Aaron Mahnken, trumpet

Aaron Mahnken began playing the trumpet in 1992. He later studied with Mary Weber and in 1998 began working with Susan Slaughter, principal trumpet of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. He came to Lynn University in 2001 to study with artist faculty Marc Reese, member of the Empire Brass Quintet. Previous teachers include Ilya Litvin and Thomas Drake.

Aaron has performed with the St. Louis Symphony and the Palm Beach Opera. During the summer of 2003, Aaron attended the Las Vegas Music Festival. In 2002, he organized and performed in a benefit concert for Backstopper's, a charity that provides financial relief to the families of police officers and firefighters killed in the line of duty.

Edmilson Gomes, trumpet

Edmilson graduated from the Mozarteum College of São Paulo, Brazil. He started his musical career in 1982 with the Youth Orchestra of São Paulo State. He has participated in many music festivals in Brazil and Argentina. As a guest musician, Edmilson has performed with the São Paulo Orchestra, São Paulo City Municipal Orchestra, Curitiba, Ribeirão Preto, and many other chamber music ensembles. Edmilson has attended workshops with Charles Chuluter, principal trumpet of the Boston Symphony; Nigel Fielding, 1st cornet of Salford University Brass Band of England; and Wynton Marsalis, jazz trumpet soloist.

Edmilson was a member of the Okynteto Brass Quintet having received the ALCOA second prize, and CD recording contract at the National Chamber Music Contest of the Santa Marcelina College (FASM-SP). In 1997, the quintet won third prize at the IX Premio Eldorado de Musica, Brazilian chamber music contest. Today, Okynteto is considered one of the best Brazilian brass ensembles holding the distinction of being the only group to have won in numerous competitions throughout Brazil.

In July 1997, Edmilson performed with the São Paulo State Symphonic Band and with the VIII Konferenz WASBE – Weltorganisation der Symphonischen y Blasorchester und Blaser-Ensembles in Schladming, Austria. He was the coordinator and a trumpeter of the Orquestra Experimental de Repertório for five years in São Paulo, Brazil. Today he is a BSESP musician, a professor at Free University of Music (ULM) – Tom Jobim, and a member of the Metal Brazil ensemble. Edmilson is currently pursuing a Professional Studies Degree and studies with Mr. Marc Reese at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music.

Oliver Salonga, piano

An outstanding graduate of the Philippine High School for the Arts majoring in piano performance, Oliver Salonga first came to the attention of Manila's music lovers when he won first prize in the National Music Competition for Young Artist (NAMCYA) twice in a row - 1998 and in 2001.

What impressed the jury was his big, robust tone and an emerging keyboard artistry. After his triumph at the NAMCYA playing Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 1 Op. 15, he appeared in music festivals in Manila, Northern Luzon, Taiwan, Japan, and Singapore where his unique keyboard touch received positive notices.

After playing Grieg's Piano Concerto Op.16 in Singapore, Oliver made his debut with the Philippine Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Ruggiero Barbieri and got a standing ovation along with enthusiastic reviews from the country's leading music critics. The country's most celebrated pianist Cecile Licad heard him play Chopin's Scherzo No. 2 and found him "highly promising".

At the Philippine High School for the Arts, Oliver was under the tutelage of Prof. Carmencita Arambulo. Upon graduation from PHSA as the most outstanding student artist in music and as the 1st Honorable Mention of his class, Oliver was the recipient of the Sunico Foundation Scholarship Award.

In August 2003, at the University of the Philippines, Oliver won 1st prize at the Rachmaninoff Piano Competition playing Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2 in c minor.

Oliver is currently studying at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music under Dr. Roberta Rust.
