Gentry Barolet is a senior at Lynn University. He began playing the trombone when he was in sixth grade at the age of twelve. As a student at Colonial High School, Barolet competed in various solo and ensemble competitions and won several superior ratings. At the beginning of his senior year in high school, Barolet began studying privately with Joey Vascik who was at the time the second trombone player of the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra. Gentry became a student under Jeff Thomas when he began at Lynn University pursuing his Bachelor’s degree in Music Performance. Starting his sophomore year, Barolet began studying under Dan Satterwhite and has remained his student for the past three years.

Yunyue Liu, pianist, was born in Shanghai, China in 1984. Yunyue started studying piano at the age of five. She studied as an undergraduate student at Shanghai Normal University in 2003 with Professor Shijie Ge and earned her Bachelor of Music Education in 2007. As a delegate of Shanghai Normal University, she was invited to perform in the Shanghai Spring International Music Festival in 2004, and an exchange performance in 2005 in Hong Kong. She obtained a scholarship during the four years of her bachelor degree and was granted the Advanced Certificate in YAMAHA Fundamentals Grade 5 in 2007. She was the only person who passed the grade on that year of Shanghai Normal University. Presently, Yunyue is a Professional Performance Certificate student at Lynn University Conservatory, studying collaborative piano with Professor Tao Lin.

Suvida Neramit-aram was born in January 30, 1988 in Bangkok, Thailand. She started her first piano lesson and all the fundamental music theories when she was 6 years old with Mrs. Shenny Pung. Later, when she was 15, she studied with Prof. Nat Yontararak, only one Thai Steinway artist. In August 2006, Suvida became an advance pupil of Dr. Noppanand Chanorathaikul, one of Thailand’s foremost pianists and wonderful piano teachers. Suvida participated in many masterclasses conducted by well-known artists; Dominique Merlet, Peter Frankl, Prof. Margit Haider, Paulo Zereu, Uberto Martinelli and Prof. Andreas Werz. Suvida regularly performs both piano concerts and chamber music as well as accompanies singers and chorus. Now she is studying in undergraduate at Lynn University with Dr. Roberta Rust.
