About Lynn University

Lynn University, an independent, nonprofit university located in Boca Raton, Fla., is home to five academic colleges (business and management, arts and sciences, international communication, hospitality management, and education), a Conservatory of Music, The Burton D. Morgan School of Aeronautics and the Institute for Achievement and Learning. Dedicated to individualized learning, innovative approaches and an international focus, Lynn currently enrolls more than 2,200 students representing 40 U.S. states and 80 nations and competes in NCAA Division II.

The Lynn University Conservatory of Music

One of the leading conservatories within a university environment, the Lynn Conservatory admits a highly select group of gifted musicians from around the world to pursue rigorous solo, chamber and orchestral training, as well as a carefully crafted academic program of study that leads to the bachelor of music performance, bachelor of music, master of music or professional performance certificate. Our distinguished faculty brings a wealth of experience and expertise to our students, who consistently earn the highest honors at international competitions and join leading orchestras and prominent faculties around the globe.

About Our Philharmonia Orchestra

The Conservatory’s Philharmonia Orchestra sets the standard for conservatory-level symphonic training. Now in its 18th season as a full symphony, the Philharmonia is an integral part of the education of the conservatory’s graduate and undergraduate music students. It presents an annual series of high-quality concerts with a wide range of repertoire.

Jon Robertson, guest conductor

Maestro Jon Robertson, dean of the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, enjoys a distinguished career as a pianist, conductor and academician. A graduate of The Juilliard School of Music, he studied piano performance under Beveridge Webster, choral conducting with Abraham Kaplan at Juilliard, and orchestral conducting with Richard Pittman of the New England Conservatory of Music and the Gewandhaus Orchestra (Germany). His conducting career spans the globe from symphony orchestras in Norway, China, Egypt, South Africa and Austria to the Redlands Symphony Orchestra in California, where he has been principal conductor since 1982. Robertson continues to guest conduct and perform in concert as a member of the Archduke Trio.
