Season

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC AT LYNN UNIVERSITY

When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.

Dr. Jon Robertson,
Dean

Welcome to the 2007-2008 season. As dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity.

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can benefit scholarships, various studios, special concerts or the general conservatory fund.

THE LEADERSHIP SOCIETY OF LYNN UNIVERSITY

With an annual gift of $2,500 or more during the fiscal year July 1 to June 30, you will be recognized in our new Leadership Society. This premier annual giving society honors donors who recognize the significant impact leadership gifts have in sustaining the excellence of conservatory programs.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate, bequests and/or planned gifts.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Since its establishment in 2003, the Friends of the Conservatory of Music has raised significant funds for the conservatory through membership dues and special events. This dedicated group provides financial support for scholarships and other conservatory needs.

Beyond outstanding music, members of the Friends of the Conservatory also have the pleasure of associating with others who share their enthusiasm for the conservatory and its mission. Members gather through the year for membership meetings and an annual tea on April 9, 2008. Musical programs are provided by the faculty and students for these special events.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, please call the development office at 561-237-7467.

Krume Andreevski

Pianist Krume Andreevski was born in 1983, in Skopje, Macedonia, and is an emerging young artist with a high level of keyboard mastery and diverse musical influences. He has performed three times as a soloist with the Macedonian Philharmonic Orchestra. In 2005 he was the first prize winner at the International Competition “Interfest - Bitola”. In 2006 he performed Rachmaninoff’s “Paganini Rhapsody” with the Macedonian Philharmonic and also his graduating recital in Skopje with works of Bach, Beethoven, Rachmaninoff, Schedrin and Balakirev. He was also a winner of the 2007 Ars Flores Young Artists Concerto Competition, held in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, performing Prokofiev’s Piano Concerto No. 3 with the Ars Flores Symphony Orchestra. His repertoire ranges from Bach and Scarlatti to Prokofiev and Stravinsky.

Krume Andreevski’s musical education began at age seven with professor Vedrana Svetieva, regularly performing in concerts and competitions for young musicians. He has participated on several music competitions: State competitions 1995 and 1998 – Second prize; State competitions 1996 and 2001 – First prize. Krume continued his professional education in the UKIM Conservatory of Music in Skopje, Macedonia, under the guidance of professor Boris Romanov – renowned pianist from Moscow, and an outstanding teacher. During his studies he often performed within the Conservatory and on concerts throughout Macedonia, including appearances in festivals “Skopje Summer” and “Ohrid Summer“. He was also part of professor Romanov’s master-classes in Ohrid and Beograd.

His international musical experience includes the participation in different international music competitions: “Music and Earth” Sofia; “Rovere d’Oro” San Bartolomeo, Italy, 2000– Third prize; “Pro – Piano Romania” Bucharest, 2001 – Fourth prize; “Vojislav Vuckovic” Belgrade, 2005 – Second prize; on the Sorantin Competition in San Angelo, Texas, 2006; and his recent performance on the 2007 Ars Flores Concerto Competition – First Prize.

He is currently a Master of Music student at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida, studying with pianist Dr. Roberta Rust.
