Joe Goering was born in Waterloo, Iowa in 1985. When he was a young boy, he frequently attended classical music concerts and was an avid listener. At the age of six, he began his studies of music on the piano. Two years later, he switched to cello and instantly fell in love with the tone of the instrument. When he was fifteen, he performed the Saint-Saens Cello Concerto with the Kansas City Symphony. He attended Encore School for strings and Meadowmount Music Camp. His teachers include Hans Jorgen Jensen, Stephen Geber, Eran Meir, Martin Storey, Orlando Cole, and Metta Watts. He now attends the Lynn University Conservatory of Music and studies with David Cole.

Ni Peng has given concerts and recitals on a number of occasions in Guangzhou, China. She has been awarded top prize in Xing Hai Piano Competition in China. She has also participated in some Master classes working with other Russian and American pianists. Ni Peng completed her junior and high school studies at the top conservatory in Guangzhou, Xing Hai Conservatory, studying under Dr. XiaoBei Zhu. She gave concert upon graduation with the highest score of the entire graduating class, and was subsequently admitted to Shanghai Conservatory, one of the most prestigious conservatories in China, from which she obtained bachelor degree of piano performance. Her piano instructors include prominent players like Mei Li, GaoDe Dai, Professor Chen Jiang and Hong Huang. Ms. Ni Peng is currently completing a Master Degree of Collaborative Piano in Lynn University with full scholarship.
