MOSTLY MUSIC: BEETHOVEN

Thursday, March 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827) was born just 14 years after Mozart's birth but a dramatic historical change was underway – the gradual decay of European aristocracy. Beginning with Beethoven, the composer was transformed into a romantic hero and was to blaze a new path on a musical journey. Conceived and hosted by Marshall Turkin and staged by Jan McArt, Mostly Music features Lynn Conservatory's faculty and students.

William Rueckert began playing the tuba in 6th grade at Watson B. Duncan Middle School in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida. He began his formal studies in the 8th grade with Paul Destito. That year, William received 8th Chair in the Florida All-State Band, and 1st Chair in the Palm Beach County All-District Band. William attended high school at the Alexander W. Dreyfoos Jr. School Of the Arts in West Palm Beach, Florida. During this time, William participated in the Youth Orchestra of Palm Beach County for the 2003-2006 seasons. In addition, William participated in the Palm Beach County All-District Band, receiving 1st Chair his Junior and Senior years. William has performed with several ensembles throughout Palm Beach County including "Brass Five, a freelance brass quintet in West Palm Beach, the Palm Beach Atlantic University Brass and Tuba ensembles, and the Palm Beach Gardens Community Band. In the summer of 2010, William participated in the "Atlantic Brass Quintet International Seminar" in Boston, Massachusetts where he received the "Most Improved Tuba Player" and "Mount Everest" awards. In addition, William recently performed in a side by side concert with the Youth Orchestra of Palm Beach County under the direction of Manuel Capote, and the Dublin Youth Orchestra under the direction of Fergus Sheil. William is currently a Senior pursuing his B.M. degree at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, studying with Kenneth Amis.

Teng-Kuan Wang, collaborative pianist born in Taiwan, started to learn piano at six and learned violin at the age of 1. He studied music at Chaiyi Junior High School, majoring in piano and minoring in violin. His junior high trio won first place in a chamber music competition. Mr. Wang advanced on to Chaiyi Senior High School where he received full scholarship. Pursuing his piano and violin studies, Mr. Wang also joined the concert band and played tuba. In 2003, he entered the music department in Soochow University, his major was piano, but he continued to pursue his love for low brass, performing euphonium in the music department's wind orchestra. Mr. Wang's professors include Wei-Long Lee, Sophia Yu, Alexander Sung and John Vaughan. His studies at Soochow University aided in his pursuit of collaborative studies as he often accompanied in students' recitals, performances and competitions. Mr. Wang is a PPC candidate at Lynn University Conservatory of Music studying collaborative piano with Lisa Leonard.
