SEASON

When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.

Dr. Jon Robertson,
Dean

Welcome to the 2005-2006 season. This being my first year as dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity. This community engagement is in keeping with the Conservatory of Music's mission: to provide high-quality professional performance education for gifted young musicians and set a superior standard for music performance worldwide.

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can be designated for scholarships, various studios, special concerts or to the General Conservatory Fund.

ADOPT-A-STUDENT

You may select from the conservatory's promising young musicians and provide for his or her future through the Conservatory Scholarship Fund. You will enjoy the concert even more when your student performs. A gift of $25,000 adopts a student for one year. A gift of $100,000 pays for an education.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate or cash.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY

As a member of the Friends of the Conservatory, you will be involved in an organization that seeks to address the needs of the students and the conservatory as a whole. This organization has just completed its first year and now includes more than 100 members providing major scholarship assistance to the students.

VOLUNTEERING

Become a volunteer. Contact the ticket office manager at 561-237-9000 for more information.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, you may call the development office at 561-237-7766, or visit the university's Web site at www.lynn.edu.

Dmitri is the youngest member of a well-known family of outstanding musicians in his native Russia. He won the international violin competition held at the prestigious Gnessin School in Moscow and the International Competition for Chamber Music in St. Petersburg before coming to the United States in 2001.

Dmitri continued to garner awards, including top prizes at the 2004 Michael and Madelyn Savarick Music Scholarship Competition of the Mizner Centre of the Arts, the 2003 Strad Violin Competition and the 2003 Ludwig Spohr International Violin Competition in Germany. Following a performance with the Greater Palm Beach Symphony, the Palm Beach Daily News praised his "stellar performance" of the Tchaikovsky Concerto, as "an artist making his own statement...with the skill and panache of a player twice his years," while The Flint Journal music critic reported that "...the audience was collectively stunned by Pogorelov's fearless technical display. Clearly this young artist has the makings of a violin superstar."

May 2005, Dmitri Pogorelov received his Bachelor of Music Degree in Violin Performance "Magna cum Laude" from Lynn University, where he has been studying with Professor Sergiu Schwartz at the Conservatory of Music since 2001. Dmitri is presently enrolled in the Conservatory's Professional Performance Certificate program.
