About Lynn University

Located in Boca Raton, Lynn University is a private, coeducational university awarding bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees. Founded in 1962 and accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Lynn stresses individualized learning, innovative approaches and an international focus among its students and faculty.

The university currently enrolls more than 2,700 students representing 43 U.S. states and 93 nations. In addition to its colleges of business, international communications, arts and sciences, hospitality management and education, the university houses specialty programs including the Conservatory of Music, School of Aeronautics and the Institute for Achievement and Learning, which is an international pioneer in developing successful teaching strategies for students with learning differences. Kevin M. Ross was named Lynn University's fifth president in July 2006.

The Conservatory of Music at Lynn University

One of the leading conservatories within a university environment, the Lynn Conservatory admits a highly select group of gifted musicians from around the world to pursue rigorous solo, chamber and orchestral training, as well as a carefully crafted academic program of study that leads to the Bachelor of Music Performance, Bachelor of Music, Master of Music or Professional Performance Certificate.

Our distinguished faculty brings a wealth of experience and expertise to our students, who consistently earn the highest honors at international competitions and join leading orchestras and prominent faculties around the globe.

Jon Robertson, conductor and soloist

Maestro Jon Robertson, dean of the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University, enjoys a distinguished career as a pianist, conductor and academician. A graduate of The Juilliard School of Music, he studied piano performance under Beveridge Webster, choral conducting with Abraham Kaplan at Juilliard, and orchestral conducting with Richard Pittman of the New England Conservatory of Music and the Gewandhaus Orchestra (Germany).

His conducting career spans the globe, from symphony orchestras in Norway, China, Egypt, South Africa and Austria to the Redlands Symphony Orchestra in California, where he has been principal conductor since 1982. Robertson continues to guest conduct and perform in concert as a member of the Archduke Trio.
