Born in Changhua County, Taiwan, Chien-I Yang has had a remarkable career as a classical pianist. Ms. Yang has been a recipient of numerous awards for her outstanding abilities as both a soloist and chamber musician. Some of her achievements include the first prize of the College Byrd Piano Ensemble Competition in 2009, the first prize of the First Chamber Music Competition in Soochow University in 2004 (where she gave a public performance in the prestigious National Concert Hall in Taipei, Taiwan), the second prize in the Piano Competition of Changhua County in 1997, the third prize in the 19th Annual Kawai Piano Competition in 1995, the fourth prize in the Solo Piano Competition of Taichung City in 1999, and the fourth prize in the Chamber Music Competition of Taiwan in 2002. Ms. Yang has had the opportunity to perform in master classes given by such honorable pianists as Phillippe Entremont, Arie Vardi, “Two Pianists” (Nina Schumann and Luis Magalhaes). Ms. Yang has also been broadcasted on national public radio in Boca Raton, Florida, performing selections of Schumann’s Carnaval. Beginning her studies on the piano at age five, Ms. Yang was admitted to the music department of Taichung second senior high school by age fifteen, and received her Bachelor’s of Music Degree at Soochow University under Professor John D. Vaughan. As of May, 2010, Ms. Yang will receive her Masters of Music Degree in solo piano at Lynn Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida, as a student of the distinguished Dr. Roberta Rust. Currently, Ms. Yang has been selected to continue her studies with Dr. Rust at Lynn Conservatory of Music, where she will pursue her Professional Performance Certificate in solo piano.
