

16th Annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert

Presented by Lynn University Friends of the Conservatory of Music

3 p.m. ↓ Sunday, Dec. 9, 2018 Boca Raton Resort and Club - Great Hall

Welcome to the 16th annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert

Each year, the much-anticipated Gingerbread Holiday Concert brings together parents, grandparents and kids of all ages to spread holiday cheer through a festive musical afternoon.

Jon Robertson, Dean of the Lynn Conservatory of Music leads this afternoon's program performed by our superb Lynn Philharmonia Orchestra.

Your ticket purchase or sponsorship to today's concert benefits the Lynn Conservatory scholarship fund. Without your support, our talented conservatory students, who hail from around the world and comprise one of the most internationally diverse student bodies in the country, would not be able to receive Lynn's high level of music performance education. Many of our graduates go on to win auditions with top orchestras such as the New York Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, National Symphony Orchestra and the United States Navy Band.

Today's concert is made possible through the leadership of Pat Thomas and Kim Champion, who serve as co-chairs. We are grateful to them, and all the Friends of the Conservatory of Music, for their dedication in making the Gingerbread Holiday Concert one of Boca Raton's most beloved annual holiday traditions.

Thank you for celebrating the holidays with us and for your support of the Conservatory of Music.

Happy holidays from our Lynn University family to yours.

Christmas "Pop" Sing-A-Long No. 1

Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town

You better watch out, you better not cry. You better not pout, I'm telling you why: Santa Claus is coming to town.

He's making a list, He's checking' it twice. He's gonna find out who's naughty and nice. Santa Claus is coming to town.

He sees you when you're sleeping. He knows when you're awake. He knows if you've been bad or good, so be good for goodness sake.

You better watch out, you better not cry. You better not pout, I'm telling you why: Santa Claus is coming to town.

You better watch out, you better not cry. You better not pout, I'm telling you why: Santa Claus is coming to town.

It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, ev'rywhere you go; take a look in the five and ten, glistening once again, with candy canes and silver lanes aglow.

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, toys in ev'ry store But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be on your own front door.

Silver Bells

City sidewalk, busy sidewalks dressed in holiday style. In the air there's a feeling of Christmas.

Children laughing, people passing, meeting smile after smile, and on every street corner you'll hear:

Silver bells, silver bells It's Christmas time in the city

Ring-a-ling, hear them ring, soon it will be Christmas day.

Winter Wonderland

Sleigh bells ring, are you listening? In the lane, snow is glistening, a beautiful sight, we're happy tonight, walking in a winter wonderland.

Gone away is the bluebird, here to stay is a new bird; He sings a love song, as we go along, walking in a winter wonderland.

In the meadow we can build a snowman Then pretend that he is Parson Brown; He'll say: "Are you married?" We'll say: "No man! But you can do the job when you're in town."

Later on, we'll conspire, as we dream by the fire to face unafraid, the plans that we've made, walking in a winter wonderland.

Frosty the Snowman

Frosty the Snowman was a jolly happy soul, with a corncob pipe and a button nose and two eyes made out of coal.

Frosty the snowman is a fairy tale they say he was made out of snow but the children know how he came to life one day.

There must have been some magic in that old silk hat they found, For when they placed it on his head, he began to dance around.

Oh, Frosty the Snowman was alive as he could be,

and the children say he could laugh and play just the same as you and me, just the same as you and me.

Rudolph the Red-Nose Reindeer

Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer had a very shiny nose, and if you ever saw it, you would even say it glows

All of the other reindeer used to laugh and call him names. They never let poor Rudolph join in any reindeer games

Then one foggy Christmas Eve, Santa came to say: "Rudolph with your nose so bright, won't you guide my sleigh tonight?"

Rudolph the Red-Nose Reindeer (con't)

Then all the reindeer loved him and they shouted out with glee: "Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer, you'll go down in history!"

White Christmas

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas, just like the ones I used to know, where the treetops glisten and children listen to hear sleigh bells in the snow.

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas with every Christmas card I write: "May your days be merry and bright and may all your Christmases be white."
