The average Capricorn is coldly determined, seeking any and every opportunity to advance or improve himself, constantly endeavoring to further his secret ambitions. He doesn't want the glory of high position, he wants the respect and authority. And to satisfy his desires he is willing to discipline himself sternly and deny himself much.

The Capricorn women is determined to snatch the right man, who can become important, make her feel proud and be a good father to her children. She has a sense of social grace and her appearance is conservative and conventional. She finds it hard to relax in romantic situations.

The Aquarius are kindly and tranquil people by nature, but enjoy defying public opinion and delight in shocking the more conventional with erratic conduct. They are natural rebels; tradition and authority leave the Aquarian unimpressed. His philosophy is that everyone has his own thing. His main pastime is finding out what the other things are. He likes to be self-sufficient and independent.

The Aquarian belongs to mankind, he represents its truest hopes and its deepest ideals.

PISCES
February 20 March 20

Pisces is the sign of death and eternity. Life is a stage-scene, elusive and fleeting, like an intangible liquid essence flowing around the Pisces. The Fish are creative, artistic, leisurely, and esoteric.

They judge none, they pity and desire to help all those who are sick and weak. They usually serve mankind in some way. They are free from greed and limited and indifferent to restrictions and insults.

The unique quality, which only the Pisces possess, is the ability to stand outside himself and see the oneness, the eternity of yesterday, today and tomorrow flowing together in one continuous stream of life.
Service with a smile.
The Ram must lead in love and life. They love glory, fame, and praise. They are optimists incapable of accepting defeat, pioneer spirits fearlessly leading others onward to an impossible goal. They are idealists yet realists as well.

Even though they may occasionally be intolerant, thoughtless and selfishly demanding, Rams are very often warm and lavishly generous. That tough, forceful behavior accompanies a sentimental, wistfully innocent spirit.

Rams are fantastic lovers, able to squeeze all the tingles, sighs, ecstasies, and poetry out of a relationship. But they seek a storybook romance, for one true and lasting love.
"Mind unemployed is mind unenjoyed"
The Bull is a creature of the earth: strong, silent. He moves deliberately, speaks sparingly. He is solid, steady, allowing nothing to disturb his tranquility. His greatest desire is to be left alone.

The Tauras woman is cool, calm, and candid. She is basically an honest, solid practical thinker. She loves beauty and harmony. It is this which allows her to take people as they are.

The Tauras man is quiet, practical, sensible, down-to-earth. He is deliberate, careful, loyal, devoted, peaceful, and easy-going. He works hard and needs much rest.

The Gemini likes people, and people like him. He has exquisite taste and is very adept socially. Their spirits are restless, unpredictable.

A Gemini woman finds it hard to commit herself to one person for a time, because she sees the faults, the lacks in an individual at the same time she perceives his good qualities.

The Gemini man must experience a total blending of the mind and spirit before his passions can catch up.

Gemini seek an ideal, but their chief problem is recognizing what it is.

One can always detect a Cancer by his crazy laugh. Humor runs deep in the Cancer character. His quiet, gentle, modest personality secretly enjoys attention and has a good sense of publicity.

Cancer women are a little mad, slightly sad and superbly imaginative. For loyalty, faithfulness, love, sensible advice, and rich humor, none can surpass the Cancer woman in excellence.

The Cancer men are devotees of things of the past. They cherish antiques, sentimental souvenirs, their national heritage.

That's the right attitude.

That's the right attitude.
The Lion is a born leader, very fierce, very free with both praise and censure. He has a very strong urge to show off; that is why he loves parties. He loves power and applause, but especially the applause.

Leo is a pillar of strength and responsibility in times of crises, for he matures quickly at those moments. He realizes his capabilities, his abilities, and he also feels a sort of responsibility.

Leo, then, is a fiercely loyal friend, a powerful, but just enemy, a creative, original, strong and vital individual. He is often arrogant, egotistical, ridiculously vain and lazy at times. But he is lovable, warm and good at heart.
It's a nice place to visit.
"It's what up front that counts."
"Does anybody REALY know what time it is?"
Virgoans are quiet, gentle, sensitive people, loners uncomfortable in crowds. The virgoan is a perfectionist, and worry comes naturally to him. He is critical, and just as critical of himself as others.

The Virgo woman is basically shy, but determined to pursue happiness wherever it may lead her. She dislikes hypocrisy, poor grammar and cursing.

The Virgo man thinks on a practical level. His love is more of devotion than love, and he is difficult to stir emotionally. He is possessive, but not jealous.
I give up.

What is it???
Librans are extremely intelligent, but invariably naive and gullible. Their pleasant faces indicate their kindness, fairness, gentleness and general good nature. Their sense of fairness makes them good mediators. They dislike impatience and impulsiveness.

The Libran woman has amazing powers of analysis, is highly intelligent, and loves an argument. She is very sentimental.

The Libran man is rationalizing, logical and reasonable. He hates confusion; he's neat and orderly.

Librans like books and love harmony. They have the ability to concentrate and ponder on deep subjects.

Let's talk it over.
The Scorpion probes the nature and motives of others yet is a master of his own personality, practicing a blank expression, attempting to keep his reaction to a minimum.

The Scorpion is a cold blooded, total ego. He knows what he wants, and he is fiercely possessive of what he believes to be his.

Scorpion women are magnetic, proud and totally confident. It is impossible for the Scorpion woman to be detached or casual about anything.

The Scorpion male is deeply interested in religion and is intensely curious about all phases of life and death. He is drawn by a desire to reform.

The Sagittarian is most remarkable for his tactlessness, his bluntness of speech, and his general obliviousness to it all. An idealist, he rebels against authority and stuffy society. An optimist, he refuses to accept the seriousness of life.

The Sagittarian woman is outspoken and never lies. She is independent and doesn't care about her apparent reputation because she is true to her own innate sense of honesty. Loyalty, trust, and affection are always present in her loves and friendships.

The Sagittarian man is idealistic, enthusiastic, curious. He is innocently exuberant and extremely lucky.

THE DAY IS DONE

A huge glass ball of fire
Disappears in the West.
All the day has gone to retire
To give us time to rest.
But where is it all going?

No more time to eat or play
The days go by so fast.
All the activities of the day
Are now all in the past.
But where has it all gone...
