The Lynn University Philharmonia sets the standard for university level symphonic training. Performing at a professional level, the Lynn University Philharmonia is directed by Albert George Schram, former resident conductor of the Florida Philharmonic and resident conductor of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

The Philharmonia was first formed in 1991 as the Harid String Orchestra with the founding of the Conservatory in 1991. It became a full symphony orchestra in 1993. As an integral part of the training of both graduate and undergraduate music students of Lynn University, the Philharmonia offers excellent orchestral training through the preparation and performance of orchestral repertoire and a minimum of 6 public performances per year. It has presented several new works throughout its history and has always been enthusiastically received by the public and the press.

Music directors of the Philharmonia have included such conductors as Markand Thakar and Arthur Weisberg, and many guest conductors such as David Lockington, Zeev Dorman, Joseph Silverstein, Claudio Jaffé, Sergiu Schwartz, and others. It has performed in such venues as the Lincoln Theater in Miami Beach, the Coral Springs City Center, the Spanish River Church in Boca Raton, and the Broward Center for the Performing Arts.

Now in its 11th season as a full symphony orchestra, the Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra continues to present professional level concerts with a wide range of repertoire.
