Boca Raton Resort and Club - Great Hall
Welcome to the 17th annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert

The annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert is extra special this year as we celebrate the 20th anniversary of Lynn University’s Conservatory of Music. Each year this concert brings together friends, parents, grandparents and kids of all ages to spread holiday cheer through a festive, musical afternoon.

Dr. Jon Robertson, Dean of the Conservatory of Music, leads this afternoon’s program, performed by our superb Lynn Philharmonia Orchestra. Your ticket purchase or sponsorship to today’s concert benefits the Lynn Conservatory scholarship fund, and your support assures our talented young musicians, who join us from around the world, have the resources to receive Lynn’s high level of music performance education.

Thanks to your generous gifts, our Conservatory alumni win auditions to major orchestras in the United States and abroad. They regularly compete against more than 200 musicians to gain positions with the Army Band, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra.

Today’s concert is made possible through the leadership of Pat Thomas and Kim Champion, who serve as co-chairs. We are grateful to them, and all the Friends of the Conservatory of Music, for their dedication in making the Gingerbread Holiday Concert one of Boca Raton’s most beloved annual holiday traditions.

Thank you for celebrating the holidays with us and for your support of the Conservatory of Music.

Happy holidays from our Lynn University family to yours.

Santa Claus is Comin' to Town

You better watch out, you better not cry,
You better not pout, I'm telling you why,
Santa Claus is coming to town.

He's making' a list, he's checking' it twice. He's gonna find out who's naughty and nice. Santa Claus is coming to town.

He sees you when you're sleeping. He knows when you're awake. He knows if you've been bad or good, so be good for goodness sake.

You better watch out, you better not cry,
You better not pout, I'm telling you why,
Santa Claus is coming to town.

It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, ev'rywhere you go;
take a look in the five and ten,
glistening once again, with candy canes and silver lanes aglow.

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, toys in ev'ry store.
But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be on your own front door.

Silver Bells

City sidewalks, busy sidewalks dressed in holiday style. In the air there's a feeling of Christmas.

Children laughing, people passing, meeting smile after smile, and on every street corner you'll hear:

Silver bells, silver bells,
It's Christmas time in the city.
Ring-a-ling, hear them ring, soon it will be Christmas day.

Winter Wonderland

Sleigh bells ring, are you listening? In the lane, snow is glistening, a beautiful sight, we're happy tonight, walking in a winter wonderland.

Gone away is the blue bird here to stay is a new bird; He sings a love song, as we go along, walking in a winter wonderland.

In the meadow we can build a snowman,
Then pretend that he is Parson Brown; He'll say: "Are you married?"
We'll say: "No man! But you can do the job when you're in town."

Later on, we'll conspire, as we dream by the fire to face unafraid, the plans that we’ve made, walking in a winter wonderland.
Frosty the Snowman

Frosty the snowman was a jolly happy soul, with a corncob pipe and a button nose and two eyes made out of coal.

Frosty the snowman is a fairy tale they say, He was made out of snow but the children know how he came to life one day.

There must have been some magic in that old silk hat they found. For when they placed it on his head, he began to dance around.

Oh, Frosty the snowman was alive as he could be, and the children say he could laugh and play just the same as you and me, just the same as you and me.

White Christmas

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas, just like the ones I used to know, where the treetops glisten, and children listen to hear sleigh bells in the snow.

Rudolph the Red-Nose Reindeer

Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer had a very shiny nose, and if you ever saw it, you would even say it glows.

All of the other reindeer used to laugh and call him names. They never let poor Rudolph join in any reindeer games.

Then one foggy Christmas Eve, Santa came to say: "Rudolph with your nose so bright, won't you guide my sleigh tonight?"

Then all the reindeer loved him and they shouted out with glee: "Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer, you'll go down in history!"
