Biography

Sylvia Kim, violin

Recent winner of the 2004 Michael & Madelyn Savarick Music Scholarship Competition for the Centre for the Arts at Mizner Park, Gold Medalist and First Prize winner at the 2003 Henryk Szeryng International Violin Competition in Mexico and special jury prizewinner at the 2001 Sarasate International Violin Competition in Spain, violinist Sylvia Kim has been a steady winner in local, national and international competitions since age 11, when she received a special award in the National Arts and Letters Violin Competition. Sylvia's other top prizes include Florida Federation of Music Clubs, Florida State Music Teachers' Association, National Music Teachers' Association, Blount Young Artist Concerto Competition, (Montgomery, AL), Bach Festival Young Artist Competition, Walenstein Violin Competition, Harid String Competition for Young Musicians, Strad Violin Competition, and Mizner Arts Foundation Competition.

Sylvia Kim appeared as soloist with the Florida Philharmonic at South Florida's major centers for the performing arts, including Broward (Ft. Lauderdale), Kravis (West Palm Beach) and Dade County Auditorium (Miami), as a winner of the orchestra's 2002 Beethoven Concerto Competition. She also performed as soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra of Mexico, Montgomery Symphony, Sunrise Symphonic Pops, North Miami Beach Symphony Orchestra, Luzerne Festival String Orchestra, Harid Philharmonia, and Lynn University Philharmonia, as a winner of the Conservatory Concerto Competition. In May 2004, Sylvia will return to Mexico for a series of performances with the Brahms Violin Concerto, as a soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra of Mexico.

Sylvia regularly participates at music festivals in the United States and abroad. In 1989, she was awarded a full scholarship at the Tanglewood Institute, where she served as concertmaster under violinist-conductor Joseph Silverstein. She has also participated in the String Orchestra Seminar at Carnegie Hall, Luzerne Music Festival, Indiana String Academy, and the Soesterberg Festival in the Netherlands. She has performed in recitals and chamber music concerts throughout South Florida and appeared on WXEL TV and radio broadcasts.

A student of artist faculty Sergiu Schwartz since 1997, Sylvia is currently a junior at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music.
