LYNN UNIVERSITY

Lynn University, a private coeducational institution founded in 1962, offers a diverse academic program leading to bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees. The five separate colleges offer 25 majors, and the university hosts more than 2,500 students from 46 states and 90 nations.

LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Lynn University Conservatory of Music's mission is to provide young artists with the skills necessary for superior performance and for careers in music. Training at the conservatory focuses on solo, orchestral and chamber music studies. Extensive performing opportunities are central to the process. Conservatory of Music graduates have won national and international competitions and perform as soloists with some of the most prestigious symphony orchestras in the world.

LYNN UNIVERSITY PHILHARMONIA ORCHESTRA

The Lynn University Philharmonia sets the standard for university level symphonic training. The Philharmonia was first formed in 1991. It became a full symphony orchestra in 1993. As an integral part of the training of both graduate and undergraduate music students of Lynn University, the Philharmonia offers excellent orchestral training through the preparation and performance of orchestral repertoire and a minimum of six public performances per year. It has presented several new works throughout its history and has always been enthusiastically received by the public and the press. Now in its 13th season as a full symphony orchestra, the Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra continues to present high-quality concerts with a wide range of repertoire.

ALBERT-GEORGE SCHRAM, conductor

A native of the Netherlands, Dr. Schram is resident staff conductor of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, a principal guest conductor of the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra, and resident conductor of the Lynn University Conservatory of Music Philharmonia Orchestra. He was the resident conductor of the Florida Philharmonic. Dr. Schram's recent foreign conducting engagements have included the KBS Symphony Orchestra, the Taegu Symphony Orchestra in Korea, and the Orchester der Allgemeinen Musikgesellschaft Luzern in Switzerland. Dr. Schram's studies have been largely in the European tradition under the tutelage of Franco Gerrara, Rafael Kubelik, Abraham Kaplan, and Neeme Järvi. He has studied at the Conservatory of the Hague in the Netherlands, the universities of Calgary and Victoria, and the University of Washington, where he received the Doctor of Musical Arts in conducting.
