Matt Barwegen came to Boca Raton in 2007 to study with professor Ralph Fielding. He is currently in his second year toward completing a performance certificate at Lynn Conservatory. In 2007, he completed two seasons as a core member of the Shreveport Symphony, which included a stint as personnel manager. Previously, he was a core member of the symphonies of Santa Cruz, CA; South Bend, IN; and the Illinois Symphony in Springfield, IL.

As an active freelance musician in the southeast Florida region, he has played with the Palm Beach Opera, the Palm Beach Pops, the Sunrise Theater in Fort Pierce, and the New World Symphony in Miami.

Mr. Barwegen holds a Master of Music degree in viola performance from Illinois State University, where he studied with Arthur Lewis. He also has a Professional Studies degree from San Francisco Conservatory, where he studied with Jodi Levitz, and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Wheaton College.

Future plans include continued studies in the Chicago area starting next year.
