determines to be relevant. Also, at his or her sole discretion, the program coordinator may hold a meeting with the student, or with appropriate faculty members, or both, in person or by telephone conference, to obtain any other information or evidence the program coordinator determines to be necessary.
- 1.3 If the program coordinator determines that sufficient grounds exist such that relief would be appropriate, the program coordinator may grant the relief requested, or may grant any other relief the program coordinator finds to be appropriate under the circumstances. Sufficient grounds for relief include any extraordinary or extenuating circumstances, but shall not include a student's lack of knowledge of the academic program standards.
- 1.4 The program coordinator shall send a written decision on the request to the student, including the reasons supporting the decision, within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) of the date the student filed the written request with the program coordinator.
2. Any student who is not satisfied with the decision of the program coordinator on his or her request for review may deliver a written appeal with the dean of the appropriate college. Such appeal shall be delivered within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) of receipt of the written decision of the program coordinator. The written appeal shall include a copy of the student's written request for review to the program coordinator and accompanying documentation, as well as a copy of the written decision of the program coordinator.
- 2.1 The dean shall consider all of the information and evidence considered by the program coordinator. In addition, the dean may consult independently with the program coordinator and other faculty members of the college and may consider any other evidence the dean determines to be relevant to the appeal. Also, at his or her sole discretion, the dean may hold a meeting with the student, with the program coordinator, with appropriate faculty members, or any or all of them, in person or by telephone conference, to obtain any other information or evidence the dean determines to be necessary to the proper disposition of the appeal.
- 2.2 The dean may uphold or modify, in whole or in part, the decision of the program coordinator.
- 2.3 The dean shall send a written decision on the appeal to the student within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) of the date the student filed the written appeal with the dean.
3. Any student who is not satisfied with the decision of the dean on his or her appeal may deliver a written appeal with the academic dean, Office of Academic Affairs. Such appeal shall be delivered within five days of receipt of the written decision of the dean. The written appeal shall include: (i) a copy of the student's request for review to the program coordinator and accompanying documentation, (ii) a copy of the written decision of the program coordinator, (iii) a copy of the written appeal to the dean and accompanying documentation, and (iv) a copy of the written decision of the dean.
- 3.1 The academic dean shall consider all of the information and evidence considered by the program coordinator and the dean. In addition, the academic dean shall consult with the vice president for academic affairs, and may consult independently with the program coordinator, the dean of the appropriate college, and other faculty members of the college. The academic dean may consider any other evidence the academic dean determines to be relevant to the appeal. Also, at his or her sole discretion, the academic dean may hold a meeting with the student, with the program coordinator, the dean of the appropriate college, with appropriate faculty members, or any or all of them, in person or by telephone conference, to obtain any other information or evidence the academic dean determines to be necessary to the disposition of the appeal.

- 3.2 The academic dean may uphold or modify, in whole or in part, the decision of the dean.
- 3.3 The academic dean shall send a written decision on the appeal to the student within five days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) of the date the student filed the written appeal with the academic dean. The decision of the academic dean is final.
4. In cases where the degree program coordinator and the dean are the same person, step 2 is skipped and the appeal shall proceed from the program coordinator directly to the academic dean.
5. No aspect of the above proceedings may be audio or video recorded without the expressed, written permission of each person involved.

Note: Dismissal from a degree program does imply dismissal from the university. (See Dismissal Policy of the University).

Academic Integrity

All members of the university community—faculty, administrators, staff and students—are obliged to adhere strictly to the highest standards of academic integrity in study, research, instruction and evaluation. To protect the integrity of the grading system and to affirm the importance of honesty and accountability in the academic community, the university imposes strict penalties for academic dishonesty.

Academic Probation

1. Master's degree students are expected to maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 each term and throughout their graduate academic careers. Ph.D. students are required to maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.25 each term and throughout their graduate academic careers. Students whose cumulative GPA falls below the required minimum standard at the end of a given term are automatically placed on academic probation, effective with the next term of course enrollment. A grade of C or higher must be achieved in all course work in the degree program. Any grade below a C must be repeated.
2. A student whose cumulative GPA falls below the minimum standard at the end of a term may continue in the program only with the approval of his or her assigned advisor or the program coordinator for a maximum of two probationary terms. It is the student's responsibility:
 - a. To be knowledgeable about his or her academic performance during a course in progress and at the end of a course;
 - b. To be knowledgeable about his or her cumulative GPA at the end of each term;
 - c. To contact his or her assigned advisor or the program coordinator, and establish a plan for remediation in order to continue course work, should the minimum cumulative GPA standards not be attained.
3. In the event that a student preregistered for course(s) prior to completion of a given term and is subsequently placed on academic probation at the end of the term, the student is still responsible to contact his or her advisor or program coordinator to establish a plan for remediation in order to continue in further course work.
 - a. A student at risk for academic probation (borderline cumulative GPA) and is unsure of his or her final course grade prior to enrollment in the next term, must contact the course instructor, advisor or program coordinator for academic status (such as course grades for the term, or cumulative GPA).
 - b. A student who does not contact his or her advisor for approval for further continuation in course work, yet maintains enrollment in subsequent courses may be withdrawn from courses and/or dismissed from the program.
 - c. Students who are withdrawn from courses or dismissed after a term begins will be refunded their money for the course(s).
 - d. A student on financial aid who is academically removed from a graduate program may have a financial obligation for the previous term.
4. Upon advisor or program coordinator approval to continue in further course work, at the end of the first probationary term of enrollment while on academic probation:

- a. The student must demonstrate graduate level work, 3.0 for master's and 3.25 for Ph.D. students. If the student's cumulative GPA is at least 3.0 for master's and 3.25 for Ph.D., he or she will be removed from academic probation. The student may enroll in the next term with approval from the advisor or program coordinator. Advisor approval to preregister thereafter is not required if the student maintains good academic standing.
 - b. If the student's cumulative GPA is not at least 3.0 for master's and 3.25 for Ph.D. students, he or she will remain on academic probation and must obtain advisor or program coordinator approval to register for a second probationary term. During the second probationary term, the student may not preregister for the next term.
5. At the end of the second probationary term, the student's cumulative GPA must be at least 3.0 for master's and 3.25 for Ph.D. students.
 - a. If the student's cumulative GPA is at least 3.0 for master's and 3.25 for Ph.D. students, he or she will be removed from academic probation and may enroll in the next term with approval from the advisor or program coordinator. Advisor approval to preregister thereafter is not required if the student maintains good academic standing.
 - b. If the student's cumulative GPA is not at least 3.0 for master's and 3.25 for Ph.D. students, the student will be dismissed from the university.

Dismissal from the University

A graduate student may be subject to academic dismissal due to a lack of academic progress, specifically when the graduate student has a second consecutive term on academic probation. The student's advisor or program coordinator and the dean of the appropriate college review the academic records of such students and based on their recommendations, the academic dean will make a final decision.

If the student wishes to appeal the decision, the student follows the procedures outlined in the graduate catalog section, Appeal of a Decision Relating to the Application of Degree Requirements for Admission to, Progression through, or Dismissal from a Degree Program.

Dismissed students, with the exception of anyone dismissed for academic dishonesty, may apply to the university for readmission after one year from the term of dismissal. Veteran students will have their benefits terminated if they fail to attain a 3.0 GPA (master's) or 3.25 GPA (Ph.D.) after two consecutive terms on probation. A student applying for readmission may be held to any new requirements in effect and/or may be required to validate prior learning.

The Institutional Review Board

All human subject research and research-related activities involving human subjects conducted within or under the auspices of Lynn University by any faculty, employees or students, is subject to the Institutional Review Board for the Protection of Human Subjects in Research (IRB) review, recommendations if warranted, and final approval.

The purpose of the IRB is to safeguard the safety, privacy, health, and welfare of the human subjects involved in research and research-related activities. IRB reviews three categories of research: new projects, periodic review on a continuing project, and procedural revision to a previously approved project. IRB members are selected for their experience, expertise, diversity and breadth in backgrounds and represent individuals with primary concerns in both scientific and non-scientific areas. Under no conditions can proposed research begin prior to IRB review and written approval.

Investigators have many obligations, including designing the study so that the incidence of risk and stress are minimized to the greatest degree possible and that these risks are accurately described in the protocol. Moreover, the investigator bears responsibility for terminating the study when hazards or risks to the subjects become apparent or may be incompatible with the study's benefits; further, investigators must report any adverse reactions associated with the study to the IRB.

Information regarding the IRB Policies is available in the appropriate college and the IRB Web site (contact the IRB for the URL to this site). These procedures are briefly summarized as follows:

- Prior to submission to the IRB, a research proposal must be approved by an advisor in the case of student research or by the supervisory vice president in the case of a university employee .
- Completed IRB application including the research protocol, certifications and signatures, and curriculum vitae of principal investigator is submitted to the IRB. Reviews may be by convened full board review (11 copies), expedited review (five copies), or request for exempt status (three copies).
- The deadlines for submission of the application for IRB review are the 15th day of each month in order to be considered at the next monthly IRB meeting. If the IRB has any special concerns or questions, the researcher may be asked to attend the meeting.
- The IRB notifies the investigator and the institution in writing of its decision to approve or disapprove the proposed research activity, or of modifications required to secure IRB approval of the research activity. If the IRB decides to disapprove a research activity, it shall include in its written notification a statement of the reasons for its decision, and provide the investigator an opportunity to respond in person or in writing. Institutional notification for employees is to the investigator's supervisory vice president and to the research advisor in the case of students. For students, once approved, a copy of the approval letter is sent to the Office of Student Administrative Services for the student's permanent file.
- Currently approved protocols must be reviewed annually.

Lynn University Code of Computing Practice

All Lynn University students and staff are expected to practice responsible and ethical behavior in their computing activities. While most computer users act responsibly, those who do not, either through ignorance or intent, can potentially disrupt others or even steal or damage their work.

To a reasonable and economically feasible degree, the university is responsible for securing its computing systems against unauthorized access and/or abuse while making them accessible for authorized and legitimate uses. This responsibility includes informing users of the expected standards of conduct and the punitive measures for not adhering to them. For specific information on information technology policies, see www.lynn.edu/student.

Academic Programmatic Policies

General Information

The university reserves the right to impose probation on any student whose conduct is unsatisfactory. The university further reserves the right, subject to university procedures, to require a student to withdraw at any time. Admission of a student that is premised upon false statements or documents is null and void upon discovery of the fraud, and credit previously earned by the student is voided.

There is no refund of tuition, fees, charges or any other payments made to the university in the event the operation of the university is suspended at any time as a result of any act of God, strike, riot, disruption or for any other reason beyond the control of the university.

Upon dismissal or suspension from the university, there will be no refund of tuition and fees. Further, in the event that there has been only a partial payment of fees and tuition, the university will consider the balance due.

Admission of a student to Lynn University for any academic year does not imply that the student will be re-enrolled in any succeeding academic year.

The university makes every effort to assure completeness and accuracy in the catalog; however, due to the inevitable changing nature of listings and policies from year to year, possible errors, misprints or omissions may occur, for which the university shall not be held liable.

The provisions of this catalog are not to be regarded as an irrevocable contract between the student and the university. The university reserves the right to change any provision or requirement, including fees, contained in this catalog at any time with or without notice.

Enrollment in Class

Students are permitted to enter class only after obtaining financial clearance from the Office of Student Administrative Services and completing the formal registration procedure.

Campus Housing

A limited number of campus accommodations are available to graduate students on a space-available basis. For applications and information about costs for room and board, contact the Office of Student Administrative Services.

Cancellation of Courses

The university reserves the right to cancel any course for which an insufficient number of students has enrolled or for other reasons deemed necessary. No charge is made to a student for a registration change necessitated by such course cancellation.

Change of Name, Address or Marital Status

To ensure that the university maintains accurate records, students who change their personal status (name, marital status, home address, etc.) should notify their advisor and the Office of Student Administrative Services as soon as possible.

Classification of Graduate Students

A master's or doctoral student is classified as full-time if registered for six or more credits a term for five of the six terms during an academic year. A minimum of three credits each term is the requirement for two terms sequentially to qualify for federal financial aid. A student registered for less than six credits per term is considered part-time.

Course Schedule Changes

Graduate students may change their course schedule only within the one-week add/drop period following registration at the beginning of each term. The deadline is posted on the appropriate college academic calendar (www.lynn.edu).

Policy and Procedures for Failing Grades

Students who receive a grade of F are in serious academic jeopardy. When this happens, their advisor(s) conducts a thorough review of the student's academic progress, in order to determine whether or not and under what circumstances the student(s) will be allowed to remain in the program. In turn, the advisor shares the review results with the dean of the appropriate college, where a final determination is made. The student is informed of the decision in writing either to: (a) remain in the program with a plan for remediation; or (b) be dismissed from their program and the university. For those who remain in the program, the failed course must be repeated the next term the course is offered.

For doctoral students, a grade of F is unacceptable for any reason. Receipt of this grade requires an immediate review of the student's progress by the advisor who reports these results to the dean of the appropriate college for a final determination and action.

Incomplete (I)

An I is given for a course only under the following conditions: A student who is passing a course, but has not met the course requirements by the end of the term receives an I. I's are used only in extenuating circumstances. This grade reflects neither passing nor failing work. An I is not included in the calculation of the grade point average.

The student is responsible for completing the course requirements during the first three weeks of the following term. Failure to complete the course requirements within this time frame results in a grade of F for the course.

Internship and Doctoral Dissertation Grading

A grade of P (designating passing) is used for all internships and doctoral dissertation course work . The P indicates that the student has fulfilled all academic requirements, professional obligations, and work associated with the internship or dissertation, including the completion of the required hours in the field. The credit hours are recorded, and the P is not used in the calculation of the grade point average.

A grade of F is used when the requirements, professional obligations, and work associated with the internship or doctoral dissertation course work have not been completed successfully. Neither the credit hours nor any quality points are entered in a student's record.

A designation of IP is used to denote that an internship or dissertation requirement has not been completed in one term and is continuing for an additional term(s).

Graduate Grade Point Average (GPA)

At the end of each term a GPA is computed and based on the following grade quality points for each credit:

A	4
A-	3.67
B+	3.33
B	3.00
B-	2.67
C+	2.33
C	2.00
C-	1.67
D+	1.33

The university maintains a cumulative record of each student's quality point standing. Students who fail to meet minimum standards are placed on academic probation and their enrollment may be terminated if satisfactory progress is not made.

Other symbols in use and not included in computation of average include the following:

W	Officially withdrawn from the course
AU	Audit
R	Repeated
I	Incomplete
IP	In Progress (for internships or dissertation work extending over one term)
P	Passing
NR	Grade not reported

A temporary grade of NR is recorded if an instructor fails to list the grade prior to the time the grade reports are prepared and mailed. The actual course grade is recorded upon its receipt. If a grade is not received within the designated time frame, the NR grade will be changed to an F.

Graduation

Students who complete their course work by Summer II are eligible to participate in the May commencement. All students anticipating graduation must apply for graduation at the Office of Student Administrative Services and have an academic program audit completed. Students should comply with the application deadline indicated on the academic calendar.

A graduation fee of $130 applies to all graduates and represents each student's share of expenditures related to both the individual graduate and the graduating class. Included are costs pertaining to record verification, transcripts, diploma, commencement ceremony and activities. The fee is payable whether or not a graduate participates in commencement.

Applications for graduation are available in the Office of Student Administrative Services. Deadlines for applications are posted on the appropriate college academic calendar.

Registration

Registration begins several weeks prior to the beginning of each of the six terms. Schedules of class offerings are posted on the Web site www.lynn.edu/advising as soon as they are finalized. To access the schedules, a computer user must click on the guest button or use a sign-on and Personal Identification Number (PIN).

Each student must first meet with her or his advisor for approval of course selections. The student may then proceed to the Office of Student Administrative Services to pay the tuition and registration fee and then to complete the registration process.

Students who have been assigned a PIN and are not on probation may register via the Web site any time prior to the beginning of the term. New students must meet with an advisor prior to being assigned a PIN.

Add/Drop Period

The add/drop period takes place during the first week of the term. At this time a student may change or drop a course; however, when the add/drop period concludes, a student cannot change his or her schedule.

Late Registration

Late registration requires written approval from the dean of the appropriate college. A late registration fee of $40 is charged and is effective the first day of the term.

Residency Requirement

The residency requirement in graduate programs is intended to ensure that students become integrally involved in the academic life of their program and of the university. In residence, students are more likely to become fully immersed in graduate study for a substantial period of time and develop a relationship of scholarly and professional collegiality with faculty and fellow students. During the residency period, students are expected to take courses and participate in other aspects of the intellectual life of their discipline and of the university community. Students should review the established requirements for their respective programs.

Special Student Status

Graduate students who wish to take courses for the purposes of continuing education, teacher certification or transfer of credits to another institution may register as Special Students. Special Students are classified as non-degree seeking students and must show evidence of graduation from an accredited college or university in order to be eligible for this classification and take graduate courses at Lynn University. Special Students must complete a Special Student form available in the Office of Admissions and may be limited to six credit hours, except under the following circumstances:

- Educators seeking ESOL certification or taking courses for certification or recertification purposes are limited to 15 credit hours (five three-credit courses).

Those interested in enrolling as non-degree seeking students should contact the Office of Admissions for a Special Student form and registration materials. Term schedules of classes are available in the Office of Admissions, the Office of Student Administrative Services, the appropriate college and on the university's Web site.

Financial aid is not available to Special Students. Because of immigration regulations, a foreign student with either an F-1 or J-1 Visa may not register as a Special Student and must be degree seeking. Students who would like to change their status to degree seeking must complete a graduate application, provide all necessary documentation, including entrance testing if appropriate, and meet all admission requirements. Enrollment as a Special Student in no way implies a right for future admission to the university or a graduate program.

Credit earned as a Special Student does not automatically count as fulfilling graduate degree requirements unless approved by the program coordinator or dean of the appropriate college. All such proposed courses must have a grade of B or better and meet specific course requirements for the degree. This determination is made after the applicant has been accepted to the university or by the end of his or her first term as a matriculating student.

Second Master's Degree

Currently matriculated graduate students who wish to pursue a second master's degree may do so. The primary requirement is that the second degree include a minimum of 24 unique credits. An Application for Readmission and submission of the Lynn University graduate transcript must be completed and sent to the graduate admission coordinator, who sends formal notification of the acceptance into the second master's program.

Security Telephone

The Security Office is open 24 hours a day. A security station is located at the southeast corner of the Freiburger parking lot and adjacent to the baseball complex. Security can be reached at 561-237-7226.

Student Participation in Sports

Many of our graduate students are interested in participating in athletics. With the changes outlined in the 1998-1999 NCAA manual, graduate students may now compete using the one-time transfer rule of eligibility, which follows:

Graduate Student or Post-Baccalaureate Participation: A student-athlete who is enrolled in a graduate or professional school of the institution he or she previously attended as an undergraduate (regardless of whether the individual has received a United States baccalaureate degree or its equivalent), a student-athlete who is enrolled and seeking a second baccalaureate or equivalent degree at the same institution, or a student-athlete who has graduated and is continuing as a full-time student at the same institution while taking course work that would lead to the equivalent of another major or degree as defined and documented by the institution, may participate in intercollegiate athletics, provided the student has eligibility remaining and such participation occurs within the applicable five-year or 10-semester period set forth in 14.2.

One-Time Transfer Exception: A graduate student who is enrolled in a graduate program or professional school of an institution other than the institution he or she previously attended as an undergraduate may participate in intercollegiate athletics if the student fulfills the conditions of the one-time transfer exception set forth in 14.5.3.11 and has eligibility remaining per 14.2 (Adopted: 1/9/96 and effective 8/1/96 for those student-athletes who transfer to the certifying institution on or after 8/1/96).

The Higher Education Amendments of 1992 necessitated the development of the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act of 1994. This disclosure of data on participation rates and financing of men's and women's sports in intercollegiate athletic programs at Lynn University is available in the Athletics Office.

The Student Right-To-Know Act of 1990 requires disclosure of graduation or completion rates and transfer-out rates for: (1) the general population of full-time, degree-seeking undergraduate students, and (2) students who receive athletically related student aid, broken down by race and gender within sports. This information is available at the Office of Student Administrative Services.

Transcripts

Requests for transcripts should be directed to the Office of Student Administrative Services. Each transcript is $5. Cash or checks made payable to Lynn University must accompany each request. Each transcript requires a minimum of 48 hours for processing. If special instructions or services are required, a special processing fee may be required.

Transfers to Another Specialization Within a Degree Program

Should a graduate student wish to transfer to another specialization within the MBA, MS or Ph.D. degree program, a Request for Change of Specialization form must be completed and approved by both his or her current advisor and the dean of the college which sponsors the academic specialization.

A copy of the approved form is filed with the Office of Student Administrative Services. The new advisor and the student also receive copies of the approved form.

Transfer of Graduate Credits from Other Colleges and Universities

Master's Degree Criteria for Transfer Credits

Up to six hours of graduate credits from a fully accredited graduate school may be transferred into the MBA, M.Ed. and MS programs if they meet the following criteria:

- The course(s) must be at the graduate level from either a master's degree program initiated at another school but not completed, or a completed master's degree;
- The course(s) must have a grade of B or better and be taken no more than four years prior to admission to Lynn University.

Transfer credit will be awarded only for those courses that are comparable in title and content to those in the Lynn University Academic Catalog and are part of the proposed course of study. For course titles not specifically listed in the catalog and curriculum, the program coordinator or the dean of the appropriate college determine whether any transfer credit will be awarded.

Credits taken at schools not accredited by one of the regional associations will be evaluated only after a student has submitted a school catalog and a course syllabus for each. In certain instances, competency testing may be required.

Ph.D. Degree Criteria for Transfer Credits

Credit hours may be transferred into the Ph.D. degree program if they meet the following criteria:

- A maximum of six graduate credit hours may be transferred from course work applied to a completed master's degree.
- A maximum of 12 graduate credit hours from a fully accredited graduate school may be transferred into the Ph.D. degree program (only six of which were applied to a completed master's degree). Transfer credit will be awarded only for those courses that are comparable in title and content to those in the Lynn University Academic Catalog and are part of the proposed course of study.

All other criteria for the transfer of credit from the university catalog also apply to the transfer of graduate credit hours into the Ph.D. Program.

Transfer of Credit Procedure

Requests for transfer of credits should be directed in writing to the faculty advisor or degree program coordinator during the first term of master's or doctoral study. Appropriate documentation should accompany the request and include an official transcript and one or more of the following: a course description, a catalog, a syllabus for the course or completed written assignments for the course.

Prospective and enrolled graduate students are reminded that the general academic, financial and student behavioral policies and rules of the institution as stated in the catalog remain in force and effect unless specifically modified by graduate rules and policies included in the graduate section of the catalog.

Chapter IV.

Graduate Degree Programs

Master's Degree Completion Requirements

MBA

1. Complete any necessary prerequisites.
2. Complete the degree in four calendar years from the date on a student's initial registration or may be held to any new degree requirements.
3. Maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA and achieve a C (2.0) grade or higher in each course.
4. Complete 12 three-credit courses, including seven to nine foundation courses (21 to 27 credits) and three to five specialization courses (nine to 15 credits).
5. Develop and successfully demonstrate a range of critical thinking skills to complete an oral and written presentation reflecting the integration and application of theory to practice in MBA 690 Strategic Management Seminar.

M.Ed.

1. Complete the degree in four calendar years from the date on a student's initial registration or may be held to any new degree requirements.
2. Maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA and achieve a C (2.0) grade or higher in each course.
3. The third requirement varies, depending upon the M.Ed. degree program.
 - a. For the M.Ed. without an ESOL Endorsement, complete 36 graduate credits, including 27 credits in Exceptional Student Education and nine credits in research, and successfully complete a graduate project (not for initial certification).
 - b. For the M.Ed. with an ESOL Endorsement, complete 42 graduate credits, including 27 credits in Exceptional Student Education and 15 credits in ESOL, and successfully pass the Florida State Teaching Exam and the ESE subject exam.
 - c. For the M.Ed. in Educational Leadership, complete 36 graduate credits.
4. All students in the M.Ed. in Exceptional Student Education degree program must pass the CLAST and the Florida Teacher Certification Examination in Exceptional Student Education.

MS

1. Complete the degree in four calendar years from the date of a student's initial registration or may be held to any new degree requirements.
2. Maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA and achieve a C (2.0) grade or higher in each course.
3. The third requirement varies according to MS specialization, as follows:
 - a. Criminal Justice Administration: Complete 36 graduate credits, including 15 credits of foundation courses for the administration major and 18 credits (with a three-credit graduate project) of specialization courses or 21 credits of specialization credits.
 - b. Criminal Justice Administration/Technical Intelligence Operations: Complete 36 graduate credits, including 18 credits of foundation courses for the administration major and 18 credits of specialization courses.
 - c. Emergency Planning and Administration: Complete 36 graduate credits, including 15 credits of foundation courses for the administration major, 18 credits of specialization courses and a three-credit graduate project or 21 credits of specialization courses.

- d. Mass Communication: Complete 36 graduate credits, including 30 credits of required courses in the MS program and six credits of a creative project/thesis.

MM

1. Complete the degree in four calendar years from the date on a student's initial registration or may be held to any new degree requirements.
2. Maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA and achieve a C (2.0) grade or higher in each course.
3. Complete 36 credits of music courses, including four semesters of applied music study (16 credits), four academic music courses (12 credits) and various performance requirements (a full recital, a concerto performance, a chamber work performance—each 0 credit). String, wind, brass and percussion students are required to complete four semesters of large ensemble (4 credits), four semesters of small ensemble (4 credits) and perform a mock audition (0 credit). Piano students are required to complete four semesters of small ensemble or ensemble arts for pianists (4 credits), perform a sight reading jury for pianists (0 credit) and complete 4 credits of free electives.

1. MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (MBA)

The modern business enterprise is constantly transforming as it responds to technological innovations linking local communities with the global marketplace. The Lynn University MBA, delivered on ground and online, is an advanced degree designed to prepare and equip managers with the knowledge and competencies needed to administer controllable forces within their organizations in order to successfully adapt to variables and changes in an uncontrollable environment. Practitioners develop skills for deciphering and forecasting external forces and in the process become effective leader managers in the increasingly multicultural, multinational environment of the 21st century.

Located at the crossroads of world trade, Lynn University offers an unparalleled laboratory for learning. The university's expert faculty challenge graduate students, many with international backgrounds, to examine a broad spectrum of issues confronting modern business managers.

The 36-credit MBA program comprises 12 three-credit courses, of which seven to nine are foundation courses (21 to 27 credits) for the Business Administration major, and three to five are specialization courses (nine to 15 credits). Specializations are available in Aviation Management, Mass Communication and Media Management, Hospitality Management, Financial Valuation and Investment Management, International Business, Marketing, and Sports and Athletics Administration. Students also may choose to participate in an optional internship.

The Lynn University MBA Program is designed to prepare qualified students for middle and upper-level management leadership responsibilities in business, not-for-profit and governmental organizations. Using a general management focus and strategic approach, students demonstrate: (1) broad and integrated knowledge of business functions, (2) knowledge of ethical and legal considerations and the social responsiveness to resolve corporate and public issues, (3) analytical, problem-solving and critical thinking skills and use of technology related to business decision-making, (4) communication and interpersonal skills to lead groups and business organizations, (5) foundations and tools to make and implement strategy, and (6) the depth and critical importance of the dynamic and global environment as they influence organizations, decisions and operations.

Prerequisites for Those Without an Undergraduate Business Degree

Undergraduate transcripts from MBA applicants are reviewed to determine whether the applicant has completed the four prerequisite courses or their equivalents.

The following prerequisite courses are required:

MBA 501	Managerial Writing and Communication
MBA 502	Managerial Economics
MBA 504	Survey of Accounting and Finance
RES 602	Statistical Methods

Proficiency in the use of computer applications such as Word, Access, Excel and PowerPoint is essential.

2. MASTER OF EDUCATION (M.Ed.)

a. Master of Education in Exceptional Student Education with ESOL Endorsement

Because of the increase in linguistically diverse students in Florida schools, the state has mandated that all classroom teachers serving ESOL students have additional training. Teachers with no prior experience teaching ESOL must take 15 credit hours to obtain an ESOL endorsement. Exceptional Student Education represents a distinct category of certification provided by the State of Florida Department of Education. Certification requires completing 27 credit hours of course work in Exceptional Student Education. Included in this category are students who may be emotionally handicapped, mentally handicapped or learning-disabled.

The intent is to produce graduates who, as teachers, are able to address the needs of this increasingly diverse student population and can provide leadership for innovative programs to coordinate professional activities to better serve these students. By developing these advanced competencies, graduates are able to use critical thinking skills to understand and employ a variety of knowledge bases to deal with contemporary issues, problems and dilemmas in diverse learning environments.

Prerequisites for Those Without an Undergraduate Degree in Education

For applicants without an undergraduate degree in Education, the Donald E. and Helen L. Ross College of Education and Human Services requires that the following courses be taken as corequisites for the master's degree:

- EDU 211 Language Arts in the Elementary School
- EDU 315 Reading in the Elementary School
- EDU 316 Diagnosis and Evaluation of Reading Problems
- EDU 318 Math in the Elementary School

In addition, the student must take EDU 581 Student Teaching in Exceptional Student Education.

The State of Florida may require additional courses in the field for certification, prior to issuing the five-year certificate. Program requirements may change in order to comply with any changes made by the State of Florida Department of Education. Grandfather provisions do not apply when such program changes are made.

Note: Credits and degrees earned from colleges within the State of Florida that are licensed by the State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities do not automatically qualify an individual for a Florida Teaching Certificate or to participate in professional examinations in Florida. The established procedure requires the Florida Department of Education to review and recognize the credentials of the individual and the accreditation of the college granting the degrees prior to approving teacher certification and for the appropriate state professional board under the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation to make similar evaluations prior to scheduling examinations.

Any student interested in obtaining a Florida Teaching Certificate should contact the Office of Teacher Certification, Department of Education, Tallahassee, FL 32301. Any student interested in practicing a regulated profession in Florida should contact the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, 2009 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, FL 32301.

EDU 525 Testing and Evaluation in ESOL	3
EDU 534 Classroom Behavior Management	3
EDU 561 Assessment of Exceptional Students	3
EDU 570 Career Management and Transition Planning for Exceptional Students	3

All students must pass the subject test, the Florida Teacher Certification Examination and the Exceptional Student Education/ESE.

Graduate Project

For those students not seeking initial certification from the State of Florida, a graduate project must be completed in lieu of the ESOL courses. A graduate project provides graduate students with an opportunity and the means to demonstrate the acquisition, mastery and integration of the knowledge and skills required by their degree program. The project focuses on an area of student interest that meets the acceptable standards for graduate level research.

Project Proposal Development

During EDU 505 Applied Research Methods, the student identifies a specific research question or professional problem to be pursued for the graduate project. This topic requires approval by both the course instructor and the student's advisor.

The student develops a plan (the methodology) for the way in which the question or problem is to be addressed, the type(s) of data needed and the form in which the final project is to be presented.

At the conclusion of EDU 505, the student will have a draft of the project proposal. The graduate project proposal is submitted to the student's advisor for review, recommendations and final approval. After approval and if warranted by the nature of the research and its use of human subjects, the student submits the proposal to the Institutional Review Board to review the proposal for final approval before the research can commence.

Once approved, the student must follow the project plan. The advisor must approve any changes or deviations from the plan. A copy of the proposal is placed in the student's permanent record in the Office of Student Administrative Services.

The Graduate Project Components

A completed project must contain the following sections and information:

- An Abstract, summarizing the research and its results.
- An Introduction, consisting of the problem or question to be addressed in the project, its professional importance and relevance.
- A Literature Review, including the latest theories, research and contemporary thinking about the problem or question in terms of its cause(s), effect(s) and methods of investigation.
- The Methodology section, a description of the research design including Subjects, Instruments and Procedures sections. The Subjects section delineates how the subjects were selected and a detailed description of the subject sample with means and standard deviations of numerical parameters. The Instruments section identifies each variable in the study, how it is to be measured and a detailed description of the instruments to be used and/or references. The validity and reliability of the instruments also must be addressed. The Procedures section includes a detailed description of how the research was conducted and how the data was collected. Protection of human subjects also must be addressed if the Institutional Review Board has approved the proposal.

- The Results section, reporting the analysis of data from the study. This may include descriptive statistics, such as means and standard deviations as well as the statistical analysis used to test the hypotheses and its statistical significance. Tables and graphs are used to present the findings.
- A List of References, concluding the graduate project and preceding the Appendixes, which also should include the approval letter of the Institutional Review Board (see the Project Proposal Development section). The final project also may include such additional products as a videotape or computer program; however, complementing this type of project will be a written Abstract summarizing the six elements listed above.

Oral Defense of the Graduate Project

As a completion requirement for the M.Ed. research-oriented degree, students make an oral presentation of their graduate project findings to the faculty of the Ross College of Education and Human Services. The purpose of the presentation is to demonstrate the student's ability to draw from foundation and specialization courses and integrate research findings with professional practice. The expected outcome is that students will be able to synthesize theory with practice and contribute to the knowledge base of the field of Exceptional Student Education.

Graduate projects require a second reader. Students are responsible for finding a professor or expert in the field outside the university to read their projects.

The student is responsible for providing the university with two bound copies of the approved graduate project: one for the university library and the other for the Ross College of Education and Human Services. Projects must be completed within two years of the date of the accepted proposal.

Grading of the Graduate Project

The project is graded on the basis of a pass or fail. A pass is equivalent to a B or better, a fail to less than a B. In the event that a completed graduate project does not meet university standards and receives a grade of fail, the student will meet with the advisor to review problems that must be addressed and resubmit the revised project within 90 days of the meeting. No additional extensions are granted.

b. Master of Education in Educational Leadership

The Master of Education in Educational Leadership degree program consists of 36 credit hours of course work with a focus on educational leadership-related theory, knowledge and clinical experiences in the field, as well as practical application of that theory and knowledge. The three specializations in this degree program are School Administration, School Administration with ESOL endorsement and Higher Education Administration. Students successfully completing the required course work in the M.Ed. program in Educational Leadership with a specialization in School Administration are eligible for Florida Certification in Educational Leadership: Administrative Class.

The goals of the Educational Leadership program are to provide a curriculum that:

- Introduces students to a body of diverse theory regarding educational leadership.
- Focuses on the interpretation of laws and rules that govern the educational institution.
- Enhances effective skills in written and oral communication, mathematical computation, information literacy, intellectual strategies and use of computers.
- Emphasizes the critical examination and evaluation of ethical issues and implications in today's educational establishment.

After completing the M.Ed. in Educational Leadership, students will be able to:

- Develop a knowledge base of basic leadership theories and concepts and apply them to leadership behaviors.

- Enhance the relationship between communication and interpersonal relationships.
- Compare and contrast the strategies for evaluating curricular and instructional innovations.
- Develop the ability to plan, develop, implement and evaluate the financial status of an educational institution.
- Analyze the federal, state constitutional, statutory and regulatory provisions governing educational systems.
- Develop knowledge of management policies and procedures for appropriate use of technology.

The Educational Leadership Masters Degree School Administration specialization program of study ensures that students seeking administrative certification obtain the competencies needed to become strong, competent administrative and instructional leaders successful at improving public schools. The knowledge and skills acquired through the course work also improve the likelihood of School Administration students passing the FELE certification examination given by the State of Florida.

3. MASTER OF SCIENCE (MS) WITH A MAJOR IN ADMINISTRATION

The MS with a major in Administration is designed to develop leaders and managers who serve in the private or public sector and understand the impact of global transformations that affect our daily lives. Dedicated to professional leadership development, the program is designed to empower graduate students to cultivate their unique potential and talents as well as to promote mastery of the knowledge, skills and aptitudes necessary for effective leadership. Lynn University believes that this balance enables graduates to make a difference by creating new opportunities and providing workable solutions to current and future 21st century dilemmas.

Curriculum

The MS with a major in Administration has a unifying curriculum foundation shared among the specializations. One additional MS course in Applied Research Methodology is required by all MS specializations, but some required foundation course variations exist within specializations. Variations reflect the acknowledged specific requirements for knowledge and skills needed for effective administration and management in that particular discipline. Included in the MS in Administration foundation courses are a total of nine courses, of which five or 15 credits are designated as required by each discipline.

OVERVIEW OF THE MS IN ADMINISTRATION FOUNDATION CREDITS*

MS 500 Management and Administration	3
MS 505 Applied Research Methods	3
MS 510 Administrative and Regulatory Law	3
MS 530 Public Institutions, Public Policy and Democracy	3
MS 560 Financial Management (Foundation for CJA students)	3

*Course requirements vary by specialization.

Foundation requirements for the MS in Administration are designed to assure that students have the requisite theoretical and applied knowledge to pursue their individual interests in their specializations. Building on the breadth and depth of the foundation, specialization courses enable students to continue to expand and deepen their mastery through practical applications, simulations, case studies, applied research in areas of individual interest through the graduate projects, and in some specializations, internships.

Major requirements for the MS in Administration and specialization courses complement each other and address increasingly complex contemporary and future societal challenges and opportunities faced by 21st century managers-administrators. Through the development of critical thinking skills and a commitment to lifelong learning, graduates are able to understand changing trends and focus on institutional and human needs.

Graduate Project/Publishable Paper

A graduate project provides graduate students with an opportunity and the means to demonstrate the acquisition, mastery and integration of the knowledge and skills required by their specialization. The project focuses on an area of student interest that meets the acceptable standards for graduate level research.

Project Proposal Development

During MS 505 Applied Research Methods, the student identifies a specific research question or professional problem to be pursued for the graduate project, if this option is selected. This topic requires approval by both the course instructor and the student's advisor.

The student develops a plan (the methodology) for the way in which the question or problem is to be addressed, the type(s) of data needed and the form in which the final project is to be presented. At the conclusion of MS 505, the student will have a draft of the project proposal. The graduate project proposal is submitted to the student's advisor for review, recommendations and final approval. After approval and if warranted by the nature of the research and its use of human subjects, the student submits the proposal to the Institutional Review Board to review the proposal for final approval before the research can commence.

Once approved, the student must follow the project plan. The advisor must approve any changes or deviations from the plan. A copy of the proposal is placed in the student's permanent record in the Office of Student Administrative Services.

The Graduate Project Components

A completed project must have the following sections:

- An Abstract, summarizing the research and its results.
- An Introduction, consisting of the problem or question to be addressed in the project, its professional importance and relevance.
- A Literature Review, including the latest theories, research and contemporary thinking about the problem or question in terms of its cause(s), effect(s) and methods of investigation.
- The Methodology section, involving a description of the research design including Subjects, Instruments and Procedures sections. The Subjects section includes how the subjects were selected and a detailed description of the subject sample with means and standard deviations of numerical parameters. The Instruments section identifies each variable in the study, how it is to be measured and a detailed description of the instruments to be used and/or references. The validity and reliability of the instruments also must be addressed. The Procedures section includes a detailed description of how the research was conducted and how the data was collected. Protection of human subjects must also be addressed if the Institutional Review Board has approved the proposal.
- The Results section, reporting the analysis of the data from the study. This may include descriptive statistics, such as means and standard deviations, as well as the statistical analysis used to test the hypotheses and its statistical significance. Tables and graphs are used to present the findings.
- A list of References, concluding the graduate project and preceding the Appendixes, which should include the approval letter of the Institutional Review Board (see the Project Proposal Development section). The final project also may include such additional products as a videotape or computer program. However, complementing this type of project will be a written Abstract summarizing the six elements listed above.

Oral Defense of the Graduate Project

As a completion requirement for the MS in Administration, students make an oral presentation of their graduate project findings to a panel of graduate faculty. The purpose of the presentations is to demonstrate the student's ability to draw from the major requirements and specialization courses and integrate research findings with professional practice. The expected outcome is that students will be able to synthesize theory with practice and contribute to the knowledge base of the specialized field in administration.

Graduate projects require a second reader. Students are responsible for finding a professor or expert in the field outside the university to read their projects.

Completion of the Graduate Project

The advisor approves the final rendition of the graduate project. The student is responsible for providing the university with two approved bound copies of the graduate project, one for the university library and the other for the MS in Administration specialization. Projects must be completed within one year of the date of the accepted proposal.

Grading of the Graduate Project

The project is graded on the basis of a pass or fail. A pass is equivalent to a B or better, a fail to less than a B. In the event that a completed graduate project does not meet university standards and receives a grade of fail, the student will meet with the advisor to review the problems that must be addressed and will resubmit the revised project within 90 days of the meeting.

Specialization Options

Within this context, students cultivate their particular areas of professional interest while developing the talents, abilities and competencies essential for skilled, effective practitioner-leaders. Specializations are available in the following:

- a. Criminal Justice Administration (CJA)
- b. Criminal Justice Administration/Technical Intelligence Operations (CJA)
- c. Emergency Planning and Administration (EPA)

The MS degree in Administration requires the completion of 36 credits.

MS IN ADMINISTRATION SPECIALIZATIONS

a. MS IN ADMINISTRATION WITH A SPECIALIZATION IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION

The Master of Science in Administration with a specialization in Criminal Justice Administration prepares individuals for leadership roles in a variety of fields within the profession of criminal justice. Despite the broad spectrum of careers within the profession, success and leadership is predicated on an individual's verbal and written mastery of the concepts, principles and functions involved in the management of criminal justice organizations. This specialization focuses on preparing the student to effectively integrate proven business methods with a genuine respect for dynamic and innovative approaches to issues facing the criminal justice executive in the 21st century.

Lynn University's South Florida location typifies the experiences of modern criminal justice agencies in diverse, densely populated urban centers. Using this laboratory for learning, expert faculty challenge graduate students to examine a broad spectrum of issues confronting the modern criminal justice administrator. By applying sound business and administration principles and practices, students debate and evaluate alternate solutions.

The required culminating graduate project enables our graduate students to demonstrate mastery of these complexities in a specific area of scholarly interest.

Undergraduate prerequisites for CJA Students are CMS 200 Introduction to Computers and MAT 221 Probability and Statistics.

b. MS IN ADMINISTRATION WITH A SPECIALIZATION IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION/TECHNICAL INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS

Partnership with the National Intelligence Academy

Today's society is in constant transformation as it responds to technological innovations linking local communities to the global marketplace. Within this dynamic, criminal organizations continue to adapt these innovations to further their illicit activities. Law enforcement and intelligence personnel are therefore compelled to constantly strive for technological advantages to counter this growing threat and successfully protect society.

The partnership between Lynn University and the National Intelligence Agency (NIA) affords graduate students an unrivaled opportunity to learn and apply critical management and technical skills in a host of law enforcement environments. The thorough blend of theoretical, technical and practical skills development equips graduates to effectively meet the complex challenges of contemporary law enforcement.

Criminal justice organizations require knowledgeable and skilled administrators who can effectively deal with the demands of a growing multicultural environment and efficiently employ a wide variety of technologies to support their law enforcement efforts. This master's degree program is designed to create skilled administrators and practitioners able to meet the complex demands of the 21st century.

c. THE MS IN ADMINISTRATION WITH A SPECIALIZATION IN EMERGENCY PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION

The field of Emergency Management is changing at an unprecedented rate. Complex changes in technology, demographics and public policy have significantly influenced the management of emergencies and disasters. Responding to the needs of diverse populations experiencing increased complexity suggests the need for insightful examination of relevant issues in Emergency Planning and Administration.

Today's society is in constant transformation as it responds to technological innovations linking local communities to the global marketplace. Public agencies and private companies require knowledgeable and skilled administrators who can effectively deal with the demands of growing challenges in the management of emergencies and disasters. This master's degree program is designed to create administrators able to meet the complex demands of the 21st century.

4. MASTER OF SCIENCE (MS) IN MASS COMMUNICATION

The Master of Science in Mass Communication is an advanced degree designed for media professionals and recent baccalaureate graduates who plan careers as mass media practitioners. The program emphasizes the application of technology and new media delivery systems in the evolving mass media environment.

Curriculum

The curriculum seeks a balance of theory and practice by incorporating a substantive foundation of mass communication theory, research, law, and history with multiple layers of practical application in content production and delivery.

The interdisciplinary nature of the degree permits students who have undergraduate degrees in a variety of majors to enter the program without penalty. Students without an undergraduate degree in a media-related discipline may be required to complete a limited number of lower-level courses.

The MS in Mass Communication is made up of 30 credit hours of academic courses and six credit hours of a creative project or thesis. The creative project/thesis is determined and evaluated by the candidate's graduate committee. MS graduate committees are composed of the candidate's major professor and two members of the graduate faculty.

CURRICULUM OVERVIEW: MS IN MASS COMMUNICATION

- COM 500 Mass Communication Theory
- COM 505 Mass Communication History
- COM 510 Mass Communication Technology
- COM 515 Mass Communication Law and Regulation
- COM 520 Mass Communication Research Methods
- COM 525 International Mass Communication
- COM 540 Topics in Mass Communication I
- COM 545 Topics in Mass Communication II
- COM 560 Graduate Media Practicum I
- COM 565 Graduate Media Practicum II
- COM 590 Creative Project/Thesis Seminar I
- COM 595 Creative Project/Thesis Seminar II

Creative Project/Thesis

Students have the option to complete a creative project or a thesis. The project/thesis must adhere to the guidelines established by the Eugene M. and Christine E. Lynn College of International Communication.

The creative project offers candidates an opportunity and the means to demonstrate the acquisition, mastery and integration of knowledge and skills in mass communication. Students are expected to select a creative project that fits professional and career objectives.

The thesis is an original work conducted with scholarly rigor. The work must demonstrate the mastery of research skills and be theoretically significant. Students who wish to pursue doctoral studies are encouraged to choose the thesis option.

Grading of the Creative Project/Thesis

All projects/theses must be completed within one year of the date of the accepted proposal. The creative project culminates in a public screening and the thesis project in an oral defense. The creative project/thesis is graded on a pass/fail basis. In the event of a failing grade, students can resubmit their work within 90 days of the decision.

Completion of the Creative Project/Thesis

Upon successful completion of the creative project/thesis, the student must submit two copies, one for the university library and one for the Lynn College of International Communication.

5. MASTER OF MUSIC (MM) IN PERFORMANCE

The main focus of this program is advanced performance and the preparation of students for the professional world. Students will hone their technical skills, expand their repertoire, acquire performance experience, and develop the ability to communicate an artistic vision. Each student will have the opportunity to bring his/her talent to fruition through extensive performance experiences and through expanded theoretical and historical knowledge. Academic and practical training will provide comprehension, application and synthesis of knowledge.

The Master of Music degree in Performance is designed to prepare each candidate for a variety of music and music-related professions. Its purpose is to train the graduate student and to provide this student with the tools needed to attain professional competence and specialization in the area of performance.

Master of Music Program Learning Outcomes

- Analyze career goals.
- Develop music entrepreneurial perspectives.
- Develop professional orchestral etiquette, including the responsibilities of the principal chairs, professional behavior in rehearsal and on stage, and experience of playing in multiple locations with different conditions of space, acoustics, lighting, etc.
- Obtain experience in simulated auditions for acceptance into a professional symphony orchestra.
- Demonstrate ability to communicate with an audience both affectively and intellectually.
- Achieve artistic and technical independence through analysis of practical/technical problems and independent development of solutions.
- Demonstrate application of problem-solving methods offered by instructor and of the student's own device.
- Recognize categories of technical challenges and application of learned procedures to overcome the problems.
- Critique work and evaluate performance and progress.
- Gain extensive public performance experience.
- Gain experience in various aspects of orchestral music performance, including tone color, articulation, dynamics, phrasing and pacing.
- Demonstrate technical mastery of the instrument.
- Apply teaching methods and techniques.
- Analyze and evaluate educational challenges, educational materials and curricula.
- Analyze, both theoretically and historically, works to be prepared for performance, and base performance on this analysis by using available audio/visual resources to stay abreast of artistic developments.
- Gather and analyze music historical material from available electronic databases.
- Perform major chamber music works, accomplishing above goals as a part of a group and without a conductor.
- Perform at least one full solo concerto within a public context.
- Perform a full recital in public as a capstone project.
- Demonstrate profound knowledge of the repertoire for his or her specific instrument and plan as a professionally presented degree recital.
- Recognize music entrepreneurial and educational cycles caused by the expanding and fluctuating cultural experience.
- Demonstrate depth of knowledge of historical styles of composition and performance.
- Demonstrate sensitivity in performance to compositional structure.
- Analyze music academic enrichment in Music History and Music Theory.

- Demonstrate mastery of classical music performance in the chosen instrument via performance of four prerequisites:
 - Concerto
 - Chamber Music
 - Mock Audition/Sight-Reading for Pianists
 - Full Recital
- Investigate opportunities in the field of music education in institutions of higher education.
- Demonstrate preparation for acceptance to doctoral music performance programs.
- Demonstrate preparation for advanced professional classical music performance positions in society.
- Demonstrate preparation for teaching positions in institutions of higher education.

There are 36 credits required for the MM. There are 28 credits required for the major taken by all students. Two variations in requirements are designed for "pianists" and "strings, winds, brass, and percussion" (8 credits).

6. Ph.D. IN GLOBAL LEADERSHIP

Purpose

The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree in Global Leadership prepares graduates to lead academic and non-academic organizations in an ever-changing global society. The doctorate offers a comprehensive, multifaceted, multi-level curriculum designed to provide scholar-practitioners with the complex knowledge, skills and competencies to create opportunities for ongoing learning in a variety of settings and locations.

Professional Development Needs of Students

Students entering into a course of study in this Ph.D. degree program do so to meet several professional development needs. These needs may be different dependent upon their specialization. The Ph.D. degree program has two specializations: Corporate and Organizational Management and Educational Leadership.

Students in the Corporate and Organizational Management specialization may have the following professional development needs:

- Advanced training in research, organizational leadership and business-related course work culminating in the terminal degree. This degree enables students to serve as professors in business, leadership or administration-related programs offered by colleges and universities, primarily at the two- and four-year levels

- A terminal degree in order to gain a key credential for advancing or changing a career (e.g. teaching or consulting).
- A terminal degree to obtain or further develop an executive leadership position in for-profit or not-for-profit public, private, corporate or professional organizations.

Students in the Educational Leadership specialization may have the following professional development needs:

- Advanced research and training to obtain an executive position with a K-12 public or private school system (e.g. superintendent, assistant superintendent or director/headmaster).
- Advanced training in research and educational leadership related course work, culminating in the doctoral degree, which will enable students to apply for positions as professors in educational leadership and related programs offered by colleges and universities, primarily at the master's and doctoral levels.
- A terminal degree for a career change (i.e., teaching or consulting).

Public Sector Professionals

Since most, if not all, of the concepts and skills of research and leadership delivered by this doctoral program also pertain to the public sector, this degree is appropriate to meet this professional development needs of those in health care, criminal justice or public service-related organizations. Depending upon the nature of the student's profession, he or she may find either the Corporate and Organizational Management or Educational Leadership specialization appropriate.

Interdisciplinary

The Ph.D. program is designed to be interdisciplinary in nature. The course work in the program is taught by faculty members of the College of Business and Management and the Ross College of Education and Human Services. The courses in the degree program are offered on campus and off-site.

Program Components

Ph.D. Degree Completion Requirements

Nine requirements for the successful completion of the Ph.D. in Global Leadership degree program include:

1. Meet the statistics competency prerequisite.
2. Complete a minimum of 60 doctoral credit hours of course work, consisting of nine credit hours of required research core, 24 credit hours of required leadership core, 21 credit hours of the specialization, and a minimum of six credits of dissertation course work. Dissertation topic choices must reflect the application of the core curriculum and the area of specialization.
3. Maintain a cumulative 3.25 GPA and a grade of C or higher for all course work in the degree program. Any grade below a C (2.00) must be repeated.
4. During the Ph.D. program, no more than two courses may be repeated.
5. Complete the residency requirement.
6. Maintain continuous program enrollment.
7. Prepare an acceptable qualifying paper.
8. Prepare and defend the dissertation proposal.
9. Successfully defend and complete the dissertation and obtain the signatures of approval from all members of the Dissertation Committee.
10. Comply with all pertinent regulations of the university as specified in the university catalog. Among these regulations are the following:
 - a. Complete the degree within six calendar years from the date of the student's initial registration in the Ph.D. degree program. Students are also eligible for up to one year Leave of Absence from study in the degree program, and may request a one-year extension of this time requirement.
 - b. Meet all financial obligations before graduation.

Curriculum

The Ph.D. in Global Leadership requires a minimum of 60 credits of graduate course work consisting of four program components:

I. RESEARCH CORE 9 CREDITS

RES 700	Research Design (Prerequisite: Statistics Competency)	3
RES 702	Writing for Research (Prerequisite: RES 700)	3
RES 704	Quantitative/Qualitative Methods of Research (Prerequisite RES 702)	3
RES 897	Continuous Development of Qualifying Paper (1 credit taken as permitted)

II. GLOBAL LEADERSHIP CORE 24 CREDITS

Additional Degree Program Competency Requirements

In addition to the course requirements listed above, all Ph.D. students must demonstrate the following competencies:

1. Writing and speaking skills commensurate with graduate-level course work. Students with observed deficiencies will be referred to the English and Communication departments, Writing Center or Center for International Programs and Services at Lynn University. Students may be required to enroll in writing and speaking courses to ensure competency development. Enrollment in these courses may be concurrent with doctoral course work. Students also are encouraged to seek assistance at the centers independently.
2. Adherence to APA Style and professional, legal, ethical and educational standards in academic writing.
3. Proficiency in computer applications using Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Power Point, Internet searches and Information Literacy. Students who do not have these skills:
 - a. Enroll in computer application course work at Lynn University (CMS 200) or at other colleges.

- b. Enroll in computer application training courses (non-credit) at Lynn University or other colleges.
 - c. Complete Information Literacy tutorials (See Lynn Library home Web page) or schedule instruction with a librarian.
 - d. Complete Blackboard tutorials (Web-based instruction).
 - e. Enrollment in course work may be concurrent with doctoral course work.
4. Competency in statistics (prerequisite requirement): Understanding of descriptive and inferential statistics in order to read and interpret empirical studies. This may be evidenced by:
- a. Successfully completing a graduate statistics course that includes descriptive and inferential statistics; OR
 - b. Completing RES 602 Statistical Methods or a comparable course; OR
 - c. Successfully completing the Ph.D. Statistics Qualifying Examination.

Note: Any credit hours of statistics used to meet this requirement may not be applied toward the 60 credit hours required by the Ph.D. degree program.

5. Complete the qualifying paper (PHD QP 009) for 0 credits.

Note: Students who complete all course requirements except the dissertation but did not complete the qualifying paper must enroll in consecutive terms of RES 897.

Ph.D. Residency Requirement, Continuous Enrollment Requirement and Leave of Absence

Required Course Enrollment Residency. The "enrollment" residency requirement in the doctoral program consists of two consecutive terms with enrollment in six credits of required course work each term. This excludes course work for RES 897, RES 900, RES 901, or RES 902. Students who are unable to meet this enrollment requirement may develop an alternative plan with the respective program coordinator.

Required Campus Residency for Online Students. Four required on-campus immersions consist of three to five days each and a fifth for defense of the dissertation. These immersions are associated with a program orientation and the research core: RES 700, 702, 704, 900, and RES 902 (dissertation defense).

Continuous Enrollment. The continuous enrollment requirement necessitates that students are enrolled each term throughout the duration of the program. The requirement is intended to ensure that students become integrally involved in the academic life of their programs and of the university. By being in residence and continuously enrolled, students are more likely to become fully immersed in doctoral study for a substantial period of time and to develop a relationship of scholarly and professional collegiality with faculty and fellow students. During their residency period students are expected not only to take courses, but also to participate in other aspects of the intellectual life of their disciplines and of the university community.

Students are also eligible for up to one year Leave of Absence from study in a degree program (a total of six terms). The student must submit a written request to the respective program coordinator or dean and the request granted.

A student who does not complete the degree program requirements in six calendar years from the date of enrollment in his or her first doctoral program course at Lynn University, may be dismissed from the program, held to any new requirements in effect and/or may be required to validate prior learning.

PH.D. PROGRAM PROGRESSION REQUIREMENTS

- I. Research Core: RES 700, RES 702, RES 704, RES 900, and RES 902
- a. RES 700 Research Design is taken early in the program (within the first 0 to 18 credits). Statistics is a prerequisite.
 - b. RES 702 Writing for Research is taken approximately midway through the program (between 19 to 36 credits). RES 700 is a prerequisite.

- c. RES 704 Quantitative/Qualitative Methods of Research is taken after completion of 36 credits of the Ph.D. program. RES 702 and the completion of 36 credits are prerequisites.
- d. RES 900 Doctoral Research Seminar: Doctoral Candidacy is a prerequisite.
- e. RES 902 Defense and Completion of the Dissertation: RES 900 is a prerequisite.

II. Leadership Core: LDR 710 and LDR 790

- a. LDR 710 Leadership Theory and Research is taken early in the program (within the first 0 to 18 credits).
- b. LDR 790 Leadership and the Execution of Strategic Plans is taken after completion of 36 credits of the Ph.D. program, and preferably near the end of the program, in the last or next to the last term. Completion of 36 credits is a prerequisite.

III. Qualifying Paper PHD QP 009 (0 credits)

- a. May be submitted after successfully completing 42 credits and RES 704.
- b. The student must be in good academic standing.
- c. The qualifying paper should be completed during the last course (before dissertation), preferably in LDR 790.
- d. The student must enroll in PHD QP 009 (0 credits), in the term of expected completion of the qualifying paper, in the course section assigned to the qualifying committee chair. Upon successful completion of the qualifying paper, a grade of P (pass) is submitted.
- e. Approval of qualifying paper form is processed.

IV. Complete all course work with a grade of C or higher or a P (pass) grade

V. RES 897 Continuous Development of Qualifying Paper: (Continuous Enrollment During the Period of Completion of Qualifying Paper)

- a. Students who have completed all 54 credit hours of required course work except RES 900 and 902 and who are in good academic standing but did not complete the qualifying paper, must enroll in consecutive terms of RES 897 Continuous Development of Qualifying Paper (one credit each term).
- b. A maximum of nine credits may be taken.
- c. Upon successful completion of the qualifying paper, a grade of P (pass) will be submitted by the qualifying paper advisor for PHDQP009.
- d. In order to receive a passing grade with each enrollment in RES 897, students must demonstrate progress toward completion of qualifying papers.

VI. Doctoral Candidacy

- a. Complete all 54 credit hours of required course work except RES 900 and RES 902.
- b. Cumulative GPA of 3.25.
- c. Good academic standing, including a grade of C or higher or a P (Pass) grade in all course work.
- d. Successful completion of the qualifying paper (PHD QP 009).
- e. Complete the residency requirement.
- f. Recommendation for Admission to Candidacy in Doctoral Program form is processed.

VII. RES 900 Doctoral Research Seminar: Prerequisite: Doctoral Candidacy Requirements for course completion:

- a. Appointment of a Dissertation Committee form is processed.
- b. Completion and successful defense of the dissertation proposal.
- c. Dissertation Proposal Transmittal form (Approval of Defense) is processed.
- d. IRB proposal is submitted to IRB after successful defense of dissertation proposal.
- e. Grading: Pass/Fail. Grading is the responsibility of the course coordinator, who seeks input from the Dissertation Committee chair.

- f. In-Progress Grade: Students who have not successfully completed the course requirements during the term receive a grade of IP (course in progress) and must next enroll in consecutive terms (one credit each term as permitted) of RES 901. After successfully completing RES 900 course requirements, the student is issued a grade. RES 900 must be completed within one year of initial enrollment in order to pass the course.
- g. Although not required, students have the option to complete the "sequential" dissertation continuation requirements stated in RES 901 during their initial enrollment in RES 900. (See Continuous Enrollment During the Implementation Phase of Dissertation Study, and Development of Chapters 4 and 5 of the Dissertation in this section).
- v. Submit information checklist upon submission of dissertation (to Ph.D. director or coordinator).
- vi. Satisfy all financial requirements with the university.
- vii. Complete RES 902 within six months of initial enrollment.
- viii. Process Recommendation for Conferral of Doctoral Degree form to the Office for Student Administrative Services.
- c. Grading: Pass/fail grade submitted by the Dissertation Committee chair.

Qualifying Paper

Completion and approval of the qualifying paper is a requirement of the Ph.D. degree program. The qualifying paper should be completed before the student is enrolled in LDR 790, but may not be completed until the student has completed a minimum of 42 credit hours of course work in the Ph.D. program of study. The qualifying paper is a substantial critical analysis of the theoretical and empirical literature of approximately 50 pages to be written on a topic that may or may not be related to the student's dissertation topic. In RES 702, students are oriented to requirements and procedures and begin developing the qualifying paper. The Qualifying Paper Committee consisting of the student's qualifying paper advisor and one other Lynn University full-time faculty member must approve the qualifying paper. This paper is one of the requirements that must be completed and approved prior to advancing to doctoral candidacy. Students in good academic standing, with a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher, who completed all course requirements except RES 900-902, but did not complete the qualifying paper, must continuously enroll (as permitted) in their qualifying paper advisor's RES 897 course section. The purpose of the qualifying paper is to prepare students for the writing and research components necessary to develop an acceptable dissertation research proposal. In the term of expected completion of the qualifying paper, each student registers for PHD QP 009 in the advisor's section (See course description).

Dissertation

The dissertation is the culmination of the doctoral program. As such, it must attest to a high degree of scholarly competence. The dissertation must be presented, in an accepted scholarly style, on an original investigation of a problem of significance in the student's area of specialization. The dissertation must demonstrate that the candidate is capable of conducting and reporting research and analysis in an area relating to educational administration and policy studies.

Through broad reading, course work and consultation with faculty, the student identifies a tentative dissertation topic and prepares a statement of general ideas on a proposed dissertation problem. This statement should be at a level of specificity that allows department faculty to judge its merit as a document from which a proposal might be developed. RES 900 provides the student the opportunity to develop the major components of the dissertation proposal (see course description).

The student selects a Dissertation Committee chair. The chair must be a full-time faculty member of the university and have graduate faculty status. In consultation with the chair, the student selects two or more additional Dissertation Committee members with whom to work. At least one of the additional committee members must be a full-time regular or adjunct faculty member of the Ph.D. program. Exceptions to these requirements must be approved by the program faculty and conform to any other graduate programs and university requirements.

A completed Appointment of Dissertation Committee form must be filed with the appropriate graduate programs. The student works with his or her committee to develop a dissertation proposal. The committee will assist the student in defining the problem and in designing the study with attention to underlying concepts, theoretical constructs and analytic frameworks, and appropriate research methods.

Upon agreement of the Dissertation Committee chair and all members of the committee that the student is ready to defend the dissertation, the dissertation chair contacts the respective program coordinator to request assignment of a fourth reader, who has graduate faculty status. Upon assignment, the student submits the dissertation proposal to the fourth reader. The student is then permitted to schedule a Hearing for the Defense of the

VIII. RES 901 Dissertation Continuation. Prerequisites: RES 900 with IP Grade (one credit each term) and/or RES 902 with an IP Grade (one credit each term); range: one to 12 credits

This course is designed for two purposes:

- a. Continuous Enrollment During the Period of Completion of RES 900 requirements as follows:
 - i. Students who have not completed RES 900 (have a course in progress grade) must enroll in consecutive terms of RES 901 (one credit each term).
 - ii. Grading is pass/fail.
 - iii. Grading: In order to receive a passing grade with each enrollment in RES 901, students must demonstrate progress toward dissertation. Grading is up to the discretion of the committee chair.
 - iv. Students may not enroll in RES 901 for more than six consecutive terms after initial enrollment in RES 900.
 - v. A maximum of six credits of RES 901 may be used for this purpose.
- b. Continuous Enrollment During the Implementation Phase of Dissertation Study, and Development of Chapters 4 and 5 of the Dissertation: Upon completion of RES 900, if necessary, students enroll in RES 901 for consecutive terms (one credit each term) until the following requirements are completed:
 - i. Documentation of Approval from IRB to initiate dissertation study.
 - ii. Approval by dissertation chair to implement dissertation methodology emphasizing data collection and submission of final dissertation proposal to Ph.D. coordinator.
 - iii. Maintain compliance with IRB data collection policies.
 - iv. Complete data collection.
 - v. Documentation of IRB notification when data collection is completed.
 - vi. Document significant development of Chapters 4 and 5 of the dissertation.
 - vii. The student must complete all six of the above requirements no later than one year after successful completion of RES 900.
 - viii. Students may not enroll in RES 901 for more than six consecutive terms after completion of RES 900.
 - ix. A maximum of six credits of RES 901 may be used for this purpose.

IX. RES 902 Defense and Completion of the Dissertation [Prerequisites: Completion of the eight dissertation requirements stated in RES 901 (three credits)]

- a. Prerequisites (see RES 901)
 - i. Completion of dissertation data collection and significant development of Chapters 4 and 5.
 - ii. Evidence of IRB approval and student notification to IRB of data collection completion.
- b. Requirements:
 - i. Finalize dissertation with committee.
 - ii. Distribution of Announcement of Dissertation Defense.
 - iii. Successfully defend dissertation.
 - iv. Process Dissertation Transmittal form (Approval) Dissertation Completion.

Dissertation Proposal providing at least two weeks for the "fourth reader" to review the proposal. Only the Dissertation Committee votes during the dissertation defense. Fourth reader comments are advisory.

Following a successful defense of the proposal, the Dissertation Proposal Transmittal form (Approval of Defense) is processed. The student next submits an application approved by the dissertation chair to the Institutional Review Board for Protection of Human Subjects (IRB). Requirements for completion of RES 900 are successful defense of the dissertation proposal and submission of an approved IRB application. Students who do not meet these requirements by the end of RES 900 enroll in successive one-credit terms of RES 901 as permitted (see catalog description). Upon approval from the IRB, the student is permitted to implement the study. The student continues to enroll in successive one-credit terms of RES 901 as permitted and comply with all IRB procedures. The student enrolls in RES 902 (see catalog description) for the term that the dissertation chair anticipates the student will defend and complete the dissertation. More information about the dissertation process, including additional required forms to process, are discussed in the Ph.D. Program Progression Requirements section of this catalog and/or in the Doctoral Handbook.

EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE CERTIFICATION

The program of study in the Ph.D. in Global Leadership contains all of the course work (but not an internship) required to obtain Educational Administrative Certification from the State of Florida. The credit hours for the internship, EDU 699, do NOT count toward the 60 credit hour requirement of the Ph.D. Program. Students must also pass the Florida Educational Leaders Examination (FELE).

Students seeking Administrative Certification must demonstrate course work in the following areas:

- Public School Curriculum and Instruction
- Organizational Management and Development
- Human Resource Management and Development
- Leadership Skills
- Communication Skills
- Technology
- Educational Law
- Educational Finance
- Internship/Practicum II

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

CERTIFICATE IN EMERGENCY PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION

The Graduate Certificate in Emergency Planning and Administration consists of 18 credits of course work in Emergency and Disaster Management. The six specialization courses that comprise the graduate certificate program provide a comprehensive examination of Emergency Management theories, concepts and contemporary practices. Students who complete the graduate certificate course work may be eligible to apply credit hours earned toward Lynn University's Master of Science in Emergency Planning and Administration.

EPA CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

- EPA 630 Technology in Emergency Planning and Administration
- EPA 640 Planning Processes for Emergency Administration
- EPA 651 The Social Dimensions of Disaster
- EPA 652 Political and Public Policy Basis of Emergency Planning and Administration
- EPA 654 Living in a Hazardous Environment
- EPA 655 Vulnerability Analysis and Hazard Mitigation

PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE CERTIFICATE (PPC)

This is a two-year program of study at the post-baccalaureate level for students of piano, violin, viola, cello, double bass, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, trumpet, French horn, trombone, bass trombone, tuba or percussion, with primary focus on advanced music performance education.

The requirements for completion of this program include intensive applied study with specific performance requirements encompassing recitals, concerti, orchestral excerpts and chamber music. In addition, students enrolled in the Professional Performance Certificate program fulfill their remaining performance requirements in a preferred area of specialization (i.e., solo, chamber music, orchestral or a combination of these).

Entrance to the Professional Performance Certificate program is limited to those who have completed a Bachelor of Music in Performance degree or an approved equivalent course of study and who pass an entrance audition on their major instrument.

Course Descriptions

ACC 201 ACCOUNTING FOR FINANCIAL REPORTING 3 credits

A study of the fundamental principles and procedures of accounting as applied to the sole proprietorships, partnerships and corporations. Emphasis is on the accounting cycle, asset valuation, income determination and preparation of financial statements. Advisory note: Students receiving a grade less than C may experience academic difficulty in ACC 202. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACC 202 ACCOUNTING FOR DECISION MAKING 3 credits

The study of managerial or cost accounting concepts and techniques with applications to planning and control. Emphasis is on cost-profit-volume analysis, branch accounting, variable and absorption costing, cash flows, budgets and statement analysis. Prerequisite: ACC 201. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACC 311 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING I 4 credit

A course that broadens the accounting student's knowledge of accounting theory and practice. Topics include foundations of accounting theory, the accounting process, financial statements and a comprehensive examination of current and long-term assets. Prerequisite: ACC 202. Offered: Fall.

ACC 312 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING II 4 credits

A continuation of Intermediate Accounting I, extending the coverage to include long-term liabilities, corporate accounting, income tax allocation, cash flow statements, changing accounting methods, financial statement analysis, pensions, leases and non-current investments. Prerequisite: ACC 311. Offered: Spring.

ACC 321 FEDERAL TAXATION I 3 credits

A course covering the determination of the taxable income of individuals and business entities for federal income tax purposes. Emphasis is on the preparation of an individual's tax return in accordance with Internal Revenue Service regulations. Prerequisite: ACC 202. Offered: Fall.

ACC 322 FEDERAL TAXATION II 3 credits

A study of the income taxation of partnerships, corporations, trusts, and estates and their beneficiaries. Special emphasis on new tax regulations, tax planning and the formation of business entities. Prerequisite: ACC 321.

ACC 331 COST ACCOUNTING 3 credits

A course emphasizing cost accounting concepts, analysis and procedures applied as a managerial tool for planning and controlling operations of a business. Topics include the accountant's role in the organization, basic cost principles, standard costs, budgeting, direct costs, overhead, job order and process costing, and inventory valuation. Prerequisite: ACC 202. Offered: Spring.

ACC 332 ADVANCED COST ACCOUNTING 3 credits

A continuation of the study of planning, cost control, cost standards, cost profit volume, break-even analysis and direct and variable costing. The emphasis will be on applying these concepts to management decisions using modern quantitative techniques. Prerequisite: ACC 331.

ACC 451 ACCOUNTING FOR NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS 3 credits

The accounting theory and practice of nonprofit organizations, including hospitals, schools, and state and local governments. Prerequisite: ACC 312.

ACC 461 ADVANCED ACCOUNTING 3 credits

An advanced accounting course dealing with business combinations and consolidated entities, partnership and branch accounting, and foreign currency translation. Prerequisite: ACC 312. Offered: Spring.

ACC 465 ACCOUNTING THEORY 3 credits

A study of recent trends in the accounting profession with an emphasis on researching and reviewing the accounting literature. Prerequisites: ACC 461 and senior standing.

ACC 471 ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS 3 credits

A course providing a basic knowledge of information systems and their role in the performance of the accounting function in business organizations. This basic knowledge includes an understanding of the flow of accounting data, familiarity with the application of internal control, and an understanding of the use of computers in accounting information systems. Prerequisites: ACC 312 and CMS 315. Offered: Fall.

ACC 480 AUDITING 3 credits

A course representing the audit standards and techniques used in audit engagements, the nature of audit evidence, professional ethics, audit reports, statistical testing, and auditing. Prerequisite: ACC 471. Offered: Spring.

ACC 485 ADVANCED AUDITING 3 credits

A continuation of the study of auditing standards, concepts and assumptions with an emphasis on EDP applications. Use of case studies will be introduced. Prerequisite: ACC 480.

ACC 490 CPA PROBLEMS 3 credits

The theory and practice portions of the CPA exam are thoroughly discussed and analyzed. Emphasis will be on actual test taking and problem evaluation. Prerequisites: ACC 461 and senior standing.

AFS 100 FOUNDATIONS OF THE U.S. AIR FORCE 1 credit

This course is designed to show the potential Air Force Officer what role today's Air Force plays in defense of our nation, what role they can fill in today's Air Force, and finally what the Air Force offers them both today in AFROTC and later, should they choose the Air Force as a profession after AFROTC.

AFS 101 FOUNDATIONS OF THE US AIR FORCE 1 credit

A continuation of AFS 100. Prerequisite: AFS 100. Offered: Spring.

AFS 200 EVOLUTION OF USAF AIR/SPACE POWER 1 credit

This course is designed to examine general aspects of air and space power through a historical perspective. We will cover the time period from the first balloons and dirigibles to the space-age global positioning systems to the Persian Gulf War. Historical examples will be provided to extrapolate the development of Air Force capabilities and missions to demonstrate the evolution of what has become today's US Air Force air and space power.

AFS 201 EVOLUTION OF USAF AIR/SPACE POWER 1 credit

A continuation of AFS 200. Prerequisite: AFS 200. Offered: Spring.

AFS 300 LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT 3 credits

This is a survey course designed to give cadets an overview of the subject; it is not a content course. Covered are listening, speaking and writing skills in the peculiar Air Force format. Additionally, students will be expected to comprehend various aspects of Air Force leadership, individual leadership, Air Force officers' duties and responsibilities, and apply concepts of ethical behavior.

AFS 301 LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT 3 credits

A continuation of AFS 300. Prerequisite AFS 300. Offered: Spring.

AFS 400 NATIONAL SECURITY POLICY 3 credits

Focus is on the examination of the national security process, regional studies, advanced military justice, civilian control of the military, preparation for active duty, and current issues affecting military professionalism.

AFS 401 NATIONAL SECURITY POLICY 3 credits

A continuation of AFS 400. Prerequisite AFS 400. Offered: Spring.

AVM 102 AVIATION HISTORY 3 credits

A survey of the entire spectrum of aviation, its evolution from balloons to supersonic transports and space travel, its contemporary situation and problems, and its potential.

AVM 120 PRIMARY FLIGHT THEORY AND TRAINING, SOLO 3 credits

Provides the student with the theoretical knowledge and practical skills to successfully meet all FAA requirements for solo flight under FAR Part 141 in a single-engine, land class airplane. Lab fee: $100.

AVM 121 PRIMARY FLIGHT THEORY AND TRAINING, PPL 3 credits

Provides the student with the theoretical knowledge and practical skill to successfully complete all FAA written, oral and flight requirements for the award of the Private Pilot License for single-engine, land class aircraft as required under FAR Part 141. Lab fee: $100. Prerequisite: AVM 120.

AVM 220 INSTRUMENT FLIGHT THEORY AND TRAINING, BASIC 3 credits

Instrument flight theory and training accomplished in compliance with FAR Part 141 that prepares the student to successfully accomplish a ground and flight progress check covering basic attitude instrument flying and basic instrument navigation. Lab fee: $100. Prerequisite: AVM 121.

AVM 221 INSTRUMENT FLIGHT THEORY AND TRAINING, ADVANCED 3 credits

Advanced instrument flight theory and training accomplished in compliance with FAR Part 141 that prepares the student for the FAA written, oral and flight tests leading to the instrument rating. Lab fee: $100. Prerequisite: AVM 220.

AVM 226 AVIATION WEATHER 3 credits

A study of atmospheric phenomena, weather principles, forecasting techniques and weather information dissemination as they relate to and impact flight operations.

AVM 230 COMMERCIAL FLIGHT THEORY 3 credits

Provides the required flight theory and prepares the student for the FAA written and oral tests for the commercial pilot certificate. Prerequisite: AVM 221, or instrument rating. Lab fee: $100.

AVM 231 COMMERCIAL FLIGHT TRAINING 1 credit

Completes the required flight knowledge and skills, and prepares the student for the FAA flight test leading to the commercial pilot certificate. Prerequisite: AVM 221 or instrument rating.

AVM 250 AVIATION SAFETY AND HUMAN FACTORS 3 credits

A study of the physiological, psychological and physical factors that directly affect air operations and flight safety. Included are reviews and discussions of safety parameters and aircraft accidents and incidents that reflect human factor involvement.

AVM 310 FLIGHT INSTRUCTION METHODS AND PROCEDURES 4 credits

Methodology and requirements of flight instruction that prepare the student for the FAA flight instructor's examination. (Not required in flight option; available as an elective.) Flight training and successful completion of all requirements for the commercial flight instructor's ratings are involved. Lab fee: $30.

AVM 330 AIR TRANSPORTATION INDUSTRY 3 credits

An overview of the contemporary air transportation industry, both domestic and foreign, including the industry's evolution, structure, regulation, administration, aircraft and its future.

AVM 331 AVIATION REGULATION AND LAW 3 credits

A study of the evolution of aviation regulation and law that together govern air transportation and the aviation industry. Included are certain sections of current Federal Air Regulations (FARs), landmark court cases that have significantly affected air travel, and various conventions and agreements by which domestic and international air transportation are governed.

AVM 341 AVIATION OPERATIONS I 3 credits

A detailed study of operating and managing an airport, principally viewed from the public sector standpoint. Included are the manager's functions and responsibilities; applicable local, state and national regulatory requirements; and preparation of an airport's master plan.

AVM 346 FIXED-BASE OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT 3 credits

An analysis of all aspects of fixed-base operations, including flight training, charters and rentals, contract services, transient flight operations and community relations. Study also will include an overview of the contemporary air transportation industry, both domestic and foreign, including the industry's evolution, structure, regulation, administration and its aircraft.

AVM 441 AIRLINE AND AIRPORT OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT 3 credits

An analysis of the application of contemporary management techniques to the airline and airport industries. Included are management functions, current issues, domestic and foreign operations, domestic and foreign regulations, aircraft selection, labor relations, airport master plans and strategic planning. The course will include a major student project.

AVM 471 AIRLINE EMERGENCY CABIN TRAINING 3 credits

At the completion of this course, students will have a basic understanding of airline emergency situation procedures and demonstrate the ability to make appropriate responses. Includes 30 hours of classroom instruction and 15 hours of practical demonstration and practice on aircraft mockups and use of emergency equipment. Prerequisite: Enrollment in the aviation program or approval of the department head.

AVM 472 B-727 PILOT FAMILIARIZATION 3 credits

At the completion of this course, students will have a basic understanding of major B-727 aircraft systems, including Powerplant, Pneumatic, Electrical, Hydraulic, Flight Control, Fuel, Avionics and Instruments. They also will be familiar with preflight planning requirements, to include aircraft limitations and performance, weight and balance computations and use of the National Airspace System. Students are instructed in the location, function and operation of major aircraft systems, including cockpit controls and indications. Includes 45 hours of classroom and part task mockup (PTM) instruction. Prerequisite: FAA commercial pilot certificate with an instrument rating.

AVM 473 B-727 PILOT SIMULATOR FAMILIARIZATION 3 credits

At the completion of this course students will have basic knowledge and skills for the operation of primary and secondary cockpit controls of the B-727. They will be able to perform normal take-offs and landings, climbs and descents, and turns to headings. They will be able to control the aircraft in both visual and instrument flight conditions. In addition, they will practice and demonstrate basic understanding of steep turns, approach to stalls, emergency descents, instrument approaches and other advanced maneuvers. They also will experience abnormal and emergency flight situations and demonstrate a basic understanding of appropriate pilot responses. Includes 45 hours of instruction. Includes 20 hours in a full flight simulator (motion and visual). Ten hours will be pilot-in-command (PIC) instruction while occupying the captain position, and 10 hours will be support duties from the first officer position, or as an observer. In addition, each four-hour simulator session will include a one-hour briefing and a one-hour debriefing. Prerequisite: AVM 472.

AVM 474 B-737 PILOT FAMILIARIZATION 3 credits

At the completion of this course, students will have a basic understanding of major B-737 aircraft systems, including Powerplant, Pneumatic, Electrical, Hydraulic, Flight Control, Fuel, Avionics and Instruments. They also will be familiar with preflight planning requirements, to include aircraft limitations and performance, weight and balance computations, and use of the National Airspace System. Includes 45 hours of classroom and part task mockup (PTM) instruction. Students are instructed in the location, function and operation of major aircraft systems, including cockpit controls and indications. Prerequisite: FAA commercial pilot certificate with an instrument rating.

AVM 475 B-737 PILOT SIMULATOR FAMILIARIZATION 3 credits

At the completion of this course, students will have basic knowledge and skills for the operation of primary and secondary cockpit controls of the B-737. They will be able to perform normal take-offs and landings, climbs and descents, and turns to headings. They will be able to control the aircraft in both visual and instrument flight conditions. In addition, they will practice and demonstrate basic understanding of steep turns, approach to stalls, emergency descents, instrument approaches and other advanced maneuvers. They also will experience abnormal and emergency flight situations and demonstrate a basic understanding of appropriate pilot responses. Includes 45 hours of instruction. Includes 20 hours in a full flight simulator (motion and visual). Ten hours will be pilot-in-command (PIC) instruction while occupying the captain position, and 10 hours will be support duties from the first officer position, or as an observer. In addition, each four-hour simulator session will include a one-hour briefing and a one-hour debriefing. Prerequisite: AVM 474.

AVM 476 B-747 PILOT FAMILIARIZATION 3 credits

At the completion of this course, students will have a basic understanding of major B-747 aircraft systems, including Powerplant, Pneumatic, Electrical, Hydraulic, Flight Control, Fuel, Avionics and Instruments. They also will be familiar with preflight planning requirements, to include aircraft limitations and performance, weight and balance computations and use of the National Airspace System. Includes 45 hours of classroom and part task mockup (PTM) instruction. Students are instructed in the location, function and operation of major aircraft systems, including cockpit controls and indications. Prerequisite: FAA commercial pilot certificate with an instrument rating.

AVM 477 AIRLINE TRANSPORT PILOT (ATP) CERTIFICATE 3 credits

This course will result in attaining the Airline Transport Pilot (ATP) certificate. Lynn University is authorized under our FAR Part 142 certificate to provide ATP training. The syllabus is FAA approved. Lynn students will receive academic credit for this work. A student may take the ATP credit or the 737 familiarization credit, but not both. Prerequisites: FAA Commercial License and 1500 flying hours. A lab fee is required.

AVM 481 AVIATION SEMINAR 3 credits

A series of discussions and analysis of contemporary management problems in aviation. Individual student research and reports are required. Prerequisite: Permission of advisor/dean.

BUS 101 APPAREL INDUSTRY 3 credits

An examination of the scope of fashion industry opportunities. The production and distribution of fashion products are explored, leading to an awareness of interaction of various aspects of the industry. Offered: Fall.

CED 198 PORTFOLIO SEMINAR 1 credit
Seminar designed to guide students through the process of developing a portfolio of their experiential learning. Prerequisite: ENG 102.

CJA 540 TERRORISM: ITS EFFECT ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND EMERGENCY PLANNING 3 credits
This course is designed to prepare students with the necessary, basic theoretical knowledge and ability to reasonably analyze the fundamental principles involved in political terrorism. Students will examine a variety of events, ranging from low-level threats and acts of violence, that may represent significant risk to human life and property to large-scale acts of violence involving weapons of mass destruction that may have devastating, long-term effects.

CJA 600 NIA - VIDEO SURVEILLANCE APPLICATIONS AND OPERATIONS 3 credits
This course is designed to prepare students with the necessary basic theoretical and practical analytical and performance skills, knowledge, and "best practices" in the field of law enforcement/military video surveillance operations. Students will review, examine and utilize past and current video surveillance technology, equipment, and employment techniques in a variety of covert and overt enforcement scenarios. Emerging technology will be explored and conceptualized in the context of current criminal activity, developing trends in criminal activity, and the advent of video surveillance detection equipment. This course will also address international issues in criminal justice. Criminal justice systems of selected countries will be compared and contrasted. The purpose and goals of different systems will be explored. Students will identify various solutions and approaches to international crime trends.

CJA 608 ETHICS IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE 3 credits

This course conducts an inquiry into the principles of justice and ethics as they relate to the administration of criminal justice in contemporary American society. Students are immersed in a compendium of ethical theory and relate theory to an in-depth analysis of the diverse ethical issues encountered in the criminal justice profession. Using a case study approach, students examine diverse ethical theories and apply them to such topics as discretion, investigations, prosecutions, incarceration, use of deadly force, misconduct across the criminal justice spectrum, civil disobedience, undercover operations and privacy.

CJA 610 NIA - AUDIO SURVEILLANCE APPLICATIONS AND OPERATIONS 3 credits

This course is designed to prepare students with the necessary basic theoretical and practical analytical and performance skills, knowledge, and "best practices" in the field of law enforcement/military audio surveillance operations. Students will review, examine and utilize past and current audio surveillance technology, equipment, and employment techniques in a variety of covert and overt enforcement scenarios. Emerging technology will be explored and conceptualized in the context of current criminal activity, developing trends in criminal activity, and the advent of audio surveillance detection equipment. The course will also examine global issues in the administration of criminal justice. Transnational crime issues and international collaborations and partnership to address these issues will be examined. Governmental control and oversight will be explored.

CJA 620 NIA - TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND ELECTRONIC DATA INTERCEPTS, APPLICATIONS AND OPERATIONS 3 credits

This course is designed to develop the knowledge and skills of investigators to design, plan, resource and conduct a wide range of communications intercept operations that are legal, safe, and produce evidence of prosecutorial value. The complexity of the technology, systems, networks and operations involved is overcome through the development and examination of proven techniques and applications. This course is taught in the context of existing telecommunications infrastructures and intercept equipment. The impact of emerging technology, infrastructure development, and CALEA legislation is explored in the context of current investigative demands and requirements. An in-depth study of federal and state constitutional issues, federal and state statutes and administrative regulations as they relate to surveillance will be conducted.

CJA 630 NIA - LAW ENFORCEMENT INVESTIGATIVE ENTRY OPERATIONS 3 credits

This course is designed to provide students an advanced understanding of the theoretical and practical applications of the innovative techniques, tools and equipment used when conducting covert entry operations. Students receive a broad introduction to a variety of locks, locking devices, and security systems. Special consideration is given to the legality and safety of conducting such operations. The complexity of these operations is explored in the context of planning and conducting multi-device surveillance operations in support of investigative requirements. An in-depth study of federal and state constitutional issues, federal and state statutes and administrative regulations as they relate to privacy, search and seizure and surveillance also will be conducted.

CJA 636 SEMINAR IN CIVIL RIGHTS AND CIVIL LIBERTIES 3 credits

Analyzes the legal, philosophical, and social interests surrounding issues of freedom, liberty and the fundamental rights granted by the Constitution of the United States. Freedom of speech, assembly, religion and equal treatment before the law are explored.

CJA 640 NIA - MANAGEMENT OF TECHNICAL INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS 3 credits

This course explores the unique considerations and issues involved in managing technical intelligence operations and supervising a Technical Support Unit (TSU). Students are introduced to the impact and value of technology in the investigative process and how to effectively employ this technology to detect, deter and deny criminal activity. Students will explore the growing sophistication of criminal enterprises and its impact current and future law enforcement investigations. Students also will study the broad areas of concern that impact TSU operations, including operations and information security, media relations, funding and resources, and personnel training. Students will examine current concepts and practices involved in human resources management with particular emphasis on acquiring, training, evaluating, compensating and retaining an effective workforce.

CJA 650 NIA - COUNTERING EMERGING DOMESTIC THREATS 3 credits

In this course, students take a comprehensive look at the current and emerging threats facing society and how law enforcement can effectively utilize a Technical Support Unit (TSU) to counter these threats. Students are introduced to the impact and value of technology in the investigative process and how to effectively employ this technology to detect, deter and deny criminal activity. Students will explore the growing sophistication of criminal enterprises and how that impacts current and future law enforcement investigations. In this course students study the broad areas of concern that impact TSU operations to include operations and information security, media relations, funding and resources, and personnel training. Students will also examine current concepts and practices involved in human resources management with particular emphasis on the acquisition, training, evaluation, compensation and retention of an effective work force.

CJA 656 CONFLICT RESOLUTION IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE 3 credits

An examination of the theory, research and practice of conflict resolution across the different components of the criminal justice system. Varieties of theory, such as Individual Characteristics Theory, Social Process Theory, Social Structure Theory, Formal Theories and Human Needs Theory are reviewed. Practices such as coercion, negotiating and bargaining, adjudication, mediation and arbitration are examined in light of existing research in the field.

CJA 657 CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION AND THE COMMUNITY 3 credits

Examines the relationships between criminal justice agencies and the communities they serve. Analyzes various definitions and the nature of community as a concept, and relates the roles (real and perceived) of diverse agencies to each community. Reviews how issues of public policy, service provision and victimization are related to how people define themselves and are defined by others on the basis of community.

CJA 659 GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE 3 credits

Examines the law enforcement, judicial and phenological models of different countries throughout the world for analysis of the construction and execution of criminal justice from a global perspective. The course considers the philosophical ideals, varied political histories, nature and dynamics of criminal justice policies as they impact upon the international character of contemporary criminal justice.

CJA 661 YOUTH AND DELINQUENCY 3 credits

Examines the historical treatments of the legal and social constructions of children and youth. Considers the theories, social context, institutional responses and public policies related to juvenile delinquency. Emerging trends in delinquency are compared across continents and diverse criminal justice systems.

CJA 665 GRADUATE PROJECT IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

Culminating graduate projects represent a topic of professional interest selected by the student and approved by the advisor for its relevance and importance in the criminal justice field. In the project, the student must reflect the integration of theory with practice and demonstrate expertise in subject matter. Final projects are presented in a seminar.

CMS 200 COMPUTER APPLICATIONS 3 credits

An introduction to computers and to how they can be used as a tool in business and society. The course prepares the student to understand the many facets associated with the application of computers and provides an opportunity to develop the Microsoft Office skills necessary to utilize computers as a tool in both their professional and personal environments. Lab fee: $30. Offered: Fall, Spring.

CMS 210 PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES I (QBASIC) 3 credits

QBASIC will be used as a vehicle to explore the fundamentals of structured programming, data types, control structures, functions, subroutines and algorithms. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 200. Offered: Fall.

CMS 212 PROGRAMMING LANGUAGES II (VBASIC) 3 credits

VBASIC is a continuation of CMS 210 in a visual object-oriented environment. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 210. Offered: Spring.

CMS 215 ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE 3 credits

A survey of the concepts and trends in artificial intelligence. Topics include neural networks, knowledge representation, machine learning, deduction, image processing, voice recognition and expert systems. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 200.

CMS 260 COMPUTER ARCHITECTURE 3 credits

A study of the internal design features, organization, components and arrangements that comprise a modern microcomputer. Hardware, logic, firmware and software will be discussed. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 200.

CMS 300 DATABASE SYSTEMS AND MANAGEMENT 3 credits

Study of database concepts, systems and management techniques for microcomputer systems. Examination of query languages, data definition and manipulation techniques, including relational, hierarchical and network approaches to database management systems. A survey of available software and public and commercial database services and practice in the application of microcomputer packages is included. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 200. Offered: Fall.

CMS 310 JAVA PROGRAMMING 3 credits

Concepts, structure and applications of the Java programming language. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 212.

CMS 315 MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS 3 credits

An introduction to the concept of information systems and their interaction related to business problems. The course introduces the student to the form of structured information systems and provides a basis for students to specify and develop programs and systems using directed structured analysis and programming methods. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: CMS 200 and BUS 270. Offered: Fall, Spring.

CMS 320 DESKTOP PUBLISHING 3 credits

An introduction to methods, techniques, conventions and limitations of desktop publishing. Hands-on instruction will make use of a professional desktop publishing program. Projects will include composition and production of brochures, flyers, newsletters and short magazines. Course includes layout, composition, freehand art, clip art, scanning and photo retouching. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 200. Offered: Fall, Spring.

CMS 330 LOGIC DESIGN 3 credits

Fundamentals of logic design including Boolean Algebra, simplification of expressions, Grey Code, combination logic, state machines, PLDs and hardware description language. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 260.

CMS 340 WEB SITE DESIGN 3 credits

This undergraduate elective course is designed to expose students to the techniques and principles of good Web site design. This course will focus on creating and incorporating a series of linked Web pages into a cohesive Web site suitable for publishing on the Internet. A popular graphic program will be used in the preliminary design of the site. Enhancements and more advanced features will be added to the Web pages utilizing HTML code. Java scripts will be used and manipulated. Simple animation and multimedia elements will be created and added to the pages as appropriate. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: CMS 200 and BUS 228, or permission of instructor. Offered: Fall, Spring.

CMS 345 ASSEMBLY LANGUAGE PROGRAMMING 3 credits

Development of low-level computer programs and firmware. Mnemonic operators, symbolic addresses, indexing, indirect addressing, macros and stack operations will be discussed. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: CMS 330 and CMS 210.

CMS 350 SPREADSHEET DESIGN AND APPLICATION 3 credits

Concepts and principles of spreadsheet programs and their use in the manipulation and management of numerical data are explored. The course is directed toward students in all disciplines. Microsoft Excel will be used. Activities in the course include constructing advanced financial spreadsheet models, printing graphs from spreadsheets, searching and sorting spreadsheet databases, and automating spreadsheet options with macro programs. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 200. Offered: Fall, Spring.

CMS 360 COMPUTER ETHICS AND LAW 3 credits

Study of legal issues related to computer users and institutions. Topics include theft of services, rights to privacy, trademarks, patents, copyrights, contracts and royalties. Prerequisite: CMS 200. Offered: Spring.

CMS 365 DATA STRUCTURES 3 credits

Study of classic data structures and objects. Topics include stacks, queues, binary trees, linked lists, polymorphism, inheritance, searching and sorting techniques. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 260.

CMS 370 OPERATING SYSTEM DESIGN PRINCIPLES 3 credits

A study of software based management techniques for the control of computer hardware including microprocessors, memory, storage devices, peripherals, interrupt handling, stack operations and file management. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: CMS 260 and CMS 365.

CMS 380 SYSTEMS ANALYSIS 3 credits

Structured systems analysis including data flow, data representation, decision trees and tables, fault tolerant computing, performance analysis, deterministic and stochastic models. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 370.

CMS 420 ENCRYPTION AND DATA SECURITY 3 credits

Fundamental concepts and survey of encryption methods and algorithms. Data security over computer networks and verification methods will be emphasized. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 315.

CMS 445 DATA COMMUNICATIONS AND NETWORKS 3 credits

This course covers topics such as telecommunications, modems and client/server technology, networking, multiplexing, switching, protocols and architecture. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: CMS 365 and BUS 322.

CMS 455 PROCEDURAL ORIENTED PROGRAM DESIGN 3 credits

Program design and development using objects to enhance reliability, portability and security. A current programming language will be used to illustrate these concepts. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 212.

CMS 456 OBJECT-ORIENTED SOFTWARE DESIGN 3 credits

Software design and development principles including modularity system, decomposition and data representation using objects as structures. A current programming language will be used as a representative language. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: CMS 455.

CMS 481 SENIOR SEMINAR 3 credits

This course provides an opportunity for students as a group to explore emerging technologies or special interest areas. Site visits and guest lecturers will be used as part of the course strategy. Prerequisite: Permission of advisor or dean.

CMS 495 SENIOR PROJECT 3 credits

This course is designed for senior-level students as a way of providing them an opportunity to explore through research or practical experience areas of computer science or information systems. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: Permission of advisor or dean.

CMS 497 TOPICS IN COMPUTER SCIENCE 3 credits

Study of selected topics current to the technology industry. Prerequisite: Permission of advisor or dean.

COM 101 FUNDAMENTALS OF COMMUNICATION 3 credits

EDU 240 PRE-PRIMARY LANGUAGE ARTS3 credits

Emphasis upon developing and using meaningful strategies for involving all children in language arts experiences at the pre-primary/primary level, age 3 through grade 3.

EDU 250 PRE-PRIMARY MATH AND SCIENCE3 credits

An introduction to the math and science concepts appropriate to the developmental level of the pre-primary/primary child, age 3 through grade 3. Activities will be examined and creative ideas explored as the student develops math and science lesson plans appropriate for diverse learners.

EDU 257 PHYSICAL EDUCATION, HEALTH AND SAFETY IN THE SCHOOLS (PE/HEALTH-ELEMENTARY)3 credits

The objective of this course is to develop an understanding of the important aspects of physical education, health and safety, as they relate to the age 3 through grade 3 and elementary school teachers.

EDU 260 EDUCATIONAL COMPUTER APPLICATIONS3 credits

The use of microcomputers and related technologies in elementary and secondary classrooms is discussed. Software evaluation, instructional materials generation, record keeping and the use of technology to benefit culturally and linguistically diverse students, as well as exceptional students are covered.

EDU 261 FAMILY AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT3 credits

A study of family systems and their impact on the education, growth and development of all children. Understanding the importance of involving families and communities, including culturally diverse families and their communities working cooperatively, in all phases of school programs.

EDU 265 WRITING PROCESS IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL3 credits

Materials, methods and strategies to teach all children the writing process as an integral part of reading, language and literacy development. Prerequisites: ENG 101, ENG 102 and EDU 211.

EDU 270 PRE-PRIMARY LANGUAGE ARTS AND CREATIVE ACTIVITIES3 credits

Students will acquire a basic understanding of pre-reading and reading skills while integrating art, music and movement activities to enable them to develop and implement appropriate lessons for all pre-primary/primary age children.

EDU 300 APPLIED LINGUISTICS3 credits

Examines current linguistic theories and principles related to second language acquisition research and teaching. Application of theory to teaching basic content area and for the development of English as a second language and literacy for linguistically and culturally diverse students. Observation and field experience required.

EDU 305 A SURVEY OF ESOL STRATEGIES FOR SECONDARY EDUCATION3 credits

An overview of current approaches, methods, and strategies for adapting content, delivering instruction and designing assessment to ensure that ESOL secondary students comprehend academic content, develop academic language and engage in classroom activities that are culturally appropriate.

EDU 310 METHODS OF TEACHING ESOL3 credits

An overview of current and effective instructional methods and strategies for planning and delivering instruction to English Language Learners in a variety of classroom settings and for a variety of purposes. Application of theory, principles and research to methods and strategies in multicultural classrooms. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 300.

EDU 314 CHILDREN'S LITERATURE/EDUCATIONAL MEDIA AND LIBRARY3 credits

Selection and use of children's books, storytelling and creative writing for use with all children in elementary school, and the development of competencies for effective selection and utilization of instructional media. Use of school library or media center to enhance classroom instruction for a variety of learners. Consideration of sources, selection evaluation and methods of implementing library and media. Includes off-site locations.

EDU 315 READING IN THE PRIMARY GRADES3 credits

Approaches, methods and materials appropriate to teaching all young students to read are covered. Emphasis will be on emergent literacy, sequential development of skills, perceptual development, word attack skills, vocabulary and comprehension as all are part of a whole language philosophy. Field observation and practice will be required.

EDU 316 DIAGNOSIS AND EVALUATION OF READING PROBLEMS3 credits

Focuses on the evaluative processes. Proficiency in recognizing and diagnosing reading problems and prescribing and using a variety of appropriate methods and materials to increase and facilitate reading performance for all children. Prerequisite: EDU 315 for Elementary and Pre-K/Primary majors.

EDU 317 SCIENCE IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL3 credits

Contemporary elementary science methods and materials, courses of study and science texts are examined, including development and use of science teaching units.

EDU 318 MATHEMATICS IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL3 credits

Development and use of functional mathematical skills for elementary school teachers. Investigation of methods and materials for use with diverse students in elementary school mathematics.

EDU 330 CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION AND UNDERSTANDING3 credits

Identification of cultural issues related to communication, classroom interaction, academic content and parental and community involvement. Activities are designed to foster the importance and appreciation of greater understanding and empathy among ethnolinguistic groups. Emphasis is on the development of effective teaching strategies for the multicultural classroom. Field experience in a multicultural setting required.

EDU 332 READING IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL3 credits

Materials and approaches to develop and reinforce reading skills for all students necessary for success in content areas. Emphasis on academic vocabulary development and comprehension skills.

EDU 333 SOCIAL STUDIES METHODS IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL3 credits

Strategies and materials to formulate subject area goals consistent with state and district goals. Methods to prepare long/short-range goals consistent with a variety of student needs. Emphasis on the selection, adoption and development of instructional materials for a given set of instructional goals and learner needs. Prerequisite: EDU 334.

EDU 334 CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR MANAGEMENT3 credits

Strategies used to formulate a standard of student behavior in the classroom. Methods that promote instructional momentum. Emphasis on instructional planning effective for all learners.

EDU 335 SCIENCE METHODS IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL3 credits

Strategies and materials to formulate subject area goals consistent with state and district goals. Methods to prepare long/short-range goals consistent with a variety of student needs in science. Emphasis on the selection, adoption and development of instructional materials for a given set of instructional goals and learner needs. Prerequisite: EDU 334.

EDU 336 MATH METHODS IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL3 credits

Strategies and materials to formulate subject area goals consistent with state and district goals. Methods to prepare long/short-range goals consistent with a variety of student needs in math. Emphasis on the selection, adoption and development of instructional materials for a given set of instructional goals and learner needs. Prerequisite: EDU 334.

EDU 350 EDUCATIONAL MEDIA AND LIBRARY3 credits

Development of competencies for effective selection and utilization of instructional media. Use of school library or media center to enhance classroom instruction for a variety of learners. Consideration of sources, selection evaluation and methods of implementing library and media. Includes off-site locations.

EDU 355 CHILD GUIDANCE AND CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT3 credits

The study and comparison of child guidance methods in relationship to classroom management skills as an integral part of effective teaching for all children.

EDU 356 LEARNING PRINCIPLES FOR EDUCATORS3 credits

A study of behavioristic, cognitive and information processing accounts of the acquisition, organization and utilization of information by all learners. Topics examined include classical conditioning, instrumental condition, observational learning and memory.

EDU 364 LANGUAGE AND WRITING METHODS IN SECONDARY SCHOOL3 credits

Strategies and materials to formulate subject area goals consistent with state and district goals. Methods to prepare long/short-term goals consistent with students' varying levels of literacy development. Emphasis on the selection, adoption and development of instructional materials for a given set of instructional goals and a variety of student learning needs. Prerequisite: EDU 334.

EDU 365 LITERATURE METHODS IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL3 credits

Strategies and materials to formulate subject area goals consistent with state and district goals. Methods to prepare long/short-term goals consistent with student needs. Emphasis on the selection, adoption and development of instructional materials for a given set of instructional goals and a variety of student learning needs. Prerequisite: EDU 334.

EDU 366 ADOLESCENT LITERATURE3 credits

A survey of the teaching techniques that utilize the major works of adventure, biography, autobiography, folk literature, historical fiction, mystery, mythology, science fiction and poetry for working with all adolescents. Some recreational and motivational works also are reviewed.

EDU 400 ESOL CURRICULUM AND MATERIALS DEVELOPMENT 3 credits
Introduction of practices in planning, selecting, adapting, implementing and evaluating instructional programs, materials, content and resources appropriate to both instructional goals and needs of linguistically and culturally diverse students. Special emphasis on the application of language-sensitive content teaching and adapting and developing content and materials for English language learners. Observation and field experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 310.

EDU 420 EDUCATIONAL MEASUREMENT AND EVALUATION 3 credits
Development of instructional objectives and classroom evaluation measures for all students. An overview of alternative assessment strategies; interpretation of standardized assessment techniques; interpretation of standardized tests using measurement results for evaluating student progress. Field experience in a multicultural classroom is required.

EDU 460 CHILDREN AT RISK 3 credits
A study of research-based information of the identification, resources and effective instructional practices for all children with special needs who are at risk of academic failure from age 3 through grade 3. Procedures and intervention approaches for appropriate and effective family support are discussed.

EDU 461 EXCEPTIONAL STUDENTS IN REGULAR CLASSROOMS 3 credits
A review of research-based information on the identification and remediation of exceptional students in the regular classroom. This course enables students to develop practical teaching strategies and use technology that regular educators need to respond effectively to exceptional students, including linguistically and culturally diverse students in regular classroom settings. Field observation and practice in a multicultural classroom required.

EDU 462 CHILDREN AT RISK AND EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT EDUCATION 3 credits
A study of research-based information on the identification, redemption and resources for children who are at risk of academic failure (age 3 through grade 3), and those already designated as exceptional students. Development of practical teaching strategies, procedures and intervention approaches to effectively respond to the needs of these students, including the linguistically and culturally diverse, and their families. Field observations and practice in a multicultural setting required.

EDU 480 PRACTICUM 3 credits
Guided practice under supervision of an ESOL-endorsed elementary classroom teacher in at least two multicultural classrooms at different grade levels. Requires the utilization of knowledge, attitudes and skills in elementary school instructional situations. Lab fee: $100.

EDU 481 STUDENT TEACHING 9 credits
Independent practice teaching in a multicultural classroom. Requires the utilization of knowledge, attitudes and skills in elementary school instructional situations. Lab fee: $100.

EDU 500 FOUNDATIONS OF EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT EDUCATION 3 credits
An exploration and analysis of exceptional student education with a focus on government policy, particularly P.L. 94-142 and the ADA; areas contributing to the history of special education; legal and ethical issues in exceptional student education; and major theories associated with mildly handicapped situations. Field experience and observation required.

EDU 503 ESOL PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS 3 credits
Examines a variety of strategies for adapting curriculum and teaching of content to ESOL students including attention to the implications of cultural factors in learning and instruction for secondary schools. The course is designed to meet the requirements for ESOL Endorsement of Category 2 teachers in Florida. Completion of the course will satisfy the state requirements for such endorsement.

EDU 505 APPLIED RESEARCH METHODS 3 credits
A review of the various methods of research and basic statistical methods appropriate to educational research. Students select a topic of interest in Exceptional Student Education, design a research project and draft a proposal. Completion of the first two chapters of the graduate project: 1 - Introduction and 2 - Review of the Literature.

EDU 510 LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING 3 credits
Theories of language acquisition, various models and patterns of language adaptation, types of listening and variables that affect listening, formal language tests, informal assessment measures of language problems and specific teaching strategies in the areas of expressive and receptive language.

EDU 511 CHARACTERISTICS AND NEEDS OF STUDENTS WITH MILD DISABILITIES 3 credits
An in-depth study of the characteristics and needs of the mildly handicapped student (mentally or emotionally handicapped or with specific learning disabilities) along with the use of various teaching strategies and individual instruction. Suggested materials and methods utilizing microcomputers, self-correcting materials, instructional games, and personalized education activities are addressed. Field experience and observation required.

EDU 512 INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR STUDENTS WITH EMOTIONAL DISABILITIES 3 credits
Specialized strategies for teaching emotionally handicapped (EH) students. Overview of instructional techniques and motivational strategies. Highlighted are the development, implementation and evaluation of individualized educational plans along with database management. Field experience and observation required. Prerequisite: EDU 500 or EDU 511.

EDU 513 INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR STUDENTS WITH MENTAL DISABILITIES 3 credits
An exploration of unique teaching strategies for mentally handicapped (MH) students. Highlighted are the development, implementation and evaluation of individualized educational plans. The course addresses special approaches to functional skills instruction, developmental programming and database management. Field experience and observation required. Prerequisite: EDU 500 or EDU 511.

EDU 514 INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR SPECIFIC LEARNING DISABILITIES 3 credits
Individualized instructional strategies for teaching students with specific learning disabilities (SLD), including specialized approaches to teaching basic skills and adaptation of curriculum. Field experience and observation required. Prerequisite: EDU 500 or EDU 511.

EDU 521 METHODS OF TEACHING ESOL 3 credits
An overview of current and effective instructional methods and strategies for planning and delivering instruction to English language learners in a variety of classroom settings and for a variety of purposes. In-depth application of theory, principles and research to methods and strategies. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 520.

EDU 522 CURRICULUM AND MATERIALS DEVELOPMENT FOR ESOL 3 credits
Advanced practices in planning, selecting, adapting, implementing and evaluating instructional programs, materials, content and resources appropriate to both instructional goals and needs of linguistically and culturally diverse students. Special emphasis on the application of language sensitive content teaching, adapting, as well as developing content and materials for English language learners. Field experience and observation required. Prerequisite: EDU 521.

EDU 523 CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION AND UNDERSTANDING3 credits

Identification of cultural issues related to communication, classroom interaction, academic content and parental and community involvement. Activities designed to foster the importance and appreciation of greater understanding and empathy among ethnolinguistic groups. Emphasis on development of teaching strategies for multicultural classrooms. Field experience required.

EDU 525 TESTING AND EVALUATION IN ESOL3 credits

Advanced study and research on current issues in the field of ESOL testing and evaluation. Development of skills necessary for selecting, designing and administering appropriate assessment instruments for the purposes of evaluating second language proficiency and monitoring academic progress. Field experience required.

EDU 524 APPLIED LINGUISTICS3 credits

Current linguistic theories and principles related to second language acquisition research and teaching. Application of theory to teaching basic content area and for the development of English as a second language and literacy for linguistically and culturally diverse students. Field experience and observation required.

EDU 534 CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR MANAGEMENT3 credits

Focuses on developing strategies to formulate a standard of behavior in special needs classrooms and methods that promote instructional momentum for special needs classrooms and special educators working within regular classrooms.

EDU 561 ASSESSMENT OF EXCEPTIONAL STUDENTS3 credits

Focuses on the in-depth knowledge and competencies needed to administer formal tests and utilize types of informal measures. Provides teachers with the skills necessary to identify various handicapping conditions. Field experience and observation required.

EDU 570 CAREER MANAGEMENT AND TRANSITION PLANNING FOR EXCEPTIONAL STUDENTS3 credits

Comprehensive guide to collegiate, counseling, residential, social and vocational programs, serving adolescents and young adults with learning disabilities and other mild handicaps. Field experience and observation required. Prerequisite: EDU 500 or EDU 511.

EDU 581 STUDENT TEACHING IN EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT EDUCATION6 credits

Culminating field experience in a program for students with Exceptional Student Education, demonstrating competencies learned throughout the program. Required of all students who do not have an undergraduate degree in education. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: Completion of all program requirements.

EDU 602 STATISTICAL METHODS3 credits

Measurement and statistical analysis of parametric and non-parametric data. Techniques, applications and analysis, using spreadsheets and statistical packages for computerized data analysis.

EDU 603 ADVANCED QUANTITATIVE RESEARCH3 credits

Application of statistics for hypothesis testing on quantitative data. Selection of appropriate statistical tests for research designs, the use of statistical tests for analyzing quantitative data, understanding of computer statistical programs and interpretation of statistical results. Prerequisite: EDU 602.

EDU 604 ADVANCED QUALITATIVE RESEARCH3 credits

Understanding and developing a qualitative research design. To focus, identify potential problems and solutions, and develop useful and relevant theory in qualitative research.

EDU 605 INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION3 credits

This course provides an introduction to the educational administration profession by focusing on foundational concepts and theories significant to understanding education and educational administration. It offers a critical examination of topics that are central to educational administration, such as organization, community, power, authority, change, leadership, management and values.

EDU 621 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT IN EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS3 credits

This course will examine the professional functions, processes and tools of human resource management, including collective bargaining and arbitration, from the perspectives of the line manager, human resources professional and organization member. Additional topics include definition and determination of staff needs and management and coordination problems. Also addressed are policies for recruitment, selection, assignment, salary planning, scheduling, promotion, separation, grievances, reassignment, records, development programs, in-service training, evaluation, benefits and services. This course is cross-listed as EDU 721.

EDU 622 CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS3 credits

An analysis of the changing demographics of the world population and its implications for basic human needs on all levels: educational, psycho-bio-social and environmental. Trends and countervailing forces affecting social disorganization and the need for institutional renewal in educational systems are also addressed.

EDU 623 LEGAL ASPECTS OF EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS3 credits

An exploration of the historical and contemporary legal challenges in educational systems and management of the litigious environment that emerges. Constitutional, statutory and common law relating to education are discussed.

EDU 624 COMMUNICATION SKILLS3 credits

Provides leadership candidates the opportunity to explore and develop communication skills necessary for the planning, implementation and ongoing evaluation of home/school/community relations programs.

EDU 625 GOVERNANCE AND FINANCING OF EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS3 credits

Administrative structure and linkage of educational systems to varying local, state and national constituencies that have legislative and financial impact on institutional renewal and change.

EDU 626 ADMINISTRATION OF CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION3 credits

The development, administration and evaluation of curriculum and instruction.

EDU 627 HIGHER EDUCATION ECONOMICS AND FINANCE3 credits

Financial structure of higher education institutions and its relationship to private and public funding sources, higher education legislation, and innovative funding.

EDU 630 TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND INNOVATION3 credits

Covers theories of leadership: roles, styles and management of the change process in educational systems. Planning, implementation and assessment process of the leader's vision for program innovation are also addressed.

EDU 635 TECHNOLOGY AND COMMUNICATION FOR EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS3 credits

The role of technology and its impact on traditional and non-traditional educational systems. Study includes historical perspectives on traditional and non-traditional ways of educating, coupled with theories of how we communicate and learn. Also addressed are the range and mix of technology available as instructional tools to enhance learning across culturally diverse groups and environments, and future directions of technological innovations in educational systems. This course is cross-listed as EDU 735.

EDU 640 STRATEGIC PLANNING AND ASSESSMENT FOR EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS 3 credits

Elements of strategic planning for innovation in educational systems: Environmental scanning, SWOT analysis, renewing the organizational mission, goals and objectives to address new needs. The course also addresses defining roles and levels of strategy for each institutional unit/subunit in implementing and assuring the strategic control of the plan over time.

EDU 650 HIGHER EDUCATION LAW 3 credits

The impact of laws, regulations, and judicial opinions on institutions of higher education. Addressed are legal issues involved in various controversies coextensive with inquiry regarding the educational and policy implications of the legal cases considered.

EDU 651 AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION CURRICULAR ISSUES 3 credits

A conceptual analysis of curriculum and other educational program elements and rational relationships among them, including educational goals, instructional plans, program evaluation, managerial planning, content sources, and criteria for selection and organization.

EDU 652 ADMINISTRATION AND GOVERNANCE OF HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS 3 credits

An analysis of controls in higher education: internal organizational patterns, roles of trustees, administrative personnel and faculties. The impact of teaching, research, criticism and sanctions on the differentiation of institutional goals also is covered.

EDU 653 TEACHING AND LEARNING AT THE HIGHER EDUCATION LEVEL 3 credits

This course is an introduction to general theories of human learning and their application to learning in academic disciplines. The course raises pedagogical and curricular issues related to the creation of instruction and learning environments in subject matter domains, as well as the evolution and status of instructional programs and practices in American higher education.

EDU 664 GRADUATE PROJECT IN EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT EDUCATION I 3 credits

Continuation of the research initiated in EDU 505. Refinement of research methodology, data gathering and presentation of results, concluding with the development and completion of graduate project chapters 3 (Methodology) and 4 (Results). Prerequisite: EDU 505.

EDU 665 GRADUATE PROJECT IN EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT EDUCATION II 3 credits

Continuation of EDU 664. The graduate project will reach its final stage with the completion of chapter 5 (Discussion and Conclusions). The student will demonstrate expertise in the subject matter through a written graduate project and its oral defense to the faculty. Prerequisite: EDU 664.

EDU 670 SPECIAL EDUCATION FOR ADMINISTRATORS 3 credits

Designed for the administrator to understand and implement policies at the federal, state and local levels for children with special needs. Major theories in the field of special education will be the focus, along with strategies to evaluate special education programs, such as inclusion and transition. Program planning, child placement, least restrictive environment and assessment will be addressed.

EDU 698 THE PRACTICAL PRINCIPAL 3 credits

An examination of the practical side of the principalship. Areas to be discussed include research, i.e. action research; issues of moral judgment; planning and conducting faculty meetings; supervising; writing reports and grant proposals for federal, state and local agencies; building school morale; and allocation of time.

EDU 699 INTERNSHIP 3 credits

Culminating field experience for administrators. Supervised placement in an educational setting demonstrating competencies learned throughout the program. Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval, and completion of all program requirements.

EDU 710 LEADERSHIP OF INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAMS 3 credits

This course focuses on the leadership roles in curriculum and instruction. Topics include leadership of curriculum development and administration, student achievement, program assessment, accountability, supervision of instruction, learning for understanding and school improvement models.

EDU 720 INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION SYSTEMS 3 credits

A comprehensive examination and comparison of international educational systems. Topics include the philosophical, political, social and economic influences on the development of international educational systems, comparative analysis of the administration processes of educational systems, comparative analysis of curriculum and outcomes of international educational systems.

EDU 721 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT IN EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS 3 credits

The course examines the sources of revenue, allocation of expenditures, budget implementation and administration, and issues of accountability and equity.

EDU 735 TECHNOLOGY AND COMMUNICATION FOR EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS 3 credits

The role of technology and its impact on traditional and non-traditional educational systems. Study includes historical perspectives on traditional and non-traditional ways of educating, coupled with theories of how we communicate and learn. Also addressed are the range and mix of technology available as instructional tools to enhance learning across culturally diverse groups and environments, and future directions of technological innovations in educational systems. This course is cross-listed as EDU 635.

EDU 751 CROSS-CULTURAL EXPERIENCES 3 credits

Students may travel to other countries to conduct research.

EDU 800 PRACTICUM I 3 credits

A beginning level field experience in which the scholar-practitioner demonstrates: (a) familiarity with a topical and important educational leadership issue, (b) the ability to design and implement a proposal successfully, and (c) critical thinking skills in analyzing the outcome, drawing conclusions and making recommendations to the appropriate audiences.

EDU 801 PRACTICUM II 3 credits

An advanced level field experience in which the scholar-practitioner demonstrates: (a) familiarity with a topical and important educational leadership issue, (b) the ability to design and implement a proposal successfully, and (c) critical thinking skills in analyzing the outcome, drawing conclusions and making recommendations to the appropriate audiences.

ENG 099 ENGLISH SKILLS non-credit

A three-credit course in basic writing, grammar and sentence structure as a prerequisite to ENG 101 when required. Includes writing lab requirements. This course is graded pass/fail, and course credit does not apply toward graduation requirements.

ENG 101 ENGLISH COMPOSITION I 3 credits

A course in clear, effective expression designed to develop ability in composition. Students study the essay and are trained in the use of library materials for preparing research papers. Includes writing lab requirement. This course fulfills the Gordon Rule. Students will write a minimum of 6,000 words. Students must earn a C- or higher to move on to ENG 102. Offered every semester. Prerequisite: Pass grade in ENG 099 or appropriate score on the placement test.

ENG 102 ENGLISH COMPOSITION II/WORLD LITERATURE 3 credits

A course in effective writing, emphasizing analysis of works of literature. Students study the various literary genres, reading and writing critically on a global canon. This course fulfills the Gordon Rule. Students will write a minimum of 6,000 words. Students must earn a C- or higher to enroll in upper-division English courses. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 101. Offered: Every semester.

ENG 201 STUDIES IN POETRY 3 credits

A survey of the genre, using a global canon to study the formal elements and various forms of poetry. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Fall of odd-numbered years.

ENG 202 STUDIES IN SHORT FICTION 3 credits

A survey of the genre, using a global canon to study the formal elements of the short story. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Spring of odd-numbered years.

ENG 203 STUDIES IN DRAMA 3 credits

A survey of the genre, using a global canon to study the formal elements of dramatic literature. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Spring of even-numbered years.

ENG 204 STUDIES IN THE NOVEL 3 credits

A survey of the genre, using a global canon to study the formal elements of the novel. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Fall of even-numbered years.

ENG 311 CREATIVE WRITING 3 credits

A practical course in writing poetry in fall of even-numbered years, fiction in the fall of odd-numbered years, and drama in the spring of odd-numbered years. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102.

ENG 325 SHAKESPEARE 3 credits

An intensive study of the plays and sonnets of William Shakespeare. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Spring.

ENG 330 AMERICAN LITERATURE I 3 credits

A survey of American authors from the Colonial Period, the Age of Reason and the Romantic Era. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Fall of odd-numbered years.

ENG 331 AMERICAN LITERATURE II 3 credits

A survey of American authors from the Age of Realism through the 20th century. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Spring of even-numbered years.

ENG 340 BRITISH LITERATURE I 3 credits

A survey of major British authors up to and including the Renaissance. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Fall of even-numbered years.

ENG 341 BRITISH LITERATURE II 3 credits

A survey of major British authors after the Renaissance and through the 20th Century. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Spring of odd-numbered years.

ENG 350 INTRODUCTION TO GENDER AND MULTICULTURALISM IN LITERATURE 3 credits

This course is an analysis and appreciation of writings from a variety of diverse global groups with an emphasis on the uniqueness and nuances of culture and identity, the individual and an acknowledgement and recognition of differences among these various groups. ENG 420 TOPICS IN LITERATURE 3 credits

An advanced study of selected themes, genres and authors. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Fall of even-numbered years and Spring of odd-numbered years.

ENG 470 WRITING THE MAJOR THESIS 3 credits

This is an upper-division writing workshop in which students receive instruction and feedback in writing as well as reinforcement of writing skills. Taught by an English professor, the course allows students to develop writing projects for assignments in their major program and to receive guidance on these projects from the planning stages through completion. Input from faculty members in the student's major program is encouraged. Prerequisite: C- or higher in ENG 102. Offered: Every semester.

EPA 540 TERRORISM: ITS EFFECT ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND EMERGENCY PLANNING 3 credits

This course is designed to prepare students with the necessary, basic theoretical knowledge and ability to reasonably analyze the fundamental principles involved in political terrorism. Students will examine a variety of events, ranging from low-level threats and acts of violence that may represent significant risk to human life and property, to large-scale acts of violence involving weapons of mass destruction that may have devastating, long-term effects.

EPA 620 INTERNSHIP IN EMERGENCY PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

The Internship in Emergency Planning and Administration is a practical experiential field placement in a public or private emergency administration setting. The internship combines practicum-based learning combined with applied research. Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval.

EPA 630 TECHNOLOGY IN EMERGENCY PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

This course examines the nature and extent of current and emerging technologies in the field of Emergency Planning and Administration. It analyzes technology applications and their role in emergency planning, response, recovery and mitigation. Problems and issues associated with the introduction and use of technology applications for emergency management are considered. Various information systems that support decision-making in emergency administration are examined.

EPA 640 PLANNING PROCESSES FOR EMERGENCY ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

This course will examine various planning process models and methods used within the context of emergency planning and administration. Students will analyze how the planning process enables critical thinking by professionals and alternatives available in the event of an emergency. This course also considers the dynamics of coordination and cooperation among and between agencies that is required for effective emergency planning to occur.

EPA 651 THE SOCIAL DIMENSIONS OF DISASTER 3 credits

This course involves an analysis of sociological research regarding individual, group, organizational and community responses to, and recovery from, disasters. It examines how social science research can be used as a basis for modifying public policy related to emergency planning and administration. The course considers some theoretical principles that govern the design and implementation of effective disaster warning systems, myths concerning disaster response and how people will behave, and theoretical principles most relevant to the implementation of an effective local emergency management program.

EPA 652 POLITICAL AND PUBLIC POLICY BASIS OF EMERGENCY PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

This course is an examination of the political and public policy environment in which emergency planning and administration is practiced. It examines the political dynamics of emergency management and analyzes government decision-making before, during and after disasters. Students study how political factors play a role in all phases of emergency and disaster management. Students also analyze various disaster policy studies for lessons learned.

EPA 654 LIVING IN A HAZARDOUS ENVIRONMENT 3 credits

An examination of selected natural hazards and their distribution; technical hazards and their origin and the frequency and impact of hazardous events. The course analyzes hazard perception and public response to natural hazards and technological failures, examines the consequences of hazards on society over time and assesses various mitigation strategies. Trends in hazards research are considered, and a variety of national and international issues are explored through case studies.

EPA 655 VULNERABILITY ANALYSIS AND HAZARD MITIGATION 3 credits

This course will examine hazard, risk and vulnerability analysis within the context of emergency planning and administration. The concept of hazard mitigation will be framed and analyzed as a tool to reduce vulnerability to humans and the built environment, thereby reducing potential damages from future disasters. The student will review federal, state, and local mitigation programs, and intergovernmental relationships will be explored. The role of the private sector and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) will be examined, and the economic effectiveness of vulnerability analysis will be assessed.

EPA 665 GRADUATE PROJECT IN EMERGENCY PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

The culminating graduate project represents a topic of professional interest selected by the student and approved by his or her advisor for relevance and importance in the field of emergency planning and administration. In the project, the student must reflect the integration of theory and practice and demonstrate mastery in the subject matter. Final projects are presented in a seminar.

FYE 101 THE FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE I 1 credit

Required of all first-year students enrolled at Lynn University and for transfer students with less than 30 semester credits, this course is designed to increase students' success by assisting in obtaining knowledge and skills necessary to reach their educational objectives using a holistic approach. Topics in this course include the nature of education, time management, test taking, communication skills, study techniques, university policies and procedures, resources and services, health/wellness issues, and personal issues that face many college students. A pre-orientation to the international Academic Adventure experience program will be offered. Students earn a letter grade for this course and must successfully pass to participate in Academic Adventure. This course meets two hours per week and is a core requirement.

Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval.

HS 400 LEADERSHIP BEHAVIOR 3 credits
This course is designed to provide students the opportunity to simulate the position of a human service administrator and assume the leadership of a typical agency. The content is developed around the use of simulated materials and focuses on the individual student and his/her approach to realistic problems and situations faced by a human service administrator. These responses are the basis for the student's self-examination of his/her administrative behavior and enables him/her to capitalize upon strengths and ameliorate weaknesses. Prerequisite: HS150.

HS 410 INTERVENTION STRATEGIES FOR HUMAN SERVICE PROFESSIONALS 3 credits
Service planning and evaluation, case documentation and case management skills will be emphasized, as will the role of collaboration in an interdisciplinary setting. The course also will cover basic cognitive-behavioral and affective helping strategies, crisis intervention, problem-solving techniques, and referral to community resources and other professional helpers. Prerequisites: HS 100, HS 360.

HS 420 ETHICAL AND LEGAL ISSUES IN HUMAN SERVICES 3 credits
This course will focus on a range of ethical, legal and professional issues facing the diverse disciplines of the helping professions. Designed to teach a process of ethical decision-making and to increase awareness of the complexities of helping, students will critically examine ethical dilemmas and various professional ethical codes as they learn about confidentiality, client records, legal documents, ethical standards, regulatory statutes, professional boundaries and preparation for court testimony.

HS 450 HUMAN SERVICES INTERNSHIP I 6 credits

Students will spend 20 hours per week in an internship situation within a human service organization. This internship will be offered concurrently with weekly seminar sessions. Seminar sessions allow students to discuss their experiences, and will supplement the fieldwork with practical application of current theories and research regarding the settings in which students will be placed for their internship hours. Students must provide their own transportation to the off-campus internship location. Prerequisite: HS 350.

HS 475 HUMAN SERVICES SENIOR INTERNSHIP 6 credits

Students will spend a minimum of 20 hours per week in an internship within a human service organization or setting that is consistent with the student's minor. Students are required to attend weekly seminars and to complete a senior paper that will include a description and in-depth study of the student's internship setting. Students must provide their own transportation to the off-campus internship location. Prerequisite: HS 450.

HS 482 HUMAN SERVICES SENIOR SEMINAR 3 credits

This seminar will offer a study of selected issues and specialized topics in the field of human services and/or hospitality. Designed for seniors, the seminar will help prepare students for entrance level employment positions. Interviewing techniques will be explored, and a written resume and work portfolio will be designed by each student. Prerequisite: Senior standing.

HUM 101 ART APPRECIATION 3 credits

This course will concentrate on specific works of art which are expressions of the cultural values held by people from nations around the world. While the focus of the course is on artistic monuments and works, they cannot be thoroughly comprehended without including material about the historical events, philosophy and intellectual ideas that inspired these works. The goal of this course is to enable students to increase their awareness through the study of art of the rich and vast numbers of cultures that have and currently make up our global world. It also will show how these cultures have interacted and contributed to the development of human civilization.

HUM 102 MUSIC APPRECIATION 3 credits

A consideration of the principal musical forms against the background of other arts: symphony, musical drama, jazz, folk music and experimental forms.

HUM 104 DANCE APPRECIATION 3 credits

This is a performance course that also introduces students to the study of dance techniques, criticism and appreciation. Students explore classical and contemporary dance vocabulary.

HUM 107 WORLD PHILOSOPHY 3 credits

This course introduces students to philosophical thinking by exposing them to the basic human questions that characterize the philosophy of all cultures. Emphasizing the relevance of philosophy to everyday life in many non-Western societies, we will read works of Buddhist, Taoist, African, Latin American, and Middle Eastern origin, and consider a variety of perspectives, including the voices of women, indigenous people, and philosophical fiction. Works will be placed in historical, cultural, and geographic context to reveal how much of what we know about these cultures is governed by stereotypes and misleading distortions. Classic themes of the Western philosophical tradition will be addressed, while stressing the universality of the search for meaning in life that drives all philosophical reflection.

HUM 201 LOGIC 3 credits

An elementary course in the principles and problems of critical thinking. The relation between language and reasoning, different uses of language, and problems of meaning are emphasized. Formal principles of deductive and inductive reasoning are studied and applied.

HUM 203 EARLY ART HISTORY 3 credits

From prehistoric art through the art of the Gothic period. Prerequisite: HUM 101.

HUM 204 RENAISSANCE TO MODERN ART HISTORY 3 credits

From the Renaissance through the Age of Impressionism. Prerequisite: HUM 100 or 101.

HUM 221 INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY 3 credits

In the spirit of William James' belief that philosophy "is not a technical matter, but our more or less dumb sense of what life honestly and deeply means," this course introduces students to the practice of philosophy as a way of life, rather than a field of abstract reflection accessible only to experts. We will read diverse works by both the classical greats and contemporary thinkers as we reflect upon issues of truth, knowledge, reality, ethics, selfhood, religion, and politics, and their bearing on our individual lives.

HUM 230 WORLD RELIGIONS 3 credits

A comparative study of the great religious traditions of the world which seeks to understand their place in history and their impact on the world today. Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity, Islam, Taoism, Native American, and African traditions will be discussed. The course will approach these traditions as living. It will invite students to enter into dialogue with them, observe them in their unique cultural contexts, and ultimately to learn how they enrich and challenge our lives.

HUM 240 PHILOSOPHY AND CONTEMPORARY CULTURE 3 credits

This course is designed to teach students that there is more to philosophy than the study of dusty, old philosophical texts. Philosophy is about life - about living an examined life and adopting a critical, reflective stance toward one's social and cultural environment. Rather than simply learn about philosophy and philosophers, in this class students will learn to think philosophically themselves by reflecting on the ideas that exist within familiar forms of contemporary culture, including films, television, music, art and politics. We will read contemporary thinkers writing about the philosophy behind recent films, rap music and hip-hop culture, MTV and the cult of personality, pop art and the leveling of the divide between mass culture and avant-garde art, and the role of today's youth in politics. After reading contemporary articles on each of these topics, students will view or listen to the films or music or art and undertake reflections of their own.

HUM 300 GREAT ISSUES 3 credits

This course is an in-depth exploration of the issues and ideas contemplated by human beings throughout the ages. Through careful reading of thinkers who have left a lasting impression on our culture from a variety of disciplines, including philosophy, literature, political theory, psychology, and economics, we will read, reflect on and discuss questions of justice, our relation to government, wealth and poverty, and the nature of mind. Inquiring into issues of faith, morals, liberty, equality, feminism and culture, we will work to generate insights into the fundamental issues of human existence, as well as our own lives. Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing.

HUM 301 CREATIVE THINKING 3 credits

This course examines the nature of human creativity. Through readings of creative thinkers from diverse fields such as mathematics, music, science, poetry and art reflecting on their own creativity, we will study what makes creative individuals creative. Their insights into the process of creative thinking will provide a window into students' own minds, as we reflect on such issues as the nature of the creative process, where ideas come from, the role of dreams and the unconscious in creativity, the relation of creative individuals to society, and the idea of personal identity and style. Prerequisite: Junior or Senior standing.

HUM 302 ETHICS 3 credits

This course approaches the study of ethics from a philosophical perspective. After examining the four major philosophical schools of ethical thought - virtue ethics, deontological ethics, utilitarianism, and rights-based ethics - we will turn to a number of contemporary ethical debates, including abortion, capital punishment, pornography and drugs, affirmative action, animal rights, and war and terrorism to analyze and discuss the various arguments from a philosophical point of view.

HUM 315 MODERN ART HISTORY: POST-IMPRESSIONISM TO 1945 3 credits
From the post-impressionists to the abstract expressionists. Prerequisite: HUM 100 or HUM 101.

HUM 320 THE CLASSICS 3 credits
This course introduces students to the classics of ancient Greece and Rome. Through study of the great works produced by these civilizations, students will gain insight into their own society, as well as into the forces that have shaped the modern world. From the Greeks, readings will include the Homeric epic poems, the tragedies of Sophocles, Aeschylus, and Euripides, a selection of Plato's "Dialogues," and Aristophanes' "Clouds." From the Romans, Cicero, Virgil, Ovid, and Seneca. Prerequisite: HUM 105, HUM 221 or Junior or senior standing.

HUM 330 PHILOSOPHY AND FILM 3 credits
This interdisciplinary course takes a novel approach to the study of philosophy. Using the medium of contemporary cinema as a window into the philosophical tradition, this course examines the idea of film as a mode of philosophical expression. Recent and past films will be studied from a philosophical perspective by pairing them with the key philosophical ideas of which they are an expression. Students will contemplate the ideas of Plato and Descartes that animate "The Matrix," ponder "Groundhog Day" as a meditation on Nietzsche's doctrine of eternal recurrence, and consider "The Lord of the Flies" as a depiction of the brutal reality of a Hobbesian state of nature, among many others. Classic philosophical themes about the nature of reality, the boundaries of human identity, the fragility of the self, and timeless issues of ethics will be pursued through films such as "The Truman Show," "Blade Runner," "Total Recall," "Crimes and Misdemeanors," and "The Unbearable Lightness of Being." Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing.

HUM 350 AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY 3 credits
This course explores the tradition of ideas in America. The focal point of the course will be America's most distinctive contribution to the tradition of philosophy, the philosophy of pragmatism. Yet America's attempt to express itself philosophically assumed many forms. Our sources will be varied as we trace the development of common themes in the early religious thought of the Puritans, the American Enlightenment and the philosophy of the founding, Transcendentalism and the rise of democratic individuality, the abolitionist movement and women's rights, and pragmatism itself. Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing.

HUM 390 LIBERAL ARTS INTERNSHIP 3-6 credits
Opportunity for Liberal Arts majors to gain on-the-job experience through an internship placement. Prerequisite: Advisor/dean permission.

HUM 399 COMMUNITY AWARENESS 1-3 credits
An integral part of a liberal arts education is to engender a sense of responsibility. It is the purpose of this course to create such an opportunity through a pre-approved community service project. Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing.

HUM 410 GREAT BOOKS 3 credits
A study of some of the seminal works of literature both fiction and nonfiction from writers around the world. The course explores their significance, depth and the degree to which they provide the challenge to reflect upon human experience. Prerequisite: HUM 100 or junior or senior standing.

HUM 411 ART HISTORY: 1945 TO THE PRESENT 3 credits
From the development of Abstract Expressionism through Postmodernism. Prerequisite: HUM 203 or 204.

HUM 490 LIBERAL ARTS SEMINAR 3 credits
A capstone senior course.

HUM 495, 496, 497 INTERNATIONAL STUDIES IN ART AND HUMANITIES 3-9 credits

International studies abroad in languages, arts, and cultures of foreign nations and societies, stressing the unique experience of study in a foreign country and direct experience of another culture. Prerequisite: Permission of advisor/dean.

INB 391 COMPARATIVE ECONOMIC SYSTEMS 3 credits
This course provides an overview of the opportunities and challenges relevant to the conduct of business in dissimilar economic systems. Students will compare international business as it is characteristically affected by differing national economic and political philosophies, patterns or government-business relationships, and strategies for economic development. Prerequisites: BUS 171, BUS 210 and INB 390.

INB 393 INTERNATIONAL MONETARY RELATIONS 3 credits
This course is designed to expose the student to the workings of the international financial management environment, foreign exchange risk management, multinational working capital management and financing of foreign operations. Prerequisites: INB 390 and BUS 311 or permission of instructor. Offered: Fall.

INB 491 MULTINATIONAL CORPORATION - EVOLUTION AND CURRENT ISSUES 3 credits
Students will analyze the effects of currently emerging issues on developing or defending competitive international business performance. Through the integrative exercise of theory, concepts and tools acquired in their prior courses, students will demonstrate their ability to apply that broad foundation of knowledge to the formulation of strategies and tactics specific to the changing scenarios characteristic of the constantly fluid international business environment. Prerequisite: INB 390 or permission of instructor. Offered: Spring.

INB 492 LEGAL ASPECTS OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS 3 credits
A survey of international laws, regulations and codes, as well as international institutions responsible for regulating intercourse among nations. Historical foundations will be presented along with contemporary issues and dilemmas that face the "Global Village." Prerequisite: BUS 312, BUS 313 and INB 390. Offered: Spring.

INB 495 INTERNATIONAL STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM 6 credits
A four- to five-month internship in the student's area of study will be conducted through a partner university or college. The Study Abroad Program will offer language and other appropriate area study courses, along with living accommodations, and where possible, work assignments in local community businesses. The Study Abroad Program is mentored by a business faculty member. This experience provides the opportunity for the student to live and develop socially and academically in another country. Participation in the Study Abroad Program requires that a sufficient number of concentration courses and other language requirements be met to the satisfaction of the College of Business and Management.

INB 496 INTERNATIONAL STUDY ABROAD IN BUSINESS 3-9 credits
International studies abroad in business stresses the unique experience of study in foreign countries and direct contact with other cultures. Students will acquire knowledge in various facets of international business in the context of environmental forces, such as social, political and economic. Studies abroad in business may accumulate up to nine credits, depending on the nature and scope of the project, with 15 contact hours of instruction necessary for each hour of credit earned. Students considering enrollment in international studies in business should plan with their advisor how such credits earned are to be applied before registration. Prerequisite: Permission of advisor or dean.

INT 390 INTERNATIONAL INTERNSHIP 3-6 credits
Opportunity for students participating in Lynn University's International Internship Program to gain on-the-job experience through an internship placement. Prerequisite: Advisor or dean permission.

IRPS 100* INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE 1 credit
This course is an international or cross-cultural experience aimed at stimulating and expanding students' perspectives in global education. It is a requirement that must be satisfied during the freshman year. It will encourage students to experience, first-hand, new international or cross-cultural learning adventures in a variety of settings. Academic credit for the course will be based on participation and a final examination project. A first-year student who does not successfully complete FYE 101 with a D grade or better and/or is placed on disciplinary probation forfeits the right to attend the Academic Adventure. Failure to fulfill the requirement of the Academic Adventure may result in an additional fee.

IRPS 100 INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE 1 credit
This course is an international or cross-cultural experience aimed at stimulating and expanding students' perspectives in global education. It is a requirement that must be satisfied during the freshman year. It will encourage students to experience, first-hand, new international or cross-cultural learning adventures in a variety of settings. Academic credit for the course will be based on participation and a final examination project. A first-year student who does not successfully complete FYE 101 with a D grade or better and/or is placed on disciplinary probation forfeits the right to attend the Academic Adventure. Failure to fulfill the requirement of the Academic Adventure may result in an additional fee.

IRPS 101 INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE ALTERNATIVE 1 credit
Staffed by various faculty, this course focuses on international and/or multicultural dynamics of human communities. It is an online course substitution, incorporating a variety of assignments and activities for those students who did not successfully complete IRPS100. Reasons may include receiving an F, disciplinary probation or administrative permission to be excused.

IRPS 150 INTRODUCTION TO INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS 3 credits
Introduction to International Relations stresses the dynamics of politics - who gets what - in a global context. Featuring the participants and relationships that characterize those dynamics, this course explores the conceptual and practical aspects of "traditional" international relations - for example: power, sovereignty, interdependence, armed conflict, the UN and other intergovernmental organizations. In addition, more marginalized but nonetheless salient concerns - globalization, human rights and the environment, among others - are covered in a global as well as comparative context in order to investigate current and future global political challenges.

IRPS 220 GLOBAL HUMAN RIGHTS 3 credits
Global Human Rights focuses on the political aspects of human rights in a number of contexts: theoretical/philosophical, legal and public policy. Various geographic regions are studied to highlight specific cases of human rights protection and violations. Both Western and non-Western perceptions of human rights form the context for exploring topics pertaining to natural rights, economic/social/cultural rights, civil/political rights, individual and collective rights and the debate between cultural relativism and universal human rights. This course also surveys, through the use of documentaries and movies, some of the most critical and controversial human rights (e.g. self-determination, genocide/ethnocide, women's and children's rights and labor rights) and the relevant mechanisms and institutions for the successful implementation of human rights norms, standards and practices. Prerequisite: IRPS 150.

IRPS 225 UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT 3 credits
An examination of the U.S. Constitution, foundations of political power, national parties, the executive, legislative and judicial functions, and the impact of government policies on national and international issues. Crosslisted with HIS 255.

IRPS 250 CONTEMPORARY GEOPOLITICAL AFFAIRS 3 credits
Contemporary Geopolitical Affairs introduces students to the interplay of geography with political and cultural dynamics. With an emphasis on current events, the course explores various issues relevant for each of the diverse regions and subregions of the world. Several related topics are considered, for example: the degree of unity or fragmentation within the region/subregion, the role of religion, economic dynamics and the nature of regional changes. The format of the course includes lectures, class discussions, interactive exercises and videos.

IRPS 305 INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION(S) 3 credits
The International Organization(s) course begins with a consideration of fundamental issues of global governance by exploring the ways in which the participants in global affairs organize themselves. Discussed are the three primary types of international organizations - intergovernmental, nongovernmental and transnational - and regimes. Questions pertaining to their structures, functions, activities and relevance for global affairs are considered. Of particular interest are the relationships between political/security, economic and social/humanitarian organizations; between global and regional organizations and, finally, between single and multipurpose organizations. Course goals encompass skill set development including writing/editing, reading comprehension/interpretation and critical thinking/analysis. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or IRPS 250.

IRPS 310 INTERNATIONAL LAW 3 credits
This course explores the historical roots of international law, its various theoretical foundations and sources. Specific areas of law to be studied include human rights, law of the sea, environmental law, the use of force/warfare and international criminal law. Defining the legal concepts of sovereignty, intervention, jurisdiction, recognition and territoriality (among others) permits a thorough consideration of their theoretical and practical implications. An International Court of Justice simulation exercise provides the opportunity for students to "practice" international law. Course goals encompass skill set development including writing/editing, reading comprehension/interpretation, critical thinking/analysis and oral presentation. Prerequisite: IRPS 150.

IRPS 315 AFRICAN HISTORY AND POLITICS 3 credits
This course is a survey of the events and processes leading to the colonization of Africa and subsequent changes in African societies under colonial rule and independence. African History and Politics focuses on African responses to the challenges and opportunities of the 20th and 21st centuries. In addition, due consideration is given to African initiatives and voices in rapidly changing political, economic, social and ideological environs. In particular, African contributions to decolonization and the problems of independence in an interdependent world are explored in the context of contemporary political dynamics. Themes include democratization, governance, development and regional cooperation. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or 250.

IRPS 320 LATIN AMERICAN POLITICS AND HISTORY 3 credits
Latin American History and Politics begins with an overview of the historical characteristics of the Caribbean, Central and South American regions. The course then examines political stability, democratization, development policies and the impact of civil-military relations. Consideration is given to the role of international organizations, regionalism and economic integration. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or 250. Cross-listed with HIS 320.

IRPS 325 INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMACY 3 credits
The evolution of modern diplomacy over the last two centuries will be examined. Changes in strategies, techniques and distinctions in diplomatic goals will be analyzed, particularly in terms of cultural, historical and national contexts. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 and 250.

IRPS 330 POLITICS OF DEVELOPMENT 3 credits

This course examines divergent explanations for development and underdevelopment. Emphasized are the concepts and theories that highlight the political process and political actors involved in the politics of development. Attention is given to the role of international political and economic organizations in the development process. Where appropriate, country studies are examined to illustrate theoretical dimensions. Prerequisites: IRPS 150 and IRPS 250.

IRPS 335 MIDDLE EAST HISTORY AND POLITICS 3 credits

This course surveys the political, historical and cultural dynamics of the Middle East primarily since the 1920s. Particular attention is given to the topics of armed conflict, political stability, governance, regionalism and current interstate relations. Topics addressed include the impact of personal leadership styles, the Israeli - Palestinian conflict and natural resource dilemmas relevant to regional affairs. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or 250.

IRPS 340 EUROPEAN POLITICS AND HISTORY 3 credits

Beginning with a survey of the principal historical dynamics of Europe, this course introduces students to the political, social, economic and cultural attributes of the continent. Topics covered include the impact of the WWI, WWII and the Cold War, regional economic and political integration, immigration and conflict resolution. The area from Iceland to Turkey and Portugal to the Russian Federation provides the geographic scope of the course. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or 250.

IRPS 350 COMPARATIVE POLITICS 3 credits

By taking a regional approach that highlights cultural, historical, economic and political features common to all or most of the states within a given geographic area, this course helps students acquire a theoretical and analytical structure in which to approach the study of comparative governments. The course provides the basis for comparison between and among states, and across regional boundaries. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or IRPS 250.

IRPS 360 POLITICS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES 3 credits

The Politics of Indigenous Peoples course concentrates on the interactions between indigenous and non-indigenous participants in global relations. Grounded in international/global relations theories, the course's underlying premise is that aboriginal/indigenous peoples are distinct communities which exercise some form of self-determination, sovereignty or autonomy. While referencing historical events, this course focuses on contemporary indigenous peoples' political activity primarily in regional and global contexts. Considerable attention is given to the mechanisms through which indigenous peoples pursue their physical and cultural survival, including their discourses with states, the United Nations, regional organizations such as the European Union and non-governmental organizations. Course goals encompass skill set development including writing/editing, reading comprehension/interpretation, critical thinking/analysis and problem-solving. Prerequisites: IRPS 150 and 250.

IRPS 365 INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE IN THE MAJOR 3 credits

This international study abroad opportunity is typically one week in length and hosted by the college in which the student is majoring.

IRPS 365I ALTERNATIVE FOR INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE IN THE MAJOR 3 credits

Staffed by various faculty, this course focuses on a variety of topics relevant to the student's major in an international and/or multicultural context. It is an online course substitution incorporating a variety of assignments and activities and supported by the college in which the student is majoring. Eligible students are those who cannot participate in a study tour. Prerequisite: Permission of the dean.

IRPS 375 WOMEN AND POLITICS 3 credits

In exploring what constitutes political participation and activity, Women and Politics begins with a brief examination of feminist theories, feminisms and their current applications in Western and non-Western societies. This is followed by a consideration of women and politics in three areas - grassroots, international/global arenas and national leadership - and the impact of women's activities on men and women in these contexts. Motivating factors such as development, security, armed conflict and economic stability form the background for, and are explicitly probed, while examining women's political participation. The outcomes and consequences of political decision-making, methods, strategies and tactics for women are also a cornerstone of this course. Thus, women in the roles of proactive policy-makers and passive policy-recipients are considered. Course goals encompass skill set development including writing/editing, reading comprehension/interpretation, critical thinking/analysis and problem-solving. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or IRPS 250.

IRPS 380 THEORIES OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS 3 credits

This course examines a wide range of theories and perspectives which offer divergent explanations for the various situations and events in the global arena. In doing so, Theories of International Relations distinguishes between theory and ideology. Each of six theoretical perspectives - Idealism, Realism, Neo-Realism, Pluralism, Globalism and Feminism - are compared and contrasted in terms of their descriptive and prescriptive elements. Core concepts such as power, sovereignty, primary actors and interdependence form the basis of this comparison. In addition, the level of analysis relied on by each theory - individuals, sub-state units, states, regions or the world - is addressed in explaining global participants and their actions. Course goals encompass skill set development including writing/editing, reading comprehension/interpretation and critical thinking/analysis. Prerequisite: IRPS 150.

IRPS 385 GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS 3 credits

Global Environmental Politics is premised on the interconnectedness of the global physical environment and human society. The close ties between environmental quality and human well-being are a part of the political decision-making process regarding global resource distribution. This course, while referencing the scientific aspects of environmental dynamics, concentrates on how the global community might respond to urgent environmental problems in a politically, economically and culturally divided world. Issues such as deforestation, resource management, desertification, sustainable development and biodiversity are examined. The processes for conceiving, negotiating, finalizing and implementing international environmental agreements are considered. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or 250.

IRPS 395 ASIAN POLITICS AND HISTORY 3 credits

This course introduces students to the diverse histories of Asia and their impact on contemporary political, social, cultural and economic characteristics of the region. Among the subjects studied are armed conflict, consequences of development strategies, decolonization and political stability. In addition, exploring the influence of specific countries - such as Japan, China and India - on regional relations complements the thematic material. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or 250.

IRPS 403 GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS OF CHINA 3 credits

The 21st century has been designated as the "Chinese Century." Yet, even with expanded knowledge of and interaction with China, the functioning of the political system remains an enigma. This course aims to uncover the basic historical trends and cultural predispositions that will reveal how China functions, both internally and externally, as well as provide a prognosis for its future development.

IRPS 420 ORIGINS AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE EUROPEAN UNION 3 credits

This course undertakes an examination of the circumstances leading to the creation of the European Economic Community and its eventual metamorphosis into the European Union. It considers the consequences of the Cold War and the United States' decision to promote European integration. Of special interest will be British, French and German attitudes and the policies of the Benelux countries. This course also will feature an examination of Ireland's entry into the EEC in 1973 and its role since then. Prerequisite: IRPS 150 or IRPS 250.

IRPS 465 LAND-BASED INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE 4 credits

This domestic travel experience with an international focus is offered for those unable to study abroad and complete the International Experience (IRPS 100 and IRPS 365) requirement.

IRPS 465I COMBINED INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE 4 credits

An online alternative for those students unable to complete a study tour and the International Experience (IRPS 100 and IRPS 365) requirements. Prerequisite: Permission of the dean.

IRPS 470 UNITED STATES FOREIGN POLICY 3 credits

The purpose of this course is to illustrate how the United States makes its foreign policies in the post-Cold War world. The endings of the bipolar superpower confrontations between the United States and the Soviet Union, growing global interdependence, the rise of ethnic politics and other factors have produced important changes in the way U.S. foreign policy is made. This course will uncover the changing actors and issues that comprise the new context of U.S. foreign policy. Prerequisites: IRPS 225 and IRPS 250.

IRPS 471 THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY 3 credits

Discussion of presidential power and functions, relationship with Congress, political party involvement, public personality and leadership. Selected presidents are used as examples. Prerequisite: IRPS 225.

IRPS 475 CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS 3 credits

This course explores the complexities and relationships between a wide range of contemporary issues in international and global relations. Topics such as conflict resolution, human rights, terrorism, the environment and development are studied in the context of existing and recent events. Prerequisites: IRPS 150 and 250.

IRPS 483 SENIOR SEMINAR IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS 3 credits

This is a capstone course primarily for International Relations majors. It brings together various topics from students' previous course work and examines compelling issues in the discipline in a rigorous manner. Students undertake a major thesis project. Prerequisites: Senior standing and completion of 24 credit hours in International Relations courses or approval of the IR department chair.

IRPS 495 SPECIAL PROJECTS/INTERNSHIPS 3-9 credits

Offers opportunities for students to study abroad or pursue internships at other institutions in the public or private sectors. Special Projects/Internship is monitored by an International Relations faculty member or the internship director. Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval, completion of 12 credit hours in International Relations or Political Science courses and approval of the IR program coordinator. Credits earned vary according to project/internship workload and duration.

IRPS 499 WASHINGTON INTERNSHIP 12 credits

Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval.

LAN 100 & LAN 100H FRENCH I 3 credits

Beginning course in which listening, speaking, reading and writing will be introduced. Basic grammar and vocabulary. Supplemental audiovisual materials utilized.

LAN 110 & LAN 110H SPANISH I 3 credits

Beginning course in which listening, speaking, reading and writing will be introduced. Basic grammar and vocabulary. Supplemental audiovisual materials utilized.

LAN 120 & LAN 120H GERMAN I 3 credits

Beginning course in which listening, speaking, reading and writing will be introduced. Basic grammar and vocabulary. Supplemental audiovisual materials utilized.

LAN 130 & LAN 130H JAPANESE I 3 credits

Beginning course in which listening, speaking, reading and writing will be introduced. Basic grammar and vocabulary. Supplemental audiovisual materials utilized.

LAN 202 & LAN 202H FRENCH II 3 credits

LAN 212 & LAN 212H SPANISH II 3 credits

LAN 222 & LAN 222H GERMAN II 3 credits

LAN 231 & LAN 231H JAPANESE II 3 credits

LAN 303 & LAN 303H FRENCH III 3 credits

Elementary French. Continuation of French II with emphasis on conversation, reading comprehension and composition. Prerequisite: LAN 201 or placement exam.

LAN 312 & LAN 312H SPANISH III 3 credits

Elementary Spanish. Continuation of Spanish II with emphasis on conversation, reading comprehension and composition. Prerequisite: LAN 211 or placement exam.

LAN 320 & LAN 320H CUENTOS CONTEMPORARIOS (CONTEMPORARY SHORT STORIES) 3 credits

This literature course focuses on reading and analysis of Spanish and Latin American contemporary short stories. Students develop an appreciation of critical thinking skills such as analysis, judgment and knowledge of the sociocultural aspect of Spain and Latin America. Prerequisites: LAN 211 and LAN 310 or permission from instructor.

LAN 330 & LAN 330H JAPANESE III 3 credits

Elementary Japanese. Continuation of Japanese II with emphasis on conversation, reading comprehension and composition. Prerequisite: LAN 231 or placement exam.

LAN 401 & LAN 401H FRENCH IV 3 credits

Emphasis on fluency in both speaking and composition. Explores the history, geography and culture of the French-speaking countries. Business language is an integral part of this course. Prerequisite: LAN 300 or placement exam.

LAN 410 & LAN 410H SPANISH IV 3 credits

Emphasis on fluency in both speaking and composition. Explores the history, geography and culture of the Spanish speaking countries. Business language is an integral part of this course. Prerequisite: LAN 310 or placement exam.

LAN 431 & LAN 431H JAPANESE IV 3 credits

Emphasis on fluency in both speaking and composition. Explores the history, geography and culture of Japan. Business language is an integral part of this course. Prerequisite: LAN 330 or placement exam.

LDR 301 LEADERSHIP THEORY AND APPLICATION 3 credits

This course will focus on the multidisciplinary nature of leadership studies. It will enable the student to develop his/her own leadership potential through both theory and practice. Prerequisites: Minimum of a cumulative GPA of a 3.0 and a minimum of 45 credit hours.

LDR 710 LEADERSHIP THEORY AND RESEARCH 3 credits
Presents various theories of leadership that provide integrative perspectives on leadership research. The theories are put into context through case studies that examine several leaders in different fields. Ethics and morality in leadership decision-making will be examined. This course is taken within the first 0 to 18 credits of the Ph.D. Program.

LDR 711 LEADING IN A CULTURE OF CHANGE 3 credits
An examination of the skills that must be developed in order to lead effectively in a chaotic environment with rapid-paced developments in technology, sudden shifts in the marketplace and crisis and contention in the public arena.

LDR 712 MANAGING ACROSS CULTURES 3 credits
An examination of how culture can impact management practices. Case studies are used to design strategies for managing cultural differences from three perspectives: the individual manager, the multicultural team and the global organization.

LDR 713 LEADING ORGANIZATIONS IN CRISIS 3 credits
A detailed examination of the field of crisis management. This course will provide insight into how managers deal with serious incidents. Topics include the leader's learning curve in crisis management, the leader's management of communications in crisis management, and strategies for avoiding major threats to the organization's viability.

LDR 720 PROJECT MANAGEMENT 3 credits
An overview of the tools and techniques necessary to successfully manage any project. Topics include project cost management, project management leadership, project planning and control, and project risk management.

LDR 721 MANAGING INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY 3 credits
The importance of three contemporary environmental trends—globalization, time compression and technology—is examined. These three challenges define the framework for developing a process of technology change, a technology strategy and deployment of technology in the value chain.

LDR 722 ORGANIZATIONAL ETHICS AND PERFORMANCE AND BOARD RELATIONS 3 credits
An examination of the due diligence necessary to provide guidance for board members dedicated to establishing and maintaining an efficient and effective organization. Topics include developing clearly articulated missions, designing standards that are ethical and prudent, and providing the leadership that supports the fulfillment of long-term goals.

LDR 790 LEADERSHIP AND THE EXECUTION OF STRATEGIC PLANS 3 credits
This is the capstone course for the Ph.D. degree program. The various concepts and issues presented in the course work and acquired in individual research are synthesized to develop a strategic blueprint for organizational success. This course is taken after completion of 36 credits of the Ph.D. Program (preferably near the end of required course work). While independent of this course, the qualifying paper should be completed before the end of, or concurrently with, this course.

MAT 099 ELEMENTARY MATH 3 credits
This course is designed for those students who lack the necessary background to immediately address college algebra. Topics include real number systems, radicals, graphics and solving equations. This course is graded pass/fail, and credit does not apply toward graduation requirements. Offered: Fall, Spring.

MAT 105 APPLIED MATHEMATICS I* 3 credits
This broad-based, college level mathematics course emphasizes computational and mathematical skills. Topics include problem-solving, sets, logic, numeration systems, order of operations, operations with signed numbers, polynomial expressions, linear equations and inequalities in one variable. This course may serve as a prerequisite for College Algebra. Offered: Fall, Spring.

MAT 106 APPLIED MATHEMATICS II* 3 credits
A continuation of Applied Mathematics I, this course is designed to meet the needs of those students who will NOT take College Algebra or Probability and Statistics. Topics include the real number system, consumer mathematics, geometry, factoring, exponents, functions and graphs, systems of equations and inequalities, quadratic equations and inequalities in one variable, theoretical and empirical probability, counting problems, frequency distribution and measures of central tendency.

MAT 110 COLLEGE ALGEBRA 3 credits
Topics include linear and quadratic functions, polynomial functions, systems of equations and inequalities, matrices, and determinants. Prerequisite: MAT 099 or appropriate score on the placement test. Offered: Fall, Spring.

MAT 117 PRE-CALCULUS 3 credits
The course covers advanced algebra topics such as extensive analyses of different kinds of functions, equations and systems of equations. Attention is paid to problem-solving techniques and proper graphing of functions. Prerequisite: MAT 110.

MAT 204 FINITE MATHEMATICS AND GEOMETRY 3 credits
This course covers a variety of contemporary areas in mathematics specifically designed for education majors. Topics include problem-solving strategies, word problems, ratio and proportion, permutations and combinations and their use in probability and statistics, systems of measurement and conversion, topics in plane geometry, and topics in number theory. Emphasis will be placed on methods of integrating these topics into curricula at various levels in the education system. Offered: Spring. No prerequisite.

MAT 210 CALCULUS I * 3 credits
A first course in calculus covering differentiation of algebraic and trigonometric functions, logarithmic and exponential functions and applications to geometry, simple physics phenomena and business economics. Prerequisite: MAT 117.

MAT 211 CALCULUS II * 3 credits
A second course in calculus covering integration techniques, series, vectors, vector valued functions and partial derivatives. Prerequisite: MAT 210.

MAT 215 TRIGONOMETRY WITH ANALYTICAL GEOMETRY 4 credits
Topics include functions and graphs, trigonometric functions, the unit circle, graphs of trigonometric functions, analytic trigonometry, oblique triangles with popular coordinates, analytic geometry, complex numbers and vectors. Prerequisite: MAT 110. Offered: Spring of odd-numbered years.

MAT 221 PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS 3 credits
A course designed to introduce the methods of probability and statistics. Topics include laws of large numbers, discrete and continuous distributions, and sums of random variables. Math credit will not be awarded for both MAT 221 and BUS 322. Prerequisite: CMS 200 Computer Applications. Offered: Fall, Spring.

MAT 310 LINEAR ALGEBRA * 3 credits
The study of vector spaces, linear transformations, matrices, applications in analysis of systems of linear equations, and Eigenvalues and Eigenvectors. Prerequisite: MAT 110.

MAT 320 METHODS OF CALCULUS 4 credits
This introduction to the methods and applications of differentiation and integration is designed primarily for business and social science majors. Prerequisite: MAT 110. Offered: Fall, Spring.

MAT 321 STATISTICAL APPLICATIONS* 3 credits
A course designed to emphasize the applications of statistics, including discrete and continuous distributions, sums of random variables, and an introduction to basic theorems of probability and statistics. Prerequisite: MAT 221.

* Class will be offered on a needed basis.

MBA 501 MANAGERIAL WRITING AND COMMUNICATION 3 credits
A variety of classroom exercises in writing, presentations, one-on-one communication, listening and responding, and writing business proposals. Provides an opportunity to enhance persuasive managerial communication skills to succeed in business environments.

MBA 502 MANAGERIAL ECONOMICS 3 credits
Application of economic theory to the decision-making process of managers to achieve the organizational objective of maximizing the value of the enterprise. Topics include microeconomics discussions of theory of a consumer and a firm, market structures production functions, costs and revenues, profit maximization, and environmental factors.

MBA 504 SURVEY OF ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE 3 credits
An introduction to and overview of financial accounting and its role in reporting business activity. Included will be financial reporting for different forms of business organizations, users and uses of financial information, interpretation of the major financial statements and the assumptions and the principles in financial reporting.

MBA 600 LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT OF BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS 3 credits
Introduces students to leading thinkers in business today and to influential theories and approaches to contemporary business issues. Organizational styles, innovation and change, globalization and technology are among the issues analyzed to determine best practices for leaders and managers. Students will apply these ideas, theories and strategies to analysis of case studies and to examples from their own professional lives.

MBA 605 MANAGING FOR HUMAN RESOURCES 3 credits
A comprehensive study of human resource management in the corporate environment; special emphasis on topics encompassing planning, recruitment, training and development, appraising performance measures, incentive awards, employee benefits, safety and health, and creating a high-performance work environment by a team of individuals.

MBA 610 LEGAL, ETHICAL, AND SOCIAL ISSUES OF BUSINESS 3 credits
An advanced analysis of legal issues affecting organizations, this course examines common law; federal, state and local statutes; corporate structure and legal liabilities affecting organizations. Students explore the influence of regulatory issues on business decisions while considering ethical and social perspectives. Legal and moral aspects of management are analyzed and compared.

MBA 620 MARKETING MANAGEMENT IN A GLOBAL ECONOMY 3 credits
This course focuses on the major decisions that marketing managers and top management face in their efforts to mesh the objectives, core competencies and resources of an organization with the opportunities and threats in an increasingly global marketplace. Students apply marketing thinking to products and services for any profit or not-for-profit organization. Prerequisite: MBA 502.

MBA 621 INTERNATIONAL MARKETING 3 credits
An examination of how a company markets an existing product in new global markets and how a company develops a new product for a global market. This examination occurs in the framework of foreign entry, local marketing abroad, and global management. Prerequisite: MBA 620.

MBA 625 INTEGRATED MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS 3 credits
Integration of every form of communication to deliver the same powerful message. Students use a customer-focused approach that combines the full range of information tools and points of contact to build customer loyalty. They also develop strategies for the allocation of communications resources. Prerequisite: MBA 620.

MBA 628 SPECIAL TOPICS IN MARKETING 3 credits
Covers current or leading-edge topics in the marketing field. Topics may include brand asset management, new product development, marketing research, advertising management, business-to-business marketing or multicultural marketing. Prerequisite: MBA 620.

MBA 630 MANAGING TECHNOLOGY FOR BUSINESS TRANSFORMATION 3 credits
An examination of key management challenges in building and using information systems, including understanding system requirements for the environment in which the organization operates; creating an information architecture to support organizational goals; and designing systems that managers can control and understand in a socially and ethically responsible manner.

MBA 631 MANAGERIAL ELECTRONIC COMMERCE 3 credits
Managerial Electronic Commerce focuses on the managerial issues associated with e-commerce solutions. It is designed to teach students the basics of conducting business online. The course covers the various Internet business models, business strategies for e-commerce, categories of e-commerce and infrastructure. Students also will review the legal issues surrounding this new medium and the security protection offered for Web-based businesses and their customers. Prerequisite: MBA 630.

MBA 635 ELECTRONIC COMMERCE TECHNOLOGY 3 credits
The course focuses on the technological issues associated with implementation of an e-commerce solution. It provides an overview of the various strategies and solutions available for building an e-commerce site so that students can select the best possible methods for unique organizational needs. The technologies of e-commerce including electronic commerce software, electronic commerce security and electronic payments system will be covered. Throughout this course, students will create a Web site based on the its design plans and goals, audience, content and hardware and software requirements. Prerequisite: MBA 631.

MBA 636 DATA MINING, WAREHOUSING AND KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT 3 credits
This course is an in-depth examination of the concepts of data warehousing and data mining. Both approaches are used to integrate and analyze enterprise-wide databases to support decision-making for business advantage. Other issues related to Web mining, search engine architecture, security and privacy will be covered. Applications of knowledge-based decision support such as intelligent software agents, expert systems and neural computing also will be discussed. Prerequisite: MBA 630.

MBA 640 MANAGING FOR FINANCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY 3 credits
Accounting as a managerial tool for business strategy and implementation. Key topics include customer satisfaction, total value-chain analysis, continuous improvement and planning and control techniques linked to key success factors. Prerequisite: MBA 504.

MBA 645 MANAGING FOR FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE 3 credits
An analysis and comparison of the various techniques that aid in the decision-making process. Major themes stressed include shareholder wealth maximization, cash flow management, the international aspects of financial management and the standards of ethical behavior adopted by managers. Prerequisite: MBA 504.

MBA 646 MEASURING AND MANAGING VALUE 3 credits
Application of financial theory and models to valuing companies and investment projects. Topics include valuation techniques, forecasting and analysis of financial statements, estimation of incremental cash flows, determination of cost of capital, valuation of projects and companies, and valuation for mergers and acquisitions. Valuation techniques taught in this course include: Capital Asset Pricing Model (VAPM), Arbitrage Pricing Theory (APT), equity valuation models, discounted cash flow models, financial ration models. Also covered are strategies for WACC determination and global risk determination (Beta).

MBA 647 PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT AND ANALYSIS 3 credits

This course acquaints students with modern practices of valuing financial securities and managing investment portfolios. Topics include: securities and capital markets, portfolio optimization methods, asset management and allocation strategies for institutional and individual investors, domestic and international portfolio management, risk management and performance measurement techniques, and efficient market equity valuations.

MBA 648 PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce students to the concepts, strategies, and tactical efforts managers and executives need to successfully plan and execute global development efforts. Topics covered in this course include a thorough review of the various corporate development strategies available to companies wanting to reevaluate, expand or restructure their operations. Among the specific areas covered are: Greenfield expansion, strategic alliances, joint ventures, acquisitions, IPOs and divestitures. The effects of complex international and domestic economic and political forces on all development projects are emphasized.

MBA 650 OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT 3 credits

A comprehensive analysis and comparison of the various techniques that can increase productivity for manufacturing and service operations. Provides an opportunity to assess the methods used in striving for long-term strength and growth in economic enterprises. Prerequisite: EDU 602.

MBA 660 INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STUDIES ABROAD 3 credits

International studies abroad in business stresses the unique experience of study in foreign countries and direct contact with other cultures. Students will acquire knowledge in various facets of international business in the context of social, political and economic environmental forces. Studies abroad may be substituted in the MBA program curriculum for one course. Program coordinator approval is required for the substitution.

MBA 661 INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND INVESTMENT 3 credits

This analysis of international trade and investment from the perspective of globalization focuses on the traditional theories of trade and investment. The normative aspects of international economics and commerce and the latest development and integration of the world economy will be discussed. Prerequisite: MBA 502.

MBA 665 INTERNATIONAL FINANCE 3 credits

Overview of the tools (e.g. hedging, swaps, counter trade) and methods financial managers use to solve financial problems that emanate from fluctuating currency exchange rates, currency exchange controls, tariffs, taxes, inflation and accounting practices.

MBA 668 SPECIAL TOPICS IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS 3 credits

Lectures and seminars on advanced selected topics in international business such as international marketing, international management, comparative economic systems and international law.

MBA 671 AVIATION ORGANIZATION OPERATION 3 credits

An examination of organizational systems and management in the aviation industry. The emphasis is on development and integration of effective work elements, as well as the varying personnel concerns that must be resolved for successful leadership in the aviation industry. Topics provide insights into behavior, structure, authority, motivation, leadership, organizational development and social responsibility. Student gain an appreciation of the principles, research and applications of organizational theory to the aviation industry.

MBA 675 AIRPORT OPERATIONS 3 credits

Focuses on preparation for the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE) Certified Member designation. It is a study of management and regulatory issues relevant to airport management enabling the student to perform as a leader in the airport and aviation environment. These studies will encompass all aspects of airport and airway management. This course will lead to successful completion of the AAAE Certified Member designation examination and result in one of the most prestigious distinctions in the airport industry.

MBA 678 SPECIAL TOPICS IN AVIATION MANAGEMENT 3 credits

Lectures and seminars on advanced selected topics in Aviation Management such as airport security, effects of terrorism on aviation, effects of increased special use airspace on the national airway system and advances in air traffic control. The class also will introduce the student to the impact of other real-world issues as they occur during the semester.

MBA 690 STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT SEMINAR 3 credits

This capstone seminar for the MBA program requires that students demonstrate their ability to integrate and apply theory to practice in case studies and experiential exercises that require the mastery of strategic thinking. NOTE: Must be completed in the last term, or, with advisor's approval, may be completed in the next-to-last term of study.

MBA 697 INDEPENDENT STUDY 1-3 credits

Opportunities to explore both career directions and areas of individual interest.

MBA 698 BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION INTERNSHIP 1-2 credits

This supervised internship with a for-profit or not-for-profit business is designed for those who do not have business experience. Students must maintain a written log and submit reports and evaluations to the field supervisor. An internship project on a related topic is required in order to demonstrate integration of theory with application in business administration. The project is submitted to the faculty advisor. Students also are required to meet regularly with the field supervisor and the faculty advisor.

MKT 250 PRINCIPLES OF MARKETING 3 credits

Introduces the student to a broad functional understanding of marketing. Topics include buyer behavior, product planning, channels of distribution, price policies and promotional activities. Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 260 RETAILING 3 credits

Examination of the organization and operation of retail establishments. Emphasis is placed on markup, pricing, stock turn, sales and stock planning, and the selling of services and goods. Prerequisite: MKT 250.

MKT 305 CONSUMER AND ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR 3 credits

A study of the consumer decision process. The course focuses on consumer branding, the product adoption process, the impact of current issues (leisure time, working women, and the elderly) and the development of marketing strategies to encourage a positive consumer response. Prerequisite: MKT 250. Offered: Fall.

MKT 321 PROFESSIONAL SELLING AND SALES MANAGEMENT 3 credits

An integrative course that introduces the professional sales process with an emphasis on selling skills and technique, and then focuses on the management of the sales team. Topics such as forecasting, relationship management, territory design and professional presentation development and delivery are components of this course. Prerequisite: MKT 250. Offered: Spring.

MKT 325 FASHION ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION 3 credits

Advertising, visual display and marketing methodology are utilized in establishing a sales promotion plan. Shows and special events used to promote fashion products are incorporated in student projects. Prerequisites: BUS 240 and MKT 250.

MKT 350 INTEGRATED AND ELECTRONIC MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS3 credits

An overview of the promotional aspect of the marketing mix, including sales promotion and public relations. Emphasized are the interactions of these areas in advertising strategy planning. Also examined are the influence of advertising and its responsibilities to society. Course project required involving research, analysis and presentation. Prerequisite: MKT 250. Offered: Fall.

MKT 370 MARKETING - SPECIAL TOPICS3 credits

This course explores different areas of marketing. Topics may include specific industries, telemarketing, relationship marketing, direct marketing and marketing on the Internet. Can be repeated for credit as topics change. Prerequisite: MKT 250.

MKT 392 GLOBAL MARKETING3 credits

A study of marketing management activities from the perspective of firms doing business across national boundaries. Emphasis is upon aspects of marketing that are unique to international business and problem-solving within an international context. Course components include a theoretical analysis of the causes of international trade including comparative advantage, Heckcher-Ohlin theory and more recent theories. Other topics include international trade policy, economic integration, trade problems of developing countries and the role of multinational corporations in world trade. Prerequisites: MKT 250 and INB 390. Offered: Spring.

MKT 430 MARKETING RESEARCH3 credits

Introduction to the techniques and tools of market research as an aid to decision-making. Topics include problem definition, research methods, research project design and results interpretation. Prerequisites: MKT 250 and BUS 322. Offered: Spring.

MS 500 MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION3 credits

This course is designed to equip students with the necessary, basic theoretical knowledge, analytical skills and "best practices" within the field of contemporary public management and administration. By reviewing both the past and present, the course will adopt a future orientation in the examination of the factors, perspectives and theories that influence the understanding of public sector management and administration.

MS 505 APPLIED RESEARCH METHODS3 credits

An overview of the methods of inquiry within the framework of applied management theories. Includes a critique of assessment issues in experimental, quantitative-descriptive and exploratory studies. Students design a research project and draft a research proposal that will be utilized in their culminating graduate project in Emergency Planning and Administration (EPA 665).

MS 510 ADMINISTRATIVE AND REGULATORY LAW3 credits

This course is designed to prepare students with the necessary, basic theoretical knowledge, and analysis of reasonable principles of organizational justice. Students will examine charters, statutes, executive orders, regulations, ordinances and codes. By examining the American regulatory process through federal, state and local regulations and administrative law, the student will be able to shape substantive and procedural issues constructively for the long-term civic good in the face of complexity and paradox.

MS 530 PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, PUBLIC POLICY AND DEMOCRACY3 credits

This course is designed to prepare students with the necessary, basic theoretical knowledge and analytical skills related to the study of public policy formulation within a democratic institutional context. By examining American politics, the course will assimilate the theories and practices that influence the understanding of public policy in the free and democratic society that we call the United States of America.

MS 560 FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT3 credits

An examination of the financial management techniques utilized by public agencies. This course considers the fundamental principles of fiscal administration, budgeting, revenue, debt administration and fund management. Students use case studies to analyze how public agencies are impacted by both revenue enhancements and shortfalls. Students also learn the fundamentals of working through the budgetary process.

MUG 280 MUSIC ENTREPRENEURSHIP3 credits

This course helps the Conservatory of Music student define individual career objectives and develop the skills required to achieve these goals. Guest speakers from the faculty and the musical community visit the seminar throughout the semester. Prerequisite: Two semesters of MUS 301. Offered: Fall 2006 and every other fall.

MUG 301 BASIC CONDUCTING3 credits

Students will cover the basic materials of conducting technique as expressed through beat patterns and explore the physical language of conducting as an expressive and illustrative medium. Students will acquire elemental score study skills through the study of selected masterworks and regularly conduct a small class ensemble. Prerequisites: MUT 151, MUT 201 and MUT 155. Offered: Spring.

MUG 310 DIRECTED STUDY2 credits

An advanced course of individually directed study with a focus on either Music Theory or Music History topics. Does not fulfill the Music History or Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor and approval of the dean.

MUG 329 PEDAGOGY3 Credits

This course serves an introduction to the world of teaching. It addresses the musical, technical, theoretical and practical concerns of the pedagogue. Students will develop teaching skills in the basic elements of music, as well as a broad array of instrumental techniques. Assignments include readings, sight-reading, teaching repertoire, short papers, practice and examinations. Prerequisite: Conservatory students only.

MUG 390 MUSIC INTERNSHIP1-3 credits

Opportunity for music students to gain on-the-job performance or teaching experience through an internship placement. Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval.

MUG 529 SEMINAR IN MUSIC EDUCATION3 credits

This course studies the curricular and extracurricular role of music in education. It provides a review of methodologies, a survey of teaching techniques, and an approach that encourages interdisciplinary thinking. The course will be team-taught by Conservatory of Music and College of Education faculty. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Spring 2007 and every other spring.

MUG 580 MUSIC ENTERPRENEURSHIP3 credits

This course helps the conservatory student define individual career objectives and develop the skills required to achieve these goals. Guest speakers from the faculty and the musical community visit the seminar throughout the semester. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall 2006 and every other fall.

MUH 261 MUSIC HISTORY I: THE MEDIEVAL, RENAISSANCE AND BAROQUE PERIODS3 credits

This course traces the stylistic history of Western art music from antiquity through the Baroque era. The course presents an overview of the early history of Western art music, provides the foundation for further study of music history and literature, and encourages the incorporation of historical perspective in interpretation and performance. Offered: Fall. Prerequisite: Conservatory students or permission of instructor.

MUH 360 MUSIC HISTORY II: THE CLASSICAL AND ROMANTIC PERIODS3 credits

This course serves as a continuation of the historical study of Western art music. Commencing with the pre-Classical age, the course will traverse the 18th and 19th centuries, concluding with the contributions of Claude Debussy. Focusing upon the needs and supporting aspirations of the performing musicians, the course continually emphasizes the study of music literature through extensive analytical listening, score study and in-class performances. Prerequisite: MUH 261. Offered: Spring.

MUH 361 MUSIC HISTORY III: TWENTIETH CENTURY MUSIC3 credits

The objective of this course is to familiarize students with the styles that have emerged in the music of the 20th century. The course will largely concentrate on the main composers of the century and their works. Lecture material also will include some discussion of sociopolitical/economic factors and developments in other art forms to provide a background for the intellectual climate of the period. Weekly listening and reading assignments will be made throughout the course. Prerequisite: MUH 360. Offered: Fall.

MUH 362 HISTORY OF CHAMBER MUSIC3 credits

This course traces the evolution of the forms of chamber music and seeks to discover how and why this evolution came about. Through a large dose of listening, discussion and comparison of standard works, students will examine the complete history of chamber music. Regular listening and reading assignments will be made throughout the course. A term paper and in-class report are required. This course fulfills the Music History elective. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Spring 2008 and every third spring thereafter.

MUH 363 HISTORY AND LITERATURE OF THE SYMPHONY3 credits

Students will listen to and discuss the development of the symphony orchestra as a medium and as an art form. Masterpieces of the major symphonists will be studied in detail, with special emphasis on their significance in the evolution of musical style. Regular listening and reading assignments will be made throughout the course. A term paper and in-class report are required. This course fulfills the Music History elective. Prerequisite: MUH 261 or permission of instructor. Offered spring 2006 and every third spring thereafter.

MUH 365 ART MUSIC OF THE AMERICAS3 credits

This course is designed to introduce the student to art music from Latin America, the United States, Canada and the Caribbean. Certain vernacular musical traditions will be included because of their significant role in the development of art music on the American continents. This course will encourage the investigation of music literature that may be unfamiliar or uncommon and focus upon the musical achievements in the Americas. Composers included in the course are Villa-Lobos, Ginastera, Chavez, Champagne, R. Murray Schafer, Sousa, Griffes, Ives, Copland, Cage, Cowell, Armstrong and Ellington, among others. Fulfills the Music History elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall 2005 and every third fall thereafter.

MUH 366 CHORAL REPERTOIRE AND ART SONG3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to choral repertoire and art song from the Renaissance to the present. One objective of the course is to enrich the musicianship of each student by examining the vocal arts through the repertoire. Works by the following composers will be studied: Britten, Stravinsky, Brahms, Verdi, Beethoven, Machaut, Bach, Handel, Josquin, Schubert, Schumann, Wolf, Duparc, Debussy, Schoenberg and others. Fulfills the Music History elective requirement. Prerequisite: MHS 261 or permission of the instructor. Offered: Fall 2006 and every third fall thereafter.

MUH 367 SURVEY OF WORLD MUSIC3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to the folk traditions of various societies throughout the world. Some of the music and musical traditions to be discussed include those of Africa, India, Indonesia, China, Japan, South America, Native Americans, African Americans, the folk music of Eastern Europe, as well as jazz and the influence of ethnic music on 20th-century classical music.

Lectures will concentrate on placing these various types of music in their proper social context with an emphasis on understanding the different ways that music can function. Musical examples also will be analyzed in purely musical terms. Regular listening and reading assignments will be made throughout the course. A term paper and in-class report are required. Fulfills the Music History elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Spring 2008 and every third spring thereafter.

MUH 368 AN OVERTURE TO OPERA3 credits

This course will introduce the student to the world of opera via study of its history and literature (surveyed chronologically), performance excerpts and operas on video. Additionally, arias and other short excerpts from a variety of styles will be transcribed for the respective instruments of students in the class. These arias will then be performed by the students, and their interpretive insights and solutions will serve as models for comparison with a singer's solutions as revealed in historical and contemporary recordings. Fulfills the Music History elective requirement. Open to university students with permission of instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall 2007 and every third fall thereafter.

MUH 530 BIBLIOGRAPHY AND RESEARCH SKILLS3 credits

In this course students will learn basic research skills, compile a bibliography, and write an abstract, all directed toward an oral presentation on a topic of the student's choice subject to approval by the instructor. This course is a requirement for all MM students.

MUH 562 HISTORY OF CHAMBER MUSIC3 credits

This course traces the evolution of the forms of chamber music and seeks to discover how and why this evolution came about. Through a large dose of listening, discussion and comparison of standard works, students will examine the complete history of chamber music. Regular listening and reading assignments will be made throughout the course. A term paper and in-class report are required. This course fulfills the Music History elective. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Spring 2008 and every third spring thereafter.

MUH 566 CHORAL REPERTOIRE AND ART SONG3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to choral repertoire and art song from the Renaissance to the present. One objective of the course is to enrich the musicianship of each student by examining the vocal arts through the repertoire. Works by the following composers will be studied: Britten, Stravinsky, Brahms, Verdi, Beethoven, Machaut, Bach, Handel, Josquin, Schubert, Schumann, Wolf, Duparc, Debussy, Schoenberg and others. Fulfills the Music History elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. Offered: Fall 2006 and every third fall thereafter.

MUH 567 SURVEY OF WORLD MUSIC3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to the folk traditions of various societies throughout the world. Some of the music and musical traditions to be discussed include those of Africa, India, Indonesia, China, Japan, South America, Native Americans, African Americans, the folk music of Eastern Europe, as well as jazz and the influence of ethnic music on 20th-century classical music. Lectures will concentrate on placing these various types of music in their proper social context with an emphasis on understanding the different ways that music can function. MUH 568 AN OVERTURE TO OPERA3 credits

This course will introduce the student to the world of opera via study of its history and literature (surveyed chronologically), performance excerpts and operas on video. Additionally, arias and other short excerpts from a variety of styles will be transcribed for the respective instruments of students in the class. These arias will then be performed by the students and their interpretive insights and solutions will serve as models for comparison with a singer's solutions as revealed in historical and contemporary recordings. Fulfills the Music History elective requirement. Open to university students with permission of instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall 2007 and every third fall thereafter.

MUH 569 THE CONCERTO 3 credits

The concerto is a unique genre that pits soloist against orchestra, raising all sorts of questions about the dynamic between individual and collective. This course traces the history of the concerto from the Baroque period through to today, paying special attention to musical, philosophical and sociological issues.

MUH 570 MUSICAL VIRTUOSITY 3 credits

A virtuoso is commonly defined as a performer of exceptional skill. This course is designed for students to learn about the history of virtuosity and to study performers in their social and historical context.

MUP 111-412 ENSEMBLE ARTS FOR PIANISTS 1 credit

Pianists are exposed to a variety of instrumental ensemble and vocal situations, with the focus on rehearsal/performance preparation of works for piano with one other instrument. The experience gained from these collaborations will provide the basic skills required for ensemble playing. Prerequisite: An audition may be required.

MUP 311 ENSEMBLE ARTS FOR PIANISTS 1 credit

Pianists are exposed to a variety of instrumental ensemble and vocal situations, with the focus on rehearsal/performance preparation of works for piano with one other instrument. The experience gained from these collaborations will provide the basic skills required for ensemble playing. Prerequisite: An audition may be required.

MUP 313 KEYBOARD SKILLS FOR PIANISTS I 1 credit

Several essential skills are introduced to pianist through the four levels of this course. Each skill is continually developed during the four semester curriculum. Skills include sight-reading, score-reading, improvisation, harmonic progressions, realization of figured bass and transposition. Placement examinations will determine student level. Prerequisite: Placement exam. Offered: Fall 2006 and every fourth fall thereafter or when needed.

MUP 314 KEYBOARD SKILLS FOR PIANISTS II 1 credit

Continuation of MUP 313. Prerequisite: MUP 313 or placement exam. Offered: Spring 2007 and every fourth spring thereafter or when needed.

MUP 325 PIANO LITERATURE 3 credits

This course provides an overview of significant piano repertoire and an overview of piano chamber music literature through sight-reading chamber music repertoire: concerti, art song, two-piano and four-hand duet music, piano/string and piano/wind music. The course is designed to foster in each student a desire to continually investigate all aspects of the vast piano literature. Listening to recorded performances supplements the students' direct contact through sight-reading of the repertoire. Assignments include readings, listening lists, sight-reading, oral reports, in-class performances and exams. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall 2005 and every fourth fall thereafter or when needed.

MUP 413 KEYBOARD SKILLS FOR PIANISTS III 1 credit

Continuation of MUP 314. Prerequisite: MUP 314 or placement exam. Offered: Fall 2007 and every fourth fall thereafter or when needed.

MUP 414 KEYBOARD SKILLS FOR PIANISTS IV 1 credit

Continuation of MUP 413. Prerequisite MUP 413 or placement exam. Offered: Spring 2008 and every fourth spring thereafter or when needed.

MUR 300 JUNIOR RECITAL 0 credit

The Recital 300 should consist of 45 to 50 minutes of music and be played without intermission. The student must present one complete work, and one selection must be memorized. The instructor may require that additional works be presented from memory. Program information must be submitted to the dean's assistant no later than two weeks prior to the performance date. Prerequisites: Junior standing and permission of the instructor.

MUR 400 SENIOR RECITAL 0 credit

The Recital 400 should consist of 70 to 90 minutes of music and should include an intermission. Repertoire should include a 20th-century work, and only complete works should be presented. At least one selection must be memorized. The instructor may require additional works be presented from memory. The student is to write the program and present it to the dean's assistant no later than two weeks prior to the performance date. Prerequisites: Senior standing and permission of the instructor.

MUR 501 PERFORMANCE FORUM 0 credit

A weekly gathering of conservatory students and faculty that gives students an opportunity to perform works under study in a concert hall setting. Students may perform solo selections, solo with accompaniment or in chamber ensembles.

MUR 511 PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENT: CONCERTO 0 credit

The concerto performance requirement should consist of a complete concerto or substantial work written for solo instrument and orchestra performed by memory. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

MUR 512 PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENT: MOCK AUDITION 0 credit

A repertoire list by instrument for the mock auditions is available to all students at the beginning of each fall semester and at the music library as a reference. Piano students are exempt from participating in the mock audition performance requirement and are required to take MUR 514 instead. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall.

MUR 513 PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENT: CHAMBER WORK 0 credit

The chamber work performance requirement should consist of a complete chamber music work, including all movements. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

MUR 514 PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENT: SIGHT-READING JURY FOR PIANISTS 0 credit

The sight-reading jury for pianists performance requirement is taken by piano performance majors in place of the Mock Audition performance requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Offered: Fall.

MUR 600 PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENT: FULL RECITAL 0 credit

The Recital 600 should consist of 70 to 90 minutes of music and should include an intermission. Repertoire should include a 20th-century work, and only complete works should be presented. At least one selection must be memorized. The instructor may require additional works be presented from memory. The student is to write the program and present it to the dean's assistant no later than two weeks prior to the performance date. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.

MUS 100 ELECTIVE IN INSTRUMENTAL LESSONS 1 credit

This course is designed to allow any student to study a string, brass, wind, percussion or piano instrument privately with an instructor. Prerequisite: Audition.

MUS 121 - 422 LARGE ENSEMBLE 1 credit
This course provides the students with an opportunity to learn and perform repertoire from a wide range of periods and styles. It is a class in ensemble performance; rehearsals and concerts provide a guided practical experience in all factors of music making (including phrasing, pacing, articulation, intonation, balance, rhythm, ensemble and sound quality.) Large ensembles include orchestra, wind ensemble and string orchestra. Prerequisite: Audition may be required.

MUS 131 SECONDARY PIANO I 1 credit
This is a course for music students with minimal or no previous experience playing the piano. Work in this course focuses on learning major and minor five-finger patterns, major scales and arpeggios, four types of triads, dominant seventh chords and their inversions, one basic chord progression, repertoire, sight-reading and harmonization. Prerequisite: Placement exam. Offered: Fall.

MUS 132 SECONDARY PIANO II 1 credit
After reviewing the skills learned in MUS 131, work in this course focuses on learning minor scales and arpeggios, modal scales, five types of seventh chords, another chord progressions, repertoire, sight-reading and harmonization. Prerequisite: MUS 131 or placement exam. Offered: Spring.

MUS 230 CHORUS 1 credit
A performance-oriented course made up of students singing in a mixed choral ensemble of the standard grouping SATB (soprano, alto, tenor and bass voices). Course requirement will include a two-hour rehearsal once each week and at least one public performance during the semester. Repertoire for the group will include both sacred and secular works chosen from the Renaissance through the 20th century.

MUS 231 SECONDARY PIANO III 1 credit
After reviewing the skills learned in MUS 132, this course focuses on learning dominant seventh arpeggios, secondary dominants, more chord progressions, repertoire, sight-reading and harmonization. Prerequisite: MUS 132 or placement exam. Offered: Fall.

MUS 232 SECONDARY PIANO IV 1 credit
After reviewing the skills learned in MUS 231, this final upper level course focuses on learning diminished seventh arpeggios, Neopolitan and augmented sixth chords, modulatory chord progressions, repertoire, sight-reading and harmonization. Prerequisite: MUS 231 or placement exam. Offered: Spring.

MUS 301 APPLIED MAJOR INSTRUMENT 4 credits
In this course, students strive to develop their individual musical performance ability to its fullest potential, both musically and technically. Students receive training through scales, arpeggios, etudes, exercises, and a broad variety of repertoire. Students develop independent thinking with the understanding of musical color, shape, form, style, direction and control as necessities of musical art. In addition to individual teaching, weekly studio class sessions present a performance workshop dealing with various topics such as technique, performance and pedagogy. Prerequisite: Conservatory BM students only.

MUS 303 PRINCIPAL INSTRUMENT 2 credits
This course is designed to develop student's musical and technical performance ability. Students receive training through scales, arpeggios, etudes, exercises and repertoire from different musical styles. Students take weekly individual lessons and attend studio class. Prerequisite: Conservatory BA students only.

MUS 311 SMALL ENSEMBLE 1 credit
The chamber music program focuses on the process of coming together to achieve the most rewarding musical experience while recognizing the substantial individual and collective responsibility required of each ensemble member. Regular coachings and rehearsals form the basis for developing the skill of musical interaction. Chamber groups perform as they become ready, both on campus and throughout the community. Prerequisite: Audition may be required.

MUS 501-602 APPLIED MUSIC-MAJOR INSTRUMENT 4 credits
In this course, students strive to develop their individual musical performance ability to its fullest potential, both musically and technically. Students receive training through scales, arpeggios, etudes, exercises and a broad variety of repertoire. Students develop independent thinking with the understanding of musical color, shape, form, style, direction and control as necessities of musical art. In addition to individual teaching, weekly studio class sessions present a performance workshop dealing with various topics such as technique, performance and pedagogy. Prerequisite: Conservatory graduate students only.

MUS 511 SMALL ENSEMBLE 1 credit
The chamber music program focuses on the process of coming together to achieve the most rewarding musical experience while recognizing the substantial individual and collective responsibility required of each ensemble member. Regular coachings and rehearsals form the basis for developing the skill of musical interaction. Chamber groups perform as they become ready, both on campus and throughout the community. Prerequisite: Audition may be required.

MUS 521-622 LARGE ENSEMBLE 1 credit
This course provides the students with an opportunity to learn and perform repertoire from a wide range of periods and styles. It is a class in ensemble performance; rehearsals and concerts provide a guided practical experience in all factors of music making (including phrasing, pacing, articulation, intonation, balance, rhythm, ensemble and sound quality). Large ensembles include orchestra, wind ensemble and string orchestra. Prerequisite: Audition may be required.

MUS 530-631 APPLIED MUSIC-MAJOR INSTRUMENT 6 credits
In this course, students strive to develop their individual musical performance ability to its fullest potential, both musically and technically. Students receive training through scales, arpeggios, etudes, exercises and a broad variety of repertoire. Students develop independent thinking with the understanding of musical color, shape, form, style, direction and control as necessities of musical art. In addition to individual teaching, weekly studio class sessions present a performance workshop dealing with various topics such as technique, performance and pedagogy. Prerequisite: Conservatory PPC students only.

MUT 099 RUDIMENTS OF THEORY 1 credit
This is a review course designed by the teacher to meet the individual needs of each student for whom the course is required. This course is designed to provide a brief review of basic elements of music and musical notation necessary to begin work in music theory and ear training classes. Credit does not count toward degree. Prerequisite: Placement exam. Offered: When needed.

MUT 150 EAR TRAINING I 1 credit
The main goal of this course will be to establish a firm foundation for continued work in ear training. In-class activity will consist of rhythmic drills and dictation exercises and will be coordinated with materials from MUT 200. Subjects covered will include: intervals (melodic and harmonic) short rhythmic patterns, short melodic patterns, triads and short two-voice exercises. Prerequisite: Placement exam. Offered: Fall.

MUT 151 EAR TRAINING II 1 credit
This course will build upon MUT 150. In-class activity will consist of rhythmic drills and dictation exercises. Subjects covered will include compound intervals (melodic and harmonic), short rhythmic patterns introducing syncopation, short melodic patterns introducing chromatic notes; triads and seventh chords (including inversions); short chord progressions; two-voice exercises; and four-measure and eight-measure melodies. Subject matter will also include elementary concepts of melodic improvisation. Prerequisite: MUT 150 or placement exam. Offered: Spring.

MUT 200 FUNDAMENTALS OF MUSIC I: COUNTERPOINT/ELEMENTARY HARMONY 3 credits

This course is divided into two parts: as a preparation for the study of tonal harmony, the first half of the course will be a study of strict species counterpoint in two-voices (through all five species). The second half of the course will begin the study of the basic harmonic materials of "functional" tonal music of the Common-Practice period. Topics covered will include the structure of triads and Roman numeral analysis; concepts of voice-leading; inversions of chords; harmonic progressions in four parts based on the Bach Chorales; the importance and creation of bass lines, the harmonization of bass lines and figured bass. Written work will consist of one or two short assignments per week. Prerequisite: MUT 099 or placement exam. Offered: Fall.

MUT 201 FUNDAMENTALS OF MUSIC II: ADVANCED HARMONY 3 credits

This course is a continuation of the study begun in Fundamentals I of the basic materials of tonal music, using the four-part chorale style of J. S. Bach as the basis for study. Topics will include cadences, non-harmonic tones, triads in second inversion, the structure and treatment of seventh chords, the harmonization of melodies, secondary function chords, modulation and chromaticism. Written work will consist of one or two short assignments each week. Prerequisite: MUT 200 or placement exam. Offered: Spring.

MUT 250 EAR TRAINING III 1 credit

In-class activity will consist of rhythmic drills and dictation exercises. Subjects covered will include: chromatic harmony; 4-part chorales; syncopation and irregular subdivisions of the beat and modulations. Subject matter will include a continuation of improvisation studies. Prerequisite: MUT 151 or placement exam. Offered: Fall.

MUT 251 EAR TRAINING IV 1 credit

In-class activity will consist of rhythmic drills and dictation exercises. Subjects will include melodies involving increased chromaticism; progressions involving chromatic chords and foreign modulations; nontertian chord structures; melodies using the church modes, 12-tone and "free" atonality; and advanced rhythmic exercises. Subject matter will include a continuation of improvisation studies. Prerequisite: MUT 250 or placement exam. Offered: Spring.

MUT 300 FUNDAMENTALS OF MUSIC III: TONAL ANALYSIS 3 credits

This course is concerned with the analysis of selected movements and complete compositions from the Common-Practice Period of functional tonal music and the development of the necessary analytical skills to achieve this goal. This will be accomplished in a number of ways: (1) the continued development and refinement of the student's ability to perform harmonic analysis, as begun in Fundamentals I and II; (2) the expansion of analytical techniques to include analysis of rhythm, meter, phrase structure, articulation, etc; and (3) study of the principal forms from the Common-Practice Period, with some consideration of their historical development. Weekly analysis assignments will be required. Prerequisite: MUT 201 or placement exam. Offered: Fall.

MUT 301 FUNDAMENTALS OF MUSIC IV: 20TH-CENTURY THEORY 3 credits

This course is concerned with the theoretical concepts of 20th-century music and the compositional techniques used in this music. At the beginning of the course, there will also be an introduction to the analysis of Medieval and Renaissance music. This course will be a survey of a variety of different compositional and analytical techniques and will not be historical in nature. Weekly analysis assignments will be required. Prerequisite: MUT 300 or placement exam. Offered: Spring.

MUT 374 ADVANCED COUNTERPOINT AND FUGUE 3 credits

The main goals of this course will be: (1) through the writing of strict "species" counterpoint exercises in 18th-century style to prepare the student to go on to (2) more advanced stylistic composition exercises employing true 18th-century forms, such as "dance" suite movements, two- and three-part inventions, chorale preludes and fugues; and (3) to develop the student's ability to analyze, both in terms of harmony and form, contrapuntal compositions from the 18th century. The course will begin with strict species counterpoint and then move on to the specific style and techniques of 18th-century counterpoint. Listening assignments of selected works by J. S. Bach and others will be required. Fulfills the Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisite: MUT 300. Offered: Spring 2008 and every third spring thereafter.

MUT 375 TONAL COMPOSITION 3 credits

This course involves imitation of basic forms of tonal music and focuses on the techniques of motivic transformation, melody, harmony and rhythm. The weekly assignment is a short composition in a traditional form as a final project. Fulfills the Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisite: MUT 300. Offered: Spring 2006 and every third spring thereafter.

MUT 377 ANALYSIS FOR MUSICAL PERFORMANCE 3 credit

This course deals with the detailed analysis of musical compositions with particular emphasis on the implications for musical performance. Some of the topics that will be discussed include articulation and phrasing; accent, rhythm and meter; the analysis of structural pitches; and the "correct" stylistic interpretation. Students will be required to present in-class reports. They should also expect to prepare pieces for performance and to work together as an ensemble. Fulfills the Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisites: MUT 251 and 301 and/or permission of the instructor. Offered: Spring 2007 and every third spring thereafter.

MUT 574 ADVANCED COUNTERPOINT AND FUGUE 3 credits

The main goals of this course will be: (1) through the writing of strict "species" counterpoint exercises in 18th-century style to prepare the student to go on to (2) more advanced stylistic composition exercises employing true 18th-century forms, such as "dance" suite movements, two and three-part inventions, chorale preludes and fugues; and (3) to develop the student's ability to analyze, both in terms of harmony and form, contrapuntal compositions from the 18th century. The course will begin with strict species counterpoint and then move on to the specific style and techniques of 18th-century counterpoint. Listening assignments of selected works by J. S. Bach and others will be required. Fulfills the Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. Offered: Spring 2008 and every third spring thereafter.

MUT 575 TONAL COMPOSITION 3 credits

This course involves imitation of basic forms of tonal music, and focuses on the techniques of motivic transformation, melody, harmony and rhythm. The weekly assignment is a short composition in a traditional form as a final project. Fulfills the Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. Offered: Spring 2006 and every third spring thereafter.

MUT 577 ANALYSIS FOR MUSICAL PERFORMANCE 3 credits

This course deals with the detailed analysis of musical compositions with particular emphasis on the implications for musical performance. Some of the topics that will be discussed include articulation and phrasing; accent, rhythm and meter; the analysis of structural pitches; and the "correct" stylistic interpretation. Students will be required to present in-class reports. They should also expect to prepare pieces for performance and to work together as an ensemble. Fulfills the Music Theory elective requirement. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. Offered: Spring 2007 and every third spring thereafter.

PHD QP 009 QUALIFYING PAPER0 credit

This course is designed to recognize passing the doctoral qualifying paper. The purpose of the qualifying paper is to demonstrate that students are prepared for the writing and research components necessary to develop an acceptable dissertation research proposal. The qualifying paper is a substantial critical analysis of the theoretical and empirical literature of approximately 50 pages to be written on a topic that may or may not be related to the student's dissertation topic. In RES 702, students are oriented to requirements and procedures and begin developing the qualifying paper. The Qualifying Paper Committee, consisting of the student's qualifying paper advisor and one other Lynn University full-time faculty member, must approve the qualifying paper. The qualifying paper should be completed before the student is enrolled in LDR 790, but may not be completed until the student has completed a minimum of 42 credit hours of course work in the Ph.D. program of study. This paper is one of the requirements that must be completed and approved prior to advancing to doctoral candidacy. In the term of expected completion of the qualifying paper, each student registers for PHD QP 009 in the advisor's section. Upon successful completion of the qualifying paper, a grade of P (pass) will be submitted by the qualifying paper advisor for PHD QP 009. Students in good academic standing, with a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher, who completed all course requirements except RES 900-902, and did not complete the qualifying paper, must continuously enroll (as permitted) in their qualifying paper advisor's RES 897 course section. (See the Ph.D. Program Progression Requirements in this catalog.) Prerequisites: RES 702 and completion of at least 42 credits of the Ph.D. Program. There is no tuition fee.

PSY 150 INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY3 credits

A study of the scope and methods of psychology with a view to understanding the human organism, the basic phases of human behavior and the relevance of psychology in contemporary society.

PSY 200 ORIENTATION TO THE STUDY OF PSYCHOLOGY3 credits

This course introduces students to the professional language of psychology, the protocol of research and ethical conduct related to the field. Emphasis is placed on career choices and the importance of understanding research methods in psychology. Prerequisite: PSY 150 or approval from the instructor.

PSY 201 THE AGING PROCESS3 credits

A study of the processes of aging and their behavioral effects on the individual. To better understand the capacities and potential of the mature, older person, topics studied include age changes and biological functions, sensations, perception, intelligence, learning, memory and creativity. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 210 DEATH AND DYING3 credits

This course focuses on death as an event in history. The topics of discussion include concerns and fears of illness and death, grief and bereavement, and society's values and conflicts regarding life and death. Credit may not be given for both PSY 210 and HCA 210. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 225 HUMAN SEXUALITY3 credits

Anatomy and physiology of the human reproductive system, human sexual response, the range of sexual behaviors and sources of attitudes and beliefs about sexuality will be explored in this course. Prerequisite: PSY 150 or SOC 110.

PSY 250 DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY3 credits

Human development from birth to old age will be explored by the study of developmental processes and theories. Emphasis is on development as a lifelong process and how these processes affect human behavior. Course includes an examination of all forms of development: physical, cognitive, social, psychological, moral and linguistic. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 260 PERSONALITY THEORY3 credits

A study of the major theories of the composition and determinants of human personality. The theories examined include: psychoanalytic theories, self-theory, self-actualization theory, trait theories and social learning theory. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 261 CURRENT PERSPECTIVES IN SUBSTANCE ABUSE3 credits

This course explores the role of alcohol and other drugs in American society today. It includes a historical overview of psychoactive drug use and abuse, the classification of drugs currently in use, legal issues related to substance abuse, and the resources available for the treatment of abuse problems. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

PSY 270 HUMAN MOTIVATION3 credits

A study of the major theories (clinical as well as experimental) of human behavior. The theories examined include psychoanalytical theory, cognitive-consistency theories, achievement motivation theory and attribution theory. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 280 MIND BODY MEDICINE3 credits

The purpose of this course is to acquire an understanding of the human being as a whole. The student will study the relationship of the body and mind through the integration of such subjects as anatomy and physiology, health, and human behavior. This course is cross-listed as SCI 280. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 300 EXPRESSIVE STUDIES: MUSIC, ART AND MOVEMENT3 credits

Students will be exposed to the fundamental theory and application of each art form. Through didactic presentation, discussion, experiential work and art making, students will develop an understanding of the arts and their therapeutic dimensions. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 305 EXPRESSIVE STUDIES: DRAMA AS EXPRESSION3 credits

Students will be introduced to the theory and technique of expressive performance with an emphasis on psychotherapeutic and aesthetic dimensions. Students will study a dramatic piece, explore the theory behind psychodrama and create an original dialogue expressing a psychological theme. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 310 EXPRESSIVE STUDIES: POETRY AND NARRATIVE3 credits

Students will study the theories and techniques of literary process and explore the ways in which poetry and narrative literature reflect the authors' processes of expression and healing. In addition, the course will include a creative writing component in which students produce their own poetry, stories and journals and examine the dynamics of expressive articulation. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 315 PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS AND MEASUREMENTS3 credits

Theory and use of psychological tests of ability and personality. Includes laboratory sessions. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 349 INTRODUCTION TO APPLIED COUNSELING3 credits

Focus is on developing counseling competencies and specialized skills and techniques used in the counseling process for individuals and groups. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 350 FACILITATOR TRAINING COURSE3 credits

This course is designed to develop: (1) improved listening skills and an appreciation of the emotional factors underlying communication and motivation and, therefore, to increase the participant's effectiveness in responding; and (2) counseling skills that are effective in dealing with emotional problems. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 352 COMMUNITY PSYCHOLOGY3 credits

Prevention, recognition and mobilization of individual and community resources for helping solve psychological problems. Discussion with psychologically trained change agents in human service roles. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 354 INDUSTRIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY3 credits

Application of psychology in business and industry, as well as its relevance to organizational effectiveness in general. The course examines issues in the following areas: supervisory, leadership, morale, personnel selection, training, human factors engineering and consumer psychology. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 355 PRINCIPLES OF LEARNING 3 credits

A study of behavioral, cognitive, and information processing accounts of the acquisition, organization and utilization of information. Topics include classical conditioning, instrumental conditioning, observational learning and memory. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 360 SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

A study of the processes underlying and resulting from group interactions. Topics include persuasion, conformity, aggression, prejudice, interpersonal evaluation and interpersonal attraction. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 370 ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

A study of maladaptive behavior patterns and the therapeutic procedures used to treat such patterns. Maladaptive behavior patterns that are examined include the neuroses, psychosociological disorders, personality disorders, affective disorders, schizophrenia and paranoia. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

PSY 400 PROCESS: PERSONAL GROWTH PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

A study of personal growth and ways of dealing with choices and changes of life. References to several psychological disciplines are used as a holistic approach to understanding our individuality. A scholarly study of ways of transcending toward higher levels of personality integration. Prerequisite: PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 420 PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

A study of the physiological events that take place within the human body whenever behavior occurs. Topics will include the neurochemical basis of behavior, sensory coding and processing, the neural basis of emotions, psychological disorders, sleep, sex, learning and memory. The student will explore mind/body medicine, the effects of stress on health and behavior, and how the body and mind heals. This course is cross-listed as SCI 320. Prerequisites: SCI 261 or 280, PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 440 RESEARCH AND STATISTICS IN PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

A study of research design and qualitative and quantitative methods of data collection and analysis. The student selects and carries out independent library and/or empirical research, including a well developed research paper and oral presentation of research project. Faculty supervision is provided on an individual basis. Prerequisites: MAT 221 and PSY 150, PSY 250 or PSY 370.

PSY 460 EXPERIMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY 4 credits

Research designs commonly used in psychology: observational, experimental and quasi-experimental. Steps in conducting research including APA format for writing reports. Includes laboratory/discussion sessions. Prerequisites: MAT 221, PSY 250 or PSY 370, and PSY 499.

PSY 481 INTERNSHIP IN PSYCHOLOGY 3-6 credits

The experience involves applying the knowledge acquired in prerequisite psychology courses to the community through placement in a mental health clinic/community service agency. Supervision on-site and by practicum supervisor. Written report and evaluation of goals and objectives required. Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval, junior or senior standing, and at least 12 hours in psychology.

PSY 490 SEMINAR IN PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

Special topics course for Psychology, Behavioral Science or Criminal Justice majors. May serve as capstone course for Psychology majors. Prerequisite: PSY 250 or PSY 370.

RES 602 STATISTICAL METHODS 3 credits

Measurement and statistical analysis of parametric and non-parametric data. Techniques, applications and analysis, using spreadsheets and statistical packages for computerized data analysis. Formerly EDU 602.

RES 700 RESEARCH DESIGN 3 credits

An introduction to research, including the purpose of research, principles of observation, development of paradigms, laws, theories and hypotheses, definition and classification of variables, cause and effect, analysis of nomothetic and ideographic research, development of research designs, and principles of measurement. This course is taken within the first 0 to 18 credits of the Ph.D. Program. Prerequisite: Statistics.

RES 702 WRITING FOR RESEARCH 3 credits

This course is designed to prepare the student for the conduct of scholarly inquiry and technical writing. Topics include refining one's writing style, avoiding plagiarism, adhering to APA style, conducting a review of literature and critiquing the work of others. The course also provides an explanation of the preparation of the qualifying paper. It is expected that students enrolled in RES 702 have foundational knowledge and skills in the use of computer applications, research and statistics, writing, information literacy, and familiarity with Blackboard (as an e-learning tool). This course is taken approximately midway through the Ph.D. Program (between 19 to 36 credits). Formerly RES 600. Prerequisite: RES 700.

RES 704 QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE METHODS OF RESEARCH3 credits

An overview of quantitative and qualitative methodologies and processes used in applied research: definition of the problem, selection of key variables, determination of appropriate methodology, selection of subjects, protection of subjects' rights, plan for research implementation and data collection, and development of the research proposal and timeline. This course is taken after completion of 36 credits of the Ph.D. Program. Formerly RES 701. Prerequisite: RES 702.

RES 897 CONTINUOUS DEVELOPMENT OF THE QUALIFYING PAPER1-9 credits

Used during continuation of work on the qualifying paper, this course is necessary to comply with the continuous registration requirement of the degree program. Under the guidance of the qualifying paper advisor, students must enroll in consecutive terms of RES 897 (one credit in consecutive terms each term) for continuous development of the doctoral qualifying paper if they completed all 54 credit hours of required course work (except RES 900 and 902) and are in good academic standing, but did not complete the qualifying paper. The purpose of the qualifying paper is to demonstrate that students are prepared for the writing and research components necessary to develop an acceptable dissertation research proposal. In order to receive a passing grade (P) with each enrollment in RES 897, students must demonstrate progress toward completion of the qualifying paper. Upon successful completion of the qualifying paper, a grade of P (Pass) also will be submitted by the qualifying paper advisor for PHD QP 009. (See the Ph.D. Program Progression Requirements in this catalog.) One credit hour per additional term. A maximum of 9 credits of RES 897 may be taken.

RES 900 DOCTORAL RESEARCH SEMINAR 3 credits

Under the guidance of the course instructor and the Dissertation Committee, students complete the dissertation proposal, successfully defend the proposal before faculty of the university, and then follow with submission of a complete IRB application that includes the research protocol, certifications and signatures, and curriculum vitae of principal investigator to the University Institutional Review Board for Human Subjects Research (IRB). Students who do not successfully complete the course requirements during the term, will receive a grade of IP (course in progress) and must next enroll in consecutive terms (one credit each term as permitted) of RES 900. Upon successful completion of RES 900 course requirements, a grade will be issued. RES 900 must be completed within one year of initial enrollment in order to pass the course. Grading is the responsibility of the course instructor who will seek input from the Dissertation Committee chair and is pass (P)/fail (F). Students may complete the requirements described in RES 901 during initial enrollment in RES 900. (See the Ph.D. Program Progression Requirements in this catalog.) Prerequisite: Doctoral candidacy.

RES 901 DISSERTATION CONTINUATION 1-12 credits

Taken while continuing work on the dissertation, this course is necessary to comply with the continuous registration requirement of the degree program. Students must register for this course for every term until the student's dissertation chair anticipates completion of the dissertation the following term. The course serves two purposes: (1) Students who have not completed RES 900 and have a course in progress grade (IP), must enroll in RES 901 (one credit in consecutive terms) for not more than six terms or six credits. (2) Students who completed RES 900 requirements and are revising their IRB proposal, have IRB approval and approval by their committee chair to implement the study, are implementing the dissertation study, and/or are developing Chapters 4 and 5, must enroll in RES 901 (one credit in consecutive terms) for not more than six terms, or six credits. Students must maintain compliance with all IRB policies during implementation and notify the IRB of data collection completion. In order to receive a passing grade (P) with each enrollment in RES 901, students must demonstrate progress toward completion of the dissertation. Each student registers for RES 901 in the section of the dissertation chair. Grading is the responsibility of the Dissertation Committee chair and is pass (P)/fail (F). (See the Ph.D. Program Progression Requirements in this catalog.) Prerequisite: RES 900 (IP or P grade).

RES 902 DEFENSE AND COMPLETION OF THE DISSERTATION 3 credits

Enrollment in this course is required for the term of completion of all degree requirements, including the successful defense of the dissertation. Students who do not complete the course requirements during the term will receive an IP (in progress grade) and must enroll in RES 901 to maintain the continuous registration requirement of the degree program. Each student registers for RES 902 in the section of the dissertation chair. Grading is the responsibility of the Dissertation Committee chair and is pass (P)/fail (F). Students must complete RES 902 requirements within six months of initial enrollment. (Please see the Ph.D. Program Progression Requirements in this catalog.) Prerequisite: RES 900; evidence of IRB approval and student notification to IRB of data collection completion; completion of dissertation data collection and significant development of Chapters 4 and 5.

SAM 530 SPORTS ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

Application of management theory and practice to sports administration. Emphasis on organizing, structuring and maintaining a successful department. Day-to-day operations reviewed along with facility management, fiscal and budgetary aspects, personnel selection and supervision, public relations and office management.

SAM 535 ISSUES IN INTERCOLLEGIATE AND PROFESSIONAL SPORTS ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

An overview of critical issues of national interest in both collegiate and professional sports, Title IX, Gender Equity, scholarships and payment of athletes, recruiting policies, professional agents, and other current matters of prime importance in the field.

SAM 597 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN SPORTS AND ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION 1-3 credits

Opportunities to explore both career directions and areas of individual interest.

SAM 610 SPORTS MANAGEMENT, MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS 3 credits

The purpose of the course is to expose students to various aspects of the sports marketplace, including but not limited to athlete representation, legal issues including but not limited to the Internet, individual and corporate marketing, and public relations strategies. The course will examine trends in the industry, analyzing their present and future effects on both the particular sport and sports in general.

SAM 620 SPORTS PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

Study of selected and specialized current topics in the field of sports psychology. Included are the processes underlying and resulting from group interactions, with particular reference to the study of personal growth in the areas of sports.

SAM 621 SPORTS MEDICINE: TECHNIQUES IN THE CARE AND PREVENTION OF ATHLETIC INJURIES 3 credits

Techniques and procedures designed to prevent injuries: preventative taping, injury recognition and immediate care of athletic injuries. Designed for athletic personnel and those interested in the field of athletic training.

SAM 630 LEGAL ASPECTS OF ATHLETICS 3 credits

General overview of the fundamentals of sports law. Emphasis on those areas of sports law that impinge on the daily business routines of lawyers and sports professionals. Topics include: school, coach and medical liability, as well as liability, injuries, warnings, waivers, contracts and discrimination.

SAM 631 SPORTS AND ATHLETICS GOVERNANCE 3 credits

Introduction to the structure and principles of governance in Intercollegiate Athletics for institutions that are members of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Focus on the structure and responsibilities of the NCAA/NAIA, the constitution and bylaws, application of rules and regulations, the structure and responsibilities of the university/college compliance office, and ethics. Upon completion, members should be capable of passing the NCAA annual recruiting examination.

SAM 665 GRADUATE PROJECT IN SPORTS AND ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

The project is developed around an area of professional interest and importance. The project must reflect an integration of theory and practice, as well as demonstrate expertise in the subject matter.

SAM 670 SPECIAL TOPICS IN SPORTS AND ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

This course addresses various topics of current interest not covered in other courses and particularly related to coaching administrative skills that meet state certification requirements in education or other areas.

SAM 680 BEGINNING INTERNSHIP IN SPORTS AND ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

The internship provides an opportunity to apply beginning knowledge and theory to professional practice. Prerequisites: Permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval.

SAM 681 ADVANCED INTERNSHIP IN SPORTS AND ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION 3 credits

The internship provides an opportunity to apply advanced knowledge and theory to professional practice.

SCI 100 PRINCIPLES OF SCIENCE FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONALS 3 credits

An integrated science course that introduces basic scientific principles involved in the health professions. Selected topics from biology, microbiology, chemistry and physics are included. This course may not be used to fulfill the core curriculum laboratory science requirement.

SCI 110 THE BIOLOGICAL WORLD AND LAB 4 credits

Introduction to the life-supported systems of nature, emphasizing the diversity and adaptations of organisms in the evolutionary perspective. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30.

SCI 111 BIOLOGICAL PATTERN AND PROCESS AND LAB 4 credits

Introduction to the operation of life-supported systems at various levels of organization, from biochemical to ecological. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30.

SCI 130 GENERAL CHEMISTRY I AND LAB 4 credits

This course provides a background in the basic concepts of chemistry. Topics include discussion of units of measurements, structure of atoms, stoichiometry, types of chemical reactions, concepts of bonding, ideal gases, atomic structure and periodicity, and thermochemistry. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite or corequisite: MAT 110.

SCI 131 GENERAL CHEMISTRY II AND LAB 4 credits

This course continues from SCI 130 and presents an introduction to the properties of solutions, chemical kinetics, chemical equilibrium, acid-base chemistry, spontaneous processes and entropy, and the chemistry of representative elements from the periodic table. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: SCI 130.

SCI 170 ASTRONOMY OF THE STARS AND GALAXIES AND LAB 3 credits

The study of the lives of the stars and galaxies by using tools of scientific inquiry and observation. It covers the basic principles and tools of the trade in order to study the universe beyond the solar system. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30.

SCI 206 THE BIOLOGY OF PLANTS AND ALGAE AND LAB 4 credits

An introduction to the form, function, diversity, evolution, natural history and cultural significance of green plants and other photosynthetic organisms. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: SCI 110 and 111.

SCI 215 MARINE BIOLOGY AND LAB 4 credits

An introduction to marine organisms: their diversity, adaptations and ecological interrelationships. Laboratory and mandatory field trips. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Prerequisite: SCI 110.

SCI 222 NATURE AND THE SCIENTIFIC ENTERPRISE 4 credits

An introduction to science as a human enterprise and the explanations it offers toward understanding the fundamental features of the natural universe. Included are the nature and philosophy of science, differences between science and other modes of inquiry/interpretation, the scientific method, the language of science, the limitations of science, science and human affairs, and a survey of the theories of science that have most shaped the modern world view. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing and MAT 110 (or above) or at least one college-level science course; or permission of instructor(s).

SCI 230 INTRODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES AND LAB 4 credits

An introduction to the ecosystems of humanity and nature emphasizing basic principles of pattern and process, and analysis of current biological, technological, social, political, economic, resource and energy issues in relation to the environment. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30.

SCI 260 HUMAN ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY I AND LAB 4 credits

Exploration of basic human anatomy and physiology as an integrated whole covering cells and tissues, skeletal, muscular, circulatory and digestive systems. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30.

SCI 261 HUMAN ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY II AND LAB 4 credits

Exploration of basic human anatomy and physiology covering the nervous, respiratory, excretory, endocrine and reproductive systems. A survey of major human diseases, development, heredity and aging. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Prerequisite: SCI 260 or permission of Biology program coordinator. Lab fee: $30.

SCI 262 ANATOMY OF MOVEMENT 3 credits

This course explores the integrated structure and function of the skeletal, muscular, nervous and circulatory systems. Actions, origins, insertions, innervation, and blood supply of muscles are emphasized.

SCI 280 MIND/BODY MEDICINE 3 credits

The purpose of this course is to acquire an understanding of the human being as a whole. The student will study the relationship of the body and mind through the integration of such subjects as anatomy and physiology, health and human behavior. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: PSY 150.

SCI 300 ACOUSTICS AND LAB 4 credits

This course explores the physics of sound and its relationship to music. Topics covered include the physics of vibrating systems, waves, intensity, timbre, frequency, tuning and temperament, the physics of musical instruments and the psychology of sound. This course meets three lecture hours and two lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: An ability to read music notation.

SCI 320 PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY 3 credits

A study of the physiological events that take place within the human body whenever behavior occurs. Topics to be examined include the neurochemical basis of behavior, sensory coding and processing, the neural basis of emotions, psychological disorders, sleep, sex, learning and memory. The student will explore mind/body medicine, the effects of stress on health and behavior, and how the body and mind heals. This course is cross-listed as PSY 320. Prerequisites: SCI 261 and PSY 150.

SCI 325 MICROBIOLOGY AND LAB 4 credits

An introduction to the morphology, physiology, life history and ecology of microbes (chiefly bacterial) and viruses. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: SCI 110, 111, 130 and 131.

SCI 330 PRINCIPLES OF EXERCISE 4 credits

This course covers exercise theories and protocols such as progressive resistive exercise and isokinetics, strength testing and measurement. Musculoskeletal physiology, properties and adaptations related to exercise are emphasized. Prerequisite: SCI 235 or 260.

SCI 345 SELECTED TOPICS IN HEALTH CARE 3 credits

This course instructs the students in the etiology, signs and symptoms, diagnostic procedures, treatment regimes and prognosis for the following areas: obstetrics, pediatrics, orthopedics, sports medicine, neurology, cardiopulmonary, and geriatrics. Prerequisites: SCI 260, SCI 261, SCI 301, SCI 302 and SCI 330.

SCI 350 PHYSICS I AND LAB 4 credits

Exposition of the fundamental laws and phenomena of mechanics, fluids, heat, wave motion and sound. Emphasis is on the understanding of physical concepts. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: MAT 110. MAT 320 as a prerequisite or corequisite is recommended.

SCI 351 PHYSICS II AND LAB 4 credits

Exposition of the fundamental laws and phenomena of electricity, magnetism, optics, special relativity, atomic, and nuclear physics. Emphasis is on the understanding of physical concepts. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: SCI 350.

SCI 355 PRINCIPLES OF BIOMECHANICS 3 credits

This course consists of lectures and discussions related to biomechanical applications. The theory of linear viscoelastic behavior and applications to the known behavior of hard and soft tissue will be introduced. The forces, vectors and dynamics of anatomic structures will be covered. The qualitative and quantitative methods for the study of human body will be addressed. It will also cover topics related to muscle physiology, muscle activity, joint function and movement patterns. Prerequisites: SCI 235, SCI 260, 261 and 350.

SCI 360 ECOLOGY AND LAB 4 credits

An in-depth study of ecosystems at various levels of pattern and process, broadly emphasizing material/energy interrelationships in concept, time and space. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Laboratory and mandatory field trips. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites SCI 110, MAT 110 and SCI 230 or permission of biology program coordinator.

SCI 390 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY I AND LAB 4 credits

This course covers the fundamental topics of organic chemistry, including structure and bonding, bonding and molecular properties, the nature and stereochemistry of alkanes and cycloalkanes, structure and reactivity of alkenes, stereochemistry, mechanisms of the common type of organic reactions, and the nomenclature of organic reactions. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: SCI 131 or equivalent.

SCI 391 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY II AND LAB 4 credits

This course provides a detailed survey of the synthetic reactions of various organic functional groups. The main thrust of the course is the thorough mechanistic understanding of the organic reactions. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisite: SCI 390.

SCI 440 NEUROLOGY 3 credits

This course focuses on instruction of normal growth and development of the nervous system with emphasis on developmental and physiological approaches to associated neuropathology, diagnosis, instrumentation and practical considerations for diagnostic and treatment protocols. Prerequisites: SCI 260, SCI 261, SCI 301 and SCI 302.

SCI 450 GENETICS AND LAB 4 credits

A study of the nature, inheritance and expression of genes. Laboratory work emphasizes genetic experimentation and statistical analysis of genetic data. This course meets three lecture hours and three lab hours per week. Lab fee: $30. Prerequisites: SCI 110 and SCI 111 (or SCI 260 and SCI 261) and MAT 221.

SCI 485 BIOLOGY INTERNSHIP 3-6 credits

Opportunity for biology majors to gain on-the-job experience through an internship placement Advisor/dean permission, permission of college internship liaison, 2.5 cumulative GPA in major and/or departmental approval.

SCI 490 BIOLOGY SENIOR SEMINAR 3 credits

This capstone course for biology majors addresses special topics. Prerequisites: Senior standing and permission of biology program coordinator.

Note re lab credits: For each one credit of lab, all upper division (300+) lab science courses and some lower division (100+) lab science courses meet for three hours of lab per week. Other lab science courses meet for two hours.

SOC 110 INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY 3 credits

A survey course designed to introduce the student to the science of sociology. Students are introduced to the fundamental concepts of social relationships and group life. Culture, social institutions and deviance are discussed.

SOC 210 INTRODUCTION TO ANTHROPOLOGY 3 credits

A two-part course introducing the fields of physical and cultural anthropology through the investigation of human biology and behavior. Emphasis is placed on a cross-cultural examination of family and kinship, religion, economics and politics.

SOC 220 FAMILY AND SOCIETY 3 credits

Study of the institutional character of the family, its history and relationship to other institutions. Problems encompassing premarital concerns, internal dynamics of family life, children and divorce are discussed. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

SOC 230 INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL WORK 3 credits

An examination of modern welfare services, followed by a study of some of the methods by which social workers help to solve a host of problems that range from adoption and care for the aged, to marital counseling, parole supervision and the community organization. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

SOC 261 CURRENT PERSPECTIVES IN SUBSTANCE ABUSE 3 credits

This course explores the role of alcohol and other drugs in American society today. It includes a historical overview of psychoactive drug use and abuse, the classification of drugs currently in use, legal issues related to substance abuse and the resources available for the treatment of abuse problems. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

SOC 311 INTERPERSONAL PROCESSES 3 credits

This course involves the study of human communications, interpersonal relationships and small group dynamics. Topics include verbal and nonverbal behavior, development of relationships, groups, assertiveness and leadership. Instructional emphasis is placed on providing an understanding of the behavioral, emotional and cognitive components of interpersonal communication in contemporary society. Prerequisite: PSY 150 or SOC 110.

SOC 330 THE SOCIAL WELFARE SYSTEM 3 credits

Programs, policies and services on local, state and national level are examined. Goals and approaches of various social work agencies are explored. Particular problems of various social, racial and ethnic groups are studied. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

SOC 335 CONTEMPORARY SOCIAL PROBLEMS 3 credits

A presentation of methods of identifying social problems. Analysis of such problems as crime, drug abuse, discrimination and disadvantage, family disorganization, ecology and armed conflict is discussed. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

SOC 450 RACE AND ETHNICITY 3 credits

In this course students will use the sociological perspective to examine race and ethnicity. Topics include the historical conditions of various racial-ethnic groups in the United States, as well as challenges facing minorities today. Prerequisite: SOC 110.

SOC 491 SEMINAR IN SOCIOLOGY 3 credits

A study of selected and specialized topics in the field of sociology. Prerequisites: Two upper level SOC courses.

TSR 101 TRANSFER STUDENT SEMINAR: THE UNIVERSITY EXPERIENCE0 credit

This course is designed to orient students to the specific policies, procedures, programs and services available at Lynn University.
