LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

2005

2006

SEASON

When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.
Dr. Jon Robertson, Dean

Welcome to the 2005-2006 season. This being my first year as dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity. This community engagement is in keeping with the Conservatory of Music's mission: to provide high-quality professional performance education for gifted young musicians and set a superior standard for music performance worldwide.

THE ANNUAL FUND
A gift to the Annual Fund can be designated for scholarships, various studios, special concerts or to the General Conservatory Fund.

ADOPT-A-STUDENT
You may select from the conservatory's promising young musicians and provide for his or her future through the Conservatory Scholarship Fund. You will enjoy the concert even more when your student performs. A gift of $25,000 adopts a student for one year. A gift of $100,000 pays for an education.

ESTATE GIFT
An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate or cash.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY
As a member of the Friends of the Conservatory, you will be involved in an organization that seeks to address the needs of the students and the conservatory as a whole. This organization has just completed its first year and now includes more than 100 members providing major scholarship assistance to the students.

VOLUNTEERING
Become a volunteer. Contact the ticket office manager at 561-237-9000 for more information.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, you may call the development office at 561-237-7766, or visit the university's Web site at www.lynn.edu.

CONG

Born in China, Cong Qin started learning the flute at the age of 12. Later, he came to United States in order to continue his studies in flute performance. He attended the Master Works Music Festival in South Bend, Indiana as a fellowship recipient. During that time he studied with Pam Holland Adams, a member of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra. He also attended a Richard Soule's master class and played Paganini's 24th caprice for him. Most recently, he played the Bach's E minor sonata at Paula Robinson's master class. Currently, he is a senior student of Christina Burr at Lynn University.
