Collaborative pianist, Yiqian Song was born in Hunan, south of China. She started to play the piano at the age of six and she was a winner of Hunan Youth Competition. While attending high school, Ms.Song served as the accompanist of school's chorus. She also collaborates regularly with students from school's vocal department. In 2006, she entered to the Shanghai Conservatory of Music, majoring in piano and minoring in vocal. Ms.Song also learned percussion and choral conducting while attending Shanghai Conservatory of Music. She completed her bachelor degree under the tutelage of Yumeng Chen. Ms.Song is studying collaborative piano at Lynn University with Tao Lin.

Ann Fontanella is the last protégé of the "Old Russian School" style of violin play and pedagogy that has been passed down from virtuosos for over 150 years. The Old Russian style emphasizes a warm and rich romantic tone with exacting precision that allows you to hear each note clearly even when playing at tremendous speed. At the age of 14, Ann was one of the youngest artists ever accepted to Yale University's School of Music to study with the late American violinist, Erick Friedman. Later that year she appeared on NPR's From the Top to critical acclaim. Ann released her debut album Bach, Schubert, Bruch in 2005. Ann currently studies with Elmar Oliveira. She is managed by AMA and is preparing for a concert tour of the United States in the 2012/2013 season.

Cuban violinist Silvia Suarez graduated from the Instituto Superior de Arte in La Habana, Cuba where she studied with Professor Alfredo Muñoz in a special three year program. She was a finalist twice in the International Competition "José White" and obtained 2nd place in the National Competition "Amadeo Roldán". She has been a soloist and concertmaster with one of the top orchestras in Cuba, the "Camerata Romeu" Chamber Orchestra conducted by Zenaida Romeu, with whom she toured Cuba, Venezuela, Mexico and France performing repertoire of Latin-American, contemporary and classical composers. In 2003, Silvia was selected to perform in a youth orchestra under the baton of Claudio Abbado at the Amadeo Roldan Theater in Cuba. In the United States she has participated in Bowdoin International Music Festival, and the Atlantic Music Festival. Internationally she has participated in the "Cervantino" and "Ceiba" Festivals in Mexico, D'Aix en Provence Festival in France, Chamber Music Festival and Contemporary Music Festival in Cuba.
