MOSTLY MUSIC: MENDELSSOHN

Thursday, Feb. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847) was born just eighteen years after Mozart's death and many regarded him as Mozart's heir. Like Mozart, he too would have a very short life span but during his brief 38 years he composed some of our best-loved masterpieces. In addition to his brilliant musical creativity he was a wonderful correspondent writing about his visits with such people as Queen Victoria and Goethe. Conceived and hosted by Marshall Turkin and staged by Jan McArt, Mostly Music features Lynn Conservatory's faculty and students.
