

LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

SEASON

When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.

PROGRAM

---

Dr. Jon Robertson,
Dean

Welcome to the 2005-2006 season. This being my first year as dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity. This community engagement is in keeping with the Conservatory of Music's mission: to provide high-quality professional performance education for gifted young musicians and set a superior standard for music performance worldwide.

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can be designated for scholarships, various studios, special concerts or to the General Conservatory Fund.

ADOPT-A-STUDENT

You may select from the conservatory's promising young musicians and provide for his or her future through the Conservatory Scholarship Fund. You will enjoy the concert even more when your student performs. A gift of $25,000 adopts a student for one year. A gift of $100,000 pays for an education.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate or cash.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY

As a member of the Friends of the Conservatory, you will be involved in an organization that seeks to address the needs of the students and the conservatory as a whole. This organization has just completed its first year and now includes more than 100 members providing major scholarship assistance to the students.

VOLUNTEERING

Become a volunteer. Contact the ticket office manager at 561-237-9000 for more information.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, you may call the development office at 561-237-7766, or visit the university's Web site at www.lynn.edu.

ILIE CURTEANU

Ilie Curteanu was born in 1983 in Romania to a musical family and began playing the cello at age 8. Throughout high school and college he has attended masterclasses with world renowned cellists such as Alexandru Morosanu(Romania), Wolfgang Hertzner(Austria),Dimitrie Motatu(Spain),Laszlo Varga (Hungary-America)Yehuda Hanani(America).

Ilie won several international and national competitions such as: "Citta di Pietra Ligure" in 1999(1 prize Absolute and Special prize) and 2000, National Olympiads(1997,1998,2001), Bacau National Competition (2001),Garabet Avachian National Competition(2001)and many others. He had many recitals, concerts and live radio broadcasts, such as the Romanian Radio Broadcasting Hall "Mihail Jora" and National Television. He has performed as a soloist in the year 2001 with the "Bacau Symphony Orchestra" and "Galati Symphony Orchestra"

As a very promising young cellist, Ilie was awarded a scholarship at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in 2002 where he is currently completing his Bachelors Degree.

At Lynn University he studied with Johanne Perron(2002-2005) and is currently studying with renowned professor David Cole.

During 2003-2006, Ilie has performed as a soloist and chamber musician in South Florida and as an orchestral musician with major orchestras such as the South West Florida Symphony and the Symphony of the Americas.
