Dear Parents

by Vicki Baker

Your daughters welcome you to Marymount; the number one Southern, Ivy-League, big name, top ten college of Boca Raton. Even though our college is only three years old, we are already known throughout Florida for our alligators, pink buildings and a swimming pool that will be ready...well, one of these days. Soon, a growing community is expected to spring up on the 50 desolate, alligator filled, miles around us. Our pet name, Marymount of the Swamps, will not last much longer.

We know that for most of you, your stay will be a short one, but we intend to make it a busy one. We have been planning for weeks and weeks. We've even refrained from doing homework, we've cut our classes, even gone as far as to give up our sun bathing time to plan this fun filled weekend. So we hope you'll find it worth while.

For those of you who have never visited Marymount, a FREE tour will be arranged, which will include all four buildings and three ponds. Next, your daughter will introduce you to her teachers, who have given their word that they will say only what you want to hear. Hope you appreciate the sweet encouraging words they have memorized for the occasion. Other events in the agenda include: Registration, a Choral Presentation of some old and new favorites, a Social Hour, a Dinner Dance and a Mass and breakfast to bring the weekend to a close.

In short, every opportunity will be provided to allow your daughter to show some of her hidden talents. The results could be chaotic, although we have a hunch they will not be so. Because after all, what parent could help but agree with Maurice Chevalier when he croons: "Thank Heaven, for Little Girls!"
Honors Awarded at Convocation

The Honors Convocation for the first semester of the 1965-1966 school year was held on Monday evening, February 14, 1966. The entire faculty and student body gathered to pay tribute to those who made outstanding scholastic achievements.

Rabbi Isaac Neuman, one of the outstanding speakers of our recent Peace Conference, was the guest speaker. Rabbi Neuman pointed out that no matter how dreary life may look at times, there is always someone who cares. His talk was an extended compliment to womanhood, especially when he referred to woman as the realization of all the beauty in God's creation.

Rabbi Neuman ended in an imploring note to each student, individually, that no matter how dreary life may look at times, there is always someone who cares. Solders Remembered on Valentine's Day

Over 200 Marymount students packed Valentine cards and home-baked cookies into 340 coffee cans Wednesday, January 26. Destination: Our forces fighting in South Vietnam. The cookie wrapping party that night climaxed a week of feverish activity: contacting local merchants and residents for coffee cans, wrapping paper, and cookie dough; frantic baking sessions in Marymount kitchens Monday and Tuesday nights; and arranging for the sale of Valentine cards.

The "Valentines For Vietnam" project was initially the idea of Mrs. Dennis Carrigan. Mr. Carrigan, of Marymount's English Department, became faculty moderator of the project, working closely with Mr. John Hussey and the student moderator, Michelle Stevens.

The moderators hope that similar projects can be initiated in the future, and express their deepest gratitude to everyone at Marymount and in the Boca Raton community who supported the project.

Marymount Receives Aid

Marymount College will receive $1,2 million under the Federal government's college housing loan program for construction of a new dormitory. The projected two-story dormitory will house 205 girls, about 68% of those now living on campus. The new dormitory will put Marymount at least three years ahead in enrollment growth. The building is expected to be ready by September of 1967.

New Chaplain at Marymount

Have you noticed a new face on the campus lately? It is that of Father Jack L. Totty.

Father's activities have been quite varied since his arrival in America in 1932. Father hails from Florida. He now is a member of Bishop Carroll's Parish, a Sophomore, nominee of CCD, won by a substantial majority. Mary Alice Reynolds was second.

L'Azur wishes to congratulate all the nominees, and particularly Miss Van Hillo. Good luck in the Nationals, Dee.

Dee Van Hillo Chosen Best Dressed

Glamour Magazine: "Who's the best dressed girl at Marymount?"

L'Azur: "Wait a minute and we'll tell you.--Diana "Dee" Van Hillo!"

From the winners, one club and organization was asked to submit a nominee. On February 8, each of these candidates modeled her choice of campus outfit, off-campus outfit, and a party dress.

After this Fashion Show, the entire student body cast their ballots. Miss Van Hillo, a Sophomore, was asked to submit a nominee of CCD, won by a substantial majority. Mary Alice Reynolds was second. L'Azur wishes to congratulate all the nominees, and particularly Miss Van Hillo. Good luck in the Nationals, Dee.
