Xiaoxiao Wang

Xiaoxiao Wang, a native of China, started playing piano at the tender age of five, studying under Kaihua Jin. She then continued her studies at the prestigious Tianjin Conservatory of Music and Art, at both the primary and secondary level until 2016, studying with Wanqi Feng and Alexey Sokolov, respectively.

Some of her most notable achievements include receiving the Gold Prize at the Fifth Annual Russian International Classical Festival, 1st place at the Beijing Hope Piano Competition, 1st place in the Taiwan Victory Piano Competition, and 1st place at the Poland International Piano Competition.

Wang has graced audiences both locally and internationally. She was a soloist recipient three times at the Perugia Summer Festival in Italy, performing with the festival orchestra. Wang was also a featured guest artist participating in the Child Aid Concert in Singapore. Wang shows artistic versatility also as an accomplished harpist. Having begun learning the harp in middle school, she performed both piano and harp with the China Europe Youth Orchestra (CEYO) in France at age 15.

Wang is currently enrolled in a Master of Music degree program with full scholarship majoring in Piano Performance under the tutelage of Dr. Roberta Rust at the Lynn Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida.

Lynn University's Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer organization that supports high-quality music education through fundraising and community outreach. Raising more than $4 million since 2003, the Friends support Lynn's effort to provide free tuition scholarships and room and board to all Conservatory of Music students. The group also raises money for the Dean's Discretionary Fund, which supports the immediate needs of the university's music performance students. This is accomplished through annual gifts and special events, such as outreach concerts and the annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert.
