Yingpeng Wang was born in Urumqi, Xinjiang, China, in January 1997. He started to play the piano at the age of 8. In 2013, he joined Interlochen Arts Academy (IAA) as a sophomore piano performance student and studied with Dr. T.J Lymenstull. At the year 2016, he received a full scholarship to begin his study in the Bachelor of Music Piano Performance degree program with Dr. Roberta Rust at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida, USA.

Yingpeng has recently won the silver award at Asia international Arts Competition 2018, which takes place at St. Petersburg, Russia, and had a chance to perform Ravel d minor piano concerto for the left hand with St. Petersburg Philharmonic Orchestra. He was also placed as the second prize at the 3rd Lanzhou international piano festival in China (2017).

Yingpeng has worked with many distinguished teachers, such as Thomas Lymenstull, Nelita True, Robert Rust, Daniel Shapiro, Peter Takács, Jerome Lowenthal, Stanislav Loudenitch, William Grant Naboré, Bruce Brubaker, Pavlina Dokovska.

Welcome to the 2019-2020 season which marks the 20th Anniversary of the Lynn Conservatory of Music. As we celebrate our twenty years of making music we also celebrate the generosity of Elaine J. Wold who has challenged us to raise $500,000 in new endowment donations this year. She will match all your gifts up to $500,000. This gift ensures our place among the premier conservatories of the world and a staple of our community. We look forward to seeing you at many of the anniversary concerts and events planned for this year as the talent students, successful alumni and extraordinary faculty of the Lynn Conservatory share with you the beautiful world of music. – Jon Robertson, dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

Friends of the Conservatory of Music

Lynn University's Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer organization that supports high-quality music education through fundraising and community outreach. Raising more than $4 million since 2003, the Friends support Lynn's effort to provide free tuition scholarships and room and board to all Conservatory of Music students. The group also raises money for the Dean's Discretionary Fund, which supports the immediate needs of the university's music performance students. This is accomplished through annual gifts and special events, such as outreach concerts and the annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert.

To learn more about joining the Friends and its many benefits, such as complimentary concert admission, visit Give.lynn.edu/support-music.

The Leadership Society of Lynn University

The Leadership Society is the premier annual giving society for donors who are committed to ensuring a standard of excellence at Lynn for all students. Leadership Society donors make an annual gift of $2,500 or more and have the option of directing their gift to support the Conservatory of Music. Leadership Society donors receive invitations to exclusive events throughout the year that offer opportunities to engage with other Leadership Society donors and university administrators.

Planned Giving

Planned gifts provide important support for the future of Lynn University, its colleges and programs. Your legacy lives on at Lynn University in perpetuity - various options include, but are not limited to, bequests by will, charitable gift annuities and life insurance.

Your contribution to the Conservatory is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. For additional information, please contact Lisa Miller at 561-237-7745.
