"The Violin Millennium"

dedicated to the memory of George Hillman

7:30 p.m. January 26, 2000
Morikami Museum
George Hillman

George Hillman, who passed away recently, was a patron of the arts with a particular interest in music. As a successful businessman and amateur violinist, he fulfilled his vision by initiating an endowment to support gifted violinists during their training at The Harid Conservatory. Many of the violinists who have garnered national and international awards, as well as those continuing to graduate music schools, have benefited from the generosity of George Hillman. We will miss him dearly.

Sergiu Schwartz’s active international career has taken him to major music centers on 3 continents, including 20 European countries, Israel, and over 40 U. S. states, as a soloist with over 200 leading orchestras, and in recitals and chamber music concerts. His recent solo orchestral engagements include the Dresden Staatskapelle, Jerusalem Symphony, London Symphony Orchestra at Barbican Hall, London Soloists Chamber Orchestra at Queen Elizabeth Hall, Sarajevo Philharmonic (in Bosnia and on tour in France), Dresden Philharmonic, Slovak Philharmonic, Hungarian Chamber Orchestra, European Community Chamber Orchestra, Florida Philharmonic, and Orchestra of St. Luke’s at New York’s Lincoln Center, among numerous other distinguished ensembles in the U. S. and worldwide. He has collaborated in performances with preeminent conductors, including Sergiu Comissiona, James Judd, Peter Maag, Giuseppe Sinopoli, Bruno Weil, and Antoni Wit. As a recitalist, Mr. Schwartz’s performances include sold-out concerts at the 92nd Street Y, Carnegie Hall’s Weill Recital Hall, and Merkin Hall in New York; and at Wigmore Hall in London. As a performer and pedagogue, he is a frequent guest at national and international music festivals, including Aspen, Newport, Interlochen, Israel, Interlaken (Switzerland), Kuhmo (Finland), Prusia Cove (England), La Gesse (France), Soesterberg (Holland), Brasov (Romania), and Sofia and Plovdiv (Bulgaria). He has been featured in broadcasts for major radio and TV stations, including the BBC, NPR, and CNN, and has recorded for Vox, Arcobaleno, CRS Records, Discover/Koch International, and Gega.

Sergiu Schwartz studied at the Rubin Academy in Tel Aviv, where he also gained exposure to world-class artists such as Isaac Stern and Yehudi Menuhin during master classes at the Jerusalem Music Center. He continued his studies with Yfrah Neaman at the Guildhall School in London, and in 1981 he was awarded scholarships from the America-Israel Cultural Foundation and The Juilliard School to study with Dorothy DeLay. Mr. Schwartz’s honors include major prizes in international violin competitions in London, Switzerland, Chile, and the United States, and awards from the National Endowment for the Arts and the National Foundation for the Advancement of the Arts.

A teacher of prizewinning students in prestigious competitions, including Premio Paganini (Italy) and Pablo de Sarasate (Spain) International Violin Competitions, and the Coleman and Carmel Chamber Music Competitions (California), Mr. Schwartz is in demand for master classes and master courses worldwide, and serves as a juror in national and international competitions.

This February, Mr. Schwartz appears as a soloist with the Florida Philharmonic under James Judd and the Boca Symphonic Pops. In April, he performs a recital in the Temple Beth-Am concert series in Miami.
