

2012-2013
Season

LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.

Welcome to the 2012-2013 season. As dean of the Conservatory of Music, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity.

— Jon Robertson, Dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music raise significant funds for the conservatory through annual giving and special events. This dedicated group provides financial resources for annual and endowed scholarships and other conservatory needs.

By becoming a Friend, you provide financial support through endowed scholarships for talented and deserving students; or, you can designate your donation for the Conservatory of Music to use where the need is greatest. Because of your gifts, students at Lynn will have opportunities to become noted performers, composers and educators.

Beyond enjoying outstanding music, the Friends of the Conservatory also have the pleasure of associating with others who share their enthusiasm for the conservatory and its mission. The Friends gather through the year for meetings and an annual tea. Musical programs are provided by the faculty and students for these special events.

THE LEADERSHIP SOCIETY OF LYNN UNIVERSITY

With an annual gift of $2,500 or more during the fiscal year July 1 to June 30, you will be recognized in The Leadership Society of Lynn University. This premier annual giving society honors donors who recognize the significant impact leadership gifts have in sustaining the excellence of conservatory programs.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate, bequests and/or planned gifts.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, please call the development office at 561-237-7745.

Takuya Yamamoto started violin study at age of 4. He graduated Toho Gakuen school of Music BA in 2009, where he studied with Mr. Kenji Kobayashi. Presently, he studies in Lynn University Conservatory of Music PPC with Ms. Carol Cole. He attended several music camps and festivals including Meadowmount school of music in 2002, 2003 and 2004 (NY USA), Great Mountain Music Festival in 2009 (Seoul Korea) Saito-Kinen Music festival in 2011 and 2012 (Matsumoto Japan) He joined concert tour of Seiji Ozawa Music Academy Orchestra in Beijing and Shanghai in 2011 and will perform with same orchestra concert in several cities in Japan in March 2013.

Sofiya Uryvayeva was born in Siberia to a family of passionate music lovers. After moving with her family to Ukraine, she graduated from the Odessa Stolyarsky Music School for highly talented children. Due to her outstanding talent, Sofiya was then invited to Germany for post-graduate study as a recipient of a full scholarship. While in Germany, she earned both Master's and Doctorate Degrees in music performance, and also performed in many concerts, including solo and chamber programs. Her concerts uniformly received the highest accolades and rave reviews from the German public and press. Due to her superlative achievements in the music field, in 2009 the State Department of the US government granted her permanent residency in the United States, a rare privilege reserved for individuals of extraordinary ability, recognizing these honorees as "the best of the best" in their field of endeavor. Her American debut at the Steinway Gallery in Miami was filmed and broadcast on nationwide television. Modern composers from all over the world have dedicated their music to her, and she has performed numerous world premieres. Besides her numerous appearances in front of American audiences, Sofiya has performed to acclaim throughout the world, including in Ukraine, Germany, Italy, and Austria. Her concerts have been described by critics as "A festival for all the senses, for the soul and for life," "A magic ride on the witch's broom," and "Brilliant technique with soul." Dr. Sofiya Uryvayeva is currently a collaborative pianist at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida.

Heqing Huang was winner of the 2011 Lynn Concerto Competition and the Ars Flores Concerto Competition. As a result, he appeared as soloist with the Lynn Philharmonia in the Wold Performing Arts Center and with the Ars Flores Symphony Orchestra in the Miniaci Performing Arts Center. This past summer he attended the Montecito Festival in California. He hails from southwest China and began to learn music at age four. He studied piano performance in the attached middle school of the Sichuan Conservatory of Music with the excellent pianist Ai Zeng.. Mr. Huang was awarded a Special Prize in a National Youth Piano Competition in China in 2009 and was a finalist in the 4th Wiesbaden international piano competition in Germany. Mr. Huang has held several recitals successfully in the Sichuan Conservatory of Music and Sichuan Normal University and North Sichuan Medical College. He currently studies with Roberta Rust at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida.
