Season

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC AT LYNN UNIVERSITY

When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.

Dr. Jon Robertson,
Dean

Welcome to the 2007-2008 season. As dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity.

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can benefit scholarships, various studios, special concerts or the general conservatory fund.

THE LEADERSHIP SOCIETY OF LYNN UNIVERSITY

With an annual gift of $2,500 or more during the fiscal year July 1 to June 30, you will be recognized in our new Leadership Society. This premier annual giving society honors donors who recognize the significant impact leadership gifts have in sustaining the excellence of conservatory programs.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate, bequests and/or planned gifts.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Since its establishment in 2003, the Friends of the Conservatory of Music has raised significant funds for the conservatory through membership dues and special events. This dedicated group provides financial support for scholarships and other conservatory needs.

Beyond outstanding music, members of the Friends of the Conservatory also have the pleasure of associating with others who share their enthusiasm for the conservatory and its mission.

Members gather through the year for membership meetings and an annual tea on April 9, 2008. Musical programs are provided by the faculty and students for these special events.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, please call the development office at 561-237-7467.

Student Biographies

Pianist Krume Andreevski was born in 1983, in Skopje, Macedonia, and is an emerging young artist with a high level of keyboard mastery and diverse musical influences. He has performed three times as a soloist with the Macedonian Philharmonic Orchestra. Last year he performed Rachmaninoff's "Paganini Rhapsody" and also his graduating recital in Skopje with works of Bach, Beethoven, Rachmaninoff, Schedrin and Balakirev. In 2005 he was the first prize winner at the International Competition "Interfest", performing Rachmaninoff's Second Sonata for piano with great artistic maturity. His repertoire ranges from Bach and Scarlatti to Prokofiev and Stravinsky. Krume Andreevski's musical education began at age seven with professor Vedrana Svetieva, regularly performing in concerts and competitions for young musicians. He has participated on several music competitions: State competitions 1995 and 1998 – Second prize; State competitions 1996 and 2001 – First prize. Krume continued his professional education in the UKIM Conservatory of Music in Skopje, Macedonia, under the guidance of professor Boris Romanov – renowned pianist from Russia and an outstanding teacher. During his studies he often performed within the Conservatory and on concerts throughout Macedonia, including appearances in festivals "Skopje Summer" and "Ohrid Summer". He was also part of professor Romanov's master-classes in Ohrid and Beograd. His international musical experience includes the participation in different international music competitions: "Music and Earth" Sofia; "Rovere d'Oro" San Bartolomeo, Italy, 2000– Third prize; "Pro – Piano Romania" Bucharest, 2001 – Fourth prize; "Vojislav Vuckovic" Belgrade, 2005 – Second prize; and his recent performance on the Sorantin Competition in San Angelo, Texas, 2006. He is currently a Master of Music student at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida, studying with pianist Dr. Roberta Rust.

Ann Fink started studying the Suzuki violin method with Betty Newel in 1986. She remained a Suzuki student until 1994 when she began studying with Ayako Yonetani in the pre-college division at the University of Central Florida. In 1999 Ann became a student of Sergiu Schwartz, and continued to study with him throughout high school. She graduated from Alexander Dreyfoos School of the Arts in West Palm Beach Florida in May of 2001 and began studies at Juilliard later that year with Hyo Kang, I Hao Lee, and David Chan. In 2005 Ann received her Bachelor of Music degree from Juilliard. Ann remained at Juilliard until receiving her Masters of Music degree in May of 2007. Ann has performed all over New York City in venues such as Alice Tully, Avery Fisher, and Carnegie Hall. Ann is a certified Suzuki Violin teacher and has worked as violin faculty at the Preparatory Center at Brooklyn College, Lucy Moses School, and the Music Institute of Long Island. Currently, Ann is doing additional studies at the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University with Carol Cole and Elmar Oliviera.

Piero Guimarães had his first contact with music in school marching bands. The beginning of his music studies took place in Goiânia (state of Goiás) with the teacher Wallace Silva. In the year of 2000 he moved to Tatuí, state of São Paulo, to study in the Carlos de Campos Dramatic and Musical Conservatory, where he had classes with Luiz Marcos Caldana and Ricardo Bologna. In 2003 Piero joined the São Paulo University Symphonic Orchestra, selected for the Academy Project, playing the six symphonies of P. I. Tchaikovsky. With the same orchestra he played as a soloist in M. Camargo Guarnieri's "Concert for Strings and Percussion". In the Curitiba Music Festival, January of 2003, Piero was the first timpani in the I. Stravinsky's "Rite of Spring". In the Campos do Jordão Music International Festival, July of 2005, was timpanist of G. Mahler's 1st symphony, conducted by Kurt Mazur. The "Rite of Spring" was played by him again in the Berlin Philharmonie in the winter of 2006/07, when he joined the World Orchestra of the Jeunesses Musicales for an Europe tour, conducted by Josep Vicent. He played as guest musician in the Symphonic Orchestra of São Paulo Municipal Theatre and State of Sao Paulo Symphonic Orchestra. With this orchestras he played the Brazilian premiere of works by Peter Eotvos, K. Stockhausen and Penderecki. The contemporary chamber music activity includes four years as a member of PIAP (Percussion Group of UNESP percussion course), focused on new commissioned and standard master pieces. It is winner of important chamber music prizes and it is oriented by John Boudler. Piero also had participated in the Percorso Group which has a varied formation. With this ensemble he played some Brazilian premieres, among them there are "Persephassa" and "Pleiades" by I. Xenakis, "Sextet" and "Six Marimbas" by S.
