Dr. Anne-Louise Turgeon
Anne-Louise Turgeon received her early training at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto. She earned her Bachelor of Music Degree in Performance from the University of Toronto. She earned her Master's and Doctoral degrees from the Yale University School of Music, where she was awarded the Dean's prize. She has held teaching and collaborative positions at Yale University, Mount Holyoke College and Algoma University. She is currently a member of the piano faculty at Florida Atlantic University, and a National Senior Examiner for the Royal Conservatory's of Music's College of Examiners. An award winning pianist as both a soloist and duo-pianist, she and her husband Ed Turgeon regularly perform together as "Duo Turgeon."

Mr. Ross Salvosa
A native of the Philippines, Ross Salvosa is a sophomore piano performance major at Lynn University's Harid Conservatory School of Music under the tutelage of Dr. Roberta Rust. His formal piano studies began at the age of five. At the age of ten, he won the top prize in the Youth Category of the Philippine National Music Competition for Young Artists. He also won the top prize in the Piano Teachers' Guild of the Philippines Concerto Competition where he played Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 1.
