MOSTLY MUSIC: MOZART

Sunday, Feb. 13 at 4 p.m.

One of the true musical geniuses in musical history, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791) is often regarded as the most universal composer in Western music. From a 6 year-old wunderkind performing for European royalty to his many adult triumphs, his vast compositional output was to occur within his tragically short 36-year lifespan. Conceived and hosted by Marshall Turkin and staged by Jan McArt, Mostly Music features Lynn Conservatory’s faculty and students.

Biographies

Miranda Scoma began violin studies at age five under the tutelage of Betty Haag in Chicago, Illinois. Five years later at age ten, she and her family moved to Buffalo, New York which unfortunately left her without a violin teacher. Her mother, a non-instrumentalist, taught her from then until her last few years in high school. She has studied on scholarship at the Sewanee Music Festival, Las Vegas Music Festival, Heifetz Institute, International School for Musical Arts, and Indiana String Academy. In 2009, she and members of the Gewandhaus Orchestra were video recorded at the famous Thomaskirche (St. Thomas Church) in Leipzig, Germany performing Bach Brandenburg Concerto no. 1. Miranda is currently Assistant Principal of the Huntsville Symphony Orchestra and is working toward a Master's of Music degree. She now studies with Elmar Oliveira.

Bianca Cortes began her studies on the violin at age 12. She obtained her bachelor's degree from P.R.'s Conservatory of Music where she studied with Henry Hutchinson, Concertmaster of the P.R.S.O. and Omar Velazquez, Assistant Concertmaster. She was part of the Philharmonic Orchestra of P.R. and the Bayamon Symphony Orchestra. She was a teacher in Juan Morel Campos School of Music and in the Conservatory's Preparatory School. She has participated in the Young Symphony Orchestra of the Americas and the Sewanee Summer Music Festival. She participated this past summer in the CCM Spoleto Summer Festival in Italy. She is currently working on her master's degree at Lynn University's Conservatory of Music.

A native of Taiwan, Jenny Lin began her piano studies at the age of 5 and her viola studies at the age of ten. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in viola performing from National Kaohsiung Normal University, Lin came to the United States to pursue her graduate studies in University of North Texas. Lin has extensive experience in chamber and orchestra playing. She participated in Bowdoin International Music Festival, Manchester Music Festival, and Mimir Music Festival. Also, she plays in the Las Colinas Symphony Orchestra, Tainan and Kaohsiung City Symphony Orchestra. Her formal teachers include I-Chen Wang and Susan Dubois. Currently, she studies at Lynn University under Ralph Fielding.

Linda Kim is a PPC student, studying with David Cole.

Maryna Yermolenko completed secondary education in the Lysenko Music School for gifted youth (Kiev, Ukraine). Maryna is a winner of International Competition "XXI Century Art" (Kiev, Ukraine), International Chamber Music Competition named after U. Polyansky (Kiev, Ukraine), International Competition named after M. Mazur (Saint-Petersburg, Russia), International Chamber Music Competition named after S. Taneyev (Moscow, Russia), Treasure Coast Symphony Orchestra Concerto Competition, and the Lynn University Conservatory of Music Concerto Competition. Maryna has performed numerous recitals in Russian, Ukrainian, European and American cities as a soloist as well as member of various chamber ensembles. She has had solo appearances with Kiev National Symphony Orchestra, Kiev Youth Orchestra, Treasure Coast Youth Symphony, and Treasure Coast Symphony Orchestra. Maryna has participated in numerous master classes with violinists Ida Haendel, Arnold Steinhardt, Mark Kaplan, and Elmar Oliveira, and the cellist Orlando Cole (chamber music). Maryna is currently completing a Bachelor of Music degree at Lynn University Conservatory of Music studying with world-renowned violinist Elmar Oliveira.
