

New ways to educate? Pre-service teachers' insights to social impact curriculum

Kelly A. Burlison, Ed.D.

Brittany E. Kiser, Ed.D.

Ross College of Education

Lynn University

On your sticky note...

- Who are you?
- What do you know about social impact?
- Why did you choose this session?

What's your social impact?

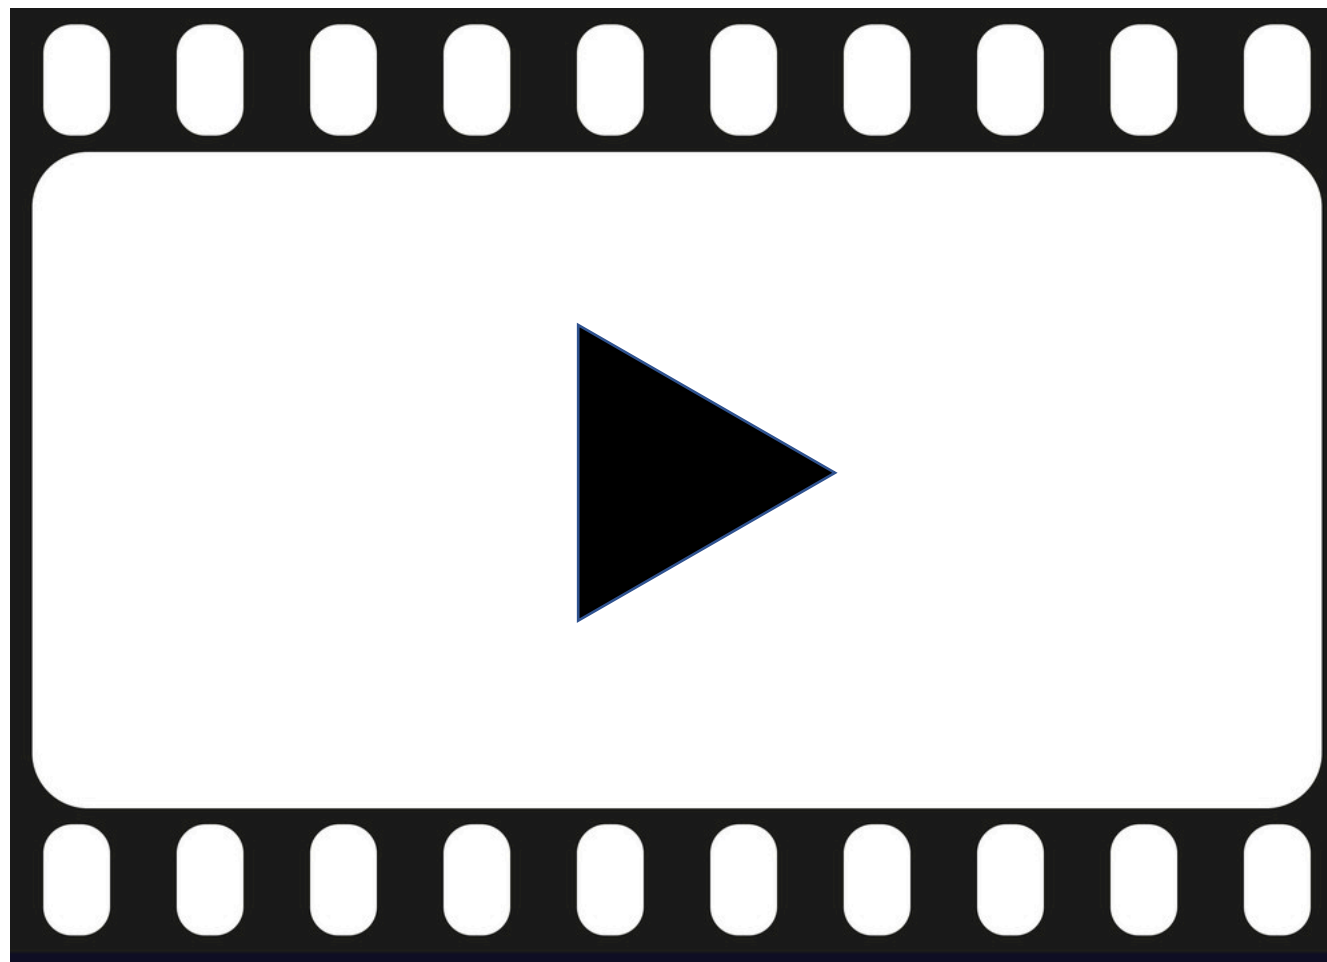

SCAN ME

Social Impact at Lynn U

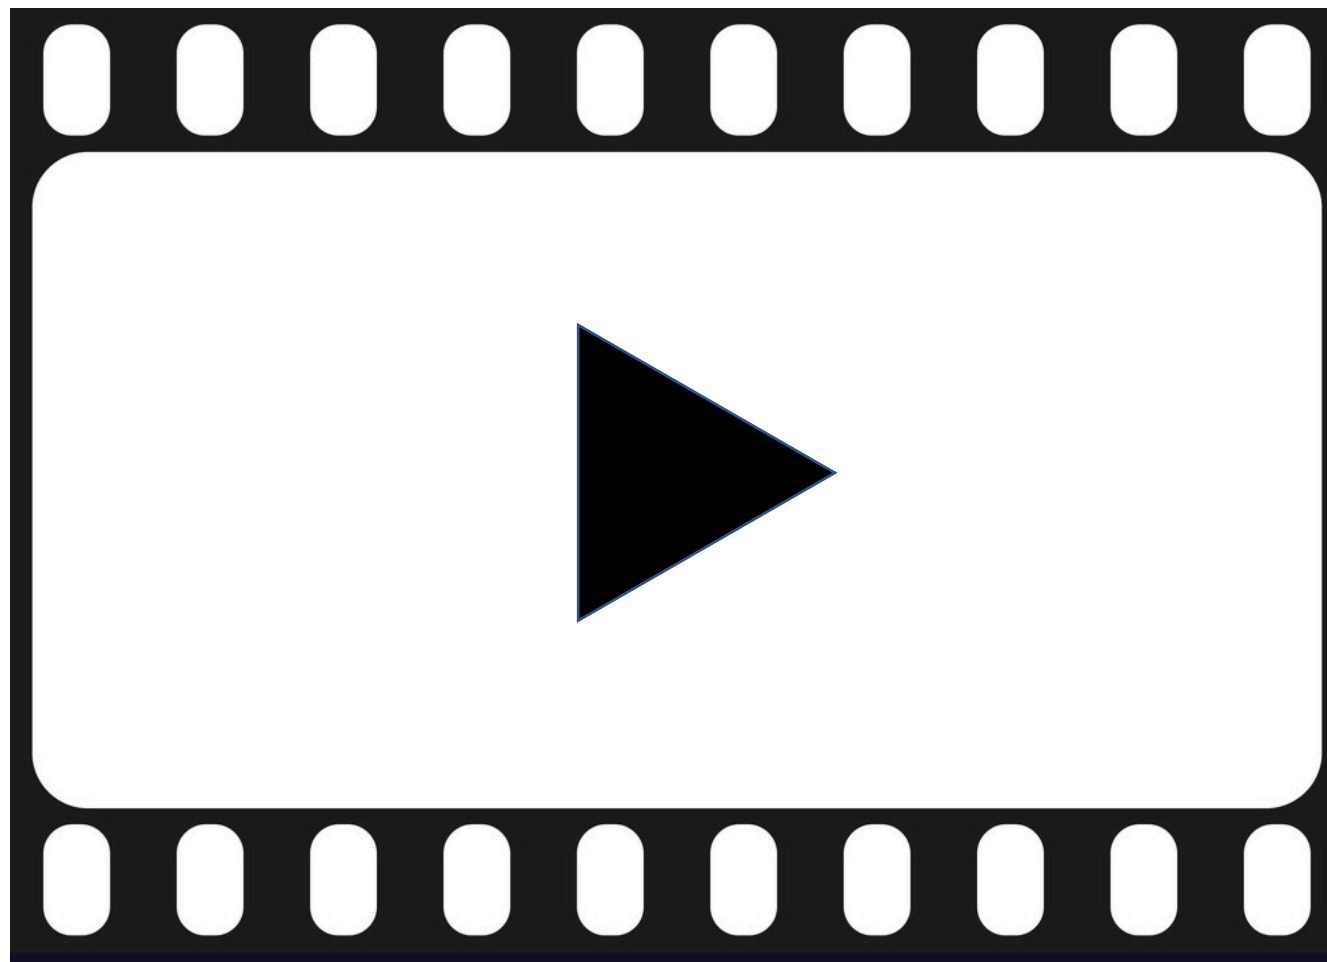

- <https://www.lynn.edu/academics/individualized-learning/social-impact-lab>
- Social Impact Lab
- Social Impact Task Force
- Minor in Social Entrepreneurship
- Ambassador Corps
- Student Impact Leadership Organization (SILO)
- Watson Lab
- UN Millennium Changemakers

How can we help pre-service teachers to be aware of social issues within their classrooms?

What made this social impact project powerful?

How can you implement social impact in your curriculum?

New ways to educate

- View social impact as action research
- Student-driven, professor facilitated
- Brainstorm social issues in your workplace
- Classify these into broad topics
- Develop a social impact PLC
- Create a mission statement
- Evolve with iterations of the plan

Thank you for coming!

Kelly A. Burlison, Ed.D.

kburlison@lynn.edu

Brittany E. Kiser, Ed.D.

bkiser@lynn.edu @piratescience

Ross College of Education

Lynn University

Boca Raton, Florida