

LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Lynn University Conservatory of Music attracts some of the world's most talented young musicians. Here, these student-artists, who hail from more than a dozen countries, pursue their degrees in instrumental performance, preparing to join the world's leading symphony orchestras and most prestigious graduate music programs.

To build upon our excellence, we need your help. You may support the Conservatory of Music by contributing to scholarships, the development of new programs or other student needs. You may assist the conservatory the following ways:

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can be designated for scholarships, various studios, special concerts or to the General Conservatory Fund.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate or cash.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY

As a member of the Friends of the Conservatory, you will be involved in an organization that seeks to address the needs of the students and the conservatory as a whole. This organization has just completed its first year and now includes more than 100 members providing major scholarship assistance to the students.

VOLUNTEERING

Become a volunteer. Contact the Ticket Office Manager at 561-237-9000 for more information.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, you may call the development office at 561-237-7766, or visit the university's Web site at www.lynn.edu.

VALENTIN MANSUROV, violin

Valentin Mansurov started his violin studies as the age of seven at Uspensky School for Musically Gifted Children in his native Uzbekistan. Upon graduation, he was accepted at Bilkent University in Turkey, where he completed two years towards a Bachelor Degree in Music Performance. In 2000, Valentin transferred to the National Conservatory for Music in Toulouse, France, where he enrolled in a program of Advanced Violin Studies. He continued his studies at Victoria Conservatory of Music in Canada, where he completed a violin teacher's training program and received an award for Excellence in Performance at the annual Greater Victoria Festival. In 2002, Valentin enrolled on a full scholarship at Mount Royal College in Calgary, Canada, pursuing a Professional Studies Program.

Winner of First Prize at the 14th National String Competition, held among the most prestigious musical institutions in the former USSR, Valentin Mansurov has appeared in solo and orchestral concerts in numerous countries, including Spain, Germany, France, Greece, Canada, U.S. and Turkey. He had the honor to perform for visiting dignitaries, such as Barbara Bush and Canadian Prime Minister Jean Chretien.

September 2004, Valentin Mansurov transferred as a junior student at Lynn University Conservatory of Music, where he studies with Professor Sergiu Schwartz and is pursuing a Bachelor of Music Degree in Violin Performance.
