Molin Wang spent her childhood in Xi'an, a historic city in Shaanxi Province where the Silk Road began. She started leaning piano at age five. When Molin was nine years old, she had her first public performance on the stage of Xi'an concert hall in China. In 2005 Molin designed a piano fairy tale "Animal Carnival" for the piano learners whom she tutored, which was performed successfully in Shanghai Music Hall. In 2006, Molin performed in the Piano Concert organized by Shanghai Symphony Orchestra commemorating the 250th anniversary of Mozart's Birth. In 2007 she performed in the Concert organized by Shanghai Kong Xiang Dong Art Center for Youth Music Teachers. Molin is a first year student in the Professional Performance Certificate program the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, studying with Dr. Roberta Rust.

Chien-I Yang was born in Taiwan as an only child in her family. Chien-I was exposed to classical music from an early age due to her mother's passion for art. She began studying piano at the age of 5 under the guidance of Yi-Hsien Chung and was admitted to study in the music department of National Taichung Second High School at the age of 15. At 18, she was studying in the music department of Soochow University, under Prof. John D. Vaughan. During her college years, Ms. Yang was performing actively as a soloist and chamber musician at Soochow auditorium, National Concert Hall in Taipei, and the Children Orchestra Summer Concert in Chungwa city. Chien-I is currently pursuing her master's degree at Lynn University Conservatory of music, where she is studying with Dr. Roberta Rust.

Biographies

Roberta Rust has inspired audiences and captivated critics on four continents with concert programming and a discography that reveal eclectic imagination and artistic range. Her recent CD release, Devoted to Debussy, joins acclaimed discs Franz Joseph Haydn, Piano Music of Villa-Lobos (www.centaurrecords.com) and Three American Premieres & the Prokofieff Sonata No. 6

(Protone Records). FANFARE Magazine described her Debussy as follows: "On this disc she proves herself a first-rate Debussy player, someone who listens acutely to each sound she makes, who characterizes the music in a personal way while at the same time honoring Debussy's very detailed notation, and who has an arsenal of touches...This is quite simply one of the finest Debussy discs I have heard in recent memory..."

Rust has appeared as soloist with numerous orchestras including the Houston Symphony, the Philippine Philharmonic, the New World Symphony, the Boca Raton Symphonia, the New Philharmonic, and with orchestras throughout Latin America. As an outstanding chamber musician, she has played with the Lark, Ying, and Amernet String Quartets, members of the Empire Brass Quintet, the Clarion Chamber Ensemble, and as a duo-pianist with her husband, Phillip Evans. She served as Artistic Ambassador for the United States and has been the recipient of a major grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. She was awarded additional grants and prizes from the Organization of American States, National Society of Arts & Letters, and the International Concours de Fortepiano in Paris. She has participated in the OPUSFEST and Chautauqua festivals. Pulitzer Prize-winning music critic Tim Page wrote in The New York Times: "Roberta Rust is a powerhouse of a pianist—one who combines an almost frightening fervor and intensity with impeccable technique and spartan control." The Miami Herald described her as follows: "There was tremendous bravura, sweep and power...Here was a virtuosa."

Roberta Rust serves as Artist Faculty-Piano, Professor, and Head of the Piano Department at the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida. She gives master classes internationally, serves as an adjudicator for piano competitions, and has written articles for such publications as Clavier Magazine.
