DESTINY
Vol. II
COLLEGE OF
BOCA RATON
Boca Raton, Florida
A special hommage to Mr. G. William Smith.

The one Professor on our campus that refused to take anything less than everything a student had to give.

An uncompromising and dedicated person whose integrity showed in every endeavor he tackled.

We are losing one of the best, in every form of the word.

Hopefully, when we see you last, you will be heading for greener pastures.

Mr. Smith, THANK YOU, and continued success wherever you may go.
In tribute to Mr. J.P. Weldon who served here for seven years.

An instructor who made difficult courses enjoyable and yet still a challenge.

A person that knew the quality of a good laugh, whether it be at history, himself, or administrators.

Mr. Weldon, It is the entire student body's desire that you leave this institution with your humor intact and whatever lies before you may it be better than what you have encountered here.

Look back not in bitterness but in sadness for hopes unmet.

Good Luck and God Bless.

HALLOWEEN BALL

Take us to your leader.

Hi, I'm Carlton your door man.
On November 3, 1975 the College of Boca Raton's campus was honored by a visit from presidential aspirant, Ronald Reagan. Mr. Reagan, former governor of California, showed himself to be a gifted orator, expressing his political policies in both an interesting and pleasant manner. He, of course, proved to be a polished politician.

Do you know where you're going to;
Do you like the things in life that's showing you where are you going to.
Do you know.
Do you get what your hoping for
when you look behind you there's no open door's
What are you hoping for, do you know.
Once we were standing still in time, chasing the fantasies that filled our minds.
You knew how I loved you, but me spirit was free.
Laughing at the questions that you once asked of me.
Now looking back at all we pass we let so many dreams slip through our hands.
Why must we wait so long before we see.
How sad the answers to those questions can be.
Do you know.
How am I going to break the news to Bahama Mama?

This could be gross Todd, this could be gross.

"Destiny Brought Us Together"

Students flock our school
From all over the earth.
Some with brilliant learning tools.
Others dumb from birth.

Sometimes it makes me wonder
What made us all come here
Then I think it over and under
And I find their future they fear.

We all seek a worthy career
With a sufficient income.
Maybe that's what brought us here
A bright future for a tuition sum.

Well, it can't be just the Florida weather
It must be Destiny that brought us together.

Special thanks to: Craig Saunders who worked on every phase possible for the production of Destiny '76.
Mary Waller, the Business Manager who had an especially hard time with administrators.
Keith McGovran who wrote up the dedication
pages on time.
Laura Zarazsa who drew the cover of Destiny '76.
Maurice Boyle for taking great notes and the use of her camera, and being our secretary.
Kirk McKinney for being able to laugh through the whole thing and being able to make everyone else laugh along with her.
To Denise Welch, Mary Jane Cole, Suey Vanderbilt, Mary Volt, and everyone else who helped in anyway with any phase of Destiny '76.
Thank you all very much!
