Biographies

Marc Reese, artist faculty-trumpet

Internationally acclaimed trumpeter Marc Reese joined the Empire Brass Quintet in 1996. Mr. Reese maintains a busy schedule as chamber musician, soloist and master clinician touring extensively throughout the United States, Europe and the Far East. He continues to receive critical acclaim for his work including recent performances of Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 2, a solo recital at Washington D.C.'s National Cathedral and the world premiere of Arthur Weisberg's Concerto for Trumpet.

Mr. Reese is also highly regarded as an orchestral musician having most recently been engaged to perform with the New York Philharmonic, the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the NHK Symphony of Japan.

In addition to recording for Telarc with the Empire Brass, Mr. Reese has recorded for Sony with the Boston Pops and has been featured on the Naxos label with the Boston Modern Orchestra Project. He has appeared on the nationally televised Evening at Pops (Boston Pops), throughout China with the Shanghai Broadcasting Orchestra as well as on NHK television in Japan.

Mr. Reese began his early training at The Juilliard School and Tanglewood Institute. He went on to receive his Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees from Boston University and the New England Conservatory, respectively. His former teachers include Roger Voisin, Timothy Morrison, Mark Gould and Melvyn Broiles.

A frequent performer and teacher at festivals throughout the world, he has most recently appeared at Marlboro, Tanglewood, Las Vegas, and the Pacific Music Festival in Japan. Mr. Reese is currently the artist faculty - trumpet at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music.

Lisa Leonard, piano

A native of Washington D.C., Lisa Leonard enjoys a versatile career as a soloist and chamber musician. In 1990 at the age of 17, Ms. Leonard made her debut with the National Symphony Orchestra in six concerts, at the Kennedy Center. She has appeared as soloist throughout Europe, Japan, Russia and North America with orchestras including Alexandria, Winston-Salem, Raleigh, International Symphony of Germany and the International Music Festival Orchestra with whom she recorded the Shostakovich First Piano Concerto for Hessisches Rundfunk.

An active chamber musician, she has performed with members of the Berlin, Vienna, New York and Cincinnati Philharmonic orchestras in performances featured on National Public Radio's "Performance Today" and "Command Performance" programs. Her love for new music has resulted in several premieres of both solo and chamber music including the recent recording of James Aikmans Sonata No. 3 with violinist Alexander Kerr, concertmaster of the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra.

Ms. Leonard has served on the faculties of the North Carolina School of the Arts and the Meadowmount School of music and has participated in the Pacific Music Festival, Gilmore International Piano Festival, Caramoor and the East/West International Festival where she was assistant director of chamber music. She received her M.M. and B.M. from the Manhattan School of Music, where she was the premiere recipient of both the Rubinstein and Balsam awards, two of the highest awards given. Her former teachers include: Eric Larsen, Marc Silverman, Isidore Cohen, Thomas Schumacher, Cynthia Phelps, David Geber and the Meadowmount Trio.
