Lee Nicole Berger, oboe

Lee was born and raised in Florida and was inspired to become a musician with the encouragement of her family, whom were all dedicated musicians at one time. Lee has been playing the oboe for a total of 8 years but learned music while she was involved in a chorus when she was merely 4 years old. Lee has participated in such prestigious ensembles as the Florida Bandmasters Association All-State Symphonic Band, the Broward All-County Band (both on oboe and English horn), the University of South Florida Festival of Winds, the University of Miami South Florida Honors Band, and the Florida State University Honors Chamber Winds. She has also performed under such conductors as Frederick Fennel, James Judd, and Joe Kreines and has participated in numerous orchestras and chamber ensembles including the Young Artists Chamber Orchestra, the Ares Flores Chamber Orchestra, the Century Village Orchestra, the Florida Youth Orchestra, and the Broward Symphony Orchestra.

Lee auditioned for admission at various colleges including the Curtis Institute of Music, the Julliard School, and the Eastman School of Music. She is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Music degree at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, where she hopes to continue her music education for years to come.
