Joël Vaïsse

Joël Vaïsse is well known to orchestras and audiences as one of the leading trombone players of our time. Principal Trombone of The Florida Orchestra under Michael Francis since November 2017, Joël Vaïsse was previously Principal Trombone of all the major French orchestras (Orchestre National de France from April 1999 to July 2014; Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio France and Orchestre de Paris from 1997 to 1999, becoming the first musician ever to hold two principal positions simultaneously, Orchestre National de Lyon from 1991-1997 and Orchestre National du Capitole de Toulouse from 1990-1991). As a soloist, he performed the French premiere of the Double Concerto for Trumpet and Trombone by Siegfried Matthus with the Orchestre National de France under Kurt Masur’s direction, which was originally commissioned by the New York Philharmonic, as well as the French premiere of the “Symphony for Trombone” by Ernst Bloch which was recorded live and was subsequently released on CD. He appeared with the Atlantic Chamber Orchestra at the Santander International Festival, the Orchestre National de Lyon, the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande, the I Solisti Veniti and recently world premiered “Pinocchio’s Nose” by Thierry Lancino with the Orchestra of the Opera of Marseille, which was specially commissioned for him. Joël Vaïsse released his first solo album Tranquille on the DistriClassic label, which includes works by Ernst Bloch, Enrique Crespo, Nils Landgren and Thierry Caens. He is a Buffet Group USA Artist, performing on a Antoine Courtois trombone.
Welcome to the 2019-2020 season which marks the 20th Anniversary of the Lynn Conservatory of Music. As we celebrate our twenty years of making music we also celebrate the generosity of Elaine J. Wold who has challenged us to raise $500,000 in new endowment donations this year. She will match all your gifts up to $500,000. This gift ensures our place among the premier conservatories of the world and a staple of our community. We look forward to seeing you at many of the anniversary concerts and events planned for this year as the talent students, successful alumni and extraordinary faculty of the Lynn Conservatory share with you the beautiful world of music. – Jon Robertson, dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

Friends of the Conservatory of Music
Lynn University’s Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer organization that supports high-quality music education through fundraising and community outreach. Raising more than $4 million since 2003, the Friends support Lynn’s effort to provide free tuition scholarships and room and board to all Conservatory of Music students. The group also raises money for the Dean’s Discretionary Fund, which supports the immediate needs of the university’s music performance students. This is accomplished through annual gifts and special events, such as outreach concerts and the annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert.

To learn more about joining the Friends and its many benefits, such as complimentary concert admission, visit Give.lynn.edu/support-music.

The Leadership Society of Lynn University
The Leadership Society is the premier annual giving society for donors who are committed to ensuring a standard of excellence at Lynn for all students. Leadership Society donors make an annual gift of $2,500 or more and have the option of directing their gift to support the Conservatory of Music. Leadership Society donors receive invitations to exclusive events throughout the year that offer opportunities to engage with other Leadership Society donors and university administrators.

Planned Giving
Planned gifts provide important support for the future of Lynn University, its colleges and programs. Your legacy lives on at Lynn University in perpetuity - various options include, but are not limited to, bequests by will, charitable gift annuities and life insurance.

Your contribution to the Conservatory is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. For additional information, please contact Lisa Miller at 561-237-7745.
