Ann Fontanella is the last protégé of the "Old Russian School" style of violin play and pedagogy that has been passed down from virtuosos for over 150 years. The Old Russian style emphasizes a warm and rich romantic tone with exacting precision that allows you to hear each note clearly even when playing at tremendous speed. At the age of 14, Ann was one of the youngest artists ever accepted to Yale University's School of Music to study with the late American violinist, Erick Friedman. Later that year she appeared on NPR's From the Top to critical acclaim. Ann released her debut album Bach, Schubert, Bruch in 2005. Ann currently studies with Elmar Oliveira. She is managed by AMA and is preparing for a concert tour of the United States in the 2012/2013 season.

Pianist Zhou Jiang (China) graduated from Shanghai Conservatory with her Bachelor's in 2008. She has participated in concerts and festivals in Austria, Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg, France and the US. She is currently completing her Master's degree of Collaborative Piano at the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University, where she studies with Lisa Leonard.
