LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

2005
2006
SEASON

When talent meets inspiration,
the results are extraordinary.
Welcome to the 2005-2006 season. This being my first year as dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity. This community engagement is in keeping with the Conservatory of Music’s mission: to provide high-quality professional performance education for gifted young musicians and set a superior standard for music performance worldwide.

THE ANNUAL FUND
A gift to the Annual Fund can be designated for scholarships, various studios, special concerts or to the General Conservatory Fund.

ADOPT-A-STUDENT
You may select from the conservatory’s promising young musicians and provide for his or her future through the Conservatory Scholarship Fund. You will enjoy the concert even more when your student performs. A gift of $25,000 adopts a student for one year. A gift of $100,000 pays for an education.

ESTATE GIFT
An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate or cash.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY
As a member of the Friends of the Conservatory, you will be involved in an organization that seeks to address the needs of the students and the conservatory as a whole. This organization has just completed its first year and now includes more than 100 members providing major scholarship assistance to the students.

VOLUNTEERING
Become a volunteer. Contact the ticket office manager at 561-237-9000 for more information.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, you may call the development office at 561-237-7766, or visit the university’s Web site at www.lynn.edu.

Valentin Mansurov started his violin studies as the age of seven at Uspensky School for Musically Gifted Children in his native Uzbekistan. Upon graduation, he was accepted at Bilkent University in Turkey, where he completed two years towards a Bachelor Degree in Music Performance. In 2000, Valentin transferred to the National Conservatory for Music in Toulouse, France, where he enrolled in a program of Advanced Violin Studies. He continued his studies at Victoria Conservatory of Music in Canada, where he completed a violin teacher’s training program and received an award for Excellence in Performance at the annual Greater Victoria Festival. In 2002, Valentin enrolled on a full scholarship at Mount Royal College in Calgary, Canada, pursuing a Professional Studies Program.

Winner of First Prize at the 14th National String Competition, held among the most prestigious musical institutions in the former USSR, Valentin Mansurov has appeared in solo and orchestral concerts in numerous countries, including Spain, Germany, France, Greece, Canada, U.S. and Turkey. He had the honor to perform for visiting dignitaries, such as Barbara Bush and Canadian Prime Minister Jean Chretien.

March 2004, Valentin Mansurov participated in Prof. Sergiu Schwartz’s master class at Mount Royal College in Calgary and decided to transfer to his violin studio at Lynn University Conservatory of Music, where he is presently a senior pursuing a Bachelor of Music Degree in Violin Performance.
