Biography

Danut Muresan, violin

Romanian violinist Danut Muresan started playing the violin at the age of four and completed his music high school studies, in Timisoara, his native city, with Hans Fernbach, concertmaster and director of the Banatul Philharmonic Orchestra. Danut has competed in five international and six national violin competitions, where he received top prizes. His most important competitions are Kocian International Violin Competition, Czech Republic, 1991 (3rd prize); Stresa, Italy, 1994 (1st prize); San Bartholomeo, Italy, 1995 (1st prize); Brasov, Romania, 1992 (2nd prize) and 1995 (3rd prize). More recently, Danut has been a winner in the 2003 and 2004 Michael & Madelyn Savarick Music Scholarship Competition for the Centre for the Arts at Mizner Park.

His activities as a soloist include concerts with Banatul Philharmonic Orchestra and recitals in Germany, France and Romania. He was a member of the International Youth Orchestra Elbe Weser in Germany and has been an active member of the South West Florida Symphony Orchestra and the Symphony of the Americas since 2000. He is also a former member of the Miami Symphony. As a winner of the Conservatory 2002 Concerto Competition, Danut appeared as soloist with the Lynn University Philharmonia.

Danut Muresan recorded for the Romanian National Radio and TV. He participated in masterclasses with distinguished artists, such as Petru Munteanu, Laszlo Kis, Paul Florin, Stefan Gheorghiu, and Sergiu Schwartz.. Danut is currently completing his Bachelor of Music degree in Violin Performance as a student of artist faculty Sergiu Schwartz.
