of SNU team (1/29). In the summer of 2009, Mr. Zhang was invited as a performance associate of the prestigious Bowdoin International Music Festival, Bowdoin, Maine. Presently, Mr. Zhang is pursuing a master’s degree of music at Lynn University Conservatory, studying collaborative piano with Professor Lisa Leonard.

Teng-kuan Wang, collaborative pianist born in Taiwan, started to learn piano at six and learned violin at the age of 11. He studied music at Chaiyi Junior High School, majoring in piano and minoring in violin. His junior high trio won first place in a chamber music competition. Mr. Wang advanced on to Chaiyi Senior High School where he received full scholarship. Pursuing his piano and violin studies, Mr. Wang also joined the concert band and played tuba. In 2003, he entered the music department in Soochow University, his major was piano, but he continued to pursue his love for low brass, performing euphonium in the music department’s wind orchestra. Mr. Wang’s professors include Wei-Long Lee, Sophia Yu, Alexander Sung and John Vaughan. His studies at Soochow University aided in his pursuit of collaborative studies, as he often accompanied in students’ recitals, performances and competitions. Mr. Wang is a PPC candidate at Lynn University Conservatory of Music, studying collaborative piano with Professor Lisa Leonard.

UPCOMING EVENTS

MOSTLY MUSIC: BARTÓK
Thursday, March 31 at 7:30 p.m.
The greatest Hungarian composer of his day and one of the world’s finest, Béla Bartók (1881-1945) helped awaken serious interest in folk music but also engaged himself no less profoundly in Western art music. This resulted in his compositions taking their place as a cornerstone of 20th century music. Conceived and hosted by Marshall Turkin and staged by Jan McArt, Mostly Music features Lynn Conservatory’s faculty and students.
