Biography

Anne Chicheportiche, violin

Born in Nice, France, violinist Anne Chicheportiche entered the Conservatory of Antibes at the age of seven and won the prestigious Gold Medal, upon graduation at age thirteen. She continued her studies at the Conservatoire National Régional in Paris, winning First Prize two years later. In 1995, Anne won first place in the Radio France Competition. In 1999, she moved to Switzerland to begin studies at the Conservatoire de Genève, where she received her Soloist Diploma and won the Vidoudet Prize, the highest honor awarded to a string instrument player.

Anne has studied in Europe with Stefan Gheorghiu, Margarita Piguet Karafilova, Suzanne Gessner and Jean Claude Abraham. Since September 2002, she has been a student of artist faculty Sergiu Schwartz at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music where she is currently in her second year of studies in the Professional Studies Diploma Program.
